SESSION OF 1949

REASONS FOR PARDONS GRANTED BY GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, January 4, 1949.

To the Honorable the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to present herewith the reasons for pardons and commutations granted from January 7, 1947, to date.

(Signed) JAMES H. DUFF.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of S. Edward Anderson, B-6846, No. 5992, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of S. Edward Anderson, convicted of breaking and entering, larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Crawford County on August 7, 1939 to be computed from July 18, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 8 months, expiring on March 18, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Arendash, B-4330, No. 4188, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John Arendash, convicted of robbery, attempting to escape prison in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on September 24, 1934 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is 36 years of age and with the exception of the conviction for which he seeks a pardon, he has had one other arrest as a suspicious person and was released upon the payment of a $10.00 fine.

Applicant seeks this pardon on the basis that he is deportable to Czechoslovakia from whence he came at a tender age of 3 months. He knows no one in that country, he is unable to speak the language and is unfamiliar with the customs. He has a wife and 3 children from whom he will be separated if he is deported, they would then become public charges.

Applicant is selfemployed at the present time and we feel that he should have an opportunity to stay here and support his family. Under these circumstances we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel J. Barnes, C-6372, No. 2812, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above applicant having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Samuel J. Barnes, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on August 29, 1930, be commuted from 20 years to 16 years, 5 months and 29 days, expiring on February 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release

from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Theodore Baron, D-1890, No. 5302, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Theodore Baron, convicted of rape, robbery in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Delaware County, on January 6, 1937 to be computed from November 7, 1936, be commuted on Bill No. 224 December Sessions, 1936, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 2 years, 9 months, and 10 days, expiring on March 17, 1947; and on Bill No. 223 from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on March 18, 1947. (Applicant granted parole on Bill No. 222).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-eight years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than seventeen and one-half nor more than thirty-five years on a charge of rape and robbery. The applicant has consistently denied any guilt in connection with rape. The district attorney of Delaware County states he believes that applicant was not involved in the rape charge.

At the present time applicant has served ten years and three months of his minimum sentence and under the circumstances we feel that he has served the minimum sentence of his robbery charge.

There is no opposition to commutation by the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and they have indicated applicant has an excellent prison record. The district attorney of Delaware County stated to the Board of Pardons he has no objection to the granting of commutation.

Since the district attorney admitted applicant was not involved in the rape charge, he has served more than the minimum sentence imposed on the charge of robbery, therefore, he should not be compelled to serve any portion of the rape sentence.

For the above reasons we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph P. Blanchard, 269-42, No. 57-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph P. Blanchard, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Berks County on February 10, 1944 to be computed from April 20, 1943, be commuted from 5 years to 3 years, 10 months, and 8 days, expiring on February 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles M. Blatt, B-6904, No. 6474, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Charles M. Blatt, convicted of burglary and larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Blair County on September 18, 1939 to be computed from September 1, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 6 months, expiring on March 1, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Herman Bocchino, D-5166, No. 8153, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Herman Bocchino, convicted of robbery, entering with intent to commit a felony in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on September 4, 1940 to be computed from May 11, 1940 be commuted from 15 years to 6 years, 10 months and 10 days, expiring on March 21, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-five years of age and this is his first major imprisonment. He has now served nearly seven years of a minimum sentence of fifteen years. The applicant with two accomplices, when approximately eighteen years of age committed five robberies, two of which were at gun point, although applicant has denied the carrying of a gun.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary stated applicant has an excellent institutional record. The district attorney of Philadelphia County leaves the question of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Since this is applicant's first major conviction the Board of Pardons is of the opinion he has learned his lesson by nearly seven years of imprisonment and since one of the accomplices has already been freed through commutation of sentence, we feel applicant is entitled to the same consideration, and we therefore recommend that commutation of sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Walter J. Boileau, D-4006, No. 60-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Walter J. Boileau, convicted of robbery, intent to rob in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on May 10, 1939 to be computed from April 13, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 11 months, expiring on March 13, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Robert Joseph Brennan, D-8586, No. 8771, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert Joseph Brennan, convicted of larceny in the court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Adams County on November 17, 1945 be commuted from 3 years to 1 year and 4 months, expiring on March 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-seven years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was alleged to have stolen 300 bushels of apples, a portion of which he had in his possession at the time of his arrest.

Applicant has an excellent institutional record and the trial judge, Honorable W. C. Sheely, and district attorney of Adams County, both agree to leave the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Since applicant has served approximately one-half of his minimum sentence and this is his first arrest and conviction, the Board of Pardons feels this punishment will have a salutary effect upon the applicant and others in the community and will deter them from committing the same or similar crimes, and therefore recommends that applicant's sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Phillip J. Bronson, D-5038, No. 61-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Phillip J. Bronson, convicted of conspiracy to commit burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 27, 1940 to be computed from June 24, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 9 months, expiring on March 24, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Benenito Bronti, C-7843, No. 62-B, February Session 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

April 25, 1939 to be computed from March 28, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 11 months, expiring on February 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Dewey Buckwalter, No. 61062, No. 8727, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Dewey Buckwalter, convicted of assault with intent to rob in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Somerset County on May 17, 1946 be commuted from 1½ years to 10 months, expiring on March 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant had never before been convicted of any offense whatsoever. At the present time he is serving a sentence of from one and one-half to three years. He states that he does not know how the crime happened and this is probably true as the applicant and victim were drinking together in a club and testimony was that the applicant was drunk.

At the present time applicant desires to have his sentence commuted in order that he may go to New York where he has an action pending in federal court for injury under the Federal Employers Liability Act. If he is not released within the near future he may lose his rights in this case as he would not be there to prosecute.

Both the trial judge and the district attorney have no objection, in fact the trial judge recommends commutation. The warden has reported to the Board of Pardons that the applicant has a good institutional record.

Under all the circumstances in the case and in order that this man is not penalized in his law suit in New York State and since this is his first conviction, the Board of Pardons recommends that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of A. Mitchell Caplan, No. 8671, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that A. Mitchell Caplan, convicted of false pretense, conspiracy in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Beaver County, on July 8, 1939 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is 52 years of age and had no prior criminal record. He was in the grocery business and during the period preceding 1939 secured money through the placing of fictitious food orders with the County relief agency for payment.

There were 2 accomplices one of whom at that time was one of the County Commissioners of Beaver County. He was never apprehended nor brought to trial. The investigation of the Board of Parole leads the Board of Pardons to believe applicant was the victim of circumstances and was not actively participating in this crime but that the county commissioner was responsible for it and because of his political connections was never prosecuted.

The applicant is presently employed by the Rochester Seed and Supply Company and will continue in this employment. He has made full restitution as required by law and the order of the court. From investigation of the Board of Parole the sentiment in the community is that he should receive a pardon. This is also the feeling of the President Judge and the District Attorney.

Under these circumstances we feel that he should be granted a pardon and so recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Zygmunt J. Chelinski, No. 8746, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Zygmunt J. Chelinski, convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Court of The Municipal Court of Philadelphia County, on August 14, 1935 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is 28 years of age and was sentenced to a term of one year on probation for receiving stolen goods. This happened when he was 17 years old, he has had no further difficulty for a period of over 11 years. The value of the merchandise was approximately $30.

He served with the Armed Forces and holds an honorable discharge therefrom. He is married and has one child, a daughter age 4 years. He feels he has paid his debt to society.

In the light of his army record and the fact he has been in no further trouble for a period of 11 years the Board of Pardons is inclined to agree with him and therefore we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Coolen, No. 8747, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James Coolen, convicted of operating automobile while under influence of intoxicating liquor in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March, 1942 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is 37 years of age and has no other criminal record. He was placed on probation for a period of one year in 1942 for having operated a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Since this sentence in 1942, applicant was inducted into the United States Navy and rose to the rank of Seaman First Class, he served on the U.S.S. Sierra and was in the Philippine Liberation. He holds an honorable discharge from the United States Navy.

The Trial Judge and the District Attorney know of no reason why a pardon should be denied applicant, neither does the Board of Pardons and we therefore recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank S. Dakin, Jr., No. 8745, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Applicant is 33 years of age and he has no other criminal record. He was sentenced to a period of 1 year probation on the charge of entering with intent to steal, larceny and receiving stolen goods. The larceny was the removing of 8 pounds of lard, valued at 80c. This occurred in 1931 when applicant was approximately 17 years of age.

Applicant has been in no further trouble, he served in the Armed Forces of the United States in the Quartermaster Corps, serving in North Africa and Italian Campaigns. He desires a pardon in order that he may be in a position to accept a Civil Service position. He feels that the crime he committed against society was so slight that his Army service has wiped it out and he has fully met his debt to society.

The Trial Judge and the District Attorney agree with applicant's contention. The Board of Pardons also agree with his contention and therefore recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John H. Dalessio, D-4004, No. 63-D, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of John H. Dalessio, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on May 10, 1939 to be computed from April 13, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 11 months, expiring on March 13, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Daniel H. Davis, D-5195, No. 7083, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Daniel H. Davis, convicted of assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery, with intent to ravish, attempted rape, rape in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on September 10, 1940 to be computed from August 31, 1940, be commuted from 7½ years to 6 years 6 months and 20 days, expiring on March 21, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-one years of age and this is his first major conviction. He has now served six years and three months of a seven and one-half year sentence. He has an excellent institutional record according to the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary. The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons. The assistant district attorney of Philadelphia County also stated that he had no objection to the Board granting commutation in this matter.

The Board of Pardons feels that from the testimony presented before the Board it was unlikely that the victim had been raped either by the applicant or by the number of men that she alleges attacked her. Medical testimony also shows no evidence of rape.

Under the circumstances the Board of Pardons feels that the applicant has served a great portion of his sentence and since he has a good institutional record and there is no objection from the sentencing authorities they recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of David A. Davis, D-4205, No. 58-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Quarter Sessions of Bradford County on August 18, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years, 6 months, and 10 days, expiring on February 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Carmen DeFrancisco, AA-2723, No. 64-D, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Carmen DeFrancisco, convicted of burglary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 13, 1939 to be computed from December 7, 1939, be commuted from 10 to 7 years and 3 months, expiring on March 7, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Anthony DiPietro, No. 8783, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Anthony DiPietro, convicted of fraudulent conversion and keeping a bucket shop in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 18, 1932 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is 42 years of age and has no prior criminal record. He is alleged to have operated a bucket shop whereby people were defrauded of money in the purchase of stocks. This occurred 15 years ago and he has been in no further trouble since that time. He has not been on parole for the past 10 years.

As a result of his imprisonment he has been unable to secure employment in banks and investment offices, with which business he is familiar. He has had to take positions which pay a great deal less, namely salesman, he is presently employed with the Union News Company, at their Broad Street Suburban Station newstand.

The Board of Pardons feel the applicant has been severely punished in this case and he will not again offend against society. We believe that his record for the past 15 years is such that we can without prejudicing the general public recommend to your excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Doblitz, No. 8778, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Doblitz, convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County, on February 2, 1945 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant seeks a pardon on the charge of receiving stolen goods. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and to imprisonment for from 2 months to 1 year. He served his sentence and was released from prison.

Applicant was convicted to a large extent by the testimony of the accomplices. It was later shown that the accomplices retracted their statement and their records indicate that they were the type of individual who had been in Courts before and that this was what is known as a "frame-up" on the applicant.

Applicant is vice-president of the International Scrap Iron and Metal Company and is active in its operation. Many letters were submitted to the Board of Pardons from people in all walks of life in and about Chester, Pennsylvania, recommending to the Board that this applicant receive favorable consideration.

Under these circumstances the Board of Pardons feels that this is a very close case and some consideration might be granted. Therefore, because of his excellent reputation in the community and because the Trial Judge and District Attorney have no objection to favorable consideration we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Dover Erwin, D-5017, No. 65-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Dover Erwin, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 21, 1940 to be computed from June 9, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 9 months, expiring on March 9, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Edward F Green, No. 8711, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Edward F. Green, convicted of larceny by bailee, fraudulent conversion in the Court of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia County, on November 30, 1943 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is 37 years of age and this is his only fall from grace. After having been placed on probation for a period of one year he entered the Armed Forces where after serving 15 months he received an honorable discharge.

Because of his wife and three children applicant desires to have this blot on his record removed and requests the Board of Pardons to grant him relief.

The Board of Pardons feels that because he has an excellent probation record and also his service in the Armed Forces that we can grant him the relief he seeks and therefore we recommend that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William G Grimm, B-1953, No 4873, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of William G Grimm, convicted of murder, in the first degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, of Lawrence County on April 4, 1930 be commuted from Life to 17 years, expiring on April 1, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-seven years of age and this was his first major conviction. He served over eleven years on a sentence of life for murder in the first degree. Two of his accomplices were in the armed forces and as a result thereof had their maximum sentence commuted.

The Board of Parole has written the Board of Pardons and stated they had no objection to the granting of commutation of the maximum sentence because two of the accomplices already have had that benefit conferred upon them.

Both the trial judge and the district attorney are of the opinion that commutation of maximum sentence should be granted.

Under the above circumstances and because applicant has a good parole record for the past five and one-half years the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation of the maximum sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Harold Jerome Hess, B-7990, No. 7681, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Harold Jerome Hess, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, of Allegheny County, on January 21, 1942, to be computed from January 16, 1942, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years and 2 months, expiring on March 16, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-five years of age and at the present time has served over five years of a minimum sentence of ten years. He has an excellent institutional record and this is his first major conviction. While confined in the Western State Penitentiary he has developed a physical disability of the leg which is marked varicosities. He has dermatitis of the right leg and unless he secures certain medical treatment he is likely to lose his leg. We believe that in order for the applicant to secure this treatment he should be given some consideration.

The trial judge, Honorable Frank P. Patterson, has looked into the situation and feels that the facts warrant consideration in this case. Under the circumstances and for the sole purpose of permitting the applicant to secure treatment for his leg the Board of Pardons recommends that the sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Harry S Hobensack, D-8147, No. 8756, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Harry S Hobensack, convicted of fraudulent conversion, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, of Bucks County, on February 14, 1945 to be computed from February 12, 1945, be commuted from 3 years to 2 years and 6 months, expiring on August 12, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-eight years of age and has never had any prior criminal record. He was former Deputy Register of Wills and in this position appropriated Inheritance Tax Funds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the amount of $10,000.00 over a period of many years.

The Sentencing authorities in Bucks County have advised the Board that they leave the matter of commutation to the discretion of the Board of Pardons. He has an excellent institutional record and he has attempted to make restitution to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania through his bonding Company. The amount of restitution paid by the bonding company was $10,244.36.

The applicant if released will be in a position to again establish his home and support his wife and children. Under these circumstances the Board of Pardons is willing to grant commutation of sentence to release the applicant on August 12, 1947, after he has served two and one-half years of a minimum sentence of three years.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

In re application of John Kwasnak, C-8924, No. 2307, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John Kwasnak, convicted of breaking and entering, larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County, on May 3, 1933, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is 33 years of age and this is the only conviction against him. This offense happened approximately 14 years ago and since that time he has been in no further trouble. During the past war he served with the Army of the United States as a private. After seven months service he was given an honorable discharge.

Applicant desires this pardon so that this conviction may not hinder him in the operation of his auto repair business and so it will not be a blot against the name of his wife and infant son.

In view of his military record and his excellent record since his release from the institution the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Frank Lacina, D-1555, No. 3691, February Session, 1947.
To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment of Frank Lacina, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County on August 21, 1936, be commuted on Bill No. 595 June Sessions, 1936, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 10 years and 7 months expired on March 21, 1947; on Bill No. 596 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of one day, expired on March 22, 1947; on Bill No. 596½ from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of one day, expired on March 23, 1947; on Bill No. 597 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of one day, expired on March 24, 1947; and on Bill No. 598 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of one day, expiring on March 25, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Thomas J. Leary, convicted of attempted robbery, entering with intent to commit a felony in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County of December 21, 1928, be commuted on Bill No. 1141 December Sessions, 1928, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 8 years and 3 months, expiring on March 21, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Carl Lewandowsky, D-6216, No. 59-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommended that the maximum sentence of Carl Lewandowsky, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Bucks County on January 6, 1942, to be computed from December 31, 1941, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years, 1 month, and 27 days, expiring on February 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Raymond J Linpinski, B-7294, No. 6994, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommended that the minimum sentence of Raymond J Lipinski, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on July 5, 1940, to be computed from June 8, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years, 9 months and 10 days, expiring on March 18, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-seven years of age and this is his first conviction of any offense whatsoever. He has now served nearly seven years of a minimum sentence of ten years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary state that if this applicant were eligible to apply for parole they would recommend him because it is his first conviction and he has such an excellent institutional record, he has made remarkable progress in self-improvement and has served over six years and eight months.

The district attorney of Allegheny County stated he is not opposed to commutation and the trial judge makes no recommendation. One of the accomplices of this applicant who had a similar record, had his sentence commuted at the December, 1946, Session of the Board of Pardons. Since this applicant is in a similar position it is the recommendation of this Board that the sentence of the applicant be commuted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Ralph Mancuso, No. 60857, No. 8773, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ralph Mancuso, convicted of murder and voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on March 29, 1946, to be computed from January 22, 1946, be commuted from 4 years to 1 year and 2 months, expiring on March 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-six years of age and at the present time has served approximately one year of a minimum sentence of four years. This is his first major conviction. Applicant and several accomplices became engaged in a free for all fight, one of the persons in this fight became excited and as a result of the affair suffered a heart attack and died. There is no evidence to show this applicant struck any of the blows or in any way did anything to cause this victim to die.

Applicant has a good prison record and in view of the fact he has served a year for what amounts to a free for all fight the Board of Pardons is of the opinion his sentence should be commuted as of March 22, 1947.

In re application of Joseph Matje, C-4389, No. 1566, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open sessions, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment of Joseph Matje, convicted of conspiracy, robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, assault and battery with intent to kill in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 15, 1928, be commuted on Bill No. 178 February Sessions, 1928, from a maximum term of 16 years to a maximum term of 9 years and 1 month, expiring March 15, 1947; and on Bill No. 179 from a maximum term of 5 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on March 16, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Leo John McCrassen, D-6211, No. 66-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Leo John McCrassen, convicted of assault, robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 6, 1942 to be computed from December 27, 1941, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years and 2 months, expiring on February 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Charles McDermott, B-5944, No. 4303, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph Charles McDermott, convicted of entering a building with felonious intent in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on February 9, 1938 to be computed from December 20, 1937, be commuted from 20 years to 9 years, 2 months, and 8 days, expiring on February 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In re application of Thomas W. Moore, D-134, No. 4722, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on March 20, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In re application of Nicholas Joseph Paparo, D-6, No. 3427, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Nicholas Joseph Paparo, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 4, 1934, be commuted from 20 years to 12 years and 5 months, expiring on March 4, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Margaret Quartman, No. 3079-895 No. 8774, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Margaret Quartman, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on January 13, 1932, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-six years of age and this is the only offense against society she ever committed. She participated in several robberies and larcenies and was a lookout. She was identified, convicted and sent to the Philadelphia County Prison. On August 16, 1934, she was transferred to the Pennsylvania Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy. She served nine years of her minimum sentence of ten years and then was released on parole. She was returned for a technical violation of parole in 1942 because of her complaints about work and her associates. However, since her release in August 1943 she has been employed as a domestic, has married and has an excellent record of adjustment in the community.

It is the feeling of one member of the Board of Pardons that he had never seen such an excellent parole record since her marriage and the reestablishment of her family.

The applicant requests a pardon on the basis that her conduct has shown she has overcome her obstacles of maladjustment, that she is keeping parole regulations and that her work as a cook and her husband's occupation as a butler sometimes leaves her open to suspicion and she is required to report she is on parole.

The Board of Pardons realizes it is difficult for a person on parole to secure a position in a home of another and because of applicant's good record and present adjustment the Board feels she will not again offend against society and in order to relieve her from further supervision and necessity of reporting this conviction we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Stanley Ruzanski, C-6268, No. 5162, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Stanley Ruzanski, convicted of entering with intent to steal, robbery in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Session Court of Philadelphia County, on June 23, 1930; and of riotous destruction of buildings in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Montgomery County, on September 19, 1934, be fully pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty years of age and he was convicted of two offenses, one in Philadelphia County and the other while serving this sentence at the New Eastern State Penitentiary, at Graterford, which was for riot and destruction of prison property. This occurred approximately thirteen years ago and since that time he has been in no further trouble. The reason applicant seeks a pardon is that he was brought to this country approximately thirty years ago when but a child of four years of age. He had no voice in coming here, having been brought here by his parents and did not know until recently he was not a citizen of the United States.

Unless relief is granted he will be deported to Poland where he has no relatives, friends or acquaintances, in fact he is not even familiar with the language. To deport this applicant it would work a severe hardship on him breaking up his home and taking him away from his wife who is at present pregnant. The Board of Pardons feels that this would cause an unusual punishment, and therefore, they recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Ulysses G. Savage, Jr., D-2904, No. 5597, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Ulysses G. Savage, Jr., convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on February 17, 1938 to be computed from January 15, 1938, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years and 2 months, expiring on March 15, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Peter G. Savor, B-8865, No. 8245, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Peter G. Savor, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on October 27, 1943 to be computed from September 24, 1943 be commuted from 5 years to 3 years and 6 months, expiring on March 24, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-three years of age and at the present time has served approximately three and one-half years of a minimum sentence of five years.

This is applicant's first major conviction and the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary would recommend this applicant for parole because of his excellent institutional record and the length of time he has served. Neither the trial judge nor the district attorney are opposed to commutation at this time.

The Board of Pardons believes applicant has learned his lesson in this case and will not again offend if given an opportunity to resume his place in society. Two of his accomplices have already been released on minimum sentences of six months. Two others will shortly be released on minimum sentences of four years. There is no point in singling out this defendant and keeping him in prison for an additional one and one-half years.

Under the above circumstances the Board of Pardons recommends that applicant's sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

In re application of Earle Collin Seiss, D-3868, No. 4910, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Earle Collin Seiss, convicted of robbery in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on March 24, 1939 to be computed from March 7, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years, expiring on March 7, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Stanley S. Sliwka, No. 3723, No. 68-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

of Philadelphia County on December 29, 1937 to be computed from December 21, 1937, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years and 3 months, expiring on March 21, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of John E. Smaltz, No. 8749, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John E. Smaltz, convicted of larceny, operating auto without consent of owner in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on September 28, 1934 and July 1, 1937 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is 30 years of age and he was charged with the crime of larceny and operating an auto without the consent of the owner and was placed on probation for a period of 2 years and 1 year respectively. This occurred approximately 9 years ago and since that time he has been in no further trouble.

Applicant was 16 years old and 19 years old when these offenses occurred. They were more the exuberance of youth than the commission of a crime with the intent to injure society.

When war broke out applicant joined the Armed Forces and served in Europe, receiving the Combat Infantry Badge.

Applicant desires to become a fireman in the city of Philadelphia and these two afore stated convictions are a detriment to his becoming a fireman. In the light of his Army service and the fact that the Trial Judge and District Attorney do not oppose the granting of relief the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted as prayed for.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Solomon, No. 8733, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Solomon, convicted of the crimes of violation of the Liquor laws, larceny, and receiving stolen goods, in the Quarter Sessions Court of Fayette County, on the following dates, to-wit: October 21, 1921; August 1, 1922; December 15, 1927; February 12, 1929; August 26, 1929; January 1, 1933; April 6, 1935 and January 3, 1936, be fully pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty-six years of age and except for the crimes for which he desires a pardon has no other criminal record. At first blush it would seem that this applicant has been a habitual violator of the law for a period of approximately fifteen years. However, two of these violations were for violation of the liquor laws at a time when it was more fashionable to breach the law than to observe it.

Following that he has five arrests and convictions for violation of the Junk Act or for receiving stolen goods, being the purchase of junk from minors and persons unknown.

Applicant seeks relief from this Board on the basis that he will be deported to Turkey, a place from whence he came approximately fifty years ago. He is married and has a family of twelve children, several of whom are married, two of whom are in college and four of whom served in the United States Army, all receiving honorable discharges.

This applicant, the Board feels deserves some consideration due to the fact he has been in no further trouble for a period of approximately ten years. Furthermore, after having raised such a large family and giving them the benefits he has we feel he has earned the right to have his deportation stayed through the granting of a gubernatorial pardon, and we therefore, recommend that this pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
JAMES H. DUFF,

In re application of Anthony S. Stabile, D-3678, No. 6382, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Anthony S. Stabile, convicted of attempted robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 13, 1939, to be computed from January 7, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 2 months, expiring on March 7, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel Stolofsky, B-3539, No. 1593, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Samuel Stolofsky, convicted of arson, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, of Allegheny County, on December 23, 1932, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is 46 years of age and he was convicted on the charge of arson, setting fire to a rug or instigating it to be set on fire, causing damage to the extent of $57.00 which was paid by the Insurance Company.

Applicant came to this country when he was but a boy of 13 years, from Russia, he has a wife and two children who will become public charges if he is returned to his native land.

We believe that there is sufficient doubt as to the actual commission of this offense as to make it incumbent upon us to grant relief in this case. Under these circumstances we recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of James D. Summers, D-2072, No. 69-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on James D. Summers, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on September 19, 1934 and in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on March 25, 1937 to be computed from March 22, 1937 for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, be commuted on Bill No. 412 September Sessions, 1934 (Delaware County) from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 12 years, 5 months, and 8 days, expiring on February 27, 1947; and on Bill No. 1064 March Sessions, 1937 (Philadelphia County), from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 9 years, 11 months, and 6 days, expiring on February 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Frank Talarico, No. 60856, No. 8772, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Frank Talarico, convicted of murder and voluntary manslaughter, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on March 29, 1946, to be computed from January 22, 1946, be commuted from 4 years to 1 year and 2 months, expiring on March 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-six years of age and at the present time has served approximately one year of a minimum sentence of four years. This is his first major conviction. Applicant and several accomplices became engaged in a free for all fight, one of the persons in this fight became excited and as a result of the affair suffered a heart attack and died. There is no evidence to show this applicant struck any of the blows or in any way did anything to cause this victim to die.

Applicant has a good prison record and in view of the fact he has served a year for what amounts to a free for all fight the Board of Pardons is of the opinion his sentence should be commuted as of March 22, 1947.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
 Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
 Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
 Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank J. Thompson, D-3175, No. 71-B, February Session, 1947.
To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Frank J. Thompson, convicted of larceny of automobile in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 16, 1938 to be computed from June 11, 1938, to be commuted from 9 years to 8 years and 9 months, expiring on March 11, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Hugo E. Trynks, No. 8759, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Hugo E. Trynks convicted of entering with intent to steal in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 29, 1930 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is 33 years of age and he has but one offense against society which was an attempt to steal a drum of gasoline for the use in a car of the accomplice. He was 16 years of age when this crime occurred.

This is a crime committed without criminal intent and more in the nature of youthful exuberance. Following applicant's year of probation he joined the Armed Forces of United States, rising to the rank of sergeant. He bears an excellent reputation in his community.

Because of his military record and in order to enable him to face the future with a clean slate knowing that he has not violated the law for more than 16 years of his 33 years we recommend that the prayer of the applicant be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

In re application of Cornelius James Walsh, D-3869, No. 5069, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Cornelius James Walsh, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 24, 1939 to be computed from March 7, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years, expiring on March 7, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of William Watson, B-7506, No. 55-B, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of William Watson, convicted of burglary in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Allegheny County on January 23, 1941 to be computed from August 26, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 6 months, expiring on February 26, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Ulysses Williams, B-8985, No. 8748, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ulysses Williams, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Beaver County on March 16, 1944 to be computed from February 10, 1944, be commuted from 6 years to 3 years, 1 month and 6 days, expiring on March 16, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He is serving a sentence of not less than six nor more than twelve years for voluntary manslaughter. At the present time he has served over three years of his minimum sentence.

The crime arose out of the killing of his wife because she abused him and on several occasions drew knives and a pistol and threatened to use them on the applicant. As a result of this course of conduct he became inflamed and when she again took to this type of treatment the applicant shot and killed her.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have informed us that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and the opinion of the trial judge is such he recommends commutation. The district attorney also recommends commutation. For the above reasons the Board of Pardons also recommends commutation.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Wollner, C-7686, No. 2441, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Charles Wollner, convicted of murder, in the second degree in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarters Sessions of Delaware County on January 22, 1932, be commuted from 20 years to 15 years and 2 months, expiring on March 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty years of age and this is his first major imprisonment. He has served all but three months of a minimum sentence of ten years on the charge of murder, in the second degree before his release. He has now been at liberty for five and one-half years during which time he has been in no further difficulty.

The Board of Parole state that he has an excellent record on parole and there have been no complaints about his behavior. He has engaged in his own welding business, has expanded the business and been successful. He desires to be released from parole in order that he may travel about without the necessity of reporting his movements and in order to enable him to take contracts outside the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Since applicant has adjusted well and shows every evidence of not again violating the law, the Board of Pardons feels disposed to grant his request, and therefore, we recommend that commutation of maximum sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

In re application of Joseph Francis Yanak, No. 8743, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Francis Yanak, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Municipal of Philadelphia County, on February 5, 1935, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his only offense against society. In fact he was not the active participant in this crime, his accomplice was the one responsible but the applicant did not deny he was present at the time the offense was committed.

Applicant has been in no further trouble for the past twelve years and the Board of Parole has stated he was not on parole and he has a good reputation in the community in which he lives. During the past war, applicant served for a period of five years in the Coast Guards from which organization he was honorable discharged.

There is no objection by the trial judge or the dis-strict attorney to the granting of clemency as applied for. Applicant desires a pardon in order that he may take the necessary examination and be appointed fireman in the City of Philadelphia.

In order not to visit any unusual hardship on the applicant and restrain him from securing this position, we are recommending that the pardon as prayed for be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Victor P. Zayac, No. 38473, No. 56-B, February Sessions, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Victor P. Zayac, convicted of robbery, violation of the Firearms Act in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on July 27, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 7 months, expiring on February 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Alexander Bol Zalenski, C-9410, No. 4998, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Alexander Bol Zalenski, convicted of murder, in the second degree in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Lackawanna County on December 16, 1933, be commuted from 20 years to 13 years and 4 months, expiring on April 16, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is sixty-six years of age. This is his first conviction. He served his minimum sentence of ten years and was released. He now seeks commutation of maximum sentence.

Since his release from parole the applicant has applied himself diligently. He has saved his money and paid off all of his debts incurred by reason of his trial and applications for commutation. The consensus of opinion is that he lives a quiet life and spends his time and his money on his children.

No objection has been received from the authorities in Lackawanna County.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant will not again offend and we believe that he will gain more self respect if granted this petition, we therefore, recommend the granting of a commutation of his maximum sentence.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Karl Zimmer, No. 8738, February Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Karl Zimmer, convicted of Sodomy in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on September 7, 1932 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant was charged with sodomy 15 years ago and under the circumstances of the case the court rather than impose a jail sentence, placed applicant on probation for a period of one year.

This applicant is an alien, having come to this country from Germany at a tender age. He has wanted to become an American citizen, but is unable to do so because of this conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude.

At the hearing before the Board of Pardons the District Attorney stated applicant should have a chance. The Trial Judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, stated that he would leave the matter up to the Board of Pardons.

There is no suspicion of abnormal behavior since the happening of this offense and we feel that, as the District Attorney does, the applicant should be given another opportunity and therefore recommend that a pardon be granted.

Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

In re application of Charles Angelus, D-1940, No. 4152, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Charles Angelus, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on January 29, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-nine years of age and this is his first major conviction. After having served approximately two and one-half years of a minimum sentence of five years, he was granted a commutation of sentence and placed on parole.

He was inducted into the armed forces of the United States and served overseas for a period of approximately eighteen months during which time he was engaged in the removal of land mines. He has now been granted an honorable discharge and has opened a restaurant of his own in the City of Philadelphia.

The applicant feels that his army record and the fact that he is now in business should entitle him to a pardon. The Board of Pardons is inclined to agree with the applicant and since the district attorney has no objections we are recommending that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Benjamin Borowski, D-3755, No. 73-B, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Benjamin Borowski, convicted of larceny of automobile in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 17, 1939, to be computed from February 12, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 2 months, expiring on April 12, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Francisco Castellotti, No. 8804, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Francisco Castellotti, convicted of larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, of Huntingdon County, on March 20, 1922, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-three years of age and this is the only offense he ever committed and it occurred under such unusual circumstances that the applicant is now forced to ask the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to grant a pardon or he will be deported to Italy from which country he emigrated at the age of four years.

Under the peculiar interpretation of the immigration Law, if the applicant while an alien resident committed a crime involving moral turpitude and thereafter leaves the country his subsequent reentry is such a reentry as to involve the conviction of a crime prior to entry into the United States. This seems to be a rather strained construction of this Act which works a great hardship on this applicant since the offense consisted of the larceny of a horse approximately twenty-five years ago. The applicant has no further criminal record.

Under these circumstances and in order to avoid deportation, we recommend that a pardon be granted this applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Louis Chrostowski, C-1239, No. 3805, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Louis Chrostowski, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on July 28, 1933, to be computed from July 8, 1933, be commuted from 20 years to 13 years, 9 months, and 10 days, expiring on April 18, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty years of age and he has been on parole for a period of over six years. He seeks commutation of his maximum sentence to release him from further parole supervision.

There is no objection to the granting of the commutation of the maximum sentence by the district attorney as applicant has a good parole record.

The Board of Parole in their report of parole supervision to the Board of Pardons indicates that this applicant has adjusted well on patrol and is now the owner of his own business giving employment to approximately five people beside himself.

In view of the applicant's excellent record on parole, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation of maximum sentence be granted.

In re application of James Crocco, No. 5973, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of James Crocco, convicted of burglary in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Cambria County on April 27, 1942, be commuted from 5 years to 4 years, 11 months, expiring on March 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Julius Diguiseppe, D-5824, No. 7649, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Julius Diguiseppe, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, of Berks County, on June 10, 1941 to be computed from March 13, 1941, be commuted from 7½ years to 6 years and 1 month, expiring on April 13, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-eight years of age and he has now served over six years of a minimum sentence of seven and one-half years. This applicant together with three accomplices held up and robbed a pool room and gambling establishment. Following his arrest applicant was a great aid to the Commonwealth giving information which resulted in the conviction of three of his accomplices.

Applicant is now employed in the Tuberculosis Hospital adjoining the Berks County Prison. He has an excellent record there and if he is paroled he plans to continue employment in the Tuberculosis Hospital.

In view of the long service and excellent record of this applicant the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

In re application of Edward C. Dougherty, No. 8789, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Edward C. Dougherty, convicted of larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on June 29, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-one years of age and has no prior or subsequent criminal record. He was placed on probation for a period of five years for attempting to pawn musical instruments which did not belong to him. Following his being placed on probation, he was inducted into the armed forces of the United States and served approximately one year.

Applicant is married and has five children. He is presently engaged in playing in an orchestra of which he is the leader. Because of this record he is prevented from securing employment where liquor is sold particularly in the States of New Jersey and Maryland. This creates a great handicap in his earning powers.

In view of his army record and the fact that he has never been in any further trouble, the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Fred Gist, No. 12653, No. 74-B, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Fred Gist, convicted of assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery with intent to ravish, rape in the Court of Quarter Session of Philadelphia County on May 1, 1935 to be computed from April 2, 1935, be commuted from 15 years to 12 years, expiring on April 2, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Herbert Ray Hollander, B-7567, No. 8300, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Herbert Ray Hollander, convicted of burglary, possession of burglary tools in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on February 21, 1941 to be computed from October 22, 1940 be commuted from 11 years to 6 years and 6 months, expiring on April 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-one years of age and this is not his first major conviction. In fact the applicant is a parole violator and at the present time has served approximately six and one-half years of an eleven year sentence.

It seems that this applicant at the age of thirteen years suffered a trauma as a result of a bicycle accident which instigated an amnesic episode which lasted until the applicant was thirty-nine years of age.

On January 3, 1945, applicant suffered a second trauma which restored him to his primary personality. During the years of the amnesic episode when the applicant's secondary personality was functioning he committed various crimes as a result of this blow which the applicant received.

The Board of Pardons has had several psychiatric studies made of this applicant, first to determine whether or not this applicant was a malingerer or whether he was really suffering from true amnesia. The Board of Pardons has received these reports and to all intents and purposes the applicant is suffering from a true amnesia. The Psychiatrist further states that the prisoner's future behavior can not be prognosticated, but that if he is not subjected to great anti-social stress it is possible that he will live a life free from crime.

The Board of Pardons feels that since this applicant was not a criminal personality until he suffered this trauma that his anti-social attitude should not be held against him since his primary personality has been restored.

Therefore in view of his excellent record since the restoration of his primary personality, the Board of Pardons feels that the applicant will probably not again commit these criminal acts, and therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Casimer Kaminski, No. 8824, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Casimer Kaminski, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods, breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on June 7, 1935, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-three years of age and has no other criminal record. He is charged with larceny, receiving two bags of flour which he thought had been abandoned. He has been in no further trouble for a period of approximately two years. He is now on parole.

The trial judge and the district attorney both state that they have no objection to granting of a pardon. He is now married and has two children and he feels he will never again do anything further against society and asks that this blot be removed from his name because of his wife and children.

The Board of Pardons feels that this was a minor economic crime and since applicant has been in no further trouble recommend that a pardon be granted.

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Joseph N. Kelly, C-8156, No. 75-B, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph N. Kelly, convicted of burglary, robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, larceny of auto, carrying concealed deadly weapons in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 6, 1939 to be computed from September 29, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 6 months, expiring on March 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Edgar Lee, C-5767, No. 2075, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Edgar Lee, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 6, 1929, be commuted from 20 years to 17 years and 4 months, expiring on April 6, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Joseph M. McNasby, C-5354, No. 79-B, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph M. McNasby, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 8, 1937 to be computed from January 21, 1937, be commuted from 15 years to 10 years, 2 months, and 8 days, expiring on March 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Charles R. Moore, Jr., No. 8796, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Charles R. Moore, Jr., convicted of carrying concealed deadly weapons in the Court of Quarter Session of Philadelphia County, on January 6, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-two years of age and has no prior criminal record. He is charged with carrying a concealed deadly weapon. This is an unusual situation in that the applicant attempted to commit suicide and shoot himself with the very weapon with which he was later charged with carrying as a concealed weapon. He has been in no further trouble for ten years. He has served in the United States armed forces for over eighteen months and now desires to be appointed a hoseman at the Fire Department in the City of Philadelphia. He is married and lives with his wife.

Because of applicant's army record and the nature of his crime, the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

In re application of Nathaniel Nesbitt, D-4049, No. 76-B, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In re application of James John Francis Nugent, No. 8786, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James John Francis Nugent, convicted of Larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on January 22, 1935, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-eight years of age and he has no other criminal record. When he was between sixteen and seventeen years of age he and four accomplices took a car without permission for the purpose of taking a ride. He was placed on probation for a period of ten years and while serving on probation he entered the armed forces of the United States serving in the Field Artillery. He rose to the rank of Sergeant, technician fourth grade, and was overseas in the Pacific Theater of war for a period of approximately three years and ten months. He has been honorably discharged from the army, has married and has a young son. He desires to join the fire department in the City of Philadelphia.

Because this applicant has only one conviction and no other criminal record and in view of his army service and for the benefit of his wife and child, the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted.

In re application of George E. Oldham, No. 40536, No. 72-B, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of George E. Oldham, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on October 2, 1941, be commuted from 6 years to 5 years, 5 months, and 27 days, expiring on March 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Charles Pastelyak, D-7507, No. 6723, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Charles Pastelyak, convicted of burglary, larceny, breaking and entering in the Quarter Sessions Court of Northampton County, on September 18, 1939; and of burglary in the Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Lehigh County, on January 6, 1940; and of burglary and larceny in the Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Schuylkill County, on September 14, 1944, be commuted on June Sessions, 1939 (Northampton County) from a maximum term of 12 years to a maximum term of 7 years and 8 months, expiring on April 18, 1947; on September Sessions, 1939 (Lehigh County) from a minimum term of 8 years to a minimum term of 3 years, 5 months, and 1 day, expiring on April 19, 1947; and on January Sessions, 1941 (Schuylkill County) from a minimum term of 2 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on April 20, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-nine years of age and he and his brother, Steve Pastelyak, in 1939 committed a series of burglaries in Northampton, Lehigh and Schuylkill Counties.

At the present time, the applicant has served a period of over eight years in prison. He has an excellent institutional record in the Eastern State Penitentiary and the trial judge in both Lehigh and Schuylkill Counties state that they have no objection to the granting of commutation.

Since this applicant has served such a long period of time, the Board of Pardons feels that he has learned his lesson, and therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

In re application of Steve Pastelyak, D-6073, No. 8323, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Steve Pastelyak, convicted of burglary and larceny in the Quarter Sessions Court of Northampton County, on September 20, 1939; and of burglary in the Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Lehigh County, on January 6, 1940; and of burglary and larceny in the Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Schuylkill County, on September 14, 1944, be commuted on June Sessions, 1939 (Northampton County) from a maximum term of 12 years to a maximum term of 7 years and 8 months, expiring on April 20, 1947; on September Sessions, 1939 (Lehigh County) from a minimum term of 6 years to a minimum term of 5 years, 5 months, and 27 days, expiring on April 21, 1947; and on January Sessions, 1941 (Schuylkill County) from a minimum term of 2 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on April 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-seven years of age and this is his first major conviction and he has served practically five and one-half years of an eight year minimum sentence. This boy also was engaged with his brother, Charles Pastelyak, in a series of burglaries in Northampton, Lehigh and Schuylkill Counties.

Applicant has an excellent institutional record in the Eastern State Penitentiary. The trial judge in Lehigh County feels that we may well grant this application.

In view of applicant's long service in the penitentiary the Board of Pardons feels he has been sufficiently punished, and therefore, recommends that commutation be granted.

In re application of Otto W. Schuch, C-7918, No. 3413, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Otto W. Schuch, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 12, 1932 to be computed from March 31, 1932, be commuted on Bill No. 262 April Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 15 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on April 1, 1947. (Applicant's maximum sentence on Bill No. 261 April Sessions, 1932, expires March 31, 1947).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of George M. Sofi, D-5274, No. 77-B, March Session, 1947.
To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of George M. Sofi, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 4, 1940 be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 6 months, expiring on April 4, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John P. Wilson, 3rd, No. 8791, March Session, 1947.
To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John P. Wilson, 3rd, convicted of burglary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Montgomery County, on March 1, 1940 to be computed from February 12, 1946, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-six years of age and this was his first major conviction. He and two accomplices becoming intoxicated broke into a garage. Nothing was taken and they were immediately apprehended. This occurred in 1940.

Subsequent to the entering of the United States into war the applicant was inducted into the armed forces and served in the Central European Theatre rising to the rank of Staff Sergeant. He now desires to enter the employ of his brother who is in the beer business but there is a possibility that a license will not be granted as long as applicant has a criminal record.

Therefore, because of applicant's military record and the fact he has been in no further trouble the Board of Pardons recommends that a full and complete pardon be granted.

In re application of James Urbanelli, C-3303, No. 78-B, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of James Urbanelli, convicted of rape in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 1, 1935 to be computed from February 15, 1935, be commuted from 15 years to 12 years, 1 month, and 14 days, expiring on March 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Joseph Vurasits, No. 6244, No. 8805, March Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-four years of age and this is the first time he became involved in any offense whatsoever. The applicant has now served approximately ten months of a minimum sentence of two years. Applicant was sentenced for failure to report his son's crime and not for anything that he had done himself. It was the son that had stolen the goods and without his father's knowledge had placed them in the father's home. When the father learned the goods were there he failed to report same to the police and as a result when the goods were discovered he was arrested and pleaded guilty.

Both the trial judge and the district attorney now state that they favor commutation of this applicant's sentence because of the fact that he has a large family and that when he is released he will be able to take care of his wife and children and the further fact that there is no objection from the authorities in Northampton County we recommend that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Ernest Altamro, C- 6568, No. 81-B, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Ernest Altamro, convicted of robbery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 2, 1938 to be computed from January 24, 1938, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years and 3 months, expiring on April 24, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph J. Bell, B-8064, No. 7097, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph J. Bell, convicted of burglary, receiving stolen goods, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on February 19, 1942 to be computed from January 6, 1942, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years and 4 months, expiring on May 6, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Clarence Berkebile, No. 41073, No. 80-B, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Clarence Berkebile, convicted of forgery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on January 16, 1942 to be computed from January 9, 1942, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years, 3 months, and 20 days, expiring on April 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Bernard J. Branch, D-2853, No. 5278, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Bernard J. Branch, convicted of attempted burglary, entering with intent to steal, larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 4, 1938 to be computed from January 28, 1938, be commuted from 15 years to 9 years and 3 months, expiring on April 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Calvin Kenneth Burkey, D-5055, No. 8057, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Calvin Kenneth Burkey, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Berks County on June 27, 1940 to be computed from April 11, 1940 be commuted from 7½ years to 7 years and 1 month, expiring on May 11, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and he has now served seven years of a minimum sentence of seven and one-half years. This is not the first time that the applicant has been arrested or convicted and it should also be stated that the applicant is a parole violator.

He is serving a sentence for burglary and all of his accomplices have been released. One of the facts brought to the attention of the Board of Pardons is that the applicant's mother who is quite old is suffering from cancer and the applicant desires to be released to spend the remaining few months of her life with her. He has an excellent record in the Berks County Prison where he is presently serving his sentence and is employed in the county hospital which is nearby to the prison. He will continue his employment in this hospital if released. Neither the sentencing judge nor the district attorney are opposed to his release. In fact the report from the Board of Parole indicates that the trial judge favors commutation.

Since the applicant has served such a large portion of his sentence the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of the applicant be commuted for the reasons set forth above.

Respectfully submitted,
 DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
 CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.
 T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
 Attorney General.
 WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Filne Campoli, B-9645, No. 8859, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Filne Campoli, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on March 29, 1946 to be computed from January 22, 1946 to 1 year 3 months and 18 days, expiring on May 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-two years of age and was convicted of the crime of voluntary manslaughter. He together with three accomplices went into a restaurant where a fight was in progress and applicant attempted to stop the fight but was unsuccessful. One of the persons in the restaurant suffered a heart attack and applicant together with accomplices were convicted of the crime of voluntary manslaughter.

Applicant has an excellent record in the Western State Penitentiary and the entire record points to the fact that applicant was attempting to squelch the fight rather than create a disturbance.

At the last session of the Board of Pardons we commuted the sentences of two of the accomplices and we feel this applicant is no more guilty than they and for that reason we recommend that the sentence of applicant be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

 Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of George Norman Chase, C-9704, No. 4237, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of George Norman Chase, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on May 22, 1934, be commuted from 20 years to 12 years, 11 months, and 5 days, expiring on April 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Alfred Cohen, B-7286, No. 6547, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Alfred Cohen, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on April 18, 1940 to be computed from April 8, 1940 to 7 years 1 month and 2 days, expiring on May 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his first major conviction. Over a short period of time he and his accomplices committed several holdups of street car conductors.

Applicant has an excellent institutional record and if granted commutation will be released and returned to his parents home where he will be able to support his aged mother and young son who is ten years of age. We believe that applicant has learned his lesson and if given his freedom at this time will not again violate the rules of ethical conduct.

The district attorney and the trial judge of Allegheny County are not opposed to commutation at this time.

Under these circumstances the Board of Pardons is of the opinion applicant has been sufficiently punished, having served seven years out of ten and we recommend that his minimum sentence be commuted and he be released on parole.

In re application of David A Dankovich, B-4719, No. 4633, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of David A. Dankovich, convicted of robbery, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Beaver County on September 30, 1935 be commuted from 20 years to 11 years and 7 months, expiring on April 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Walter Deasy, Jr., D-625, No. 6216, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Walter Deasy, Jr., convicted of assault and battery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on September 19, 1942 to be computed from September 15, 1942, be commuted from 5 years to 4 years, 7 months, and 10 days, expiring on April 25, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of John Epwerth, C-8611, No. 82-B, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of John Epwerth, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 27, 1933, be commuted from 20 years to 14 years and 3 months, expiring on April 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of William James Evans, Jr. D-4851, No. 3263, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William James Evans, Jr., convicted of burglary and larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Montgomery County on April 12, 1940 to be computed from February 24, 1944 be commuted from 6½ years to 4 years and 3 months, expiring on May 24, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-eight years of age and this is not the first time he was ever arrested. In fact applicant is a parole violator. However, when he was sentenced he was given a sentence to run concurrently with the parole violation. After having been in prison a few years the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania handed down the Wheeler Decision in which they said that a new sentence to run concurrently with a parole violation was an improper sentence and that the sentences would have to be recomputed. As a result of this the applicant's sentence was recomputed and he has now served seven years but because he was a parole violator only three years and two months apply against the six and one-half year sentence imposed by the Montgomery County Court.

Applicant has a good institutional record in the Eastern State Penitentiary and neither the trial judge or the district attorney in Montgomery County object to his release at this time, he having served a period equal to more than the original sentence imposed.

Under these circumstances the Board of Pardons feels applicant has been sufficiently punished for his parole violation and his new crime, and if given the opportunity he will not again violate the law. Therefore, we recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Michael A Ferry, No. 8792, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Michael A. Ferry, convicted of larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on November 15, 1932, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-four years of age and has had no prior criminal record. Following his sentence in 1932 to one year on probation he secured employment and when the past war emergency arose the applicant was inducted into the armed forces and served honorably for three years.

Applicant now desires to become a hoseman in the Fire Department of the City of Philadelphia. In order to be eligible for this examination he must have a pardon.

Because of applicant's excellent record over the past fifteen years, his service in the armed forces of the United States and for his own sake we recommend that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Antonio Fiorentino, B-911, No. 8353, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Antonio Fiorentino, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Westmoreland County on August 10, 1928 be commuted from life imprisonment to 18 years and 9 months, expiring on May 10, 1947. (To be deported).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-eight years of age and this is the only offense he ever committed against society. However, the applicant did commit murder and he was found guilty of murder in the first degree with recommendation of mercy. He has now served eighteen years and eight months of this life sentence.

A warrant for deportation has been filed against the applicant, who has signed the necessary documents, waiving all rights in deportation proceedings in favor of the Deportation Authorities.

Under the above circumstances the Board of Pardons recommends that applicant's sentence be commuted only on the condition that he be deported to Italy his native country.

In re application of Michael J Flaherty, B-7638, No. 5811, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Michael J Flaherty, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on April 24, 1941 to be computed from December 13, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years, 4 months, and 16 days, expiring on April 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of John Franks, D-3709, No. 6018, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Franks, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 27, 1939 to be computed from December 17, 1938 be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 5 months, expiring on May 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and this is the first time that he has been convicted of any offense whatsoever. He is now serving a term of ten to twenty years on a charge of robbery. He was involved with a group of accomplices in a series of thirty-five robberies. At the present time he has served eight years and four months of his minimum sentence of ten years.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have written the Board of Pardons that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and that he has spent his time well in prison. The district attorney of Philadelphia County has stated that he leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons and that he will be satisfied whatever the decision of the Board is. The trial judge has not written us advising what is his opinion in this case.

Since the applicant has served over four-fifths of his minimum sentence with a good record and he is a first offender the Board feels that they may well exercise clemency in this case and recommend mercy in this case. We, therefore, recommend that clemency be granted and the sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William J Harrison, D-6008, No. 6819, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William J Harrison, convicted of embezzlement by employees of funds of Building and Loan Association in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on September 24, 1941 be commuted from 7½ years to 5 years 7 months and 16 days, expiring on May 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-two years of age and this is the first time that he has been convicted of any offense whatsoever. He has been sentenced to a minimum term of seven and one-half years on a charge of embezzlement by an employee of funds from a Building and Loan Association of which he was the Secretary. The total amount of money taken was $32,000.00. At the present time the applicant has served five years and seven months of the minimum sentence above set forth.

Mr. Frank P. Tucker, Senior Parole Officer at the Eastern State Penitentiary, is the representative of the applicant and he states that he has come into contact with the applicant frequently and his is most outstanding and is well worthy of consideration by this Board. This opinion is shared by the Board of Trustees of the institution.

When the applicant is released he will go to work for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and will be in a position to aid in the rearing of his son who is now fourteen years of age. He has also promised to make restitution to the best of his ability.

Under these circumstances the Board of Pardons feels that this applicant was most severely punished by his first six months in prison and further incarceration will prove no more efficacious at this point than it has for the past five years. We feel that he has paid his debt to society and that he will not again offend if given his freedom. We, therefore, recommend that clemency be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Jay W. Hill, B-7839, No. 6733, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Jay W. Hill, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Clinton County on September 13, 1941 to be computed from September 2, 1941 be commuted from 20 years to 6 years and 8 months, expiring on May 2, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Alexander Karluk, C-8762, No. 2331, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Lackawanna County, on March 4, 1933, be commuted on Bill No. 38 April Sessions, 1933, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 14 years, 2 months, and 10 days, expiring on May 14, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-one years of age and this is the only offense he ever committed. He served three years of his minimum sentence of twenty years and was released on parole. He has been on parole for a period of ten and one-half years without any further trouble. He is employed in the coal mines and has an excellent record with the Board of Parole. He has worked steadily and saved his money and at the present time has nearly $2000.00 in War Bonds. His total savings amounts to approximately $3000.00.

This applicant has rehabilitated himself. The trial judge and district attorney have no objection to granting commutation.

Under all the circumstances, since he has been rehabilitated the Board of Pardons have no objection to him being released from parole at this time, and therefore, recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank M. Kedzia, D-5257, No. 5609, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Frank M. Kedzia, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, etc., in the Court of Oyer of Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Bucks County on September 27, 1937, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years and 7 months, expiring on April 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Kelly, C-7805, No. 746, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Joseph Kelly, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on November 19, 1931, be commuted from life imprisonment to 15 years and 6 months, expiring on May 19, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is sixty-six years of age. He has no prior criminal record. He plead guilty generally to the charge of murder and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

The Board in its examination of the facts of this case has come to the conclusion that the applicant should not have been found guilty of a degree of murder higher than second degree. In addition thereto the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has written that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and that he has used his incarceration to good advantage. Both the trial judge and the district attorney have written that they leave the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Under all of the circumstances of this case the Board is of the opinion that the applicant should not have been convicted of more than second degree murder which carries with it a penalty of not more than ten nor more than twenty years. Since he has an excellent institutional record and the sentencing authorities are not opposed to commutation the Board of Pardons recommends that the sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Kuchinsky, C-9402, No. 4534, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

4 years, 5 months, and 10 days, expiring on April 27, 1947; and on Bill No. 113-A from a maximum term of 7 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on April 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Nicholas C. Lapetina, D-5848, No. 6039, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Nicholas C. Lapetina, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 18, 1941 to be computed from January 14, 1941 be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 4 months, expiring on May 14, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-three years of age and he is now asking commutation of his maximum sentence of ten years of a charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. He was a member of the notorious Chain Gang and after serving his minimum sentence of three years was released on parole. He has been on parole for a period of six years and during this time he has had an excellent record on parole.

The report from the Board of Parole indicates that the applicant has started in business for himself and that he has been successful in this business, his latest earnings being reported at $350.00 per month. His conduct during his time on parole has been good.

Both the trial judge and the district attorney state that they are unopposed to the granting of the clemency prayed for.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that the applicant has proved worthy of the trust that has been reposed in him. The Board, therefore, feels that he has earned the right to have his further maximum sentence commuted, and we therefore, recommend that the maximum sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Kenneth Lenny, D-5238, No. 83-B, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Kenneth Lenny, convicted of robbery in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on October 10, 1940 to be computed from October 5, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 7 months, expiring on May 5, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Ellis LaFrance Matz, D-3492, No. 6832, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ellis LaFrance Matz, convicted of larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lackawanna County on October 14, 1938 to be computed from April 30, 1938 be commuted from 13½ years to 9 years and 10 days, expiring on May 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty years of age and this is his first major conviction. This applicant committed eight pocketbook snatchings, although he only admits at the present time that he was actually engaged in one. He has served over nine years of a minimum sentence of thirteen and one-half years. He has an excellent institutional record.

The trial judge and the district attorney of Lackawanna County both leave the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Since applicant has served such a long period of time and has such a good institutional record, we are of the opinion he has learned his lesson, and therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of George Mazey, B-6690, No. 5520, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of George Mazey, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on April 20, 1939 to be computed from March 16, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 2 months, expiring on May 16, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-six years of age and this is the only time he ever offended against society. He committed a robbery with two accomplices of a real estate office in the City of Pittsburgh, using a toy pistol for the purpose of effecting the robbery.

Applicant served two and one half years of his minimum sentence after which he was released on parole. He has now been on parole for over five years and desires to go to California to begin life anew. He wishes to go there without the necessity of having parole supervision in California.

Since applicant has not been in any further trouble and since he has a good parole record, the Board of Pardons feels he has shown he merits the trust placed in him and under all of the circumstances we recommend that the maximum sentence be commuted in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles A. McMenamin, No. 8827, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Charles A. McMenamin, convicted of entering, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 3, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-eight years of age and never before committed any offense whatsoever. His offense in this case was the stealing of 700 pounds of rags, total value of $80.00. He was placed on probation for a period of ten years, which probation has expired and during that time he had no further trouble.

Applicant is married and has one son, four years of age. Applicant served in the armed forces and was honorably discharged and received the bronze star for heroism. He rose to the rank of corporal in the Field Artillery, was truck driver and messenger in three major campaigns in the theatre of operations. He has returned to his previous place of employment with the Baldwin Locomotive Works, Eddystone, Pennsylvania. He desires at this time to take an examination for fireman in the City of Philadelphia. He cannot apply for this examination unless he is granted a pardon.

In view of applicant's excellent record with the armed forces, his good conduct over the past ten years, we feel he is entitled to clemency, and therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Mildred Montgomery, No. 8850, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Mildred Montgomery, convicted of failure to stop at the scene of an accident in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lebanon County, on August 3, 1946, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-seven years of age and this is the only offense she was ever convicted of. She was employed as a chauffeur at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation and was proceeding from Jonestown towards the Reservation when she came in slight contact with a car going in the other direction. The evidence of contact was slight, the amount of damage was negligible, the violation was that she was technically guilty of failure to stop at the scene of the accident and as a result of this she was convicted.

The Board of Pardons feels that she was punished severely by this conviction and since she is not the type regarded as a law breaker, we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Moyer, No. 8834, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James Moyer, convicted of assault and battery with intent to ravish in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on February 11, 1943, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-seven years of age and in 1943 he was sentenced to imprisonment for a term of not less than three months on the charge of assault and battery with intent to ravish.

The records in this case are not entirely clear. It is believed if applicant had stood trial he could not have been convicted on the evidence produced to the Board of Pardons.

Applicant enlisted in the Naval Air Service upon his release from prison in April 1943 and became an instructor and finally received his commission as an Ensign in the Naval Air Force. Upon his release from the service he returned to his position as passenger brakeman with the Pennsylvania Railroad and has hopes of entering private industry and believes his record will be a hinderance.

Because of applicant's honorable service with the Naval Air Force, his good record with the Pennsylvania Railroad and his present good conduct, we feel he has earned the right to a pardon and therefore recommend that his pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Clyde Mutzabaugh, D-7113, No. 7890, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Clyde Mutzabaugh, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 4, 1940 to be computed from April 12, 1943 be computed from 9 years to 4 years and 1 month, expiring on May 12, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty years of age. He has been in trouble before, in fact he has violated his parole on two previous occasions, but he has now been in prison for over seven years. Because of his previous arrest only four years count on his present sentence of nine years. He is now serving a term for burglary and the total loot that he received was $28.40.

It is reported to us by the Board of Trustees that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and the Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, the trial judge, has written to the Board of Pardons stating that the applicant deserves a chance. The district attorney of Philadelphia County has also stated that he leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Since the applicant has such a good prison record and the trial judge believes that he is entitled to another chance, the Board of Pardons recommends that it be given him and that his sentence be commuted. His accomplice has had his sentence commuted nearly five years ago.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Edward Nicholas, C-7659, No. 3324, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Edward Nicholas, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 13, 1932, be commuted on Bill No. 428 January Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 5 years, 3 months, and 17 days, expiring on April 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

In re application of Nicholas Piccolo, B-4045, No. 8845, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Nicholas Piccolo, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on June 4, 1928, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-two years of age and this was his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than five nor more than twenty years and after serving five years was released on parole. He has now been on parole for a period of approximately fourteen years.

He has had an excellent record since his release and is now married and has a young daughter. The Board of Parole through investigation has shown that applicant is engaged in the trucking business and owns two large trailer trucks, from which he earns approximately $100.00 per week.

Since applicant has had only this one offense against society and has shown that he does not intend to again revert to this style of existence, we feel he merits some consideration for the sake of his wife and daughter. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted as prayed for by the applicant.

In re application of James Reig, B-4164, No. 84-B, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of James Reig, convicted of breaking and escaping penitentiary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County on June 16, 1934 to begin at the expiration of original sentence imposed in Clearfield County on May 2, 1932, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years, expiring on May 7, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Vincent T. Powers, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 15, 1935, be commuted on Bill No. 347 February Sessions, 1935, from a maximum term of 15 years to a maximum term of 12 years, 2 months, and 10 days, expiring on April 25, 1947; and on Bill No. 348 from a maximum term of 5 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on April 26, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Michael S. Reps, No. 77559, No. 8847, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Michael S. Reps, convicted of embezzlement by attorney, fraudulent conversion in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on January 14, 1944 to be computed from January 13, 1944 be commuted from 10 years to 3 years and 6 months, expiring on July 13, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-five years of age. He is under a sentence of ten years for embezzlement as an attorney and fraudulent conversion. He has now served over three and one-fourth years of his term. He is alleged to have embezzled $8100.00 from a client.

It is interesting to note that the victims in this case feel that the applicant has been dealt with rather harshly and they have no objection to commutation of sentence. The Board of Pardons has received many letters in behalf of the applicant, some from persons in high stations and they unanimously recommend him to our mercy. He has been doubly punished in that in addition to his sentence he has been disbarred. The district attorney of Delaware County has no objection to commutation of sentence.

Under all of the circumstances the Board of Pardons believe that the applicant will not again offend and since he has served over one-third of his sentence, together with the fact that he has been disbarred, we recommend that leniency be granted as of July 13, 1947, and his sentence be commuted as of that date.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Schwartz, D-4854, No. 7171, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles Schwartz, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 15, 1940 to be computed from April 4, 1940 be commuted from 20 years to 7 years 1 month and 6 days, expiring on May 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age. He has no prior record. He is now serving a sentence of from twenty to forty years on charges of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. He has now served seven years of his minimum sentence.

He has had an excellent record at the penitentiary as is testified to by the report of the Board of Trustees. Neither the district attorney nor the trial judge has expressed opposition to the granting of clemency by the Board of Pardons.

Since the applicant has served seven years of his minimum sentence with an excellent record and the trial judge and district attorney are not opposed to clemency, the Board of Pardons recommends that the clemency prayed for should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Edward Shands, D-3890, No. 6363, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Edward Shands, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 30, 1939 to be computed from March 23, 1939 be commuted from 20 years to 8 years 1 month and 17 days, expiring on May 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-three years of age and this is his first major conviction. He has now served over eight years of his minimum sentence of twenty years. He was engaged in a series of robberies with five accomplices.

The applicant has had an excellent institutional record for the entire term of his prison sentence. The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has written that he has no objection to favorable consideration in this case because he has a good prison record and this is his first conviction of any consequence. The district attorney has stated to the Board that he has no objection to the granting of clemency if the Board sees fit to grant it to the applicant.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that the applicant has served a large portion of his sentence and that he has served it well and since there is no objection by the sentencing authorities we recommend that mercy be granted and the sentence of the applicant be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Maurice J. Smith, D-1186, No. 5335, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Maurice J. Smith, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 16, 1936, be commuted from 20 years to 11 years, 1 month, and 10 days, expiring on April 26, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Sydney Lorraine Smith, D-5791, No. 5825, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Sydney Lorraine Smith, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on May 23, 1941 to be computed from April 7, 1941 be commuted from 10 years to 6 years 1 month and 10 days, expiring on May 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than ten nor more than twenty years on the charge of robbery. At the present time he has served over six years of his minimum sentence.

Since applicant's incarceration he has made very good progress and has become interested in religion and has spent his spare time making religious plaques and illuminations, the income from the sale of which he has sent to his children for their support. He is quite interested in becoming a missionary.

The district attorney of Delaware County has left the matter of commutation in this case up to the Board of Pardons. The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has made an honest effort at rehabilitation and that if given an opportunity, since he has seen the error of his ways, will become a good citizen.

Therefore, the Board of Pardons under the above circumstances recommend that commutation be granted in order that applicant may reestablish his home.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Mary Strakey, C-8369, No. 8849, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Mary Starkey, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Delaware County on October 10, 1932, be commuted from life imprisonment to 14 years and 7 months, expiring on May 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-two years of age and this is her first major conviction. She was accused of stabbing her boy friend in the course of an argument during a drinking bout. As a result of this stabbing the boy friend died and she was sentenced to a term of life imprisonment. At the present time she has served fourteen and one-half years of this sentence.

Applicant is confined in the State Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy, and they report that she has an excellent institutional record. The district attorney of Delaware County has advised the Board of Pardons that he is not opposed to her release at this time.

The jury in finding her guilty asked the judge for further instructions. At that time they asked if it were possible to return a verdict with murder in the first degree with a recommendation of mercy, meaning less than life imprisonment. They also asked what the penalty was for second degree murder. The judge, very properly, instructed them that he could not give them the penalty as the jury had nothing to do with the sentence. However, it is clear from the questions asked that the jury did not wish to have this woman spend the rest of her life in prison. This accounts for the present attitude of the district attorney.

The Board of Pardons being an instrument of mercy of the executive feels they should properly consider the inquiry of the jury in this case. Since the applicant has been in prison for over fourteen years with an excellent record we are of the opinion that she has been sufficiently punished and will not again offend if her sentence is commuted, and we therefore, recommend that her sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Harry Steiner, B-9831, No. 8851, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Harry Steiner, convicted of burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods, conspiracy in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Blair County on July 26, 1946 to be computed from May 11, 1946 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year, expiring on May 11, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his first major conviction. He and his brother committed a series of burglaries from railroad cars in the Altoona Yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Following his arrest he had the opportunity of talking with some others in the Blair County Jail who had committed similar offenses and the individuals to whom he talked plead guilty as the result of his advice.

This applicant according to the district attorney of Blair County made a genuine and whole hearted expose of his thefts and the district attorney believes he has learned his lesson and intends to live properly hereafter. The district attorney recommends that commutation be granted as well as the trial judge, Honorable George G. Patterson.

Applicant has now served one year of his sentence and in view of his outward expression of guilt and his assistance to the Commonwealth, we believe he merits our recommendation of clemency and we hereby so recommend.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Wilbur E. Telshaw, No. 60541, No. 8848, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Wilbur E. Telshaw, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on December 27, 1945 to be computed from December 14, 1945, be commuted from 2 years to 1 year and 5 months, expiring on May 14, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-one years of age and this is his first major conviction. While in an intoxicated condition he robbed a place where he was well known and further stayed in the vicinity of the crime to drink up the loot which amounted to $92.00. He was apprehended in an intoxicated condition not far from the place where he committed this crime.

Applicant has a good record in the Allegheny County

Workhouse and the trial judge and district attorney are not opposed if he has a good work record.

Applicant has served one year and four months of his minimum sentence of two years and we feel he has learned his lesson and if released will not again commit crimes of this nature as his only failing is intoxicating liquor. It is the opinion of the Board of Pardons that he has learned from this imprisonment that it does not pay to take intoxicating liquor and then go out and commit crimes.

Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommend that the applicant's sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Delano C. Thomas, No. 1423, No. 8844, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Delano C. Thomas, convicted of abortion in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on May 24, 1946 to be computed from January 3, 1946 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is seventy-two years of age and was convicted of the crime of abortion. The peculiar thing about this case is that the alleged victim could not, under the circumstances presented in this case, have been pregnant. Nor could this doctor have performed a successful abortion for it was shown that this victim could not have been more than three weeks pregnant. Perhaps the only thing this applicant was guilty of was obtaining money under false pretense.

If this conviction is allowed to stand the applicant will lose his medical license and will be denied an opportunity of earning a livelihood, which at his age is a very serious matter.

Applicant is in very poor physical condition and in order to absolve him from the stigma of this conviction we feel he should be granted a pardon, and therefore, the Board of Pardons recommend that executive clemency be granted as prayed for by the applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Handley Vogt, No. 425-30, No. 8698, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Handley Vogt, convicted of burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Montgomery County on June 29, 1945 to be computed from June 22, 1945 be commuted from 3½ years to 1 yr. 10 mos. & 18 days, expiring on May 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty years of age and he is now serving a sentence of three and one-half to seven years on the charge of burglary, larceny, and receiving stolen goods. He together with two accomplices stole food and restaurant equipment which they took to applicant's restaurant in New Jersey. The two accomplices who were instrumental in getting applicant to commit this crime received sentences of two and one month respectively.

The applicant has an excellent institutional record in the Montgomery County Prison.

There seems to be no difference between this applicant and the two accomplices and the only way you can account for the difference in the sentences is the fact that this applicant had once before become involved in a burglary sentence.

However, we feel three and one-half years is unconscionable in this matter, and we therefore, recommend that applicant's sentence be commuted.

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Benjamin Zesdorn, C-1540, No. 2788, April Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Benjamin Zesdorn, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on November 20, 1933 to be computed from November 13, 1933, be commuted from 15 years to 13 years, 5 months, and 13 days, expiring on April 26, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of David Zimmerman, convicted of larceny, breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Schuylkill County on March 5, 1935 to be computed from March 13, 1935, be commuted on Bill No. 365 March Sess. 1935, from a max. term of 8 yrs. to a max. term of 7 yrs. and 10 days, exp. on Apr. 23, 1947; on Bill No. 366 from a max. term of 8 yrs. to a max. term of 1 day, exp. on Apr. 24, 1947; on Bill No. 367 from a max. term of 8 yrs. to a max. term of 1 day, exp. on Apr. 25, 1947; on Bill No. 369 from a max. term of 8 yrs. to a max. term of 1 day, exp. on Apr. 26, 1947; on Bill No. 370 from a max. term of 8 yrs. to a max. term of 1 day, exp. on Apr. 27, 1947; and on Bill No. 368 from a max. term of 6 yrs. to a max. term of 1 day, exp. on Apr. 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Angelozzi, D-7260, No. 7286, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Angelozzi, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 28, 1943 to be computed from June 22, 1943 be commuted from 10 years to 4 years, expiring on June 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty years of age and has never before been arrested. He was charged with robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, larceny, and receiving stolen goods. For these crimes he has now served four years of a ten year minimum sentence. The one crime for which he was arrested for assault with intent to rob was on a pervert to whose room he had gone with the purpose of holding him up. On the larceny charge he was alleged to have taken $96.00 from a hotel where he was living.

Applicant has a good record at the Eastern State Penitentiary and the trial judge, Honorable Joseph L. Kun, has written the Board of Pardons that he leaves the matter up to them. The district attorney does likewise.

We, therefore, feel that this applicant has been punished to such an extent that he will not offend against society again as he knows that he still has six years probation period which he will be required to serve if he ever again gets into trouble.

Under the circumstances the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted the applicant and he be placed on parole.

In re application of Archie Brown, No. 61366, No. 8875, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Archie Brown, convicted of rape in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Westmoreland County on August 23, 1946 be commuted from 2 years to 9 months and 20 days, expiring on June 13, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-five years of age and he had no prior record. He has now served nine months of a two year minimum sentence on a charge of rape. He plead not guilty but was convicted, he maintains his innocence and from our investigation the Board of Pardons feels that there may be some truth to applicant's firm denial.

Since he is a first offender, with a good prison record, and gives evidence of not again violating the law the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

In re application of Fred G. Bottenbusch, No. 8909, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Fred G. Bottenbusch, convicted of aggravated assault and battery in the Court of Municipal of Philadelphia County, on December 2, 1938, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-nine years of age and this is his first major conviction, in fact the Board of Pardons expressed doubt as to whether or not this applicant was properly convicted when the facts were explained to them by the applicant's attorney and agreed to by the Assistant District Attorney.

It seems this victim having successfully passed to the center of the street and seeing an automobile approaching from the opposite direction stepped backward into the path of applicant's car and received the injuries complained of. Applicant was placed on six months probation nearly eight and one-half years ago and he has been in no further trouble. He has been in the armed forces of the United States, entering shortly after his release from his probationary period and serving with the armed forces for four and one-half years.

The district attorney from Philadelphia County as well as the trial judge in this case leaves the matter to the Board of Pardons.

In view of applicant's excellent record since this offense and his good record in the armed forces, we are recommending that the prayer of the petitioner be granted and that a pardon issue.

In re application of Lewis A. Campbell, No. 6835, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Lewis A. Campbell, convicted of assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County, on April 10, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Application is forty-four years of age and this is his only conviction. Applicant was a member of a local labor union to wit, the C. I. O., and he and his accomplices got into an argument with a man from the A. F. of L. As a result blows were struck and the applicant and his accomplices were arrested.

Applicant has served his probationary period, paid the costs and made restitution to the prosecutor as required by the terms of the order of the court.

He has been in no further trouble for a period of five years and the Board of Pardons feels he has been sufficiently punished, and therefore, recommends that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Francesco Cilione, D-2705, No. 1864, May Sessions, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Francesco Cilione, convicted of murder, in the second degree, and murder, in the first degree, in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Philadelphia County on December 21, 1927, be commuted on Bill No. 378 March Sessions, 1923, from a maximum term of imprisonment of 20 years to a maximum term of 19 years and 6 months, expiring on June 21, 1947; and on Bill No. 376 from life imprisonment—to be computed from December 21, 1937—to a minimum term of 9 years, 6 months, and 1 day, expiring on June 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-four years of age and was never arrested before. He was sentenced to imprisonment for life in the Eastern State Penitentiary for murder in the first degree, said sentence to begin at the expiration of a sentence imposed for second degree murder, which sentence expired December 21, 1937.

At the present time he has served nineteen years and six months of his sentence. He has an outstanding record at the Eastern State Penitentiary and the trial judge has not written the Board concerning his opinion in this matter. The district attorney of Philadelphia County has stated he is not opposed as long as applicant is deported. It may be well to state here applicant is an alien, he being a native of the Country of Italy and asks that he be deported at this time.

In view of the protest received from the family of the victims vehemently opposing the granting of mercy at this time, the Board of Pardons feel that it is not exactly granting mercy but reducing the present population by one by returning applicant to his native land.

We, therefore, recommend that this applicant's sentence be commuted on the condition that the said applicant be delivered to the United States Immigration authorities for the purpose of deportation to Italy.

In re application of Ralph Coburn, C-9713, No. 1073, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ralph Coburn, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County on May 28, 1934 to be computed from April 25, 1946 be commuted from 10 years to 1 year and 2 months, expiring on June 25, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-six years of age. He was sentenced on charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. This is not his first arrest, in fact, this is the case of a parole violator. When he was sentenced to his present term of not less than ten nor more than twenty years the sentencing judge directed that the sentence be served concurrently with the parole violation. Later the Wheeler decision in the Supreme Court nullified this type of sentence and directed that such sentences be recomputed on a consecutive basis. As a result the applicant has now served thirteen years but only a little over one year applies on his ten year minimum.

He has an excellent institutional record and the district attorney of Luzerne County recommends that commutation be granted.

In order to give force and effect to the sentence imposed the Board of Pardons recommends commutation be granted.

In re application of Joseph Console, C-6158, No. 85-B, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph Console, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on November 15, 1937 to be computed from October 27, 1937, be commuted from 20 years to 9 years, 7 months, and 4 days, expiring on May 31, 1947.

In re application of Anthony Fox, Jr., No. 8894, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Anthony Fox, Jr., convicted of larceny, operating automobile without consent of owner, receiving stolen goods, assault and battery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 7, 1939, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-six years of age and he has had no other criminal charge placed against him. This offense occurred approximately seven years ago and is one of those unescapeable things which often happen to young men. He very irresponsibly took another man's automobile and went for a joy ride. He was apprehended and this sentence followed.

Applicant enlisted in the armed forces of the United States serving as Mess Sergeant with the 83rd Field Hospital Unit in the United States, England, France, Holland, Belgium and Germany. His reputation in his neighborhood is very good and all persons he has come in contact with speak well of him. Applicant intends to marry and desires to enter the state of matrimony without any record of this conviction against him.

Because of applicant's excellent military record and the fact that he has been in no further trouble for a period of eight years, the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Havard W. Freeman, D-6695, No. 7041, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Havard W. Freeman, convicted of forgery, larceny in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Chester County on September 15, 1942 be commuted from 5 years to 4 years, 8 months and 16 days, expiring on May 31, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Thomas A. Freiders, D-3826, No. 86-B, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Thomas A. Freiders, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 13, 1939 to be computed from February 23, 1939, be commuted from 20 years to 8 years, 3 months, and 7 days, expiring on May 31, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Gertrude Galletti, C-5161, No. 3262, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Gertrude Galletti, convicted of murder, in the second degree in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Luzerne County on February 1, 1928 to be computed from October 9, 1928 be commuted from 20 years to 18 years, 8 months and 10 days, expiring on June 19, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is fifty-eight years of age. She had no other record than the present offense for which she asks commutation of her maximum sentence. She has been on parole ten years and one month and has approximately one year and five months yet to serve. She has an excellent parole record.

No opposition to the granting of applicant's plea for commutation of maximum sentence has been expressed.

Because of her good parole record and the feeling that she has been rehabilitated, and the further fact that no opposition has been voiced the Board of Pardons recommends commutation.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Raymond P. Gansworth, D-8930, No. 8883, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Raymond P. Gansworth, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 4, 1946 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year and 10 days, expiring on June 14, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-seven years of age and this is his first major conviction. He is now serving a term of not less than two and one-half nor more than five years on the charge of robbery. He was only slightly identified and it is only on the basis of this slight identification that he was convicted. Applicant has maintained his innocence, nevertheless the jury believed the evidence and applicant was convicted.

He has at the present time served one year of a two and one-half minimum sentence. One of the accomplices of applicant has already received clemency at the hands of former members of the Board of Pardons. It may also be stated applicant is a full blooded Indian and the trial judge states that since his accomplices received commutation this applicant should also be granted the same consideration.

Following the line and reason of the trial judge the Board of Pardons recommends that applicant's sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of George Arthur Hess, No. 8865, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of George Arthur Hess, convicted of robbery by assault in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Berks County on March 14, 1945 to be computed from February 12, 1945 commuted from 3 years to 2 years and 4 months, expiring on June 12, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-eight years of age. This is his first major conviction. He is now serving a minimum sentence of three years for robbery by assault.

It is reported that the applicant has an excellent institutional record at the Berks County Prison, he being given his freedom to carry out tasks beyond the walls of the institution. These he handles with dispatch and fidelity.

The authorities of Berks County state that the applicant merits approval.

Under the aforesaid circumstances the applicant should be granted commutation and we so recommend.

Respectfully submitted,

In re application of Charles E. Judge, C-5263, No. 87-B, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Charles E. Judge, convicted of burglary, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on January 15, 1937 to be computed from January 11, 1937, be commuted on Bill No. 613 January Sessions, 1937, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 5 months, expiring on June 11, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of John William Keenan, D-3639, No. 88-B, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of John William Keenan, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 27, 1938 to be commuted from December 10, 1938, be commuted from 12 years to 8 years, and 6 months, expiring on June 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Corliss Klinefelter, D-7903 B-9245, No. 8893, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due

public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Corliss Klinefelter, convicted of burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of York County on September 25, 1944 to be computed from September 9, 1944 be commuted from 5 years to 2 years, 9 months and 10 days, expiring on June 19, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than five nor more than ten years for a series of six burglaries which he committed while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

His representative, Mrs. Thomas F. Ripple, member of the staff of Associated Aid of Dauphin County, appeared before the Board of Pardons and she felt that if she had been able to talk to applicant at or about the time he had been committing these affairs he would not have gotten into this trouble. His drinking arose because of his unhappy married life, this brought about his present incarceration.

Since his representative speaks so eloquently of what she feels she is able to do for him the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that he should be given another chance and paroled to her as his sponsor. We, therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

In re application of Merritt C. Klings, D-3982, No. 89-B, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Merritt C. Klings, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on May 5, 1939 to be computed from May 1, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 1 month, expiring on June 1, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of William M. Latta, D-6075, No. 6375, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of William M. Latta, convicted of robbery, violation of the Firearms Act, conspiracy in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on January 8, 1941 to be computed from October 26, 1941, be commuted from 6 years to 5 years, 7 months and 5 days, expiring on May 31, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Carl Joseph Lucas, B-1068, No. 4184, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Carl Joseph Lucas, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Allegheny County on October 19, 1928, be commuted from life imprisonment to 18 years and 8 months, expiring on June 19, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-seven years of age. This is his first major conviction. He is now serving a life sentence for murder in the first degree. The murder was perpetrated in the course of a robbery. He was eighteen years of age when this crime was committed. Two of applicant's accomplices have had their sentences commuted.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have written to the Board of Pardons that the applicant has an excellent record and they would recommend commutation. Neither the trial judge nor the district attorney of Allegheny County are opposed to release of the applicant.

The Board of Pardons believes that this was an unfortunate affair of youth for which the applicant paid quite dearly. Under the circumstances we feel he is rehabilitated, and therefore, recommend his commutation.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

In re application of Joseph Luckovich, No. 61628, No. 8892, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the flat sentence of Joseph Luckovich, convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on October 25, 1946 to be computed from October 24, 1946, be commuted from 2 years to 8 months, expiring on June 24, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-two years of age. He has no prior criminal record. He is now serving a two year sentence for receiving stolen goods.

He has an excellent prison record, with no infraction of the rules.

The authorities in Allegheny County leave the matter of commutation to the Board of Pardons.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has been sufficiently punished and will not again offend against society. We, therefore, recommend that a commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of James Joseph Magee, C-8860 C-1620, No. 6107, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on James Joseph Magee, convicted of assault and battery with intent to kill, aggravated assault and battery, breaking prison in the Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Bucks County on December 12, 1924 to be computed from April 4, 1929; and of felonious entry, robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, etc., in the Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Montgomery County on April 12, 1933 to be computed from February 24, 1933, be commuted on Bill Nos. 5 and 7 December Sessions, 1924 (Bucks County) from a maximum term of 16 years, 3 months, and 5 days to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on June 22, 1947; on Bill No. 51 February Sessions, 1933 (Montgomery County) from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on June 23, 1947; on Bill No. 51-1 from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on June 24, 1947; and on Bill No. 51-6 from a minimum term of 2 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on June 25, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is a parole violator but at the present time he has served thirteen years of a seventeen year sentence.

He has been a model prisoner in the Eastern State Penitentiary. He has a bad prior record, but at least the prison officials feel that he will go straight if liberated.

The trial judge has stated that if the applicant is reformed he has no objection to commutation.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant is reformed and if given another chance will be a law-abiding citizen and for that reason we recommend commutation.

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of John Bernard Malone, No. 8869, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John Bernard Malone, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on June 17, 1941, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-four years of age. He has no other criminal record than this conviction. He and his son pleaded guilty to the larceny of two typewriters and a calculating machine. He and his son were given suspended sentences in June 1941. For the past six years he and his son have been leading exemplary lives.

Applicant is now engaged in painting contract business and this conviction is a definite handicap and prevents his contracting with many governmental agencies.

The authorities in Allegheny County do not object to the granting of this pardon.

The Board of Pardons recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

In re application of John Brooks Malone, No. 8868, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John Brooks Malone, convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on June 17, 1941, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty years of age. He has no other criminal record than this conviction. He and his father pleaded guilty to the larceny of two typewriters and a calculating machine. He and his father were given suspended sentences in 1941. For the past six years he and his father have led exemplary lives.

Applicant served in the armed forces for a period of nearly one and one-half years. He was honorably discharged. He desires to enter the painting contracting business with his father and this conviction is a definite handicap and prevents his contracting with many governmental agencies.

The authorities in Allegheny County do not object to the granting of this pardon.

The Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Clifford A. Manns, C-4866, No. 4913, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 5, 1928 be commuted from life imprisonment to 18 years, 8 months and 10 days, expiring on June 15, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-one years of age and has no prior record. He has now served a term of nearly nineteen years on the charge of murder in the first degree. This applicant was twice convicted of murder with the death penalty and twice granted a new trial. At the third trial the applicant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment. At the time the trial judge, Honorable Horace Stern, told the applicant's attorney that he never felt this crime rose higher than second degree murder. However, after the lapse of ten years the memory of the judge grew dim and he does not remember this statement and has refused to make such statement to the Board of Pardons.

Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, who interests himself in many prisoners in the Eastern State Penitentiary has followed this man's course of conduct while in the institution and believes that he has paid his debt to society and is rehabilitated to the extent he could be released with safety.

The district attorney leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Under all of the circumstances we do feel this applicant has been severely punished; spent a long period of time in prison and has an excellent prison record. He has a home and sponsor all of which recommends him favorably to the Board of Pardons, and we therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Murray, D-4145, No. 4842, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of John Murray, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on July 11, 1939 to be computed from June 16, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years, 11 months, and 15 days, expiring on May 31, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of George B. Neild, D-3668, No. 8900, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of George B. Neild, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on November 18, 1946 to be computed from May 16, 1946 be commuted from 2 years to 1 year and 1 month, expiring on June 16, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-seven years of age and he was never before involved in any offense whatsoever. For some unknown reason he attempted to steal a top coat and sixteen dresses from the shipping platform on the 30th and Market Street Station of the Pennsylvania Railroad in Philadelphia.

He has an excellent record in the Philadelphia County Prison and is well known in the base ball world in Philadelphia. He has played base ball, managed base ball teams and has umpired base ball games. He is quite interested in sports and has done everything in his power to assist young men therein.

Because of his past good record and his good term in prison of one year we are recommending this his sentence be commuted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Francis J. O'Donnell, No. 8870, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Francis J. O'Donnell, convicted of operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 17, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He had had a few drinks and attempted to drive his car on a snowy night when the streets were slippery. As a result applicant's car crashed into a tree and he was arrested for operating a car while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. He was placed on probation for a period of one year and during that time suffered the revocation of his driver's license.

In 1942 applicant enlisted in the armed forces of the United States and served nearly four years. He was an aerial gunner instructor at Fort Myers, Florida.

The trial judge recommends that a pardon be granted in this case as he feels that reformation is complete. Applicant desires now to be appointed to the fire department of Philadelphia.

The Board of Pardons do not feel that we should penalize this applicant further by prohibiting his entering his chosen profession of fireman because he has already been sufficiently punished for what may have been a very slight infraction of the law. We, therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Lawrence O'Donnell, D-767, No. 3671, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Lawrence O'Donnell, convicted of attempted robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on August 6, 1935, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-three years of age and this is his first conviction of any offense. He and his accomplices had been on a drinking spree and decided to attempt to rob their victim. Their plan was foiled and applicant was apprehended.

Applicant has been rehabilitating himself well except for his marital discord which is in the process of being adjusted.

Under all of the circumstances the Board of Pardons feel this applicant will no longer offend against society and we should have no fear in granting a pardon, and therefore, we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Gilbert M. Rosenberg, No. 8887, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Gilbert M. Rosenberg, convicted of burglary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County, on January 13, 1939 to be computed from January 13, 1939, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-four years of age and this is the only conviction he was ever convicted of whatsoever which was a charge of burglary and was committed when he was only sixteen years of age. This crime occurred on what was known in Delaware County as "Mischief Night" a night evidently devoted to mischief during the Halloween season. Applicant was attempting to hide from other boys and ran into a store which had been on previous occasions burglarized. The victim had set an elaborate trap to catch the burglars and as a result applicant set this contraption off and was apprehended.

Applicant during the past emergency served forty-one months with the United States Navy in the Pacific and is now employed as a temporary employee with the Veterans Administration in Philadelphia. He will not be permitted to become a permanent employee unless he receives a pardon.

Since applicant has had no further difficulty with the law in over eight years and because of his excellent record with the Navy for nearly four years we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Howard D. Ruch, C-9759, No. 90-B, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Howard D. Ruch, convicted of larceny, violation of probation in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on July 3, 1941 and to be computed from September 30, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 8 months, expiring on May 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Roy Woodward Smith, D-4076, No. 6125, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Roy Woodward Smith, convicted of prison breach, assault and battery with intent to rob, aggravated assault and battery, and assault and battery in the Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of York County, on April 5, 1935 to be computed from June 6, 1939, be commuted on Bill No. 25 January Session, 1935, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 2 years expired on June 6, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many prisoners whose release on parole has been affected by the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel. Thomas Lynch v. Stanley P. Ashe, Warden of the Western State Penitentiary, 320 Pa. 341. In this opinion it was held that unless a prisoner, who was serving sentences imposed to run consecutively, was recommended and approved for parole at the expiration of the first minimum sentence, he would be serving the maximum of that sentence, and if no recommendation for parole was made at the expiration of the second and subsequent minimum of sentences imposed to run consecutively, the prisoner would be serving the maximum of the second and subsequent sentences. In other words, a prisoner serving an indeterminate sentence is not automatically paroled at the expiration of the minimum term but is merely eligible for parole at that time, and if not favorably considered by the Prison Board at any time thereafter, the prisoner is required to serve the full sentence.

It was the custom for a long period of time for the officials of both the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries to lump consecutive sentences and the Boards of Trustees would only make recommendations for release on parole at the expiration of the period of time equal to the total of the minimum sentences.

Since the Supreme Court held this procedure improper, the applicant and others, whose cases were not considered for parole at the expiration of their minimum sentences, through no fault of their own, will have to serve a much longer period of time than contemplated by the sentencing judge and the prison officials.

The failure of the Board of Trustees to make the necessary recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum sentences was an honest mistake, as most, if not all, sentencing judges shared the same view as the prison officials in deeming it to be unnecessary to make recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum of every consecutive sentence. Sentencing judges throughout the state have uniformly believed and taken into consideration in passing sentences the Prison Board practice that consecutive sentences would be lumped making a total minimum and a total maximum.

We believe that a great injustice would be done and that it would be most unfair to keep the applicant incarcerated for a longer period of time than recommended by the Board of Trustees of the institution in which the applicant is confined.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Sugarcik, B-1275, No. 2342, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Joseph Sugarcik, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Cambria County on March 25, 1929 be commuted from life imprisonment to 18 years and 3 months, expiring on June 25, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-two years of age. He was never in any trouble before this shooting of his brother-in-law. As a result he was convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to life imprisonment.

He has an excellent institutional record and this is one applicant that Warden Stanley P. Ashe, has informed the Board of Pardons that he feels rehabilitation is complete and commutation of sentence would be helpful.

This applicant if he is ever to be released should receive his commutation now because in another year or two a certain subtle deterioration begins to prisoners which makes the question of their release problematical.

Because of Warden Ashe's recommendation, his excellent institutional record and his prospects for rehabilitation, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Termini, C-6578, No. 1373, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Charles Termini, convicted of accessory to kidnapping in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Montgomery County on November 20, 1930 be commuted from 25 years to 16 years and 7 months, expiring on June 20, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-six years of age. He had no prior criminal record. He was involved in this criminal act by loaning his car to those who committed the kidnapping.

He served nine years of his minimum sentence and has been on parole for seven and one-half years. He has a good parole record and has been in no further trouble. He now desires commutation of his maximum sentence.

This applicant was never before in trouble and since he has not been in trouble he gives evidence of rehabilitation, and we therefore, recommend commutation of maximum sentence.

Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Steven Thrower, D-2764, No. 3897, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Charles Steven Thrower, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, be computed from April 19, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon to a term of two and one-half to five years. The assault was strong armed robberies which applicant participated in with five accomplices, all of who served their minimum sentences including the applicant.

Following applicant's release he entered the armed forces of the United States and served in the southwest Pacific with distinction. Since his release from the armed forces he has been employed on a temporary status with the Veterans Administration in Philadelphia. In order to become a permanent employee of the Civil Service Commission he is required to have a pardon.

Applicant was married in 1946 to a school teacher and the parole board reports that he has been successfully rehabilitated. He spent nearly two years in the southwest Pacific rising to the grade of a Staff Sergeant.

In order to show the Board of Pardons' appreciation to this individual for his rehabilitation and for his excellent army record as well as his attempt to become successfully established in the Civil Service of the United States, we do not wish to throw any further hindrance against the applicant, and therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John H Wall, No. 8891, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John H. Wall, convicted of operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Cumberland County, on December 5, 1946 to be computed from November 30, 1946, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-two years of age and never before has been guilty of any offense whatsoever. He was arrested and charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. However, the facts indicate this may have been a borderline case in that there was no damage done to the other car. The only damage being the locking of bumpers when the preceding automobile to applicant's car stopped suddenly for a red light. In mitigation of applicant's sentence it might be stated that at this particular time and place it was drizzling and the streets were slippery. The doctor who examined applicant stated that he talked intelligently, did not appear intoxicated although his breath smelled of alcohol and his reflexes were slow.

Applicant admitted that he had had several drinks but contends that it was not sufficient to influence him. We believe that the applicant's story was true but he, rather than face the publicity of a trial plead guilty, served fifteen days in jail, also paid the costs involved and the fine. In addition thereto it is required by the present law that the applicant's license to drive be revoked for a period of one year and at the present time he has been without a license for a period of six months. This is a definite handicap to applicant because he is unable to use an automobile in his business which is required. His business is that of an insurance adjuster and for the past seventeen years has been so engaged in that business driving to the extent of 40,000 miles yearly.

He is married and bears an excellent reputation. The trial judge does not oppose, leaving the matter up to the Board of Pardons. The district attorney recommends that a pardon be granted.

Under all these circumstances we feel this applicant has been severely punished, and therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Walsh, No. 2831, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Walsh, convicted of or pleaded guilty to the following offenses: (1) entering with intent to steal to commit a felony in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 24, 1933; (2) driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 10, 1935, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant was arrested within two years for committing two offenses against society, one was for entering a store with intent to steal and shortly thereafter, in fact, within a period of two years he was charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Applicant served his probationary period with the exception of one year when he was convicted of operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and the trial judge gave him the maximum sentence provided by law.

Following his release from the Philadelphia County Prison he entered into business and for a period of four years remained a normal person attending to his everyday livelihood. He enlisted in the Pennsylvania National Guard and in 1941 was inducted with the Guard into the Federal Service as a private with the 103rd Engineers Company "A" where he served one year and two months when he was honorably discharged from the armed forces due to a physical disability. He returned to Philadelphia subsequently engaged in national defense work where he bears an excellent reputation in the neighborhood in which he lives. He is married and lives a very unassuming life with his wife and mother-in-law. It can be said this applicant has adjusted and we do not believe he will again offend against society, and we therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Stanley Zaniewski, No. 8905, May Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Stanley Zaniewski, convicted of larceny by bailee, fraudulent conversion in the Court of Municipal of Philadelphia County, on May 12, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-nine years of age and this is the only time he ever offended against society. At the time this offense occurred this applicant was a truck driver and he kept out of a shipment a carton of shoes containing twenty-four pairs of shoes. He was arrested and placed on probation. After being released from probation he entered the armed forces of the United States.

He served with the 70th Infantry Division in the 725th Field Artillery. He reached the grade of Private First Class and successfully participated in the Saar River crossing for which he received a letter of commendation from General Milburn.

Under these circumstances we feel the applicant has paid his debt to society and will not again offend, and therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Luke J. Abbott, Jr., D-5720, No. 5613, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Luke J. Abbott, Jr., convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lackawanna County on April 4, 1941 to be computed from February 3, 1941, be commuted from 7 years to 6 years and 5 months, expiring on July 3, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Albert Adams, C-9723, No. 8924, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Albert Adams, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 18, 1941 to be computed from January 8, 1940 be commuted from 10 years to 7 years, 6 months and 10 days, expiring on July 18, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-one years of age and this was his first major conviction. He was released on parole July 27, 1942 and since that time has been living in the State of Georgia.

The records indicate that this applicant has rehabilitated himself, has joined church and has an excellent record while on parole. His chance for advancement with his employer and to become an officer in his church is hindered by this blot against him.

Since applicant has had a good parole record for the past five years and the Board of Pardons feels that he is rehabilitated and no longer needs parole supervision, we therefore, recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted.

In re application of Calvin Aichroth, D-8961, No. 8956, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Calvin Aichroth, convicted of assault with intent to rob in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 14, 1946 to be computed from June 7, 1946 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year 1 month and 10 days, expiring on July 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-one years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than two and one-half nor more than five years for the charge of assault with intent to rob.

Applicant has an excellent institutional record and at the present time has served one year and one month of a minimum sentence of two and one-half years. One of his accomplices was commuted at the May 1947 Session of the Board of Pardons and he is the last of this group who was sentenced for this crime in prison.

Both the trial judge and the district attorney leaves the matter of commutation to the Board of Pardons stating that this individual is no worse than his accomplices.

The Board of Pardons relying on the recommendation of the trial judge and the district attorney and his excellent institutional record, recommend that commutation be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James M. Brewner, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on April 20, 1939 to be computed from March 16, 1939; and of robbery, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on April 25, 1939, be commuted on Bill No. 74 March Sessions 1939, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 8 years and 4 months, expiring on July 16, 1947; and on Bills Nos. 63 and 64 April Sessions, 1939, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on July 17, 1947.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Leroy Cobb, D-7409, No. 8922, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Leroy Cobb, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on September 24, 1943 to be computed from August 19, 1943 be commuted from 10 years to 3 years and 11 months, expiring on July 19, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than ten nor more than twenty years for entering a dwelling house in an intoxicated condition looking for a friend. Although he entered the dwelling house it was shown he disturbed nothing and made no attempt to commit any burglary.

He has a fair institutional record but the thing that recommends him to the Board of Pardons is his parole plan which is submitted by his brother, who was his representative before the Board of Pardons. His brother has stated he will be taken into the family home in Butler, Pennsylvania and there will be given work in an automobile repair and paint shop. He has served a term of nearly four years of his minimum sentence. The trial judge is not opposed to commutation at this time.

Under the circumstances and since applicant has served nearly four years of his minimum sentence of ten years, and this being his first major conviction the Board of Pardons feel he has been sufficiently punished and has learned his lesson, and therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted.

In re application of Joseph Charles Coyle, No. 8959, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Charles Coyle, convicted of breaking and entering in the Court of Juvenile of Montgomery County, on March 13, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-two years of age and this is the only offense he ever committed. He and five accomplices broke into bungalows more on a boyhood lark than because of anything else. All that was taken was food stuff and some whiskey. This happened over five years ago.

After being placed on probation the applicant entered the United States Navy and served on the U. S. Carrier Essex for two years and nine months, throughout all engagements in the Southwest Pacific. He rose from Seaman to Aviation Machinist's mate and since being released from the Navy is employed with the Philadelphia Transportation Company.

Because of his military record he requests that a pardon be granted in order that this may not later serve to be a blot on his record.

On account of his excellent military record and the fact he has been in no further trouble for a period of over five years we recommend that a pardon be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James A. Davis, convicted of murder, in the second degree in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 11, 1942 to be computed from April 29, 1942 be commuted from 6 years to 5 years and 3 months, expiring on July 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is sixty-one years of age and this is his only criminal record. He is now serving a term of not less than six nor more than twelve years on the charge of murder in the second degree caused by beating his best friend to death with his fists. At the time this occurred applicant had been on a drinking spree for several days and when applicant did not know the nature of his act.

Applicant has an excellent institutional record and it was argued to the Board of Pardons that the crime occurred under such circumstances as to cause it to rise no higher than voluntary manslaughter. At the present time he has served a term of over five years.

Under these circumstances and together with his excellent institutional record and the fact that the district attorney is not opposed to commutation the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation of his sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
 DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
 CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.
 T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
 Attorney General.
 WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
 Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
 Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Anthony De Prince, D-5526, No. 7127, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Anthony DePrince, convicted of burglarly, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 29, 1941, to be computed from January 18, 1941, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 6 months, expiring on July 18, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
 CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.
 T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
 Attorney General.
 WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
 Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John J. Galiezynski, C-9066, No. 3934, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John J. Galiezynski, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on July 11, 1933, be commuted on Bill No. 729 June Sessions, 1933, from a maximum term of 15 years to a maximum term of 14 years, expiring on July 11, 1947, and on Bill No. 730 from a maximum term of 15 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on July 12, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Clarence Harman, D-3893, No. 5694, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Clarence Harmon, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on March 30, 1939 to be computed from March 23, 1939 be commuted from 20 years to 8 years and 4 months, expiring on July 23, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his first major conviction. He has now served over eight years of a minimum sentence of twenty years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon.

It is reported applicant has an excellent institutional record and the trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, recommends that this applicant be granted commutation. The district attorney leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons. It is also recommended that his parole plan which he submitted be accepted.

Since this is his first major conviction and the fact he is needed at home by his wife, and since he has an excellent institutional record it is the recommendation of the Board of Pardons that his application for commutation of sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank Harris, C-3583, No. 5527, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Frank Harris, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on October 1, 1926 be commuted from life imprisonment to 20 years 9 months and 16 days, expiring on July 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty years of age and was convicted of murder in the first degree for killing his accomplice when they were apprehended by the police officer.

At the time of the hearing before the Board of Pardons the attorney for the applicant, Herbert L. Maris, Esquire, demonstrated before the Board that it would have been impossible for the applicant's gun to have fired the shot which killed the victim. He demonstrated that the bullet which was removed from the deceased could not have fit into the chamber of the gun. Furthermore, it was demonstrated that the point of entry of the bullet into the victim was at right angles to the position of the applicant to the victim. Therefore, making it impossible for the applicant to have shot the bullet, if the bullet could have been shot from his gun and have it enter the body of the victim where the physical facts indicated it did enter.

The trial judge in his charge to the jury stated that if the jury could not find that the applicant's gun fired the shot that killed the victim he should be acquitted. Nevertheless the jury convicted him.

Applicant has now served nearly twenty-one years of his life sentence and he has an excellent institutional record and the Board of Pardons feels that he has suffered a great deal by this conviction in the light of the present facts that his gun could not have caused the death of the victim.

Since applicant has an excellent institutional record and doubt has been shed upon his firing the fatal shot, the Board of Pardons feels he has been sufficiently punished and we recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Michael Imburgia, C-4872, No. 1923, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Michael Imburgia, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery of Allegheny County on February 21, 1928 be commuted from life to 19 years and 5 months, expiring on July 21, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-two years of age and the offense for which he seeks commutation was his first major conviction. He was sentenced on the charge of murder in the first degree and after having served thirteen years in the penitentiary was released on parole.

The Board of Parole advise the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent record while on parole and has been steadily employed and has saved approximately $4,000.00. His earnings amount to about $300.00 a month.

Applicant desires to go into the automobile business and secure franchise for the sale of automobiles and he cannot do this while on parole, and therefore seeks commutation of his maximum sentence.

The Ohio State Bureau of Probation and Parole advise that they favor commutation.

Because of applicant's good record while on parole for the past five and one-half years, the Board of Pardons feels he has been rehabilitated and supervision is no longer necessary and we therefore recommend commutation of maximum sentence.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Raymond Clifford Leake, B-5842, No. 6521, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Raymond Clifford Leake, convicted of rape, sodomy, robbery, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on November 24, 1937 to be computed from November 15, 1937 be commuted from 22½ years to 9 years 8 months and 5 days, expiring on July 20, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-one years of age and this is his first conviction. He was sentenced on the charge of rape, sodomy, robbery and receiving stolen goods to a term of not less than twenty-two and one-half nor more than forty-five years. At the present time he has served almost ten years of his minimum sentence. He has an excellent institutional record.

The victim has written to the Board of Pardons stating she has no objection to the granting of commutation at the present time and feels if he is released he will not again commit this type of crime.

Many letters have been received from the applicant's friends and well wishers requesting that he be granted commutation.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary state that they feel he should be granted parole because of his excellent institutional record and the fact that he is a first offender.

The trial judge, Honorable E. W. Marshall, recommends the granting of commutation. The district attorney of Allegheny County leaves the matter up to the Board of Pardons and at the hearing stated he felt applicant had served sufficient time.

In the light of the letters received by the Board and the recommendation of the authorities, the Board of Pardons recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Richard Leonard, D-4848, No. 5507, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Richard Leonard, convicted of burglarly, removing journals from railroad cars, burglarly of railroad car, in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Lackawanna County, on April 4, 1940, to be computed from December 12, 1939, be commuted on Bill No. 34 December Sessions, 1939, from a maximum term of 12 years to a maximum term term of 7 years, 7 months and 10 days, expiring on July 22, 1947. (Bills Nos. 265, 267, 268, 5 and 6 to run concurrently with Bill No. 34 are also commuted).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than six nor more than twelve years on the charge of burglarly, removing journals from railroad cars, burglarly of railroad car. He served nearly four years of his minimum sentence when his sentence was commuted by the Board of Pardons. He has been on parole for a period of more than four years and he has not violated the law.

Applicant has an excellent record while on parole and the trial district attorney, Honorable Michael J. Eagon, who is now a judge of Lackawanna County, has written the Board of Pardons he has no objection to the granting of this application. Applicant is now a respectable citizen and has two children and is the support of his mother and grandmother.

Under the circumstances the Board of Pardons feels he has earned the right to have his sentence commuted by reason of his good conduct while on parole and his rehabilitation, and therefore, for the sake of his family and because of his good habits and industry we recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

In re application of James Earl Lytle, No. 60509, No. 8935, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Earl Lytle, convicted of burglarly in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on December 13, 1945 to be computed from December 4, 1945 be commuted from 2 years to 1 year, 7 months and 13 days, expiring on July 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was charged with burglarly of a store and the larceny of a typewriter therefrom.

Applicant has an excellent institutional record and the trial judge is not opposed, neither is the district attorney of Allegheny County. He has now served over three-fourths of his sentence and all his accomplices have been released.

Since applicant has a good institutional record and the authorities in Allegheny County are not opposed and since he has served three-fourths of his sentence, we recommend that commutation be granted.

In re application of John P. McLaughlin, No. 8472, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on John P. McLaughlin, convicted of forgery, uttering forged instruments, false pretense, and conspiracy in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lehigh County, on January 21, 1946, be commuted on Bill No. 32 September Sessions, 1944 from a minimum term of 2 years to a minimum term of 1 year and 6 months, expiring on July 21, 1947. (Bill No. 33 September Sessions, 1944 and Bill No. 49 January Sessions, 1945 to run concurrent are also commuted).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-two years of age. He has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to a term of two to four years on a charge of forgery, uttering forged instruments, false pretense and conspiracy in connection with a pay roll padding of the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Some doubts as to the propriety of the conviction was shown by the handwriting expert's testimony. The expert categorically denied that the applicant forged any of the dubious signatures.

He has a good record in the Lehigh County Jail. It is to be pointed out that all of his accomplices have been released and he is the only one of four now in prison.

Because of the doubt which the handwriting expert has raised and because all of his accomplices have now been released, coupled with his good conduct in prison, we recommend his sentence be commuted.

In re application of John Milbourne, D-1856, No. 6390, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of John M. Milbourne, convicted of assault, being armed with intent to rob in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on January 5, 1937, be commuted from 20 years to 10 years and 6 months, expiring on July 5, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

In re application of John N. Miller, C-8833, No. 92-B, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of John N. Miller, convicted of burglary, violation of probation in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 24, 1940 to be computed from April 25, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years, 2 months and 16 days, expiring on July 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of James Morran, No. 6753, No. 8946, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James Morran, convicted of rape and adultery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on May 13, 1936, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-nine years of age. He was sentenced to a term of six months on a charge of rape and adultery. From the sentence it would seem that there was slight evidence of guilt. The parole report indicates that from present investigation the brother of the applicant was the guilty person and not the applicant and that if the applicant had not plead guilty he would not have been convicted.

He bears an excellent reputation in the community and until recently was Chief of Police of Scott Township of Allegheny County. He is married and the father of two children.

The record indicates applicant did not commit the crime to which he plead guilty, therefore, on that basis we recommend a pardon.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Mraz, B-9222, No. 5396, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Mraz, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on March 6, 1945, be commuted from 5 years to 2 years, 4 months and 11 days, expiring on July 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty-one years of age and does not have a very good prior record having been arrested five times and convicted four, one of which was a parole violation. He is charged with the crime of stealing twenty-three War Savings Stamps and forty-two cent postage stamps. For this crime he has now served a term of nearly two and one-half years.

Both the burgess and justice of the peace of Glassport, Pennsylvania, have written to the Board of Pardons requesting that his sentence be commuted.

Applicant has an excellent institutional record. Because of the recommendation of the justice of the peace and the burgess and the fact that the burgess has stated that he will be his sponsor and keep him under close supervision, the Board of Pardons feels they can now recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Therefore, we say to your Excellency, that we feel his sentence should be commuted and his parole plan accepted.

In re application of Lawrence Mullen, B-5974, No. 5593, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Lawrence Mullen, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on March 3, 1938 to be computed from February 17, 1938 be commuted from 14 years to 9 years and 5 months, expiring on July 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-seven years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than seven nor more than fourteen years for a series of service station robberies. There were twelve robberies altogether.

Applicant served five years of his minimum sentence when he was released on parole through commutation of his minimum sentence. He has been on parole three and one-half years. He has an excellent record while on parole.

Following his release from the Western State Penitentiary he served in the armed forces of the United States in France and later in the Philippines. Certified copy of his discharge was filed with the Board of Pardons. His occupation in military service was that of demolition expert.

We feel this man has shown that he has been completely rehabilitated and because of his service to his country are of the opinion we can release him from parole by granting him a commutation of his maximum sentence. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation of his maximum sentence be granted.

In re application of Andrew Murarik, B-9153, No. 7978, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Andrew Murarik, convicted of rape in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clearfield County on December 4, 1944 be commuted from 4 years to 2 years, 7 months and 16 days, expiring on July 20, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and this is his first conviction for any offence whatsoever. He was sentenced to a term of not less than four nor more than eight years on a charge of rape. At the present time he has served over two and one-half years on said sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have advised the Board of Pardons that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and they would recommend commutation. The trial judge, Honorable Cortez Bell, has written the Board and stated that he believes the applicant has been sufficiently punished, and especially since his wife and three children who are actually suffering.

We recommend commutation for the following reasons: (1) he has an excellent institutional record; (2) his wife and three children are suffering as a result of his incarceration; and (3) the sentencing authorities do not object to commutation.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Claude Myers, B-5437, No. 1808, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Claude Myers, convicted of burglary in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Allegheny County on March 23, 1937 to begin at the expiration of backtime of 1 year and 6 months on September 23, 1938, be commuted on Bill No. 50 March Sessions, 1937, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 3 years, 9 months and 24 days, expiring on July 17, 1947. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bill No. 49).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-four years of age and this is his second tour of sentence in the Western State Penitentiary. He states that he was only the lookout and only received $200.00 from eight robberies committed. However, our records show applicant pleaded guilty to eight robberies and the records indicated he was an active participant. He has now served approximately nine years for this crime together with an additional one year and six months which he served for violation of parole so at the present time he has now served over ten years of a minimum sentence of eleven and one-half years. He has a good institutional record at the Western State Penitentiary also a good work record. His sister, who is his representative before the Board of Pardons states that she will attempt to maintain supervision of this applicant and help him to become a good parolee.

Under these circumstances the Board of Pardons feels he should be given an opportunity at this time because he has almost served his minimum sentence and because of his institutional record. If he ever violates this parole he will have a very long period of time in which to regret his actions.

Therefore, we recommend to your Excellency that commutation be granted this applicant.

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Daniel O'Connell, No. 8916, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Daniel O'Connell, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 23, 1914, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is sixty-one years of age and this is the only crime he ever committed which was larceny and receiving stolen goods, being fifteen pounds of scrap iron, valued at .25c on or about March 23, 1914. As a result of this he was sentenced to Huntingdon Reformatory. After being released from there on September 19, 1916, applicant entered the United States Navy where he served continuously all through World War I and II, his period of service lasting twenty-nine years, less four days.

It is thirty years and ten months since he was released on parole.

In view of the fact that he has not been in any trouble for over thirty years and further that he served his country through two wars the Board is of the opinion he has earned the right to have this one blot removed from his record. Under all of the circumstances we say to your Excellency that here is a case as deserving as any and we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Louis Perri, D-4882, No. 6489, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence on Louis Perri, convicted of assault and battery; assault and battery with intent to ravish; attempted rape, etc. in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 26, 1940 to be computed from April 10, 1949 be commuted from 8 years to 7 years, 3 months and 10 days, expiring on July 20, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and this is his first major imprisonment. At the present time he has served over seven years of a minimum sentence of eight years on the charge of assault and battery; assault and battery with intent to ravish; and attempted rape. All of his accomplices have been released and it was argued to the Board of Pardons that this applicant was not any more guilty than his accomplices.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have advised the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record, has a good parole plan which has been approved by the Board of Parole.

Since the applicant has served the major portion of his minimum sentence and has an excellent prison record and since he is virtually a first offender, the Board of Pardons recommends that his prayer be answered and he be granted commutation of his sentence.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Powers, No. 8971, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James Powers, convicted of fornication and bastardy in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on October 13, 1927, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-nine years of age. He has no prior criminal record. Although maintaining his innocence he was nevertheless convicted of fornication and bastardy and duly sentenced. He has complied fully with said sentence, the sentence expiring over five years ago.

Applicant bears an excellent record in his community with the exception of this offense. He served honorably with the armed forces and received a medical discharge from the United States Navy.

He is married and is the father of one child, a daughter, by this marriage.

We feel that having fully complied with the sentence and his service with the armed forces he has earned the pardon he requests. We therefore, recommend the pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Russell Priestman, C-6888, No. 5310, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Russell Priestman, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Philadelphia County on March 10, 1931 to be computed from July 11, 1946, be commuted on Bill No. 160 March Sessions, 1931 from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 11 months and 10 days expiring on July 21, 1947; and one Bill No. 1613 from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on July 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty-one years of age and he does not have a very good criminal record. He has at least two parole violations and on March 10, 1931, was returned to the Eastern State Penitentiary for the third time as a parole violator.

This applicant was one of the persons whose sentence was changed in the Wheeler decision in the Supreme Court and although he has served over fifteen years and three months he has only served eleven months of his final sentence of fifteen years. Had it not been for this Wheeler decision the applicant would have been eligible for parole three months ago.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary stated to the Board of Pardons that he has an excellent institutional record. The trial judge has written that his imprisonment has been salutary and that he has reached an understanding of his obligations to himself and the community and further that his application is meritorious. The district attorney stated that under these circumstances he is not opposed to commutation.

In order to give effect to the trial judge's sentence which was changed by the Wheeler decision and in view of his excellent institutional record and the fact that he has now served a term equal to and longer than his minimum sentence we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James L. Reilly, No. 8910, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James L. Reilly, convicted of larceny of automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on April 8, 1933, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-six years of age. He was sentenced to a term of six months in the Allegheny County Workhouse for larceny of an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. He has been in no further trouble for fourteen years.

He served in the armed forces of the United States and received an honorable discharge. He is now attending school but desires a pardon in order to secure a private detective license or to take a civil service test with the government for a railway mail employee.

Because of his excellent record in military service and his good reputation in his community, we recommend a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Roberts, No. 12, No. 8915, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Roberts, convicted of burglary, breaking and entering and larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Schuylkill County on March 21, 1940 to be computed from May 12, 1946, be commuted from 8 years to 1 year 2 months and 10 days, expiring on July 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age. He has served over seven years in the Schuylkill County Prison for violation of parole and for burglary, breaking and entering and larceny. Because he had violated his parole he has only served a little over one year but his time spent in prison has been as set forth above.

The Warden of the prison has written us and stated to the Board of Pardons that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and has been a trusty for many years. He recommends commutation. The trial judge, Honorable Vincent J. Dalton, does not oppose. The district attorney recommends that the commutation be granted.

Because of the length of time served, and his excellent record, together with the recommendations of the sentencing authorities we recommend that clemency be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Reuben R. Robinson, D-6970, No. 5977, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Reuben R. Robinson, convicted of burglary, conspiracy to commit burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Clearfield County, on July 21, 1941, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-six years of age. He has no prior criminal record except the one he here seeks pardon. He served two years of a minimum sentence of four years on a charge of burglary and conspiracy to commit burglary. Following commutation the applicant made his residence near Philadelphia. He went into the wholesale furniture and clothing jobbing business and has made a great success of this, building his business to nearly a quarter of a million dollars annually. He feels he is unable to further expand his business due to the requirements for bonds and other financial ratings requiring the disclosing of this criminal record.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant is thoroughly rehabilitated. We do not believe he will ever offend again against society. Because of this, we recommend a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Max Rudnick, D-7753, No. 7695, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Max Rudnick, convicted of aggravated assault and battery with intent to kill carrying concealed deadly weapons, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, June 1, 1944 to be computed from May 17, 1944, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty-seven years of age and this is the only offense he ever committed against society. He was sentenced to a term of not less than eighteen months nor more than five years. The reason for this sentence was that he got into a fight with the man who broke up his home and with whom his wife was living in a meretricious relationship. As a result of his wife leaving him, he lost his home and money and while in prison was bitten on the cheek by a rat causing him to suffer face cancer which it was necessary to remove by surgery.

We feel this applicant has suffered intensely and that he was innocent of this marital triangle. We do not think this man ever had any criminal tendencies. If he had he would have exhibited them before he became fifty-four years of age. If anything it was a crime of passion and virtually arose as a result of victim's acts and we feel it should not be a stigma against this applicant's character.

The Board of Pardons therefore recommend that a pardon be granted this applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Harold Rush, B-7138, No. 7062, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Harold Rush, convicted of burglary in the Quarter Sessions Court of Washington County on March 8, 1940, to be computed from March 2, 1940, be commuted from 60 years to 7 years, 4 months and 10 days, expiring on July 12, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Harry Sill, B-6897, No. 4853, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Harry Sill, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on September 20, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 10 months, expiring on July 20, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-eight years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than ten nor more than twenty years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At the present time he has served nearly eight years of this sentence. He has an excellent institutional record and the Board of Trustees state that they would recommend him for parole if he were eligible.

The district attorney of Allegheny County as no objection and leaves the matter up to the Board of Pardons.

Under these circumstances the Board of Pardons feel that applicant has served sufficient length of time and given evidence of his rehabilitation, and we therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel V. Stango, No. 8925, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Samuel V. Stango, convicted of setting up an illegal lottery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on August 15, 1944, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-three years of age and has no prior criminal record. In 1944 he was arrested and charged with the crime of setting up an illegal lottery and given a suspended sentence.

Immediately after receiving the suspended sentence he was inducted into the armed forces of the United States where he served as a military policeman. His total length of service with the armed forces was one year and five months. He is now employed as a truck driver with the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board and desires to secure a pardon in order that he may be duly certified under the civil service laws to a permanent position.

Since this was applicant's only offense against society and because of his military service, the Board of Pardons feels that he should not be hampered by this one offense, and we therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank Steggert, B-3441, No. 4165, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Frank Steggert, convicted of robbery in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Allegheny County, on November 16, 1932, be commuted on Bill No. 13 October Sessions, 1932, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 4 years and 8 months, expiring on July 16, 1947; and on Bill No. 22 November Sessions, 1932, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on July 17, 1947. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bills Nos. 28 and 12).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-five years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced for thirteen armed robberies to a term of not less than twenty nor more than forty years. At the present time he has served fourteen and one-half years of his minimum sentence.

Applicant has an excellent institutional record and the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary say they would recommend commutation because of his excellent record in the institution and for the fact that all of his accomplices have been released.

The district attorney has no objection to the granting of commutation and the trial judge makes no recommendation in this case.

Applicant has a good parole plan which is recommended and will be kept under strict supervision for a period of twenty-five years.

Under all of these circumstances, the Board of Pardons feel he will not again offend against society, and therefore, we recommend that the commutation prayed for be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Joseph F. Stonkus, No. 91-B, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph F. Stonkus, convicted of robbery by violence in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Northampton County on January 13, 1941, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 6 months, expiring on July 13, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Raymond Stout, No. 8969, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Raymond Stout, convicted of voluntary and involuntary manslaughter in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on April 23, 1935, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-nine years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to a term of six months in the House of Correction for involuntary manslaughter as a result of an automobile accident wherein applicant's car struck another car and occupant therein was killed.

Applicant served his six months being released in the fall of 1935 and since that time he has lived a law-abiding and moral existence. He has been steadily employed and is now married and has one child. He served in the armed forces of the United States for a period of three months during the past emergency. He was discharged on account of a physical impairment. He worked with the Sun Ship Building Company after his release and aided in the war effort. He has an excellent reputation and people state he is a reliable and honest worker. He is very repentant about his crime.

Under all these circumstances we are of the opinion he is entitled to consideration, and therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Arthur Stoynoff, C-74, No. 8938, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Arthur Stoynoff, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Erie County on February 18, 1947, to be computed from March 8, 1946, be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year 4 months and 10 days, expiring on July 18, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-seven years of age. This is his first conviction for any offense whatsoever. He was sentenced to a term of not less than two and one-half nor more than five years on a charge of larceny and receiving stolen goods. He has now served over one-half of his minimum sentence.

It is reported that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and that he has been steadily employed while in the institution.

Because this applicant was of great help to the Commonwealth in the conviction of his several accomplices the district attorney of Erie County favors commutation of his sentence. He seeks parole to go to the State of Missouri where he will live with his mother.

The Board of Pardons recommends this commutation because of his excellent institutional record and because of his aid and assistance he gave the Commonwealth in the conviction of his accomplices.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel Thompson, D-5850, No. 6798, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Samuel Thompson, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 18, 1941, to be computed from February 11, 1941, be commuted from 7½ years to 6 years 5 months and 5 days, expiring on July 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-four years of age and this is his first major conviction. He has now served six years and five months of his minimum sentence of seven and one-half years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon.

This applicant has one of the most outstanding records in the institution and is secretary to Mr. Frank P. Tucker, Senior Parole Officer, who recommends him highly. He handles most of Mr. Tucker's confidential work and has shown great fidelity in the handling of these confidential matters. He of course has the recommendation of the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary for this commutation.

In view of this man's excellent institutional record and his obvious rehabilitation the Board of Pardons feels that he has earned his right to commutation, he being a first offender.

Under these circumstances, and the Board feeling that he will not again violate the trust which is being placed in him, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of E. R. Underwood, B-9472, No. 8781, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of E. R. Underwood, convicted of embezzlement in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Butler County on December 7, 1945 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year 7 months and 10 days, expiring on July 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-five years of age. He has no prior criminal record. At the present time he has served over one and one-half years of a minimum sentence of two and one-half years on a charge of embezzlement concerned with the manipulation of stock in customers accounts. Applicant was the manager of a firm of stock brokers. He was approximately $12,000.00 short in his accounts.

He has an excellent institutional record and the trial judge makes no recommendation as to his release.

Restitution has been made to the extent of applicant's ability and his former employes are not opposed to commutation.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant is of the type that will not again violate the law, and since he has an excellent institutional record, we recommend that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Stephen J. Vig, D-7446, No. 93-B, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Stephen J. Vig, convicted of larceny of an automobile, violation of probation in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 30, 1938 to be computed from April 17, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 3 months, expiring on July 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Tillie Decora Walker, C-9230, No. 8919, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Tillie Decora Walker, convicted of murder, in the second degree in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on October 2, 1933 be commuted from 20 years to 13 years 9 months and 20 days, expiring on July 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-five years of age and this is the only offense she was ever convicted of. She was sentenced to a term of not less than ten nor more than twenty years on the charge of murder in the second degree. Applicant served her minimum sentence and was released on parole November 9, 1943. At the present time she has served three years and seven months on parole with an excellent record. She now asks that her maximum sentence be commuted in order that she may be free from further parole supervision.

The authorities in Delaware County have no objection to the granting of this commutation. She no longer is a resident of Delaware County where the crime took place but has relocated and rehabilitated herself in the City of Williamsport in Lycoming County.

Because applicant has a satisfactory parole record and because she has obviously rehabilitated herself, the Board of Pardons feel that she has earned the right to have her maximum sentence commuted at this time, and we therefore, recommend to the Governor that the maximum sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Harry Asbury White, D-4600, No. 5608, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Harry Asbury White, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Philadelphia County on December 13, 1933 to be computed from January 23, 1940, be commuted on Bill No. 256 December Session 1933, from a minimum term of 2½ years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on July 24, 1947. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bills Nos. 254 and 255).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-nine years of age and has now served a total of thirteen years and six months. He too, does not have a very impressive criminal record; eight arrests, three convictions, and one parole violation. However, at the time of his sentence in November 1929, the two sentences which he received were improperly linked together so that when he was released on parole he was improperly at large as later set forth in the case of Commonwealth ex rel Cox v. Ashe, 146 Pa. Super. 365. Therefore, when he was convicted on December 13, 1933, and given three consecutive sentences of five to twenty years he was required to go back and serve the balance of his sentences which were imposed on November 6, 1928.

It was argued that his minimum on the first sentence imposed by the Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, if rightly figured would have commenced on January 23, 1925, and if applicant had been granted a parole upon expiration of his minimum sentence thereafter he should have been granted final parole on the last sentence January 23, 1945.

Under these circumstances the applicant has served a period of over one and one-half years longer than was required of his minimum sentence. He has an excellent institutional record and since he has now served a term equal to more than his minimum sentences and since the district attorney does not oppose the commutation, we feel that he is entitled at this time to a correction of these sentences and that his sentence should be commuted, and we therefore, so recommend.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Benjamin Zellat, No. 8968, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Benjamin Zellat, convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 31, 1941, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-eight years of age and he and his brother are in the business of buying and selling used auto parts, operating what is known as Nicetown Auto Parts Company. They have an excellent business doing a gross of well over one million dollars a year.

Unfortunately in March 1941 the applicant and his brother purchased auto springs which had been stolen of which they had no knowledge and upon their apprehension immediately made restitution of the springs to whom they belonged. As a result of their past reputation they were given suspended sentences. This applicant then entered the armed forces of the United States and had an excellent record.

Since this was applicant's only violation against society and since he is happily married and the father of a son twelve years old and a daughter nine years old and also because of his military record, the Board of Pardons feels they can recommend without hesitance this applicant for a pardon.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

In re application of Samuel D. Zellat, No. 8967, June Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Samuel D. Zellat, convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 31, 1941, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-six years of age and he and his brother are in the business of buying and selling used auto parts, operating what is known as Nicetown Auto Parts company. They have an excellent business doing a gross of well over one million dollars a year.

Unfortunately in March 1941 the applicant and his brother purchased auto springs which had been stolen of which they had no knowledge and upon their apprehension immediately made restitution of the springs to whom they belonged. As a result of their past reputation they were given suspended sentences. This applicant entered the armed forces of the United States and had an excellent record.

Applicant has an excellent reputation in his community and is considered a peaceful and law-abiding citizen.

Under these circumstances and for his wife and child, we recommend that a pardon be granted as prayed for by the applicant.

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Leonard A. Bolton, No. 8990, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Leonard A. Bolton, convicted of larceny of automobile, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on December 20, 1943, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-four years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was charged with larceny of automobile and driving same with accomplice on a joy ride. At the time of the commission of this offense he was a merchant seaman. He now desires to become an American citizen, he being a citizen of the Dominion of Canada, but he can not do so until he secures a pardon for this offense.

This crime could not have been very serious as he only received six months probation. He is not on parole and the district attorney is not opposed. Also the trial judge sees no harm in the granting of his application. Applicant is still engaged in the Maritime service of the United States.

Under these circumstances, we feel no harm will be done in granting applicant's request and we therefore recommend that a pardon be granted in order that applicant may be permitted to apply for citizenship.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Thomas J. Boulson, B-5673, No. 5384, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment of Thomas J. Boulson, convicted of burglary, entering a building in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on July 3, 1935; and of breaking and escaping penitentiary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County, on August 14, 1937, be commuted on Bill No. 154 September Sessions, 1937, (Centre County) from a maximum term of 5 years to a maximum term of 2 years and 3 months, expiring on October 3, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph W. Brown, No. 9033, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph W. Brown, convicted of violation of Pennsylvania Liquor Control Act, sales to non-members of club in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 14, 1946, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-two years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was charged with violation of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Act, having sold liquor to two members of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board Staff who were not members of the club where he was employed as bartender. The Liquor Control Board officers saw applicant serve drinks to persons in an intoxicated condition.

Applicant is a veteran of World War II, is attending Temple University High School and is married. He served nineteen months in the armed forces.

Because applicant served with the armed forces and his evident attempt to rehabilitate and better his position in life, we feel we should not hold this conviction against him and under these circumstances recommend that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Morris J. Cohen, No. 9005, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Morris J. Cohen, convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County, on February 2, 1945 to be computed from September 25, 1945.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-five years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was convicted on the charge of receiving stolen goods, he with his partner having purchased several radios which had been stolen. Applicant and partner are in the scrap iron business and they have continued in this business for the past four or five years.

Applicant is married, has two children. He never before has been in any trouble whatsoever and has a responsible business in Delaware County, giving every evidence of not again offending against society.

Under these circumstances and because of the fact accomplice Joseph Doblitz, received a pardon at our hands at the March Session of the Board of Pardons, the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted applicant as prayed for.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

In re application of Thomas Francis Connors, No. 8991, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Thomas Francis Connors, convicted of larceny in the Court of Quarter sessions of Allegheny County, on December 2, 1932, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-five years of age and has no prior criminal record. He together with four accomplices attended a party and while there stole certain articles and as a result was charged with larceny and was placed on probation for a period of five years.

Applicant has been in no trouble for fourteen and three-fourth years. Following his release from probation he served with the armed forces and has since been honorably discharged therefrom. He is employed as a general laborer but seeks to qualify as a fireman on the civil service list of the City of Pittsburgh but in order to do so he must secure a pardon for this offense. He is married and lives with his wife Patricia.

Since applicant has been in no further trouble for almost fifteen years and because of his excellent army record we recommend that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Walter Leroy Cunningham, B-8474, No. 8973, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Walter Leroy Cunningham, convicted of burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Westmoreland County on February 24, 1943 to be computed from September 14, 1942, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years and 2 months, expiring on November 14, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-nine years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for burglary, larceny, and receiving stolen goods. At the present time, applicant has served approximately four years and nine months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees have informed the Board of Pardons that if applicant were eligible to apply for parole, they would so recommend as he has an excellent institutional record, has served almost five years, is a very cooperative and trustworthy inmate being employed in a position of trust.

The sentencing authorities from Westmoreland County do not oppose the granting of clemency.

Therefore, the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that the prayer of the applicant should be answered and commutation granted.

In re application of William J. DeSalvatore, D-5762, No. 95-B, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of William J. DeSalvatore, convicted of conspiracy, assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery with intent to kill, attempted murder in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on May 9, 1941 to be computed from December 26, 1940, be commuted from 7 years to 6 years, 9 months and 10 days, expiring on October 6, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of James DiPasqua, D-1594, No. 7917, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James DiPasqua, convicted of fraudulent conversion in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 17, 1944, to be computed from March 15, 1944, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-nine years of age and he was charged with fraudulent conversion of $101.00 from the Family Society of Philadelphia through the fraudulent use of fictitious Social Security Cards. As a result of this crime applicant was given a term of not less than 2½ nor more than 10 years in the Philadelphia County Prison, which he served. Due to this conviction applicant faces deportation.

Applicant came to this country when he was three and one-half years of age and has not returned to the country of his birth since that time. Because his father secured citizen papers after applicant had reached the age of twenty-one, applicant was not included in the citizenship of his parents, and therefore, upon the commission of this crime he is subject to deportation under Federal Law.

Applicant is married and has a daughter and a son. If we were not to grant this pardon the applicant's family may be broken up and he forced to return to a land where he knows nothing of the customs or the speech. This would be a great hardship on this family.

In order to avoid deportation of this applicant the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Joseph Doblitz, No. 8778, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Doblitz, convicted of illegal sale of liquor in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County, on March 28, 1935, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-eight years of age and is engaged in the scrap iron metal business with Morris J. Cohen. He was arrested and charged with violation of the liquor laws by selling after twelve o'clock Saturday, which law was repealed shortly following applicant's conviction.

This applicant has an excellent record and has been in no further trouble for a period of three years.

The Board of Pardons feels he will not again offend against society and for the sake of his family and his evident rehabilitation we recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Lawrence W. Drake, D-9406, No. 9011, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Lawrence W. Drake, convicted of larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Wyoming County on January 20, 1947, be commuted from 1½ years to 10 months, expiring on November 20, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-three years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from one and one-half to three years for larceny.

The trial judge, Honorable Edward B. Farr, does not oppose commutation nor does the district attorney leaving the matter entirely up to the Board of Pardons.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have reported that applicant has an excellent disciplinary record and his attitude toward authority is satisfactory.

Under the circumstances the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that to show leniency at this time would do much to help this applicant to show that he has learned his lesson and will never again offend against society. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

In re application of James Falco, D-4291, No. 6806, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Falco, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on October 2, 1939 to be computed from September 3, 1939 be commuted from 5 years to 4 years and 2 months, expiring on November 3, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years for robbery.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have written the Board of Pardons that applicant has a good record and seems to be trying to adjust himself satisfactorily.

The trial judge is of the opinion that commutation at this time may be helpful to applicant. The district attorney is not opposed to commutation.

The Board of Pardons therefore following the thought of the trial judge, Honorable Joseph L. Kun, and the district attorney recommends that commutation be granted.

In re application of Donald Gilchrist, D-4847, No. 6655, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Donald Gilchrist, convicted of burglary, larceny, removing journals from railroad cars in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lackawanna County on April 4, 1940 to be computed from December 12, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 10 months, expiring on October 12, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Robert Heffner, No. 8994, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert Heffner, convicted of larceny, operating an automobile without consent of owner, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on May 17, 1946 to be computed from April 15, 1946 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year and 7 months, expiring on November 15, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-seven years of age and this is his first major offense. He was arrested and charged with the crime of larceny and operating an automobile without consent of owner and sentenced to a term of not less than two and one-half nor more than five years in the Delaware County Jail.

Applicant has served over one and one-half years of his minimum sentence at the Delaware County Jail where he has conducted himself properly and endeavored to improve himself.

The district attorney from Delaware County has no objection to commutation and the Board of Pardons is of the opinion the action of this applicant was not intended to be larceny but more an act to enjoy a ride, and therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Mike Hennessey, B-6509, No. 182-A, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many prisoners whose release on parole has been affected by the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel. Thomas Lynch v. Stanley P. Ashe, Warden of the Western State Penitentiary, 320 Pa. 341. In this opinion it was held that unless a prisoner, who was serving sentences imposed to run consecutively, was recommended and approved for parole at the expiration of the first minimum sentence, he would be serving the maximum of that sentence, and if no recommendation for parole was made at the expiration of the second and subsequent minimum of sentences imposed to run consecutively, the prisoner would be serving the maximum of the second and subsequent sentences. In other words, a prisoner serving an indeterminate sentence is not automatically paroled at the expiration of the minimum term but is merely eligible for parole at that time, and if not favorably considered by the Prison Board at any time thereafter, the prisoner is required to serve the full sentence.

It was the custom for a long period of time for the officials of both the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries to lump consecutive sentences and the Boards of Trustees would only make recommendations for release on parole at the expiration of the period of time equal to the total of the minimum sentences.

Since the Supreme Court held this procedure improper, the applicant and others, whose cases were not considered for parole at the expiration of their minimum sentences, through no fault of their own, will have to serve a much longer period of time than contemplated by the sentencing judge and the prison officials.

The failure of the Board of Trustees to make the necessary recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum sentences was an honest mistake, as most, if not all, sentencing judges shared the same view as the prison officials in deeming it to be unnecessary to make recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum of every consecutive sentence. Sentencing judges throughout the state have uniformly believed and taken into consideration in passing sentences the Prison Board practice that consecutive sentences would be lumped making a total minimum and a total maximum.

We believe that a great injustice would be done and that it would be most unfair to keep the applicant incarcerated for a longer period of time than recommended by the Board of Trustees of the institution in which the applicant is confined.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Albert Henry, D-4172, No. 6598, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Albert Henry, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on September 7, 1939 to be computed from April 3, 1939 be commuted from 9 years to 8 years and 7 months, expiring on November 3, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-eight years of age and this is his first conviction. He was convicted on a charge of robbery and sentenced to a term of not less than nine nor more than twenty years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. He has served approximately eight and one-half years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have written to the Board of Pardons stating his adjustment and performance in that institution are excellent and they have no objection to his release.

The district attorney of Philadelphia County has no objection to his release and the Board of Pardons are of this same opinion, and therefore, recommend that commutation be granted especially since he has practically served his full minimum sentence.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of George W. Henry, C-3826, No. 7243, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on George W. Henry, convicted of entering with intent to steal in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 3, 1935 to be computed from April 30, 1943, be commuted on Bill No. 19 December Sessions, 1935, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 4 years, 6 months and 10 days, expiring on November 10, 1947; and on Bill No. 20 from a minimum term of 3 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on November 11, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County for from eight to sixteen years. This sentence to begin at the expiration of a previous sentence which was imposed in 1929 and which the applicant is required to serve in full because of his parole violation.

He has a good record in the Philadelphia County Prison and to date he has served over ten and one-half years, but because of this parole violation, the applicant would still have to serve approximately four and one-half years.

The Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has written the Board of Pardons and leaves the matter of commutation to the Board.

Since this applicant has served such a long period of time, we feel that he will not again commit any offenses against society because if he does he will be returned to prison for approximately fourteen years. During all of this time the applicant will be under strict parole supervision.

We feel, under all of the circumstances, that this applicant has been severely punished and therefore realizing that he will be on strict parole supervision we are recommending that a commutation of sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel Hinton, D-6317, No. 412, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Samuel Hinton, convicted of assault, being armed with an offensive weapon with intent to rob in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on February 17, 1942 to be computed from February 7, 1942, be commuted from 5 years to 9 months, expiring on November 7, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-six years of age and has now served a sentence of from five to ten years for an alleged robbery of $.75c. The sentence as imposed by Judge Carroll was held unconstitutional and improper under the Wheeler decision, and therefore, the applicant's sentence was recomputed. Although the applicant has now served over five years because of this change in the record the applicant is only given seven months credit.

The trial judge, Honorable Vincent A. Carroll, has written the Board of Pardons and stated that we should correct the error in the sentence which he imposed by granting this applicant a commutation of his minimum sentence.

The applicant has an excellent institutional record and the district attorney of Philadelphia County is not opposed to the granting of a commutation.

In order to give effect to the original intent of the sentence imposed by Judge Carroll, the Board recommends that a commutation be granted. This applicant will be on parole for a period of approximately nine and one-half years.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Walter Kilmas, C-9860, No. 96-B, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Walter Kilmas, convicted of assault, robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on September 25, 1941 to be computed from February 18, 1941, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 8 months, expiring on October 18, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Nelson Charles LaMont, D-3657, No. 4865, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Nelson Charles LaMont, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on January 6, 1939 to be computed from December 9, 1938 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was charged with robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. Applicant served three years and has been on parole five years and nine months of a twenty year maximum sentence.

Applicant served four and one-half years with the armed forces of the United States serving overseas in the Asiatic Pacific and European Theatres. He had an excellent institutional record. Since August 1946 he has been connected with the civil service serving with the U. S. Army Transport Service as an able bodied seaman stationed on the LT-532, working around Iceland and northern European waters. He has helped his parents purchase a home and is helping in all ways to better his position in life.

Since applicant was never arrested for any offense whatsoever prior to this and since he has made every effort to rehabilitate himself and also for his very good army record the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Wilbur Mackenthum, C-5913, No. 5230, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardon recommend that the life sentence of Wilbur Mackenthum, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 30, 1930 be commuted from life imprisonment to 17 years, 9 months and 17 days,expiring on November 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-one years of age and was sentenced to life imprisonment for murder in the first degree. At this time, applicant has served over seventeen years and seven months of this sentence.

The facts of the crime are: On December 6, 1929, applicant together with three accomplices held up and killed a bank messenger. Applicant was the driver of the follow up car. The amount of loot was $34,000.00. The following day applicant surrendered to police and turned over his share of the loot.

The Board of Trustees have written the Board of Pardons that this applicant has a most outstanding record at the penitentiary. He is employed in the medical department, having acquired proficiency as a laboratory technician. He has made numerous blood donations to the American Red Cross serum bank. They recommend him highly for commutation.

The president judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, recommend him highly stating: "I always felt that he was the least guilty of all of them."

The Board of Pardons considering all the facts of this case and especially that his accomplice was commuted by the Board of Pardons last year, are of the opinion this applicant would be a good risk, and therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Jesse Joseph Martin, B-1954, No. 4543, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Jesse Joseph Martin, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lawrence County on April 4, 1930 be commuted from life to 17 years and 7 months, expiring on November 4, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-eight years of age and this is the only crime he ever committed against society. He was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for murder in the first degree.

Applicant has served over eleven years and three months in the Western State Penitentiary. He has now been on parole over six years and is desirous of having a commutation of his maximum sentence granted in order that he may be released from further parole supervision.

The trial judge, Honorable James A. Chambers, has written the Board of Pardons stating: "I have always regarded Martin as possibly the least culpable of any of the young men engaged in this sad affair and believe that he is entitled to at least as much leniency as any of them." The Board of Parole has stated his behaviour while on parole has been good and they have no complaints.

After reviewing this application and the fact that all this applicant accomplices have been granted commutation, the Board of Pardons can not see why this applicant should not be given like consideration, and therefore, recommend that commutation of his maximum sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles McCullough, D-3457, No. 6414, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles McCullough, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 1, 1938 to be computed from September 24, 1938 be commuted from 30 years to 9 years and 2 months, expiring on November 24, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty seven years of age and this is the first time he was convicted of any crime whatsoever. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from thirty to ninety years for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At this time the applicant has served over nine years of an unusually heavy minimum sentence of thirty years.

At the time of the commission of this crime, applicant was an immature individual of just eighteen years. During his incarceration he has matured and gives every indication of rehabilitation.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, who imposed this heavy sentence more as a preventive to a life of crime than the fact he expected him to serve such a long sentence, states in a letter to the Board that he would have no hesitancy in recommending commutation for this applicant. The district attorney is not opposed to the granting of commutation.

The Board of Pardons after consideration, is of the opinion this applicant has learned his lesson and further incarceration would have no added effect, and therefore, recommend that applicant be granted commutation.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Morris, C-5304, No. 2447, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Charles Morris, convicted of robbery, larceny of automobile in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 12, 1929, be commuted on Bill 582 April Sessions, 1929, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 18 years and 6 months, expiring on October 12, 1947, and on Bill No. 688 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on October 13, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Bertha Murray, No. 4145, No. 8986, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Bertha Murray, convicted of murder in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 26, 1944 to be computed from March 27, 1944 be commuted from 6 years to 3 years, 7 months and 10 days, expiring on November 7, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. She was charged with the crime of murder in the second degree and sentenced to a term of from six to twenty years in the Philadelphia County Prison.

Applicant has served over three years and six months of her minimum sentence.

The facts of the crime are that applicant stabbed her husband. This act was brought about by abusive treatment given to her, treatment which became more than applicant could bear, causing her to commit this crime.

The Warden of the Philadelphia County Prison states applicant has a very good record and chances for a good parole adjustment appear favorable.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion applicant has been sufficiently punished and should be given an opportunity to return to her children and again take her place in society and prove she can be a law-abiding citizen. Therefore, we recommend that a commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Dominic Joseph Neiroduzski, B-4874, No. 3602, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment of Dominic Joseph Neiroduzski, convicted of entering a building in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on December 20, 1935, be commuted on Bill No. 73 September Sessions, 1935, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 1 year and 11 months, expiring on November 20, 1947, and on Bill No. 76 from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on November 21, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-four years of age and was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary to a term of from fifteen to thirty years for entering a building. At this time applicant has served nearly twelve years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary has written the Board of Pardons stating applicant has an excellent institutional record and if he were eligible for parole would recommend him. The trial judge, Honorable Thomas M. Marshall, has no objection to his being paroled.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion his criminal record was the outgrowth of a vicious slum area environment and inadequate home supervision. However, since his incarceration he has an improved outlook on life and we believe he will not again offend against society. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that the prayer of the applicant be answered and he be granted commutation.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Charles W. Patterson, B-8199, No. 7383, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Charles W. Patterson, convicted of assault and battery, assault and battery with intent to rob, robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Fayette County on May 7, 1942 to be computed from April 15, 1942, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years and 6 months, expiring on October 15, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Domenico Peraro, No. 3270, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Domenico Peraro, convicted of or pleaded guilty to the following offenses: (1) making check without funds in the Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on February 14, 1939; (2) larceny by bailee, forgery in the Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on May 10, 1939; and (3) forgery in the Quarter Sessions Court of Delaware County on June 14, 1939, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty-two years of age and this is not the first time he was guilty of any offense but he has on several occasions been arrested. The reason for this application is to escape deportation to Italy.

Applicant came to this country when quite a young man. In fact he was not quite five years of age when brought here. He served in the United States Army during World War I and was given an honorable discharge therefrom. The other offenses for which he was convicted could have caused his deportation but the Immigration authorities have forgiven him these crimes because they did not involve moral turpitude.

Applicant since arriving in this country married a girl from Philadelphia. His only son is a veteran of World War II, married an English girl and is now living in England. Applicant speaks no Italian, knows nothing of Italian customs and his wife has never been out of the United States. If this applicant were deported his home would be broken up, his wife would become destitute and he would become a man without a home, family or country.

Under all of these circumstances, we feel this punishment would be too severe, and we therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of John T. Pidcock, C-9135, No. 2416, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on John T. Pidcock, convicted of arson in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Bucks County on September 5, 1933, be commuted on Bill No. 89 May Sessions, 1933, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 4 years and 1 month, expiring on October 5, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Frank J. Pugliese, B-6612, No. 5504, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Frank J. Pugliese, convicted of robbery, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on February 21, 1939 to be computed from January 25, 1939, be commuted from 20 years to 8 years, 8 months, and 5 days, expiring on September 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Pasquale Puliti, C-8726, No. 1511, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Pasquale Puliti, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 2, 1933, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-three years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was arrested with five accomplices and charged with the commission of a series of fourteen burglaries and robberies. However, this applicant was in only three of the robberies.

At the time of the commission of these robberies applicant was only eighteen years of age. Applicant has since married, owns his own home and business and is a father of three children.

The trial judge and the district attorney are not opposed to the granting of relief as prayed for, and we therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Frank D. Roth, No. 45882, No. 9036, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommended that Frank D. Roth, convicted of robbery, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on January 17, 1938 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-nine years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was charged with robbery and receiving stolen goods together with three accomplices. Following his service of two months in the Allegheny County Workhouse he was released and went straight. He was inducted into the armed forces and served forty-four months, two years and eight months of which were in the South Pacific. He received an honorable discharge. He is married and desires to make application for a position as policeman in the City of Pittsburgh but is unable to do so because of his prior criminal record.

Since applicant has been in no further trouble for a period of approximately ten years and because of his excellent army record we recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Clair Roush, D-9212, No. 9024, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Clair Roush, convicted of burglary, conspiracy in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Perry County on October 31, 1946 to be computed from August 14, 1946 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year and 3 months, expiring on November 14, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-eight years of age and was sentenced to a term of from two and one-half to five years in the Eastern State Penitentiary for the crime of burglary, conspiracy. He has served one year and two months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that he has an excellent institutional record.

The trial judge, Honorable W. W. Rice, has written the Board of Pardons that he favors clemency as he feels applicant has been amply punished, in fact thinks the sentence was excessive and dissented at the trial but was overruled by the associate judges. The district attorney of Perry County concurs with the opinion of the judge.

In view of the above the Board of Pardons agree wholeheartedly with the judge, and therefore, recommends that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James B. Schoeppner, B-3935, No. 3750, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on James B. Schoeppner, convicted of larceny of automobile in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on December 15, 1933, be commuted on Bill No. 99 December Sessions, 1933, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 3 years and 10 months, expiring on October 15, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Harry H. Seeley, D-949, No. 97-B, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Harry H. Seeley, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 24, 1935, be commuted on Bill No. 818 October Sessions, 1935, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 11 years, 11 months and 10 days, expiring on October 4, 1947; and on Bill No. 819 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on October 5, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Sebastian Simone, No. 4117-D, No. 98-B, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Sebastian Simone, convicted of robbery, assault and battery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on July 16, 1941 to be computed from May 6, 1941, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 5 months, expiring on October 6, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Ollie Stallworth, D-8568, B-9566, No. 8975, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ollie Stallworth, convicted of murder, manslaughter in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on November 9, 1945 to be computed from August 27, 1945 be commuted from 2½ years to 2 years, 2 months and 10 days, expiring on November 7, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty years of age and this is the first crime for which he was ever convicted. He was charged with murder in the second degree and sentenced to a term of from two and one-half to five years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. At the present time he has served over two years of his minimum sentence. He has an excellent institutional record.

Applicant realizes the wrong he did but believes he has atoned for this crime against society. It would never have occurred if victim had not broken up his home.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent disciplinary record, he has earned seven high school credits and studied poultry husbandry.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this applicant has shown beyond a doubt that he will not again offend against society and he has earned a right to again establish and maintain a home for himself. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that a commutation be granted.

In re application of Otto C. Verdekkel, No. 41203, No. 94-B, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Otto C. Verdekkel, convicted of entering a building in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on December 2, 1937 to be computed from November 27, 1937, be commuted from 16 years to 9 years, 10 months and 10 days, expiring on October 7, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Henry Williams D-3805, No. 8034, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Henry Williams, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 7, 1939 to be computed from February 27, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 9 months, expiring on November 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty years of age and was sentenced to a term of not less than ten nor more than twenty years in the Eastern State Penitentiary for the crime of robbery. Applicant together with five accomplices held up and robbed two tailor shops. The loot amounted to $60.00. At the present time, applicant has served over eight and one-half years of a minimum sentence of ten years.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have reported to the Board of Pardons that applicant deserves credit for the interest which he has shown in self-improvement and the wise use of his earnings, part of which has been invested in war bonds. They favor commutation.

The district attorney of Philadelphia County is not opposed to granting commutation and the Board of Pardons concur with him due to the fact applicant has given every indication of rehabilitation, and therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Peter Phillip Yurgosky, C-8984, No. 2538, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Peter Phillip Yurgosky, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lackawanna County, on May 27, 1933, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-five years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was charged with two accomplices with robbery of four persons. The total loot was $74.00. He has been on parole eleven years and been in no further trouble.

The Board of Parole has no objection to the commutation of his maximum sentence. However, this applicant asks for a pardon. The reason he requests a pardon is that he is living in Brooklyn, New York and desires to adopt a child. In the adoption the question of a prior criminal record will be brought up and he wishes to avoid this, and therefore seeks a pardon from Pennsylvania. Applicant is married and happily adjusted with his wife.

Under these circumstances, we feel applicant has shown by his conduct that he is not likely to offend against society again, and we therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Michael Zdrall, B-5309, No. 4572, September Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Michael Zdrall, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on November 27, 1936, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty years of age and this is the only offense against society he ever committed. He was arrested in 1936 and charged with robbery. He with three accomplices robbed three priests of ninety (.90c) cents in cash and two wrist watches. He served his minimum sentence.

Applicant is a native of Poland and came here approximately twenty years ago. He is married and has a family here, if he is returned to Poland it would be equivalent of passing a death sentence upon this man.

Because of this conviction applicant must either be deported or secure a pardon from the Board of Pardons. In view of his excellent record for the past three years we believe he has been rehabilitated and will not again commit these offenses, and therefore, recommend that he be granted a pardon in order that the warrant for deportation may be stayed.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Brodhead, B-1790, No. 9075, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John Brodhead, convicted of burglary, breaking and entering in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on January 15, 1930, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty-five years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from seventeen to thirty-four years for the crime of burglary and breaking and entering. Applicant served four years and ten months of his minimum sentence and was released on parole on recommendation of the Board of Pardons on November 24, 1934.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry H. Rowand, recommends favorably that this applicant be granted a full pardon. There is no opposition from the district attorney of Allegheny County.

The Board of Parole reports that applicant has an excellent parole record, being on parole for the past thirteen years.

Applicant bases his request for pardon on his excellent adjustment while on parole and his state of health which requires him to live in another climate. Applicant with his wife and family desires to move to Texas and prays for this pardon in order that he may start a new life in a new state without the stigma of this crime on his name.

The Board of Pardons after careful consideration are of the opinion this applicant, being sufficiently punished, has shown by his excellent parole record for thirteen years, that he is completely rehabilitated and we therefore recommend that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Edward J. Bucholski, D-3233, No. 5002, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Edward J. Bucholski, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 30, 1938 to be computed from June 14, 1938, be commuted from 20 years to 9 years, 4 months and 12 days, expiring on October 26, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Charles E. Etter, No. 2717-D, No. 99-B, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Charles E. Etter, convicted of burglarly in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on April 22, 1936 to be computed from March 16, 1936, be commuted from 10 years to 11 years, 7 months and 10 days, expiring on October 26, 1947. (Paroled September 16, 1937; parole revoked April 15, 1940; reparaoled on April 15, 1947 to start new sentence, maximum expires October 15, 1948).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Harold Franklin, D-4573, No. 101-B, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Harold Franklin, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 9, 1940 to be computed from December 28, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 10 months, expiring on October 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Albert Grossi, B-5976, No. 5038, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Albert Grossi, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on March 3, 1938 to be computed from February 17, 1938 be commuted from 14 years to 9 years and 9 months, expiring on November 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-eight years of age and this is his first conviction. Applicant was charged with the crime of robbery and sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from seven to fourteen years. At the time this crime was committed applicant was only eighteen years of age. Applicant served five years and six months and on July 20, 1943, his minimum sentence was commuted by the Governor and he was released on parole August 25, 1943.

On January 22, 1944, applicant was inducted into the army and received a medical discharge therefrom because of disability resulting from his war service. At the present time, applicant receives a pension of $34.50 per month.

The Board of Parole reports applicant has a good parole record. Applicant at the present time is in business for himself and believes that he has shown the Board of Pardons by his good conduct that he is rehabilitated and entitled to favor from them.

The Board of Pardons therefore, after due consideration, recommends to your Excellency that the commutation of maximum sentence be granted applicant.

In re application of James Jones, No. 9047, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James Jones, convicted of larceny of an automobile in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on December 9, 1929, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-four years of age and this is the only crime for which he was ever arrested. Applicant went for a ride with a friend in a stolen car. Applicant did not know car was stolen. He was placed on probation for a period of three years.

For the past eighteen years applicant has been in no further trouble and at this time desires a pardon in order that his name may be cleared from the stigma of this crime and he become eligible to take a civil service position as special policeman in the City of Pittsburgh.

The Board of Parole does not object to the granting of a pardon nor is there any opposition from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County.

The Board of Pardons vigorously recommends that a pardon be granted this applicant as they are of the opinion, at best, applicant is only technically guilty because he did not know the car was stolen. They also take into consideration his age at the time of the commission of this crime and the fact that he has been in no further trouble for such a long time.

In re application of Edward Kocul, No. 60724, No. 8823, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Edward Kocul, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on February 18, 1946 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year and 9 months, expiring on November 18, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Allegheny County Workhouse for from two and one-half to five years for robbery.

The Warden of the Allegheny County Workhouse and the district attorney of Allegheny County have no objection to the granting of commutation.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has been incarcerated long enough to realize the seriousness of the crime he committed and if granted leniency at this time will become a law-abiding citizen. We therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

In re application of George Luketina, C-7778, No. 102-B, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of George Luketina, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 23, 1932, be commuted from 20 years to 15 years, 8 months and 3 days, expiring on October 26, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on William Franklin McClain, Jr., convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 15, 1935, be commuted on Bill No. 347 January Sessions, 1935, from a maximum term of 15 years to a maximum term of 12 years, 8 months and 10 days, expiring on October 25, 1947; and on Bill No. 348 from a maximum term of 5 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on October 26, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Myers, No. 3294-D, No. 103-B, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph Myers, convicted of larceny of automobile, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 2, 1938 to be computed from January 19, 1938, by commuted from 10 years to 9 years, 9 months and 10 days, expiring on October 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Alexander Niemi, D-4717, No. 6738, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Alexander Niemi, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 5, 1940, to be computed from February 16, 1940; and of robbery and assault in the Quarter Sessions Court of Delaware County on December 9, 1944, sentence to run concurrent with sentence imposed in Philadelphia County on March 5, 1940, be commuted on Bills Nos. 1016 and 1017 February Sessions, 1940, from a minimum term of 20 years to a minimum term of 7 years and 9 months, expiring on November 16, 1947; and on Bill No. 281 June Sessions, 1940 (Delaware County—to run concurrent) from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 2 years, 11 months, and 10 days, expiring on November 16, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-eight years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon and assault. He has now served seven years and eight months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that he has an excellent disciplinary record and he has shown ability to organize, design and manage. He has also contributed generously to the support of his son.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that he should be granted leniency because his crime was caused by lack of mature judgment and was more of a spirit of youthful recklessness than an actual depravity of mind or inherent criminal tendency. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Paul R. Nord, D-3821 No. 4986 October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommended that the maximum sentence of Paul R. Nord, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 13, 1939 to be computed from February 23, 1939, be commuted from 30 years to 8 years, 8 months and 3 days, expiring on October 26, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Floyd T. Rager, B-8654 No. 8945 October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Floyd T. Rager, convicted of burglary, violation of probation in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on April 26, 1943 to be computed from April 24, 1943, be commuted from 10 years to 4 years and 7 months, expiring on November 24, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-seven years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for burglary and violation of probation. At the present time, applicant has served four years and six months of his minimum sentence.

This is rather a peculiar case in that the trial judge, Honorable G. Malcolm McDonald, placed applicant on probation for the crime of robbery, then having been informed of certain facts had applicant rearrested, giving him the unusually heavy sentence of from ten to twenty years. However, since the time Judge McDonald sentenced applicant to imprisonment he has listened to explanations of persons interested, read affidavits and feels now that applicant should be given clemency, and recommends commutation.

The Board of Pardons after giving application considerable thought feel that the only way to accomplish justice is to recommend that commutation be granted. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Bernard Raszkievicz, D-3898 B-9652 No. 9082 October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Bernard Raszkievicz, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Berks County on April 12, 1939 to be computed from February 23, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 9 months, expiring on November 23, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-seven years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for robbery. At the present time, applicant has served over eight years and eight months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have written the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent record in the penitentiary and would recommend him for parole.

The sentencing authorities of Berks County are not opposed to the granting of commutation at this time.

The Board of Pardons after careful review are of the opinion this applicant by serving almost nine years in the penitentiary with such a good record has learned his lesson and will not again offend against society.

Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Rocco Frank Rugnetta, D-2984 No. 5675 October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Rocco Frank Rugnetta, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 17, 1938 to be computed from March 7, 1938 be commuted from 20 years to 9 years 8 months and 10 days, expiring on November 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At the present time, applicant has served nine years and eight months of his minimum sentence.

The crime for which this applicant was sentenced was that in 1935 applicant and three accomplices held up a "crap" game. Loot was $40.00. As they were leaving accomplice shot policeman in the leg. Applicant fled from scene of crime and on March 2, 1938, the burden of same, being more than he could bear, gave himself up.

The Board of Trustees have informed the Board of Pardons that he has an excellent disciplinary record and they have no objection to his release. The trial judge, Honorable Frank Smith, leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons. The district attorney is not opposed to commutation.

The Board of Pardons after careful consideration is of the opinion that the applicant has served an unusually long term of imprisonment for a man undergoing his first prison sentence and further feels that he has a right at this time to clemency, and therefore, recommends that the prayer of the applicant be granted and commutation issue.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Wilmore L. Smax No. 9076, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Wilmore L. Smax, convicted of subornation of perjury in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on June 26, 1931, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty-three years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from two to seven years for subornation of perjury. After serving his minimum sentence applicant was released on parole on June 26, 1933.

The sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County have no objection to the granting of the pardon. The Parole Board have notified the Board of Pardons that applicant is no longer on parole and they have no available records concerning him but apparently his probation period was successful.

Applicant has made an outstanding record of rehabilitation becoming quite active in programs to prevent juvenile delinquency.

The Board of Pardons after careful consideration feels that the stigma of applicant's early criminal record should be erased from his name, and he be granted a full and complete gubernatorial pardon.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Anthony Sperduti, C-2203, No. 1402, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Anthony Sperduti, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Bradford County, on February 22, 1923, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty-six years of age with no prior record. Applicant was sentenced to life imprisonment on the charge of first degree murder. The crime was the outcome of a railroad strike and applicant maintaining innocence, was convicted on circumstantial evidence.

Applicant served ten years and two months in the Eastern State Penitentiary and was granted commutation October 18, 1933. Applicant has been on parole thirteen years, ten months and seventeen days. The Board of Parole has informed the Board of Pardons applicant has an excellent parole record. There is no opposition from the authorities of Bradford County, in fact they favor the granting of a pardon.

Applicant was born in Italy and migrated to this country when seventeen years of age. He married and is the father of five children. He has an excellent work record. In fact he was credit as a resident in his adopted country. He had applied for citizenship prior to his conviction but until he receives a pardon and the stigma of this crime is lifted from his name the Immigration Authorities will not even consider same.

The Board of Pardons after reviewing this applicant's record favorably are of the opinion his prayer should be granted and a full and complete gubernatorial pardon issue, in order that he may become a proud citizen of these United States.

In re application of Severino Ursino, B-9254, No. 104-B, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed upon Severino Ursino, convicted of assault, being armed with intent to rob in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 19, 1932, be commuted on Bill No. 975 February Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 15 years, 8 months and 10 days, expiring on October 29, 1947; and on Bill No. 976 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on October 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Zenas Edward Van Fleet, No. 9081, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Zenas Edward Van Fleet, convicted of grand larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Pike County, on April 20, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is fifty-two years of age and was sentenced to be placed on probation for a period of three years on the charge of larceny. Applicant pretended to be an agent of the United States Government and obtained the amount of $530.00 falsely. Restitution was made.

Applicant has a good parole record and since the time he committed this crime has built up his own business in accounting and tax consultation employing fourteen people. He has regained his place in society as an honest citizen. Applicant desires this pardon in order that he may have a voice in the elections as well as have the privilege of acquiring a Certified Public Accounting license.

The Board of Pardons after reviewing carefully this application are of the opinion it is most deserving, and therefore, recommends to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Milan P. Vuckovich, D-9005, No. 9064, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

April 29, 1946 to be computed from February 15, 1946 be commuted from 5 years to 1 year and 9 months, expiring on November 15, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-eight years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years for manslaughter.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have written the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent disciplinary record.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Luzerne County.

The Board of Pardons after reviewing this application carefully, taking into consideration he is a disabled veteran of World War II, and his physical condition being such that further incarceration may be very injurious are of the opinion the prayer of the applicant should be answered and commutation granted. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Eugene Wood, B-8250, No. 6015, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Eugene Wood, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Northumberland County, on April 8, 1940 to be computed from February 8, 1940, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-four years of age and was never convicted of any crime whatsoever other than the crime for which he is now requesting a pardon. Applicant was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from nine and one-half to nineteen years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. Applicant served five years and four months of his minimum sentence and was released on parole June 29, 1945.

One month after his release applicant enlisted in the United States Merchant Marine. He was accepted and has continued at this work to date. He now desires a pardon in order that he may be promoted and obtain a Third Mate's License.

The sentencing authorities of Northumberland County are not opposed to the granting of this pardon.

The Board of Pardons under all the circumstances are of the opinion favor should be shown this applicant as a regard for the excellent adjustment he has made, and therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Thomas Francis Bright, No. 61921, No. 9067, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Thomas Francis Bright, convicted of killing a human being in mistake for game in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Potter County on December 14, 1946 to be computed from December 12, 1946 be commuted from 2 years to 11 months and 5 days, expiring on November 17, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-seven years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Allegheny County Workhouse for from two to four years for shooting a human being by mistake believing it to be an animal.

The Warden of the Allegheny County Workhouse has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has a good record.

The trial judge has no objection if applicant has made a proper readjustment. The district attorney from Potter County is not opposed.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion the act of applicant was not of a vicious nature but more of lack of thought, and further believe applicant has learned his lesson by being incarcerated, and will not again offend against society.

Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

In re application of William J. Ardif, No. 3443-D, No. 100-B, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of William J. Ardif, convicted of entering with intent to steal, larceny, receiving stolen goods, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 26, 1938 to be computed from August 15, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years, 2 months, and 10 days, expiring on October 25, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Edward Wright, D-7259, No 9096, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Edward Wright, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 28, 1943 to be computed from June 22, 1943 be commuted from 7½ years to 4 years and 6 months, expiring on December 22, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-five years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from seven and one-half to fifteen years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has a perfect disciplinary record and would recommend him for parole.

The trial judge, Honorable Joseph L. Kun, has written the Board of Pardons stating that he sees no reason why applicant should not be given the same consideration as his accomplice who was granted commutation at the May Sessions, 1947. The district attorney of Philadelphia County has raised no objection to commutation.

At the time this crime was committed, applicant was a young man of twenty-one years of age, very headstrong and did not realize the seriousness of his actions. He has served nearly four and one-half years of his minimum sentence of seven and one-half years. During his imprisonment, he has been continuously employed and has tried in every way to adjust himself and effect self-improvement.

The Board of Pardons, after careful review, is of the opinion that this applicant should be rewarded for his cooperative attitude while confined and since his accomplice has already been given clemency we should grant applicant the same consideration. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Herman Winchester, B-9541, No. 8561, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Herman Winchester, convicted of robbery, felonious assault and battery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on March 7, 1946 to be computed from January 31, 1946 be commuted from 5 years to 1 year, 10 months and 21 days, expiring on December 21, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from five to ten years for robbery, felonious assault and battery.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that he has an excellent institutional record. There is no opposition to the granting of commutation from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County.

Applicant is married and the father of an eighteen month old child both of whom are very much in need of his support.

The Board of Pardons feels that the time this applicant has been in the penitentiary has served its purpose and he will not again offend against society, and therefore, for the sake of his wife and child we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Earl Thomas, D-5790, No. 6021, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles Earl Thomas, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on May 23, 1941 to be computed from April 7, 1941 be commuted from 10 years to 6 years, 7 months and 20 days, expiring on November 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-five years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $200.00 and to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for robbery. At the present time, applicant has served over six and one-half years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees have reported to the Board of Pardons that applicant shows interest in bettering himself and is a willing worker.

Applicant was only eighteen years of age at the time this crime was committed and was under the influence of his brother-in-law, who was eight years his senior. During his confinement he has been trying to make an honest effort toward self-improvement and desires this commutation in order that he may take his place in society along with his fellow men.

Due to his extreme youth and the fact that this is his first offense, the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that consideration should be shown this applicant, and therefore, recommends that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Guiseppe or Joseph Tetto, D-2717, No. 4760, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Guiseppe or Joseph Tetto, convicted of sodomy in the Court of Quarter Sessions and Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on December 22, 1937 to be computed from December 15, 1937 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is sixty-one years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from four to eight years for sodomy. Applicant served five years and on April 1, 1943 was released on parole. On December 15, 1945 his maximum sentence expired and he was issued a final discharge from the parole board.

This applicant has always maintained he is innocent. He pleaded guilty because he was ashamed to go to court and wanted the case disposed of as quickly as possible. It might be stated here that the victim's parents and applicant had not been on friendly terms.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities. The Board of Parole report that he made an excellent adjustment while on parole by conforming to the rules of parole. Applicant is applying for a pardon because he has been ordered by the immigration authorities to be deported.

Since there is a question of this man's guilt, the fact that he has been in no further trouble and the question of deportation that is involved, the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Paul E. Tegge, D-4128, No. 7099, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Paul E. Tegge, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Berks County on June 29, 1939 to be computed from May 26, 1939, be commuted from 20 years to 8 years, 6 months, and 10 days, expiring on December 6, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John A. Streich, No. 9129, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John A. Streich, convicted of prison breach in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on November 30, 1945 to be computed from August 30, 1946 be commuted from 2 years to 1 year and 4 months, expiring on December 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-five years of age and has served approximately three years of imprisonment in the Delaware County Prison for the crime of prison breach and issuing worthless checks.

The applicant was sentenced in September, 1944 for a term of not less than two nor more than four years for issuing worthless checks and it was while serving this sentence that the applicant walked away from the Delaware County Prison. No force was used.

Applicant is a veteran of World War II and has a certificate of Eligibility, which under the G. I. Bill of Rights will enable him to go to school as he is desirous of becoming an X-ray technician.

The Board of Pardons after carefully reviewing this case is of the opinion applicant should be granted clemency, and we therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Randall Smith, D-6307, No. 7519, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Randall Smith, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Monroe County on February 13, 1942 to be computed from February 11, 1942 be commuted from 10 years to 5 years, 10 months and 10 days, expiring on December 21, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-six years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At the present time, applicant has served approximately six years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent disciplinary record and his attitude and adjustment is satisfactory in every respect.

The trial judge and district attorney of Monroe County leaves the matter of commutation entirely up to the Board of Pardons. Applicant's accomplice who was equally guilty had his commutation granted September, 1946.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that if this applicant is given an opportunity will lead a decent and law-abiding life and become a credit to his community. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Singler, B-2045, No. 1952, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon William Singler, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on May 16, 1930, be commuted on Bill No. 10 May Sessions, 1930, from a maximum term of 4 years to a maximum term of 2 years, 7 months and 10 days, expiring on December 26, 1947; and on Bill No. 12 from a maximum term of 4 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on December 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-seven years of age and has no prior criminal record. He together with six others, was a member of a gang who committed a series of armed robberies. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from twelve to twenty-four years. On December 21, 1934, he was paroled and adjusted fairly well while on parole. In 1941 he was married and is now the father of two children. He is applying for a termination of parole in order to go to Florida where he is offered employment by his brother-in-law.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County. The Board of Parole has reported to the Board of Pardons that all information regarding this parolee in the past several years indicate that his conduct has been above reproach. The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this applicant has shown by his honest and successful effort that he will not again offend against society and that he should be given an opportunity to better his station in life and thereby make a better livelihood for his wife and two children.

The Board of Pardons, therefore recommends that applicant be granted commutation of his maximum sentence and be released from parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
 Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
 Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
JAMES H. DUFF,
 Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank J. Rodgers, AA-2063, No. 107-B, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

June 24, 1938, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years, 5 months, and 10 days, expiring on December 4, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Clarence Roberts, D-4695, No. 106-B, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Clarence Roberts, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 28, 1940 to be computed from February 21, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years, 9 months and 19 days, expiring on December 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Leo Puglin, B-9150, No. 8003, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Leo Puglin, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on November 29, 1944 be commuted from 5 years to 3 years and 20 days, expiring on November 19, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from five to ten years for robbery.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record. There is no opposition to the granting of commutation from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County.

At the present time, applicant has served almost three years of his minimum sentence of five years and has made every effort towards rehabilitation. His accomplice has been paroled and granted a final discharge.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that applicant should be given consideration due to the fact that his accomplice has been released and also feel that he will not again offend against society. Therefore, we recommend that a commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re applictaion of John J. Palmer, D-2969, No. 4356, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John J. Palmer, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 11, 1938, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-nine years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from two to four years for voluntary manslaughter. Applicant served two years of his sentence and was paroled on March 11, 1940, receiving his final discharge from parole on March 11, 1942, at the expiration of his maximum sentence. On November 28, 1944, applicant entered the armed forces of the United States and served with distinction until September 28, 1945, when he received an honorable discharge. Applicant is happily married and the father of three children. He bears a good reputation in his community.

The Board of Parole has notified the Board of Pardons that while he is not now on parole when he was, his record was excellent.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this man certainly deserves consideration as he has shown very emphatically that he is rehabilitated. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John O'Malley, D-3640, No. 5157, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of John O'Malley, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 27, 1938 to be computed from December 10, 1938, be commuted from 12 years to 9 years, expiring on December 10, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles J. Moyer, B-3561, No. 6370, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sr: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Charles J. Moyer, convicted of robbery, murder in the second degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on January 24, 1933, be commuted on Bill No. 8 November Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 4 years and 11 months, expiring on December 24, 1947; on Bill No. 12 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on December 25, 1947; and on Bill No. 10 from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on December 26, 1947. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bill No. 9).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-nine years of age and was sentenced in 1933 to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from forty to eighty years for robbery, murder in the second degree. Applicant together with four accomplices, robbed several places. During one of these robberies, applicant and accomplices were forced off the road by victim who was inebriated. He attacked applicant and was shot.

At the present time, applicant has served fourteen years and nine months of his minimum sentence. The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has a commendable institutional record, is cooperative and trustworthy and they would undoubtedly recommend him for parole if he were eligible. The district attorney of Allegheny County has no opposition to commutation.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this applicant through his incarceration has developed a sense of social and moral values and he will not again offend against society. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Billie Morris, B-533, No. 183-A, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many prisoners whose release on parole has been affected by the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel. Thomas Lynch v. Stanley P. Ashe, Warden of the Western State Penitentiary, 320 Pa. 341. In this opinion it was held that unless a prisoner, who was serving sentences imposed to run consecutively, was recommended and approved for parole at the expiration of the first minimum sentence, he would be serving the maximum of that sentence, and if no recommendation for parole was made at the expiration of the second and subsequent minimum sentences imposed to run consecutively, the prisoner would be serving the maximum of the second and subsequent sentences. In other words, a prisoner serving an indeterminate sentence is not automatically paroled at the expiration of the minimum term but is merely eligible for parole at that time, and if not favorably considered by the Prison Board at any time thereafter, the prisoner is required to serve the full sentence.

It was the custom for a long period of time for the officials of both the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries to lump consecutive sentences and the Boards of Trustees would only make recommendations for release on parole at the expiration of the period of time equal to the total of the minimum sentences.

Since the Supreme Court held this procedure improper, the applicant and others, whose cases were not considered for parole at the expiration of their minimum sentences, through no fault of their own, will have to serve a much longer period of time than contemplated by the sentencing judge and the prison officials.

The failure of the Board of Trustees to make the necessary recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum sentences was an honest mistake, as most, if not all, sentencing judges shared the same view as the prison officials in deeming it to be unnecessary to make recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum of every consecutive sentence. Sentencing judges throughout the state have uniformly believed and taken into consideration in passing sentences the Prison Board practice that consecutive sentences would be lumped making a total minimum and a total maximum.

We believe that a great injustice would be done and that it would be most unfair to keep the applicant incarcerated for a longer period of time than recommended by the Board of Trustees of the institution in which the applicant is confined.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Messino, D-7075, No. 105-B, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph Messino, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 18, 1938 to be computed from April 14, 1938, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years and 8 months, expiring on December 14, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Zane Maguire, No. 9132, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that William Zane Maguire, convicted of conspiracy to violate the Liquor Control Act in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on April 20, 1944, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty years of age and has no prior criminal record. The facts of the crime are the applicant, owner of a hotel, purchased liquor from another and sold same without paying the Pennsylvania tax. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 and placed on probation for a period of three years.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia.

Applicant is married and has three children. He was inducted into the army on March 5, 1945, and at the end of hostilities received an honorable discharge. At the present time, he is employed as a clerk by A. C. Wood, Jr., stock broker and is in line to obtain a better position but this will require that he be bonded, which bond he cannot obtain unless he is granted a pardon.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that since this is his first offense against society and also the nature of the offense that applicant will not again offend against society and therefore we recommend that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Johnson C-7153, No. 6626, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of James Johnson, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 11, 1931, be commuted from life imprisonment to 16 years, 6 months and 10 days, expiring on December 21, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty years of age and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for murder in the first degree. At present time applicant has served over sixteen and one-half years of his life sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has maintained an excellent institutional record.

The sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County are not opposed to the granting of commutation at this time.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this crime was the outcome of spontaneous action to defend himself and not a cold blooded, or otherwise planned murder. Also since applicant has served such a long time with a good disciplinary record we feel he will never again violate the law in any respect, and therefore, recommend him for commutation.

In re application of Russell P. Irvine, B-2854 No. 108-B November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Russell P. Irvine, convicted of burglary, larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Washington County on June 5, 1942 to be computed from May 31, 1942, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years, 6 months and 4 days, expiring on December 5, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

In re application of Joseph Heaney, Jr. No. 9100 November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Heaney, Jr. convicted of burglary, entering with intent to commit a felony, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on June 9, 1938, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is twenty-seven years of age and has no prior criminal record and was given a sentence of not less than three days nor more than three years in the Philadelphia County Prison on the charge of burglary, entering with intent to commit a felony, receiving stolen goods. This crime was committed when applicant was seventeen years of age together with five other boys on a hot summer night. The loot consisted of candy, ice cream, which they ate, and other items such as soda, beer, whiskey, bottles and cigarettes were returned to the store-keeper intact when the boys were arrested.

Applicant served in the armed forces of the United States for three years and was given an honorable discharge therefrom. He is employed by the Yellow Cab Company who commend him highly. He is married and has a young son thirty-one months old. He also is the sole support of his aged father.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has shown that he is fully rehabilitated and we further feel that his crime was more "prankish" than criminal. Therefore, we recommend that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted in order that applicant's name may be cleared for the sake of himself and family.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Emerson Fisher, D-4850 No. 7671 November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Emerson Fisher, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Northumberland County on April 8, 1940 to be computed from February 8, 1940 be commuted from 9½ years to 7 years 10 months and 12 days, expiring on December 20, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from nine and one-half to nineteen years for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. Applicant has served over seven years and ten months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record. The sentencing authorities of Northumberland County offer no opposition to the granting of commutation.

Applicant is married and the father of a thirteen year old son. On July 27, 1947, applicant's wife committed suicide and this leaves applicant's child without either parent. Applicant's accomplice, who was equally guilty, was granted commutation two years ago.

The Board of Pardons feels that since applicant's accomplice has been released there is no reason why applicant should not be shown the same consideration. The Board of Pardons further believe that this applicant is not really bad and has no serious criminal tendencies also that he should be with his son and continued incarceration can serve no further purpose. Therefore, we recommend that the prayer of the applicant be answered and commutation issue.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In Re Application of Clara Lou Cobb, No. 2418, No. 9114, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Clara Lou Cobb, convicted of assault and battery in the Court of Municipal of Philadelphia County, on May 8, 1947, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is a child of sixteen years of age. This is her first offense and at the present time she has spent seven months at the State Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy. The facts of the case are that the applicant interrupted a conversation between her school teacher and a counselor, whereupon the teacher struck her and in retaliation applicant hit back in self-defense striking teacher in the eye.

The trial judge, Honorable Eugene C. Bonniwell, has written the Board of Pardons stating that he feels this child has been sufficiently punished and should be given consideration. Miss Franklin R. Wilson, Superintendent of the State Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy, has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has a good record in that institution.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that the incarceration of this young girl has been a very severe punishment and therefore recommend that clemency be granted at this time in order that this stigma may not warp her future. We therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph J. Bruno, D-2381, No. 6594, November Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Joseph J. Bruno, convicted of murder, in the first degree, in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Schuylkill County, on July 13, 1936, be commuted on Bills Nos. 128, 129 and 130 January Sessions, 1935, from life imprisonment to a minimum term of 11 years, 5 months, and 9 days, expiring on December 22, 1947; on Bill No. 126 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on December 23, 1947; and on Bill No. 127 from a maximum term of 12 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on December 24, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is sixty-three years of age and before this crime never infringed in any way against the law or society. Applicant was sentenced to imprisonment for life in the Eastern State Penitentiary on the charge of murder in the first degree.

The crime with which this applicant is charged was the result of political bitterness that had existed in this community for many years. On the night of November 5, 1934, a riot took place outside the home of applicant and two men were killed. Applicant, together with six others, was arrested. They all maintained their innocence. It might be stated at this time that only a certain number were accused but in the house at the time were many others.

At the present time applicant has served over thirteen years, which is a very long time, when one considers the fact that a doubt may be raised as to his guilt. However, during his confinement applicant has conducted himself in an excellent manner. The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that his disciplinary record is very good.

The Board of Parole after careful investigation have recommended that his parole plan be accepted in as much as the rules governing parole are adequate for the protection of society.

Applicant's health for the past six years has been very poor and it has been necessary for him to receive treatment at least twice weekly. Continued confinement will aggravate his condition. Applicant asks commutation so that he may receive special medical treatment.

The Board of Pardons after careful and thoughtful consideration, taking into account applicant's age, physical condition, and the fact that all his accomplices have been released, recommends to Your Excellency that the prayer of the applicant be granted and his sentence commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Myron Bell, D-8594, No. 9077, October Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Myron Bell, convicted of forgery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Bradford County on November 20, 1945 to be computed from November 15, 1945 be commuted from 4 years to 2 years and 12 days, expiring on November 27, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty years of age and has no prior criminal record. The crime consisted of applicant forging his brother's name to a money order in the amount of $298.11. Applicant was only eighteen years of age at the time this offense was committed. Applicant was sentenced to serve from four to ten years in the Eastern State Penitentiary.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has no objection to commutation nor does the trial judge.

The Board of Pardons taking into consideration his youth at the time this offense was committed and also the fact that this is his first offense are of the opinion that commutation be granted and so recommend.

In re application of Morris Yick, D-4089, No. 5117, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

10, 1938, be commuted from 20 years to 9 years and 20 days, expiring on December 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.'

In re application of Stanley Yagiello, D-3462, No. 111-B, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Stanley Yagiello, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 1, 1938 to be computed from September 8, 1938, be commuted from 20 years to 9 years, 3 months and 20 days, expiring on December 28, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Woznik, B-1507, No. 5996, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on John Woznik, convicted of breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony, robbery, felonious attempt to kill in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Somerset County on July 1, 1929, be commuted on Bill No. 8 September Sessions, 1929, from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 8 years, 5 months and 30 days, expiring on December 31, 1947; and on Bill No. 46 from a minimum term of 3½ years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on January 1, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many prisoners whose release on parole has been affected by the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel. Thomas Lynch v. Stanley P. Ashe, Warden of the Western State Penitentiary, 320 Pa. 341. In this opinion it was held that unless a prisoner, who was serving sentences imposed to run consecutively, was recommended and approved for parole at the expiration of the first minimum sentence, he would be serving the maximum of that sentence, and if no recommendation for parole was made at the expiration of the second and subsequent minimum of sentences imposed to run consecutively, the prisoner would be serving the maximum of the second and subsequent sentences. In other words, a prisoner serving an indeterminate sentence is not automatically paroled at the expiration of the minimum term but is merely eligible for parole at that time, and if not favorably considered by the Prison Board at any time thereafter, the prisoner is required to serve the full sentence.

It was the custom for a long period of time for the officials of both the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries to lump consecutive sentences and the Boards of Trustees would only make recommendations for release on parole at the expiration of the period of time equal to the total of the minimum sentences.

Since the Supreme Court held this procedure improper, the applicant and others, whose cases were not considered for parole at the expiration of their minimum sentences through no fault of their own, will have to serve a much longer period of time than contemplated by the sentencing judge and the prison officials.

The failure of the Board of Trustees to make the necessary recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum sentences was an honest mistake, as most, if not all, sentencing judges shared the same view as the prison officials in deeming it to be unnecessary to make recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum of every consecutive sentence. Sentencing judges throughout the state have uniformly believed and taken into consideration in passing sentences the Prison Board practice that consecutive sentences would be lumped making a total minimum and a total maximum.

We believe that a great injustice would be done and that it would be most unfair to keep the applicant incarcerated for a longer period of time than recommended by the Board of Trustees of the institution in which the applicant is confined.

Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Augustus T. Wilson, D-3207, No. 9179, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Augustus T. Wilson, convicted of assault and battery, assault and battery with intent to steal in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 11, 1946 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year, 7 months and 14 days, expiring on January 25, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-four years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from two and one-half to five years for assault and battery, assault and battery with intent to steal. The amount of theft consisted of $1.00.

Three weeks prior to the committing of this crime applicant had served three years in the United States Army, two years in the battle area of the Pacific. He received an honorable discharge therefrom.

At this time applicant has served one and one-half years of his minimum sentence and since he has an excellent record in the Philadelphia County Prison and also the fact of his army service, the Board of Pardons recommend that commutation be granted and applicant be released on parole.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Edmond Talucci alias Edmond S. Talucci, No. 9197, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Edmond Talucci alias Edmond S. Talucci, convicted of entering with intent to steal, larceny in the Court of Municipal of Philadelphia County on June 3, 1938, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-five years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to be on probation for a period of one year for the crime of entering with intent to steal, larceny. This occurred in 1938 when applicant was a boy of sixteen.

The sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County are not opposed to the granting of a pardon.

Since the commission of this crime, applicant has married and served three years with the Air Corps, two of which were overseas, and is at present attending college under the G. I. Bill of Rights. Applicant intends to continue his studies into graduate school and desires that the stigma of this juvenile offense be removed from his name.

After reviewing this case the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that the prayer of the applicant be granted and that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be issued.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Gilbert L. Soulliard, D-7465, No. 9180, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir. The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Gilbert L. Soulliard, convicted of assault and battery, robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 20, 1942 to be computed from October 17, 1943, be commuted from 10 years to 4 years, 3 months and 10 days, expiring on January 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on the charge of assault and battery and robbery. At the present time, applicant has served four years and two months of his minimum sentence. Applicant has always maintained his innocence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record.

The Board of Pardons considering all the various angles of this case and giving applicant the benefit of the doubt, that he is innocent, cannot see where society would be helped by continued incarceration of applicant, and we therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank William Searcy, C-9381, No. 4225, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Frank William Searcy, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on December 15, 1933, be commuted on Bill No. 345 December Sessions, 1933 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 14 years, 1 month and 10 days, expiring on January 25, 1948; and on Bill No. 346 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on January 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-nine years of age and seeks commutation of his maximum sentence. The crime for which he seeks clemency consisted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon for which the court sentenced him to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from fifteen to thirty years. October 22, 1940, he was granted commutation and released on parole and since that time has been in no further trouble.

There is no opposition to clemency from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons after considering this application are of the opinion applicant, because of his good record, should be granted commutation of his maximum sentence in order that he need no longer report to the parole authorities. We therefore, so recommend.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Theodore Scudder, D-7504, No. 8608, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Theodore Scudder, convicted of burglary, larceny, prison breach in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Susquehanna County on October 15, 1943 to be computed from July 20, 1943, be commuted from 5 years to 4 years, 6 months and 10 days, expiring on January 30, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-three years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years for burglary, larceny and prison breach. At the present time, he has served four years, four months and twenty-seven days of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary report to the Board of Pardons that applicant is trustworthy, capable and obedient. There is no opposition from either the trial judge or the district attorney of Susquehanna County.

Applicant feels he has earned the right to be released at this time as his penal experience has disciplined his habits and also has awakened a sense of responsibility as to what is required to be a good citizen. He is married and has two children for whom he wishes to support and maintain a home.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this applicant deserves consideration and so recommends to Your Excellency that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Louis Scorato, B-3754, No. 5896, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Louis Scorato, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on June 27, 1933 be commuted from life imprisonment to 14 years and 7 months, expiring on January 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-four years of age and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for murder, in the first degree. At the present time, applicant has served fourteen years and six months.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that if applicant were eligible for parole they would recommend him as he has a very good institutional record.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this applicant has derived the maximum benefits possible and that further incarceration will serve no purpose. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

In re application of Axel J. Schroeder, No. 9147, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Axel J. Schroeder, convicted of involuntary manslaughter in the Court of Municipal of Philadelphia County, on May 3, 1940, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to be placed on probation for a period of eighteen months for the crime of involuntary manslaughter.

It is seven years since the commission of this crime, which consisted of applicant, while driving a truck, struck and killed victim. It was raining and he stopped immediately.

There is no opposition to the granting of clemency from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons after due consideration recommend that a full and complete pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Dominick Russo, D-3487, No. 4703, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Dominick Russo, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Pike County on October 15, 1938 to be computed from July 28, 1938 be commuted from 24 years to 9 years and 6 months, expiring on January 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-nine years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twelve to twenty-four years for voluntary manslaughter. Applicant served five years and nineteen days of his minimum sentence and was released on parole August 17, 1943.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Pike County, they leaving the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Applicant is married and the father of three children. He is engaged in the restaurant business in the City of Harrisburg and doing quite well. He desires to obtain commutation of his maximum sentence in order that he might be released from parole. It should also be noted here that there is in this applicant's life many letters attesting to his good character from members of the police force, clergymen, and merchants with whom he does business.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that no further purpose can be served by keeping this man under parole any longer, and therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency, that commutation of maximum sentence be granted.

In re application of Steve Ritter, No. 1726-D, No. 109-B, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Steve Ritter, convicted of murder, in the second degree in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County on November 24, 1937 to be computed from May 6, 1937, be commuted from 12 years to 10 years, 7 months and 23 days, expiring on December 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Samuel J. Riccobono, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods, conspiracy to steal in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on November 4, 1940, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for a period of one year for the crime of larceny, receiving stolen goods and conspiracy to steal. This crime was committed in 1940.

The sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County are not opposed to the granting of clemency.

The Board of Pardons, taking into consideration the fact that applicant has conducted himself well, has an honorable discharge from the United States Army and his desire to become eligible for a civil service position, recommend that this blot on his name be removed and he be granted a full and complete gubernatorial pardon.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank Palermo, No. 9170, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Frank Palermo, convicted of aggravated assault and battery in the Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on April 17, 1928; and of lottery in the Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on January 16, 1934, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-two years of age and the crimes for which he seeks pardon were committed when he was a young man of twenty-three. Applicant paid the fine which was imposed upon him and served sixty days of a six months sentence when he was released.

Since applicant's arrest in 1934 he has married and is the father of three girls and two boys ranging in age from seventeen to eleven years. Applicant has led an exemplary and successful life as a nationally known and respected fight manager.

President Judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has written the Board of Pardons most highly of applicant's character listing particularly his outstanding cooperation in promoting boxing shows for the entertainment of soldiers in different camps and hospitals. He was the only boxing promoter who gave this service which cost him a minimum of $10,000.00. Applicant is particularly good to all juvenile activities having organized and financed the Crusaders.

The Board of Pardons in considering this application are of the opinion that since applicant has behaved himself he should be given the benefit of a pardon to carry on his lawful business activities unembarrassed by this criminal record. Therefore, we recommend that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Francis Ney, D-9143, No. 8059, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Francis Ney, convicted of statutory rape in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Berks County on September 22, 1943 to be computed from October 1, 1946 be commuted from 2 years to 1 year and 4 months, expiring on February 1, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from two to four years on the charge of statutory rape. At the present time, applicant has served one year and three months of his minimum sentence.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities, nor the father of the victim, and the victim herself sent a telegram recommending clemency.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has made an excellent adjustment and maintained an excellent disciplinary record.

The Board of Pardons after reviewing this application are of the opinion applicant has been sufficiently punished and will now become a worthwhile citizen. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends the commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Murphy, No. 9171, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that James Murphy, convicted of unlawful sale of firearms in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 2, 1939, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was given a suspended sentence on May 2, 1939, for the unlawful sale of firearms.

The applicant has been in no further trouble for eight years and seven months. He served in the United States Army for three and one-half years and received an honorable discharge therefrom. He is married and the father of a sixteen month old daughter.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County to the granting of a pardon.

The Board of Pardons, therefore recommends to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re-application of John Misicki B-1506, No. 1573, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on John Misicki, convicted of breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony, robbery, felonious attempt to kill in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Somerset County on July 1, 1929, be commuted on Bill No. 8 September Sessions, 1929, from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 8 years, 5 months and 30 days, expiring on December 31, 1947; and on Bill No. 46 from a minimum term of 3½ years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on January 1, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many prisoners whose release on parole has been affected by the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel. Thomas Lynch v. Stanley P. Ashe, Warden of the Western State Penitentiary, 320 Pa. 341. In this opinion it was held that unless a prisoner, who was serving sentences imposed to run consecutively, was recommended and approved for parole at the expiration of the first minimum sentence, he would be serving the maximum of that sentence, and if no recommendation for parole was made at the expiration of the second and subsequent minimum of sentences imposed to run consecutively, the prisoner would be serving the maximum of the second and subsequent sentences. In other words, a prisoner serving an indeterminate sentence is not automatically paroled at the expiration of the minimum term but is merely eligible for parole at that time, and if not favorably considered by the Prison Board at any time thereafter, the prisoner is required to serve the full sentence.

It was the custom for a long period of time for the officials of both the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries to lump consecutive sentences and the Boards of Trustees would only make recommendations for release on parole at the expiration of the period of time equal to the total of the minimum sentences.

Since the Supreme Court held this procedure improper, the applicant and others, whose cases were not considered for parole at the expiration of their minimum sentences, through no fault of their own, will have to serve a much longer period of time than contemplated by the sentencing judge and the prison officials.

The failure of the Board of Trustees to make the necessary recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum sentences was an honest mistake, as most, if not all, sentencing judges shared the same view as the prison officials in deeming it to be unnecessary to make recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum of every consecutive sentence. Sentencing judges throughout the state have uniformly believed and taken into consideration in passing sentences the Prison Board practice that consecutive sentences would be lumped making a total minimum and a total maximum.

We believe that a great injustice would be done and that it would be most unfair to keep the applicant incarcerated for a longer period of time than recommended by the Board of Trustees of the institution in which the applicant is confined.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Medinski, C-7999, No. 2537, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Charles Medinski, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lackawanna County on May 7, 1932, be commuted on Bill No. 221 May Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 5 years, 8 months, and 20 days, expiring on January 27, 1948; and on Bill No. 236 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on January 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from fifteen to thirty years for burglary. After serving seven years and twenty days, applicant was granted commutation of his minimum sentence and released on parole May 27, 1939.

Since applicant's release on parole he has maintained an excellent record. He has always been employed during these eight years and seven months on parole but he now seeks a commutation of his maximum sentence in order that he may move more freely and take advantage of business possibilities which while he is under parole regulations he is unable to do.

There is no opposition from any of the sentencing authorities of Lackawanna County.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has shown by his good record while on parole he is fully rehabilitated, and therefore, recommends that commutation of his maximum sentence be granted as prayed for by applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph J. Kolmansperger, D-2087, No. 5045, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Joseph J. Kolman-sperger, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods, robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County on March 29, 1937, be commuted on Bill No. 338 April Sessions, 1937, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 7 years and 9 months, expiring on December 29, 1947; and on Bill No. 338-A from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on December 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and, feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Wilmer H. Kauterman, C-8407, No. 2911, December Sessions, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Wilmer H. Kauterman, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, larceny, and receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Bucks County on November 7, 1932, be commuted on Bill No. 131 September Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 16 years to a maximum term of 15 years, 3 months and 20 days, expiring on January 27, 1948; and on Bill No. 129 from a maximum term of 14 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on January 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-nine years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from fifteen to thirty years for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, larceny, and receiving stolen goods. This was his first offense and after serving seven years of his minimum sentence it was commuted and he was released on parole December 6, 1939.

There is no opposition to the granting of clemency from either the trial judge or the district attorney of Bucks County. They leave the matter up to the discretion of the Board of Pardons.

Applicant has been on parole for eight years and eleven days during which time he has been constantly employed. He is married and the father of a five year old daughter. He is buying his own home and has proven by his conduct that he is definitely through with any further acts of lawlessness.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has earned the right to be released from further parole, and therefore, recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Jones, Jr., D-7092, No. 8699, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles Jones, Jr., convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 20, 1943 to be computed from April 13, 1943 be commuted from 5 years to 4 years, 9 months and 12 days, expiring on January 25, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-four years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years for robbery. At the present time, applicant has served four years, eight months and four days of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has established and maintained an excellent disciplinary record and enjoys a good reputation.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that applicant has made a sincere effort to rehabilitate himself, and therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Benjamin Imburgia, C-4871, No. 1922, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Benjamin Imburgia, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery of Allegheny County on February 21, 1928, be commuted from life to 19 years, 11 months and 3 days, expiring on January 24, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-four years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for life on the charge of murder, in the first degree. After serving ten years, ten months and three days, applicant was granted commutation and released on parole December 24, 1938.

Applicant has been in no further trouble since his release over eight years ago. He is happily married and at present is engaged in the restaurant business in Warren, Ohio. His being on parole is a serious handicap in preventing him from expanding and engaging in other lines of business.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County. The Board of Parole Agent has informed the Board of Pardons that: "from his knowledge of subject, he could see no reason why such commutation should not be granted." The Interstate Parole Report from Warren, Ohio, is in favor of granting commutation of maximum sentence.

Therefore, after taking into consideration the fact that this applicant has been in no further trouble for over eight years and shows every indication of remaining a law-abiding citizen, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation of maximum sentence be granted as prayed for by applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Robert Henderson, D-1852, No. 8051, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on John Robert Henderson, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 4, 1937, be commuted on Bill No. 786 December Sessions, 1936, from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 1 year and 20 days, expiring on January 24, 1948. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bill No. 785).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At the present time, applicant has served approximately eleven years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that his behavior and adjustment in the cell block are above reproach.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that the length of time already served is sufficient for the protection of society and that longer incarceration would serve no purpose. Therefore, we recommend that the prayer of the applicant be granted and commutation issue.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Douglas Gibson, No. 9054, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Douglas Gibson, convicted of attempt to obstruct public justice in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on July 12, 1934, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-seven years of age and has no prior criminal record. The crime for which he seeks a pardon is attempting to obstruct public justice. He was sentenced in 1934 to be placed on probation for a period of one year.

The sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County have no objection to the granting of a pardon.

Applicant has conducted himself in an excellent manner since the commission of this crime. He is married and holds an honorable discharge from the United States Navy having served two years.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that applicant's excellent record warrants the granting of executive clemency, and therefore, recommend that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be given applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Michael Gable, B-3426, No. 1834, December Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Michael Gable, convicted of breaking and escaping penitentiary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County on October 22, 1932 to begin at expiration of original sentence, be commuted from 10 years to 1 year, 4 months, and 23 days, expiring on January 24, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-five years of age and at this time has been on parole approximately six years with a good record. Applicant is married and has four children, he has worked steadily, provided well for his family and has made a good adjustment in his community.

There is no objection from the sentencing authorities, they apparently, leaving the matter of commutation of maximum sentence up to the Board of Pardons. Applicant is desirous of receiving commutation of maximum sentence in order that he may be released from parole and engage in a business of his own; thus making a better livelihood for his family.

The Board of Pardons after reviewing this application are of the opinion this applicant has earned the right to be released from parole. Further, that he has learned his lesson and will not again infringe against the laws of society. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation of maximum sentence be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Froneyberger, D-6158, B-9115, No. 6599, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Froneyberger, convicted of murder, in the second degree in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Cumberland County on December 6, 1941 to be computed from August 24, 1941 be commuted from 7½ years to 6 years and 5 months, expiring on January 24, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-three years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from seven and one-half to fifteen years for murder, in the second degree. This is the first crime for which he was ever convicted.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has maintained a perfect disciplinary record in that institution. The sentencing authorities of Cumberland County leave the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Applicant has served over six years and four months of his minimum sentence and the Board of Pardons feels that in this length of service he has become fully rehabilitated and is prepared to return to society and will become a law-abiding citizen. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommend that the prayer of the applicant be heeded and a commutation of his sentence be granted.

In re application of Otis M. Everett, No. 3417-C, No. 110-B, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Otis M. Everett, convicted of assault and battery; aggravated assault and battery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 8, 1942 to be computed from November 29, 1942, be commuted from 6 years to 5 years and 1 month, expiring on December 29, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Edward Dzialak, No. 62761, No. 9145, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Edward Dzialak, convicted of larceny of automobile in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on June 25, 1947 to be computed from June 17, 1947, be commuted from 4 years to 7 months and 10 days, expiring on January 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-five years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Allegheny County Workhouse for from two to four years for larceny of automobile.

Applicant at this writing has served six months of his minimum sentence. All of this service was in the hospital. Doctor A. H. Kraft, prison physician, has diagnosed applicant as an acute mania, giving evidence of continuing these periodic violence spells. Doctor Kraft is of the opinion the hospital at the Allegheny County Workhouse is not adequate to give applicant the medical attention he needs.

Applicant served in the armed forces of the United States receiving an honorable discharge therefrom. The purpose of this application is to allow applicant to be committed to a Veterans Hospital where he can receive proper treatment. Under existing regulations a veteran who is being held by the civil authorities on a charge of crime or misdemeanor is not eligible for hospitalization in a Veterans Administration Hospital unless such veteran has been unconditionally discharged from custody or paroled.

Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that the commutation of maximum sentence for this applicant be granted on the condition that he be admitted directly to a Veterans Hospital for treatment.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Stephen A. Devereux, D-7005, No. 7297, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Stephen A. Devereux, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Chester County, on March 5, 1943 to be computed from October 31, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-five years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from three and one-half to nine years for voluntary manslaughter. After serving one year and ten months of his minimum sentence applicant was granted commutation and released on parole. February 1, 1946, applicant was granted commutation of his maximum sentence and released from parole.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Chester County to the granting of a pardon.

Applicant is an attorney by profession and prior to this crime was never in any trouble whatsoever. When applicant committed this crime he felt that he was protecting his wife and four children from imminent danger. He had no intention of killing victim but felt that victim and all other hunters should understand that they must not endanger his family life by shooting on his farm. As soon as the catastrophe occurred he summoned aid, calling a doctor, an ambulance, the State Police and cooperated with the authorities by giving a frank and truthful statement of the facts.

The Board of Pardons feels that this crime was not the outcome of any criminal tendencies but rather committed under duress, with the main thought in mind of protecting his wife and family. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted in order that applicant may freely, fearlessly and with dignity practice his profession.

In re application of Jerome Deptula, D-1235, No. 5236, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Jerome Deptula, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County on April 15, 1936, be commuted on Bill No. 322 April Sessions, 1936, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 11 years, 9 months and 10 days, expiring on January 25, 1948; on Bill No. 322-A from a minimum term of 8 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on January 26, 1948; on Bill No. 323 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on January 27, 1948; on Bill No. 324 from a maximum term of 7 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on January 28, 1948; and on Bill No. 325 from a maximum term of 7 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on January 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-two years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty-eight to sixty-four years for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At the present time, applicant has served eleven years and eight months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant's disciplinary record is good. There is no opposition to the granting of commutation from the sentencing authorities of Luzerne County. It might be stated here that all of applicant's accomplices, who were equally guilty, have been released.

The Board of Pardons after carefully reviewing this application are of the opinion that justice has been served by the eleven and one-half years of applicant's incarceration and that he has learned his lesson and will upon his release show that he is fully rehabilitated and will not again infringe against the laws of society. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted and applicant be released on parole.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Johnnie Davis B-7604 No. 6880, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Johnnie Davis, convicted of burglary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clinton County on March 22, 1941 to be computed from March 14, 1941, be commuted from 9 years to 6 years, 9 months, and 16 days, expiring on December 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Vincent George Crawford, D-1, No. 4048, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Vincent George Crawford, convicted of larceny of auto and robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 2, 1934, be commuted on Bill No. 1306 September Sessions, 1934, from a maximum term of 2 years to a maximum term of 2 months and 28 days, expiring on December 30, 1947.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release

from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Jack W. Bercute, No. 9140, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Jack W. Bercute, convicted of or pleaded guilty, to the following offense in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County (1) operating an automobile without consent of owner on March 23, 1925; (2) conspiracy and receiving stolen goods on December 9, 1929; and (3) sodomy suspicious character on December 20, 1931; and (4) in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Schuylkill County to the crime of assault and battery with intent to rob, carrying weapons on June 16, 1930, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-nine years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced from Philadelphia and Schuylkill Counties on the following charges: (1) operating an automobile without consent of owner (2) conspiracy receiving stolen goods. (3) sodomy, suspicious character, and (4) assault and battery with intent to rob, carrying weapons.

Applicant after being released on parole was inducted into the armed forces of the United States where after approximately two years of service he received an honorable discharge. Applicant is married and desires this pardon in order to take a civil service position with the Federal Government, thereby bettering his position in life.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons being of the opinion this applicant has rehabilitated himself, and will never again infringe against the laws of society, recommend that he be granted a full and complete gubernatorial pardon.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:
JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William George Arnold, No. 9143, December Session, 1947.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that William George Arnold, convicted of burglary, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on January 22, 1943, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-five years of age and four years ago was given a suspended sentence on the charge of burglary and receiving stolen goods.

The sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County are not opposed to the granting of a pardon to this applicant.

The Board of Pardons after reviewing this case, taking into consideration that applicant served over three and one-half years in the armed forces and also the fact he has been in no further trouble, recommends that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Albert George Zitzelberger, No. 9220, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the flat sentence of Albert George Zitzelberger, convicted of killing a human being in mistake for game in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Jefferson County on September 22, 1947 be commuted from 2 years to 5 months, expiring on February 22, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Jefferson County Jail for a period of two years on a charge of killing a human being in mistake for game.

This is the applicant's only conviction. At the present time he has served approximately five months of this sentence. It is reported that he has an excellent institutional record and that he has received a most severe sentence, one much more severe than any meted out for similar offenses in that section of the state.

Many citizens of the vicinity have written the Board of Pardons requesting that clemency be granted. He has complied with all the conditions of the sentence except the completion of his jail sentence. Only the wife and family suffer from the applicant's incarceration for this unfortunate accident.

The district attorney of Jefferson County recommends commutation.

The Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank Skurski, B-5286, No. 4770, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Frank Skurski, convicted of robbery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on October 26, 1936, be commuted on Bill No. 17 October Sessions, 1936, from a minimum term of 4 years to a minimum term of 3 years and 4 months, expiring on February 26, 1948; and on Bill No. 18 from a minimum term of 2 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on February 27, 1948. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bills Nos. 15 and 16).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from fourteen to thirty-five years for robbery. At the present time, applicant has served eleven years and two months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that if applicant were eligible for parole, they would recommend him because he has served over eleven years; has an excellent institutional record, making every effort toward self-improvement and also because all his accomplices have been released. There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion this is a deserving case and that applicant's long incarceration has taught him a lesson and that he will not again infringe against the laws of society. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Whitman Simpson, D-4855, No. 5824, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Whitman Simpson, convicted of robbery being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 15, 1940 to be computed from April 4, 1940 be commuted from 20 years to 7 years, 10 months and 24 days expiring on February 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-seven years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At the present time applicant has served seven years and ten months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent disciplinary record while confined in that institution. The trial judge, Honorable Frank Smith, has written the Board of Pardons that he feels some consideration should be given applicant due to his prison record. The district attorney leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

The Board of Pardons after careful review concur with the opinion of the trial judge that since applicant has served such a long period of time with a good record that he has learned his lesson and will not again offend against society. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Carlo Sgro, No. 235-D, No. 8626, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommended that the maximum sentence of Carlo Sgro, convicted of robbery, assault and battery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Berks County on December 18, 1942, be commuted from 6 years to 5 years, 2 months and 10 days, expiring on February 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-three years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Berks County Prison for from one and one-half to six years on a charge of robbery, assault and battery. On June 20, 1944, he was paroled for induction into the army.

The Honorable Paul N Schaeffer, sentencing judge, has written the Board of Pardons as follows: "I do not believe that Sgro would have participated in anyway in this offense if he had not been drinking, and I incline strongly towards a favorable recommendation of him to you."

Applicant is married and employed as a driver for a Potato Chip Company. He wishes to have a commutation of his maximum sentence in order to go into business for himself and be free to travel wherever it is necessary in the operation of his business.

The Board of Pardons are of the opinion that the confidence placed in applicant by the trial judge warrants a granting of commutation of his maximum sentence. Therefore, we recommend that commutation of maximum sentence be granted and applicant be released from parole.

In re application of Theodore R. Oliver, C-5245, No. 3295, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Theodore R. Oliver, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on March 20, 1929 to be computed from December 27, 1928, be commuted from 20 years to 19 years, 1 month and 4 days, expiring on January 31, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Edward Oleckna, C-5121, No. 3209, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Edward Oleckna, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lackawanna County on May 7, 1932, be commuted on Bill No. 220 May Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 5 years, 9 months and 20 days, expiring on February 27, 1948; on Bill No. 221 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on February 28, 1948; and on Bill No. 236 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on February 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-seven years of age. Sixteen years ago applicant with five accomplices committed a series of burglaries. He served seven years of a minimum sentence of twenty years when he was granted commutation of his minimum sentence of twenty years. He has been on parole eight and one-half years.

Both the present judge and district attorney are unfamiliar with the facts of the case and leave the matter up to the Board of Pardons.

The Board of Parole reports that the applicant is making a good adjustment. He is now married and has a family of three children. He desires commutation of his maximum sentence to free his family from any further stigma.

He has an excellent record for eight and one-half years and has been in no further trouble. The Board of Pardons believe he has learned his lesson and will not again offend against society. We, therefore, recommend commutation of his maximum sentence.

In re application of John Moszcynski, B-1537, No. 1574, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on John Moszcynski, convicted of breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony; robbery, felonius attempt to kill in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Somerset County on August 5, 1929, be commuted on Bill No. 8 September Sessions, 1929 from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 8 years, 5 months and 29 days, expiring on February 4, 1948; and on Bill No. 46 from a minimum of 3½ years to a minimum of 1 day, expiring on February 5, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many prisoners whose release on parole has been affected by the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel. Thomas Lynch v. Stanley P. Ashe, Warden of the Western State Penitentiary, 320 Pa. 341. In this opinion it was held that unless a prisoner, who was serving sentences imposed to run consecutively, was recommended and approved for parole at the expiration of the first minimum sentence, he would be serving the maximum of that sentence, and if no recommendation for parole was made at the expiration of the second and subsequent minimum of sentences imposed to run consecutively, the prisoner would be serving the maximum of the second and subsequent sentences. In other words, a prisoner serving an indeterminate sentence is not automatically paroled at the expiration of the minimum term but is merely eligible for parole at that time, and if not favorably considered by the Prison Board at any time thereafter, the prisoner is required to serve the full sentence.

It was the custom for a long period of time for the officials of both the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries to lump consecutive sentences and the Boards of Trustees would only make recommendations for release on parole at the expiration of the period of time equal to the total of the minimum sentences.

Since the Supreme Court held this procedure improper, the applicant and others, whose cases were not considered for parole at the expiration of their minimum sentences, through no fault of their own, will have to serve a much longer period of time than contemplated by the sentencing judge and the prison officials.

The failure of the Board of Trustees to make the necessary recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum sentences was an honest mistake, as most, if not all, sentencing judges shared the same view as the prison officials in deeming it to be unnecessary to make recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum of every consecutive sentence. Sentencing judges throughout the state have uniformly believed and taken into consideration in passing sentences the Prison Board practice that consecutive sentences would be lumped making a total minimum and a total maximum.

We believe that a great injustice would be done and that it would be most unfair to keep the applicant incarcerated for a longer period of time than recommended by the Board of Trustees of the institution in which the applicant is confined.

In re application of James M. McDonald, D-3659, No. 5422, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of James M. McDonald, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 6, 1939 to be computed from December 9, 1938, be commuted from 20 years to 9 years and 2 months, expiring on February 9, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

In re application of Thomas P. MacDonald, No. 9104, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon

due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Thomas P. MacDonald, convicted of operating automobile while under influence of intoxicating liquor, aggravated assault and battery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on December 20, 1940, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-seven years of age and was given a suspended sentence for the crime of operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and aggravated assault and battery. This crime occurred in 1940 and since that time applicant has been in no further trouble.

Applicant is married and the father of two small children. He completed forty-one months of honorable service in the United States Army Air Force, thirty months of which were spent overseas. He rose to the rank of staff sergeant.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this applicant should be given consideration for the sake of his family and also the fact that this mark against his name is hindering him from obtaining a position on the police force of Philadelphia. Therefore, we recommend that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Julius Lieberman, D-4861, No. 3912, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Julius Lieberman, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on November 12, 1947 to be computed from April 17, 1940 be commuted from 10 years to 7 years, 10 months and 10 days, expiring on February 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty years of age. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. The loot being $125.00. At the present time the applicant has served nearly eight years of a minimum of ten years.

We have been informed that the applicant is a co-operative prisoner and that he has an excellent institutional record.

The assistant district attorney of Philadelphia County has advised the Board of Pardons that he is not opposed to commutation.

Since he has a good record at the institution, has no opposition from the district attorney and has served over four-fifths of his sentence, the Board of Pardons has no objection and recommends that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Robert H. Keough, No. 9226, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Robert H. Keough, convicted of felonious entry, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Bucks County, on May 25, 1939 to be computed from May 12, 1939 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was arrested in 1939 for the crime of felonious entry, larceny, receiving stolen goods and sentenced to imprisonment in the Bucks County Prison for from one month to three years.

The applicant served his minimum sentence and was released on parole. Chief County Probation Officer, Horace P. Gwinner, Bucks County, advises that during applicant's period of parole he reported regularly in writing and his record on parole was good. There is no opposition from either the trial judge nor the district attorney of Bucks County to the granting of a pardon.

Shortly after applicant served his sentence he went on maneuvers with the Pennsylvania National Guard and was mobilized into the United States Army on January 13, 1941, where he served honorably seeing combat service in Africa, Northern France and the Rhineland. He received the bronze and purple heart medals and was wounded in action in Germany. On August 16, 1945, he was given a medical discharge and at this time receives $55.20 disability compensation from the Government each month.

Applicant bases this application on the fact that he has been a good and honest citizen since the commission of this crime and he is anxious to have this stigma removed from his name. The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant should be given every consideration not only due to his youth at the time of the commission of this crime but his military record should bear some fruit in removing this blot from his name. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William M. Hearn, D-3909, No. 113-B, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of William M. Hearn, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 31, 1939 to be computed from March 9, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 3 years and 11 months, expiring on February 9, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Carlton Graff, No. 2716-D, No. 112-B, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Carlton Graff, convicted of burglary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 3, 1939 to be computed from February 18, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years, 11 months and 13 days, expiring on January 31, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Robert L. Goodlin, B-7250, No. 5058, January Session, 1948.
To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Robert L. Goodlin, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Cambria County on May 27, 1940 to be computed from May 18, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years, 8 months and 13 days, expiring on January 31, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Salvatore Furgarino, D-3853, No. 6742, January Session, 1948.
To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Salvatore Furgarino, convicted of entering with intent to steal, burglary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 28, 1939 to be computed from September 8, 1940 be commuted from 10 years to 7 years, 5 months and 20 days, expiring on February 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age. He committed a series of thirty-eight burglaries, robberies and assault. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from eleven and one-half to forty-three years. He has now served nearly nine years of his minimum sentence.

It is reported to the Board of Pardons that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and the trial judge states the applicant makes a favorable impression on him. The district attorney leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Because the applicant has served such a large portion of his sentence and he has had and maintained an excellent record the Board of Pardons feels he is now entitled to some consideration, and we therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Edward Dorian, D-4755, No. 5900, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Edward Dorian, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 15, 1940 to be computed from February 27, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years, expiring on February 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age. He is now serving a sentence of ten to twenty years in the Eastern State Penitentiary for seven armed robberies. He has now served approximately eight years of his minimum sentence.

This applicant is listed as an outstanding prisoner in the Eastern State Penitentiary by the Board of Trustees of that institution. He was only eighteen years of age when he committed these depredations and the Board of Pardons feels he should have another chance. The trial judge and district attorney feel the same way.

In view of the applicant's outstanding record and the fact that he has served approximately four-fifths of his sentence and the further fact that he was only eighteen when these crimes were committed the Board of Pardons recommends commutation of his sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel Contic, No. 61532, No. 9083, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Samuel Contic, convicted of burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Westmoreland County on October 1, 1946, be commuted from 22 months to 1 year and 5 months, expiring on March 1, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty years of age. He has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Allegheny County Workhouse for from twenty-two months to five years for the crime of burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods. He has now served sixteen months of a minimum sentence of twenty-two months.

He has an excellent record in the Allegheny County Workhouse. The trial judge recommends favorable consideration of the case because applicant did not actually participate in the burglary but loaned his car, and for the further reason that applicant's wife and children are nearly destitute. The district attorney of Westmoreland County leaves it up to the Board of Pardons.

Under all of the above related circumstances we recommend that clemency be granted.

In re application of Alexander Boyd, B-1443, No. 9203, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Alexander Boyd, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on May 8, 1929, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-two years of age. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from four to twenty years for robbery. After serving four years he was released on parole May 8, 1933. He has been on parole fourteen years, eight months and seven days under the supervision of the Department of Probation, County of Cuyahoga, Cleveland, Ohio, who have written us that they are of the opinion he is worthy and has earned every consideration we can give him.

The applicant has always maintained that he is innocent and for this reason feels that he should be granted a pardon. There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County.

The Board of Pardons due to the fact that this applicant insists that he is innocent, having never been in any previous trouble and further since his parole record is excellent, are of the opinion consideration should be shown him. Therefore, we recommend that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Clyde W. Bird, D-3112, No. 4439, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Clyde W. Bird, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Sullivan County on May 28, 1938 to be computed from May 19, 1938, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years, 8 months and 12 days, expiring on January 31, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Bates, D-5431, No. 9223, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Bates, convicted of murder, in the second degree, assault with intent to kill, carrying concealed deadly weapons in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Schuylkill County on November 21, 1940 to be commuted from July 8, 1940 be commuted from 12 years to 7 years, 7 months and 20 days, expiring on February 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty years of age and he is now serving a sentence of from twelve to twenty-four years in the Eastern State Penitentiary on charge of murder, in the second degree, assault with intent to kill and carrying concealed deadly weapons. He has now served nearly two-thirds of his minimum sentence.

This victim was a dangerous character and had on one prior occasion slashed applicant so badly that he almost died and on the night of the killing applicant was so frightened that he really believed he was acting in self-defense.

The sentencing authorities have not written the Board of Pardons indicating their stand on release of the applicant.

It is the opinion of the Board of Pardons that he has been severely punished and if released will probably be a law-abiding citizen. We recommend that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank Baio, D-2601, No. 8303, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Frank Baio, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on November 15, 1937 to be computed from October 27, 1937, be commuted from a minimum term of 25 years to a minimum term of 10 years and 4 months, expiring on February 27, 1948, and the minimum sentence imposed on January 25, 1938, to run concurrent with original sentence is also commuted.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-five years of age. He is now serving a sentence of twenty-five to fifty years in the Eastern State Penitentiary on several charges of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. He has now served over ten years of his sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have written the Board of Pardons and stated that the applicant has an excellent institutional record. Honorable, Harry S. McDevitt, has written the Board of Pardons that if the applicant has an excellent institutional record he does not wish to stand in the way of his release. The district attorney of Philadelphia County is not opposed to release of applicant.

Since the authorities who have the applicant under their jurisdiction recommend commutation and the sentencing authorities do not object the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

In re application of William F. Arndt, No. 9205, January Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that William F. Arndt, convicted of or pleaded guilty to the following offenses, to wit: (1) larceny of automobile in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia County on January 16, 1923; (2) breaking and entering in the Municipal Court on December 26, 1923; (3) larceny in the Municipal Court on August 3, 1923; (4) malicious mischief in the Municipal Court on August 3, 1923; (5) entering with intent to steal in the Municipal Court on December 4, 1923; and (6) statutory rape in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court on September 16, 1925, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is forty-one years of age and was fined twenty-five ($25.00) dollars and placed on probation for the following crimes, to-wit: (1) larceny of automobile; (2) breaking and entering; (3) larceny; (4) malicious mischief; (5) entering with intent to steal; and (6) statutory rape. These offenses occurred approximately twenty-three years ago when applicant was a mere boy of sixteen years.

Since the times these offenses occurred applicant has been in no further trouble. He is married, he served honorably with the armed forces in the United States, he is gainfully employed and a respected citizen.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons after reviewing this application feel same should be given consideration, and therefore, recommend to your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Lawrence Henry Wildermuth, B-7292, No. 8427, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Lawrence Henry Wildermuth, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on July 5, 1940 to be computed from June 8, 1940 be commuted from 10 years to 7 years, 9 months and 12 days, expiring on March 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-three years of age. He is serving a sentence of not less than ten nor more than twenty years in the Western State Penitentiary for robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. This is his first conviction although it is not his first arrest. He was a juvenile problem in his youth and this was the natural result of that course. He has now served nearly eight years of his minimum sentence.

It is reported by the institutional authorities who have him in charge that he has an excellent record and that if he was eligible for parole they would recommend him for parole. Neither the trial judge nor the district attorney objects to the granting of commutation. He has served a major portion of his sentence.

We feel that this applicant has served the greater portion of his sentence with a good record and since neither the trial judge nor the district attorney object to commutation, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

In re application of Francis M. Wavrek, B-1135, No. 9239, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Francis M. Wavrek, convicted of larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Westmoreland County, on November 16, 1928, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-eight years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from one to two years on the charge of larceny. Applicant was discharged from parole on August 6, 1932.

For the past fourteen years applicant has conducted himself in a proper manner. He has a position of trust which involves the handling of money and property of others. He bears an excellent reputation in the community in which he lives.

Applicant desires this pardon in order to clear his name of this crime so he will not be deported to Czechoslovakia, a country from whence he came, as a baby three years old. The sentencing authorities leaves the matter of clemency up to the discretion of the Board of Pardons.

The Board of Pardons feels that since this man has been in no further trouble for such a long period of time, and evidence obtained has indicated that he has rehabilitated himself as to his reputation and integrity, that to refuse clemency and have him deported would be stretching justice too far. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Luther Thomas, No. 9228, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Luther Thomas, convicted of aggravated assault and battery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lehigh County on April 3, 1946, be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year, 11 months and 17 days, expiring on March 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-seven years of age. He has no prior record. At the present time, the applicant has served almost two years of a two and one-half minimum sentence for the crime of aggravated assault and battery.

The warden of the Lehigh County Prison has written the Board of Pardons stating that the applicant is a model prisoner. Neither the trial judge nor the district attorney have any objection to the granting of consideration.

We believe that this applicant has been severely punished under all of the circumstances and further we do not feel he should be required to serve his entire sentence, and therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

In re application of Floyd D. Tait, Jr., B-5883, No. 5059, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

of Butler County on January 4, 1938 to be computed from November 2, 1937 be commuted from 15 years to 10 years, 4 months and 18 days, expiring on March 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty years of age. He has no prior criminal record. At the present time, he has served over ten years of a minimum sentence of fifteen years on a charge of murder, in the second degree.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have written the Board of Pardons that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and if he was eligible to apply for parole they would recommend clemency. The trial judge has indicated to the parole agent that he favors commutation of his sentence.

Under all of these circumstances, the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that we should recommend that clemency be granted, and therefore, so recommend.

In re application of Jerome Sharp, D-7900, No. 8584, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Jerome Sharp, convicted of burglary, receiving stolen goods, in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on September 28, 1944 to be computed from June 3, 1944; and of burglary, larceny, in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Delaware County on March 22, 1945, be commuted on Bill No. 152 June Sessions, 1944 (Philadelphia County) from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 3 years, 9 months, and 19 days, expiring on March 22, 1948; and on Bill No. 209 December Sessions, 1944 (Delaware County—to run concurrent with Philadelphia County sentence) from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 3 years, expiring on March 22, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years for burglary, receiving stolen goods and larceny. At the present time applicant has served three years and 9 months of his minimum sentence.

The trial judge, Honorable Curtis Bok, leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

The applicant is desirous of obtaining commutation of his sentence in order that he may support his parents who are in desperate straits, his mother was one of the first gold star mothers in Pennsylvania. Since applicant's confinement, he feels he has come to realize the seriousness of the crimes he committed and that in the future he must associate with men of honesty not only for his own sake but for the sake of his parents.

The Board of Pardons, after reviewing this case, is of the opinion that applicant is sincere in his desire to become a law-abiding citizen and the suffering his mother has gone through, to become a gold star mother, must bear some fruit, and therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William D. Sahn, Jr., D-6384, No. 8637, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William D. Sahn, Jr., convicted of larceny by employee, fraudulent conversion, embezzlement in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lancaster County on March 20, 1942 to be computed from July 18, 1941, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years, 8 months and 2 days, expiring on March 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-eight years of age and has no previous criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty-two years on the charge of larceny by employee, fraudulent conversion, embezzlement. At the present time, applicant has served over six and one-half years of his minimum sentence. The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record, his disciplinary record is perfect and he is considered to be a model prisoner by his custodial officers.

This is a case where an underpaid bank teller, became involved with gamblers and saw "easy money." It started at the beginning in a small way and when no reprimand was forthcoming from the bank officials, (who had to be fully aware that a clerk, being paid the salary applicant was being paid, could never stretch his pittance as far as this young man was doing) applicant became more involved and the outcome was his present sentence.

The three members of the Board of Pardons namely, Honorable Charles M. Morrison, Honorable T. McKeen Chidsey, and Honorable William S. Livengood, Jr., after careful and thorough consideration of this case, are of the opinion that applicant has fully learned his lesson from his six and one-half years of incarceration and to confine him further will serve no purpose. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that applicant be granted commutation of his sentence and be released on parole.

In re application of Anthony Russo, No. 47321, No. 8660, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Anthony Russo, convicted of robbery, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on June 27, 1938 to be computed from May 27, 1938 be commuted from 12 years to 9 years and 10 months, expiring on March 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-two years of age. This is his first major conviction. He was charged with participation in a holdup and sharing of the loot. He did not do the actual holding up. He served two years of a six year minimum sentence and then was released on parole. He has now been on parole for seven and one-half years.

The Board of Parole states that this applicant has an excellent parole record. He had adjusted well and the Board of Pardons feels that he is completely rehabilitated.

Under all of the circumstances, we feel the applicant has been severally punished and will not again offend against society. We feel it is a proper case for commutation of maximum sentence and so recommend.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Nicholas Radoycich, No. 9241, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Nicholas Radoycich, convicted of aggravated assault and battery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on April 10, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-four years of age. He was arrested and charged with aggravated assault and battery which he is alleged to have inflicted on his victim while attempting to arrest him. Sentence was suspended.

Following his being placed on suspended sentence the applicant was inducted into the United States Navy, where he served three and one-half years. Most of his service was in the South Pacific. At the termination of hostilities he was given an honorable discharge.

Applicant now desires to secure a position with the fire department but the record of this arrest and sentence pursues him. In view of his service with the armed forces and the fact that this occurred in the course of, and performance of, his sworn duty we feel applicant should be rid of this stigma and a pardon be granted. We, so recommend.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Petrone, No. 9251, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence imposed on Joseph Petrone, who pleaded guilty to setting up and maintaining illegal lottery, in the Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County, on October 29, 1943; and of setting up and maintaining illegal lottery, in the Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County, on April 24, 1944, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-one years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced in 1944 to pay a fine of $100.00 and be placed on probation for a period of one year for setting up and maintaining illegal lottery. Applicant paid his fine and was very cooperative with the parole authorities while on parole.

Applicant is married and is engaged in a beauty parlor business with his wife. His home life is congenial and he bears a good reputation in his neighborhood.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities. Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, states that he thinks applicant is very meritorious.

The Board of Pardons concur with the trial judge and believes that this applicant should have the stigma of this offense removed from his name as he is fully rehabilitated. We therefore, recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Pasquale Montesjardi, C-8150, No. 9252, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Pasquale Montesjardi, convicted of robbery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on July 22, 1932 to be computed from July 18, 1932 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-two years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for robbery. On August 27, 1937, applicant's minimum sentence of ten years was commuted and he was released on parole. At the present time, he has been on parole nearly ten and one-half years and never been in any trouble.

Applicant is married and lives congenially with his wife and five children in their own home. He is a veteran of World War I and received an honorable discharge therefrom. There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities.

Applicant desires a pardon in order to clear his name for the sake of his family and the Board of Pardons is of the opinion he has shown by his good record he is fully rehabilitated. Therefore, we recommend that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Herman Molden, B-3626, No. 5957, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Herman Molden, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on March 16, 1933, be commuted on Bill No. 7 November Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 15 years and 4 days, expiring on March 20, 1948, and on Bill No. 8 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on March 21, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is sixty-two years of age. This was his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of not less than twenty nor more than forty years in the Western State Penitentiary on a charge of robbery. The applicant served ten years of his minimum sentence. This sentence was commuted on July 7, 1943.

The Board of Parole shows that this applicant has adjusted well since being on parole. He is of little risk and shows evidence of complete rehabilitation.

We feel that the applicant has shown by his almost five years on parole that he will not again offend against society, and therefore, we recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted.

In re application of Bernard Maddox, D-2854, No. 6871, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Bernard Maddox, convicted of entering with intent to steal, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on February 4, 1938 to be computed from January 28, 1938, be commuted from 13 years to 10 years and 1 month, expiring on February 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

In re application of Harry Leonetti, C-7014, No. 4713, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Harry Leonetti, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 24, 1931, be commuted from life imprisonment to 16 years and 11 months, expiring on March 24, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-eight years of age and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for murder, in the first degree. After serving ten years, ten months, and one day of his sentence, he was granted commutation and released on parole. At the present time he has been on parole over five years and seven months.

His parole record is good. There is no opposition to the granting of clemency from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County. After applicant's release on parole, he served in the armed forces of the United States and married. He is desirous of obtaining this commutation of maximum sentence in order that he may be released from parole and take his wife to the State of Florida as her health is very poor.

The Board of Pardons after a careful review and taking into consideration the fact of his wife's illness recommend that applicant be granted commutation of his maximum sentence.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Lambert, B-4553, No. 6729, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon James Lambert, convicted of murder, in the second degree and robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on May 24, 1935, be commuted on Bill No. 14 April Sessions, 1935, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 12 years and 10 months, expiring on March 24, 1948; and on Bill No. 13 from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on March 25, 1948. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bill No. 14).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-seven years of age. This is his first major conviction. He was convicted of murder, in the second degree and robbery. For this he received the sentence of not less than fifteen nor more than thirty years in the Western State Penitentiary.

He has now served nearly thirteen years of his minimum sentence. The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary had advised the Board of Pardons that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and if he was eligible to apply for parole they would recommend it.

Neither the trial judge nor the district attorney object to the commutation at this time. Incidentally it was brought to the Board of Pardons' attention that this applicant was convicted entirely on circumstantial evidence.

We feel that applicant has been adequately punished and will not again be guilty of any breach of the law if his sentence is commuted. We, therefore, recommend commutation be granted.

In re application of George W. Kimmell, B-7284, No. 9058, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of George W. Kimmell, convicted of breaking and escaping penitentiary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County on June 24, 1940 to be computed from September 22, 1942 be commuted from 8 years to 5 years and 6 months, expiring on March 22, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-six years of age. He served his sentence of three to eight years, but while serving this sentence on a charge of robbery, he had a "lapse of memory" and walked away from Rockview Prison Farm. He is now on parole from his sentence for breaking and escaping from a penitentiary.

Applicant appeared in person and advised the Board of Pardons that he is suffering from tuberculosis and desires to go to Arizona for his health, which he feels will be improved by the climate. He seems to have made a good adjustment and has been completely rehabilitated.

We believe that the applicant has made an honest attempt to rehabilitate himself. We also believe that this applicant will not again offend against society, so we therefore, recommend the commutation of his maximum sentence.

In re application of Robert Jordan, D-2792, No. 7798, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert Jordan, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 19, 1938 to be computed from January 10, 1938 be commuted from 20 years to 10 years, 2 months and 10 days, expiring on March 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty years of age and was arrested for the crime of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon and sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years. At the present time, applicant has served ten years and two months of his minimum sentence. Applicant's accomplice, who was equally guilty, was granted commutation in April, 1942.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record and has made a good adjustment. There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion this applicant has been rehabilitated and that he will never again offend against society. Therefore, we recommend that since applicant has served such a long time and also since his accomplice has been commuted that commutation be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Huff, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 30, 1939 to be computed from March 23, 1939 be commuted from 20 years to 9 years expiring on March 23, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-six years of age and was arrested for the crime of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon and sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years. At the present time, applicant has served approximately nine years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant's disciplinary and adjustment record is excellent. The Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, the trial judge, has informed the Board of Pardons he is in favor of commutation since applicant has established such a good institutional record and also his accomplices have been commuted. The district attorney of Philadelphia County leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion applicant is not a criminal type, addicted to criminal practices, and that his penitentiary experience has been sufficient punishment to rehabilitate him for society. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the indeterminate sentence of Richard Benedict Harbison, convicted of public indecency, solicitation to commit sodomy in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lancaster County on June 20, 1947 be commuted from an indeterminate term to 1 year expiring on June 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-four years of age. He has no prior record. He plead guilty to the crimes of public indecency, solicitation to commit sodomy. This crime was the result of battle fatigue and pschoneurotic behavior and not because he was bad, or because he suffers from sexual perversion.

We have received a complete report from Dr. Joseph C. Yaskin who is a psychiatrist and after a detailed study of the applicant has stated that imprisonment is the worst possible thing that could happen to him.

The trial judge does not have any objection to commutation, but leaves the matter to the Board.

Under all of the circumstances, the Board of Pardons feels that the applicant has been severely punished and therefore we recommend that commutation be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on John Gombar, convicted of breaking and escaping prison, robbery, in the Quarter Sessions Court of Fayette County on June 21, 1937; and of robbery, in the Quarter Sessions Court of Westmoreland County, on May 27, 1940, sentence to be computed from June 21, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-four years of age and has been on parole since December 22, 1943, during which time he served in the armed forces of the United States and received therefrom an honorable discharge May 15, 1947. He served overseas in the European Theatre, participating in four combat campaigns, was wounded in action, the result of which necessitated the amputation of his leg below the knee. He receives a disability pension of $180.00 a month.

The Board of Parole reports that applicant has been cooperative with his supervising agent and reported regularly in spite of his handicap at the district office. The sentencing authorities have informed the Board of Pardons that in view of his war record he should be granted a pardon.

The Board of Pardons recommends to Your Excellency that the prayer of the applicant be heard and he be granted a full and complete gubernatorial pardon in order that he may not be further hindered in applying for a position among society.

In re application of Alphonse Giannone, D-7524, No. 5863, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Alphonse Giannone, convicted of robbery, conspiracy, aggravated assault and battery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware

County on March 28, 1939 to be computed from December 10, 1938 be commuted from 10 years to 9 years, 3 months and 10 days, expiring on March 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty years of age. This is his first major conviction. At the present time, he has served over nine years of a minimum sentence of ten years on a charge of robbery, conspiracy, aggravated assault and battery.

He has an excellent record at the Eastern State Penitentiary according to the Board of Trustees. Because of the long time that he has served, with a good record, the Board of Pardons feels that we should give an indication to applicant that we feel he has earned a commutation by reason of his excellent institutional record. There is no objection by the authorities to the granting of commutation.

We feel that the applicant has served a very long time and that no useful purpose could be gained by keeping the applicant in prison for the remaining nine months. We, therefore, recommend that applicant be granted commutation.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Harold Flynn, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 3, 1934, be commuted on Bill No. 870 December Sessions, 1933, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 14 years and 2 months, expiring on March 3, 1948; and on Bill No. 871 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on March 4, 1948.

In re application of George Fagan, No. 9233, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that George Fagan, convicted of robbery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 12, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty years of age and was never convicted of any crime whatsoever other than the present charge of robbery for which he seeks a pardon. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from four days to ten years. Applicant did not serve any time but was released on parole until September 12, 1946, at which time commutation of his maximum sentence was granted.

The trial judge, Honorable Edwin O. Lewis, recommends that applicant be granted a pardon. The district attorney also is in favor of same.

The Board of Pardons after careful consideration of this case is of the opinion applicant shows by his record since this infringement against the law, he has sufficient strength of character now to live within the law. Therefore, we recommend to your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Alexander Dale, C-182, No. 4684, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Alexander Dale, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Schuylkill County on January 26, 1920 be commuted from life imprisonment to 28 years and 2 months, expiring on March 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is sixty-two years of age and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for murder, in the first degree. At the present time, applicant has served over twenty-eight years of his sentence. He has no prior criminal record.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that during this long confinement he has had an excellent record and they consider this a most worthy case.

The Board of Pardons has carefully considered this case and are of the opinion that at the time of the commission of this crime applicant was unduly influenced by victim's wife. Also we believe that twenty-eight years of confinement with such an excellent record should be rewarded and cannot see where further incarceration will serve the ends of justice. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Ray Smith Batdorf, No. 5072, No. 9240, February Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ray Smith Batdorf, convicted of rape in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Northumberland County on April 16, 1947 to be computed from March 21, 1947, be commuted from 3½ years to 1 year expiring on March 21, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Northumberland County Prison for from three and one-half to seven years for the crime of rape. He was also required to pay a fine of $100.00. Applicant has served one year of his minimum sentence.

Applicant's record while confined is excellent. The trial judge, Honorable William Troutman, has informed the Board of Pardons he has no objection to commutation in this case even though applicant has served such a short time due to the fact that further incarceration would be continued hardship to his family, who are innocent victims. There is no opposition from the district attorney.

The Board of Pardons, after reviewing this case thoroughly, concur with the opinion of the trial judge, and therefore, recommend that commutation be granted applicant in order that he may go home and support his family.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Robert Widdos, C-6970, No. 2649, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Robert Widdos, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Session of Philadelphia County on April 8, 1931, be commuted on Bill No. 70 April Sessions, 1931, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 17 years and 20 days, expiring on April 28, 1948; and on Bill No. 71 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on April 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-five years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years for the crime of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. On June 11, 1938, applicant was released on parole after serving seven years and one month of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Parole informed the Board of Pardons that he has cooperated satisfactorily, bears a good reputation in his community and is interested in his family.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion this applicant should be granted commutation of his maximum sentence in order that he and his family may not be further embarrassed by the restrictions that are required when one is on parole. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that commutation of applicant's maximum sentence be granted and he be released from parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William E. Watkins, No. 8735, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William E. Watkins, convicted of hit-run, driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County on February 26, 1946 be commuted from 3 years to 2 years and 2 months, expiring on April 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment for from three to six years in the Centre County Prison on the charge of hit-run and driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. At the present time, he has served almost two years of his minimum sentence.

The trial judge, Honorable Ivan Walker, is in favor of commutation, his opinion being that applicant has been sufficiently punished. The district attorney of Centre County is not opposed to commutation. Mr. Thomas L. Howard, Deputy Sheriff of Centre County, has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has conducted himself in a mannerly fashion and been a trusty for a period of eighteen months.

There are many letters on file favoring commutation and attesting to the applicant's reputation and the fact they feel he has been sufficiently punished.

The Board of Pardons, after carefully reviewing the application, are of the belief applicant has learned his lesson by his incarceration and that if he is restored to society on restricted liberty our confidence in him will not be betrayed. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

In re application of Henry Waholek, D-1426, No. 5880, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Henry Waholek, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 22, 1936, be commuted on Bill No. 727 June Sessions, 1936, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 6 years, 9 months, and 14 days, expiring on April 6, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Nicholas R. Tiscio, D-3694, No. 6103, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Nicholas R. Tiscio, convicted of burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Lehigh County on January 23, 1939 to be computed from November 23, 1938; and of burglary in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Northampton County on April 12, 1943, to run current with the Lehigh County sentence, be commuted on Bill Nos. 25, 26, 27 and 28 September Sessions, 1938 (Lehigh County) from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 9 years and 5 months, expiring on April 23, 1948; and on Bills Nos. 121 and 122 June Sessions, 1938 (Northampton County—to run concurrent) from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 9 years and 5 months, expiring on April 23, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-three years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on the charge of burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods. At the present time, he has served nine years and four months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record. There is no opposition to the granting of commutation by the sentencing authorities, in fact the district attorney of Northampton County, Jacob A. Raub, Esquire, has written the Board of Pardons stating he feels that the sentence as imposed was sufficiently severe.

On file in favor of applicant is a petition signed by sixteen citizens, residents and qualified electors of the City of Bethlehem, praying the Board of Pardons to act favorably.

The Board of Pardons, after careful review of this application, feels that to grant clemency to applicant presently will be of great benefit and tend to bring him back to society as a useful and law-abiding citizen. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

In re application of George Thompson, D-6604, No. 6342, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of George Thompson, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 26, 1934 to be computed from July 26, 1942, be commuted from 10 years to 5 years and 9 months, expiring on April 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-seven years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for the crime of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At the present time, applicant has served five years and eight months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent disciplinary record. There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County to the granting of commutation.

The Board of Pardons after careful consideration feels that this applicant has by his incarceration become rehabilitated, and we therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

In re application of Philip Swerbenski, C-7229, No. 9282, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Philip Swerbenski, convicted of felonious entry, robbery in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Berks County, on July 7, 1931, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-seven years of age and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from one and one-half to four years on the charge of felonious entry and robbery. After serving approximately two years he was released on parole June 23, 1933, receiving his final discharge from parole on July 7, 1935.

Since applicant's release from parole, he has engaged in the painting and paper hanging business and at the present time is in business for himself, employs five men and has one hundred and twenty-seven regular customers. Applicant is married and the father of three children. He desires a pardon in order that his civil rights may be restored in New York State where he now resides.

The trial judge and district attorney of Berks County go on record as favoring clemency.

The Board of Pardons, after reviewing this application, are of the opinion same is very worthy. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that for the sake of his business and the good name of his family, a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of John Lester Shober, No. 9256, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open sessions the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the flat sentence of John Lester Shober, convicted of larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lancaster County on September 26, 1947, be commuted from 1 year to 7 months, expiring on April 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-two years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 and imprisonment in the Lancaster County Prison for a period of one year.

At the present time, applicant has served over six months of his minimum sentence.

Applicant is married and the father of two children. Applicant is needed very much at home in order to support his family. While confined applicant has made an honest effort to prepare himself for release. He co-operated fully with the authorities when apprehended.

The Board of Pardons, for the sake of his family, are in favor of commutation at this time and we therefore recommend that same be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles J. McMenamin, convicted of accessory to the fact to burglary, burglary, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 20, 1940 to be computed from May 29, 1940, be commuted from 10 years to 7 years and 11 months, expiring on April 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-six years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for the crime of accessory to the fact to burglary, burglary, receiving stolen goods. At the present time, applicant has served seven years and ten months of his minimum sentence of ten years.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record.

The Board of Pardons after carefully reviewing this application for clemency feels that applicant has learned a lesson by his incarceration and that he will now conduct himself properly and lead a useful life. To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Thomas M. Hasiuk, convicted of aggravated assault and battery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on February 17, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-seven years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was placed on probation for a period of three years for the crime of aggravated assault and battery which crime consisted more or less of just a "squabble" between two young men at a "jitterbug" hall.

This probation was satisfactorily terminated when applicant joined the United States Navy in October 25, 1945. Applicant is married and the father of two small sons. He bears a good reputation with the General Electric Company by whom he is employed and in the community in which he lives.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities in Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons, after reviewing all the angles of this application, are of the opinion this is a worthy case, and therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Daltha Haliburton, C-8094, No. 7554, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Daltha Haliburton, convicted of robbery, larceny of automobile, carrying concealed deadly weapons in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on September 7, 1939 to be computed from May 7, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years, 11 months and 20 days, expiring on April 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-nine years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from ten to twenty years on the charge of robbery, larceny of automobile, and carrying concealed deadly weapons. At the present time, he has served approximately nine years of his minimum sentence.

Dr. F. S. Baldi, Superintendent of the Philadelphia County Prison, in his report to the Board of Pardons states that applicant "probably will make a good parole risk."

The Board of Pardons, after carefully reviewing this case are of the opinion that if clemency is granted now as a reward for applicant's effort towards rehabilitation, it will tend to be an incentive for him to behave himself in society and become a law-abiding citizen.

Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted and applicant released on parole.

In re application of Robert Franks, D-4048, No. 5657, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert Franks, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on May 26, 1939 to be computed from May 6, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 8 years 11 months and 20 days, expiring on April 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty years of age and was never convicted of any offense prior to the crime for which he is now serving time. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At the present time, applicant has served eight years and eleven months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary report that the applicant has an excellent institutional record for the past two years. Applicant's five accomplices who were equally guilty have all been released and the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that applicant should be shown like consideration.

In re application of Michael Joseph Foti, D-3897, No. 7639, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Michael Joseph Foti, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Berks County on April 12, 1939 to be computed from February 23, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 9 years and 2 months, expiring on April 23, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-nine years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. At the present time, applicant has served over nine years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that the disciplinary record is excellent. The district attorney of Berks County, Russell H. Yoder, Esquire, has informed the Board of Pardons that his office favors commutation on account of applicant's good institutional record.

The Board of Pardons is in favor of clemency for this applicant as we are of the opinion applicant is not criminally inclined but is the victim of environmental circumstances. Also we feel he has made an honest effort toward rehabilitation and we will not be disappointed by the confidence placed in him. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank Forline, D-5735, C-452, No. 7699, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Frank Forline, convicted of assault, being armed with an offensive weapon with intent to rob, etc. in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 29, 1941 to be computed from April 16, 1941 be commuted from 8 years to 7 years and 10 days, expiring on April 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from eight to twenty years on the charge of assault, being armed with an offensive weapon with intent to rob. At the present time, applicant has served seven years of his minimum sentence of eight years.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has made an excellent adjustment with a perfect disciplinary record. The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has written the Board of Pardons stating that he feels it might be helpful to give applicant the benefit of commutation.

Applicant is married and the father of one daughter and three sons ranging in age from eleven years to six years. The mother is in poor health and the incarceration of applicant is working undue hardship on these innocent victims. The oldest boy, ten years of age, is afflicted with infantile paralysis.

The Board of Pardons after carefully reviewing this case are of the opinion that since applicant has served all but one year of his minimum sentence, clemency should be shown if for no other reason than the sake of his unhappy family. We, therefore, recommend to Your Excellency that the prayer of the applicant be heard and commutation issue.

In re application of Harold A. Eldridge, No. 2857-D, No. 116-B, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Harold A. Eldridge, convicted of larceny of an automobile in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on August 24, 1939 to be computed from July 31, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 8 years, 8 months, and 5 days, expiring on April 6, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

In re application of Joseph Dejewski, D-4591, No. 9264, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Dejewski, convicted of robbery, burglary with intent to rob in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 15, 1940 to be computed from January 8, 1940 be commuted from 10 years to 8 years 3 months and 20 days, expiring on April 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for robbery, burglary with intent to rob. At the present time, applicant has served approximately eight years and two months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has a very good disciplinary record. The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has informed the Board of Pardons that: "it may be helpful to give the applicant the benefit of commutation."

Applicant is the product of a broken home and poor environment and the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that his long and continuous period of imprisonment has matured his outlook upon life in such a manner that he will adjust well in society and become a law-abiding citizen. The Board of Pardons, therefore, recommends to Your Excellency that commutation be granted.

In re application of Thomas Francis Crilly, No. 9283, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Thomas Francis Crilly, convicted of pool selling, book-making, conspiracy in the Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on November 20, 1939; and of unlawful selling of liquor on November 24, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-nine years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 and placed on probation for a period of two years for the crime of pool selling, bookmaking, conspiracy, and the unlawful sale of liquor. Applicant has paid his fine and has been in no further trouble since 1942. He is married and bears a good reputation in the neighborhood where he has resided for the past ten years.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities from Philadelphia County, in fact, the Honorable Charles L. Guerin, President Judge of Common Pleas Court No. 4, has written the Board of Pardons stating he has known applicant for the past twenty years and he recommends him highly.

Applicant who was a professional boxer desires this pardon as his conviction prevents him from participating in the professional boxing business, in acting as a referee or trainer. Unless he is granted a pardon it is impossible for him to receive a license in this state or any other state to act as referee or trainer.

The Board of Pardons, after reviewing this case, feels that not to grant the prayer of this applicant is carrying his punishment a little too far and he should be shown consideration in order that he may be gainfully employed in his chosen profession. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on the charge of robbery. At the present time, he has served eight years and two months of his minimum sentences of ten years.

The sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County leave the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons. The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has a very good disciplinary record.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that since applicant has served over eight years of his minimum sentence making an honest effort toward self-improvement that he should be shown consideration at this time. To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due

public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on George W. Calhoun, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 8, 1932, be computed on Bill No. 1651 February Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 15 years to a maximum term of 8 years, expiring on April 9, 1948.

In re application of Joseph R. Burgess, No. 226-47, No. 9263, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph R. Burgess, convicted of burglary, larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Montgomery County on March 21, 1947 to be computed from March 15, 1947, be commuted from 1½ years to 1 year 1 month and 10 days, expiring on April 25, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Montgomery County Prison for from one and one-half to five years on the charge of burglary and larceny. Prior to the commission of this crime, applicant was never in any trouble. At the present time, he has served over one year of his minimum sentence.

There is no opposition to the granting of clemency from the sentencing authorities of Montgomery County. Applicant was inducted into the United States Army April 28, 1945, and was honorably discharged on December 28, 1946. He served twenty months, thirteen of which were in the Mediterranean theater of operation. He rose to the rate of a sergeant.

The Board of Pardons feels that since applicant was partially under the influence of intoxicating liquor, he is not a commercial burglar, this is his first offense, and further, his service to his country, he should be given consideration at this time. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted.

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Charles Edward Boyle, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on November 22, 1932, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-seven years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Allegheny County Workhouse for from two and one-half to five years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon.

Since applicant's release from the Allegheny County Workhouse he has been steadily employed and been in no further trouble for fifteen years. Applicant is married and the father of two children. He bears a good reputation in the community in which he lives. There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant desires the benefit of a pardon due to the fact he has proven himself a useful and law-abiding citizen, also for the sake of his family. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Salvatore Battaglia, D-4631, No. 2684, March Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Salvatore Battaglia, convicted of murder, in the second degree and voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Allegheny County on June 9, 1924, be commuted on Bill No. 187 June Sessions, 1924, from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 8 years, 3 months and 10 days, expiring on April 25, 1948. (To be deported to Italy). Bill No. 189 commuted from a minimum of 10 years to 1 day, expiring on April 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-nine years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years on the charge of murder, in the second degree and voluntary manslaughter. Applicant has served eight years and two months of this current sentence but he has been incarcerated since February 17, 1922.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary (where he was transferred from the Western State Penitentiary) has informed the Board of Pardons that since 1940 he has an excellent record being employed as a barber. He has demonstrated a habit of thrift, purchasing War Bonds.

Applicant was born in Italy and has never become a citizen of America. At the present time, there is pending a deportation warrant against him by the United States Government and if he is released he will be deported to Italy.

The trial judge and district attorney have no objection to the granting of commutation if he is deported and does not become a charge of the United States.

The Board of Pardons, after reviewing this case carefully, taking into consideration applicant's age and the fact that if he is granted clemency he will be deported to his native land, Italy, to live the remainder of his life, recommend to Your Excellency that commutation be granted on condition he be deported to Italy.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John W. Woodward, convicted of assault and battery with intent to ravish, indecent assault in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Montgomery County on September 19, 1947 to be computed from September 16, 1947, be commuted from 1½ years to 8 months and 12 days, expiring on May 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-five years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Montgomery County Prison for from one and one-half to three years on the charge of assault and battery with intent to ravish, indecent assault. At the present time, applicant has served over seven months of his minimum sentence. Applicant is an honorably discharged veteran.

The circumstances of this were so peculiar as to lead the Board of Pardons to believe that the victim at least led the applicant's on to commit this crime. She of her own volition undressed and went to bed with applicant and his accomplice and we cannot believe it was for the purpose of saying her prayers.

The Board of Pardons after carefully reviewing this case feels that the ends of justice have been served by the incarceration of this applicant, and we therefore, recommend that commutation be granted and he be released on parole.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ray Eugene Shaw, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on December 3, 1945 to be computed from October 5, 1945, be commuted from 3 years to 2 years and 8 months, expiring on June 5, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from three to seven years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon and larceny. At the present time, applicant has served two years and eight months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that if applicant were eligible to apply for parole, they would recommend him because this is his first conviction and also because he has an excellent institutional record. There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County to the granting of commutation.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion this crime is the result of a high degree of suggestibility and dependence on others, possible fear of reprisals by applicant's accomplices. In plain words the result of "bad company", and not the act of a hardened criminal. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted as prayed for by the applicant.

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the flat sentence of Michael J. Schreiber, convicted of shooting human being in mistake for game in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County on December 8, 1947, be commuted from 2 years to 5 months and 20 days, expiring on May 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-four years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $500.00 and to imprisonment in the Centre County Jail for a period of two years on the charge of killing a human being in mistake for game. At the present time, applicant has served five months of his sentence.

The sentencing authorities of Centre County leave the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Applicant is married and the father of three children, his wife is in very poor health. At the present time and until such time as applicant is released from incarceration, his family are being supported by the Commonwealth through relief agencies.

This crime was a pure accident and further confinement of applicant can serve no purpose. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that commutation be granted as prayed for by applicant.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

Applicant is thirty-six years of age and on April 2, 1929, was sentenced to be placed on probation for a period of two years for the crime of violation of the Firearms Act and larceny of an automobile.

There is no opposition to the granting of a pardon by the sentencing authorities of Allegheny County.

Applicant has been in no further trouble for nineteen years. He is an honorably discharged veteran and the Board of Pardons is inclined to believe this was more of a young boys "prank" than a person with criminal tendencies. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Seizo Sakamoto, No. 9320, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Seizo Sakamoto, convicted of unlawful sale of paregoric, practicing pharmacy without a license in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on September 25, 1947, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is sixty years of age and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 on the charge of unlawful sale of paregoric and practicing pharmacy without a license.

Applicant has reported that he was unaware that he sold the paregoric to known users of drugs. He also denies the fact that he was not a licensed pharmacist, having received his license July 25, 1924 issued by the California State Board of Pharmacists.

Applicant is married and has two daughters, one who is at present attending the University of Ohio. The other one is married and lives in the City of Philadelphia.

At the time of sentence the trial judge, Honorable Eugene V. Alessandroni, failed to make a motion for a recommendation against deportation to the Attorney General of the United States. Hence applicant is subject to deportation to a country where he has not been for thirty-seven years, his daughter will have to forgo her education and his wife will become dependent on the State.

Under the above circumstances, the Board of Pardons feels that in view of petitioner's entire record he should not have to pay the drastic penalty of what virtually amounts to exile. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Frank Rodgers alias Francis Rodgers, convicted of larceny of an automobile, operating automobile without consent of owner in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on July 1, 1939, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and was never convicted of any crime whatsoever other than this offense. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from three months to ten years on the charge of larceny of an automobile and operating automobile without consent of owner. Applicant has been discharged from parole since December 4, 1947.

There is no opposition to the granting of a pardon from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

Applicant was a very young man when this crime was committed, his home life was not of the best but he has shown by his army record and also the fact that he is studying and desires this pardon in order to be in a position to apply for a civil service job.

The Board of Pardons feels that here is a worthy young man and therefore we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-two years of age and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 and to imprisonment in the Broadmeadows Prison Farm for from four to twelve years on the charge of voluntary manslaughter.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Delaware County. The district attorney of Delaware County personally advised the Board of Pardons that he did not feel applicant would have been convicted, but for the charge of Judge MacDade to the jury.

This is a case where a brutish husband beat his wife just once too often and in self-defense she killed him. Applicant bears an excellent reputation in her community and her parole plan is above reproach.

The Board of Pardons after reviewing this case feels applicant has been sufficiently punished, and we therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Peak, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods, operating automobile without consent of owner, malicious mischief in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 23, 1946 to be computed from April 12, 1946, be commuted from 2 years, 9 months to 2 years and 2 months, expiring on June 12, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from two years, nine months to five years on the charge of larceny, receiving stolen goods, operating automobile without consent of owner, and malicious mischief. At the present time, applicant has served over two years of his minimum sentence. He is married and the father of a two year old baby daughter.

The district attorney of Philadelphia County leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons. The trial judge, Honorable Joseph L. Kun, has written the Board of Pardons stating: "... the benefit of commutation might be very helpful towards guiding the defendant in peaceful and law-abiding channels."

In re application of Robert Dean Miller, C-143, No. 9307, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert Dean Miller, convicted of breaking and entering, larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clinton County on May 2, 1947, be commuted from 2 years to 1 year and 1 month, expiring on June 2, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-two years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from two to five years on the charge of breaking and entering, larceny. At the present time, applicant has served one year of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record. The trial judge, Honorable Henry Hipple, as well as the district attorney, William Hollis, have both stated they are not opposed to the granting of commutation.

Applicant is married and the father of two children, he is also the support of another child which is illegitimate. Applicant states in his application that the time he has been incarcerated has been sufficient to impress upon him the futility of a life of crime and he shall make every effort to become an industrious and law-abiding citizen.

The Board of Pardons for the sake of his wife and children are of the opinion applicant is sincere in his statements and that his confinement has served its purpose and he is rehabilitated. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that commutation be granted applicant.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Peter Mazyk, D-5480, No. 6584, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Peter Mazyk, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Schuylkill County on January 7, 1941 to be computed from July 1, 1939, be commuted from 15 years to 8 years and 11 months, expiring on June 1, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from fifteen to thirty years on the charge of robbery. Applicant had three accomplices who were given like terms and they were granted commutation in 1946. At the present time, applicant has served eight years and ten months of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant's disciplinary record is very good. The trial judge, Honorable Cyrus M. Palmer, has written the Board of Pardons that he favors commutation of applicant.

Since applicant's incarceration he has been employed to be a baker and feels if granted his freedom he will be able to be gainfully employed and will not again become involved with the law. The Board of Pardons is of the opinion applicant is sincere, and therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Logan, 923-47, No. 9317, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles Logan, convicted of assault and battery with intent to ravish, indecent assault in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Montgomery County on September 19, 1947 to be computed from September 16, 1947, be commuted from 1½ years to 8 months and 12 days, expiring on May 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-five years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Montgomery County Prison for from one and one-half to three years on the charge of assault and battery with intent to ravish, indecent assault. At the present time, applicant has served over seven months of his minimum sentence. Applicant is the support of his mother and he has a good position to go to. Applicant is an honorably discharged veteran.

The circumstances of this were so peculiar as to lead the Board of Pardons to believe that the victim at least led the applicant's on to commit this crime. She of her own volition undressed and went to bed with applicant and his accomplice and we cannot believe it was for the purpose of saying her prayers.

The Board of Pardons after carefully reviewing this case feels that the ends of justice have been served by the incarceration of this applicant, and we therefore, recommend that commutation be granted and he be released on parole.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Robert Johnston, B-9270, No. 9290, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert Johnston, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Butler County on April 6, 1945 to be computed from February 15, 1945, be commuted from 4 years to 3 years, 3 months and 13 days, expiring on May 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-eight years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from four to eight years on the charge of voluntary manslaughter. At the present time, applicant has served approximately three and one-fourth years of his minimum sentence of four years.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that if applicant were eligible for parole, they would probably recommend him because this is his first conviction and also because he has an excellent institutional record. The sentencing authorities of Butler County have no comment to make, leaving the matter of commutation up to the Board or Pardons.

The Board of Pardons after reviewing this application are of the opinion applicant has been sufficiently punished. Letters and reports from residents in the community where applicant lives indicate he is a likeable fellow, has a good work record and the victim was instrumental in causing this crime. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that commutation be granted as prayed for by applicant.

In re application of Anthony Guerio, D-3774, No. 117-B, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Anthony Guerio, convicted of robbery being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 23, 1939 to be computed from February 14, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years and 3 months, expiring on May 14, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Lenzi Forino, B-3475, No. 8086, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Lenzi Forino, convicted of murder in the second degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on December 5, 1932, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-two years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from eight to sixteen years on the charge of murder in the second degree. This offense involved the murder of his wife from whom he had been separated. January 22, 1941, he was released on parole. December 15, 1945, he was granted commutation of his maximum sentence. Applicant desires a pardon in order to prevent his deportation.

This applicant plead guilty to murder. He killed his wife, who was unfaithful to him and of poor repute, under emotional circumstances. The trial judge, Honorable O. Clare Kent, after hearing the evidence, fixed the degree of crime at second degree murder and imposed a sentence in 1932 of from eight to sixteen years, which was less than the allowable ten to twenty years for such crime. This indicated extenuating circumstances.

The applicant served the minimum of eight years and was released on parole in 1940. His conduct thereafter was exemplary, and in 1945 the Pardon Board commuted his maximum sentence.

At the time he was sentenced he was entitled to a legislative pardon under the existing law, at the conclusion of his original or commuted maximum sentence. In 1939 such legislative pardon was abolished and for a long time the Federal Board of Immigration and Appeals held that an unnaturalized citizen enjoyed the benefit of the old act if sentenced while it was in force and effect, even although the expiration of the maximum sentence did not occur until after the effective date of the repealing act of 1939.

In 1945 the Federal Board of Immigration and Appeals reversed its ruling in such cases and, therefore, this applicant become deportable. On writ of habeas corpus the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania decided that the applicant enjoyed the legislative pardon under the act of 1860 and was not deportable. The Circuit Court reversed. Because of the uncertainty as to whether the Supreme Court of the United States would review the Circuit Court's decision on certiorari, and because the applicant was without means to pursue an appeal, the present application was made to the Board of Pardons.

You find amongst the papers in this case a letter from Judge Kent, dated April 17, 1948, in which he refers to his practice of twenty years as president judge of refraining from making any recommendations for or against the relief prayed for. This I understand was his invariable practice which he pursued at the time that this applicant's maximum sentence was commuted in 1945.

Mr. Kelly, the Assistant District Attorney of Allegheny County, stated that he did not oppose the application for pardon. The present district attorney's office in Allegheny County, like the district attorney's office in Philadelphia County, seemingly pursues a policy of never affirmatively favoring a pardon or commutation, but of merely stating that it does not oppose.

Under these circumstances, it is practically impossible to get an affirmative expression from the district attorney's office. It is noteworthy that Judge Kent went farther than his customary practice because in the last paragraph of his letter he states that he believes there is some merit in the application and that whatever conclusion the Board arrives at will meet with his "consent and approval."

Applicant has been in no further trouble, he bears a good reputation and the Board of Pardons therefore recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted in order that applicant may escape deportation.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Douris, D-5846 C-188, No. 7906, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Douris, convicted of entering with intent to rob in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 18, 1941, to be computed from January 9, 1941, be commuted from 8 years to 7 years, 4 months and 20 days, expiring on May 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and has never been convicted of any crime other than the present one. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from eight to twenty years on the charge of entering with intent to rob. At the present time, applicant has served over seven years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent disciplinary record, has always had a cooperative attitude and selected his associates carefully. There is no opposition to the granting of commutation by the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons are of the opinion applicant has matured to the extent that he realizes a life of crime does not pay and further that he is fully rehabilitated and will not again infringe against the law of society. We, therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Howard Doman, convicted of aggravated assault and battery, robbery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 13, 1940, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-siq years of age and this is the first crime for which he was ever convicted. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for three months on the charge of aggravated assault and battery, robbery.

Applicant is married and bears a good reputation in his community, owning his own home. He served three years with the United States Navy receiving an honorable discharge. At the time of his discharge he had received a recommendation for "Chief Petty Officer."

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

The Board of Pardons feels that since applicant has been in no further trouble for eight years, is an honorably discharged veteran and the fact that he was only eighteen years of age at the time of the commission of this crime he should be granted clemency. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Anna Helen Cook, No. 4160, No. 8501, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Anna Helen Cook, convicted of kidnapping in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on November 6, 1944 to be computed from October 30, 1944 be commuted from 51 months to 3 years and 7 months, expiring on May 30, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. She was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from fifty-one months to fifteen years on the charge of kidnapping. At the present time, applicant has served three and one-half years of her minimum sentence.

The crime for which applicant is charged consisted of taking a girl friend's baby and telling everyone it was her own. At the time of the commission of this crime, she had had a miscarriage, her husband was overseas and she was in very poor health. Excellent care had been taken of the child.

Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, the sentencing judge, has written the Board of Pardons as follows: "... I think from a hard practical viewpoint, based upon the opinion of her keepers, she is a changed woman." He further states he has no objections to commutation. There are many letters in applicant's file which recommend her highly and this seems to be her only criminal offense.

The Board of Pardons after carefully reviewing this involved kidnapping case, are of the opinion applicant has been severely punished for her crime and that if granted commutation will not again offend against society. Therefore, we recommend that commutation be granted and applicant be released on parole.

In re application of George Chizmar, B-5300, No. 4631, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on George Chizmar, convicted of murder in the second degree, felonious assault and battery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on November 18, 1936, be commuted on Bill No. 6 September Sessions, 1936, from a minimum term of 2 years to a minimum term of 1 year, 6 months, and 10 days, expiring on May 28, 1948. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bill No. 69 June Sessions, 1936).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-one years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from twelve to twenty-four years on the charge of murder in the second degree and felonious assault and battery. At the present time, applicant has served almost all of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that if inmate were eligible for parole, they would recommend him because this was his first conviction, he has an excellent institutional record and because of his length of service.

All that applicant asks is that he be given credit for the time which he spent in the county jail awaiting trial.

The Board of Pardons recommends to your Excellency that commutation be granted as this crime was more the act of a person of low emotional breaking point and had been precipitated by a political feud of long standing instead of a hardened criminal. In order to give him credit for his time spent in the county jail, we recommend that commutation be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Carto, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on August 25, 1936, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-two years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five and one-half to twenty years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. June 10, 1940, after serving four years applicant was granted commutation of his minimum sentence and released on parole July 17, 1940. He has been on parole with an excellent record for approximately nine years.

The Board of Pardons has been informed by the trial judge and district attorney of Philadelphia County that they have no objection to the granting of a pardon but leave the matter up to the Board.

Applicant is married, owns his own home and painting business, and also manages boxers which gives him an added income of $1600.00 a year. He desires this pardon in order that his name may be freed from this stigma and he can begin to raise a family.

The Board of Pardons feel that this is indeed a worthy case and a pardon should be granted so that his children may bear his name honorably. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Albert Calviello, No. 9315, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Albert Calviello, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on July 24, 1939, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from three to twelve years on the charge of voluntary manslaughter. Applicant has always maintained his innocence.

On July 25, 1941, applicant was paroled by the court to the supervision of the County Probation Office. He served and was honorably discharged from the United States Army after three and one-half years as a sergeant. His conduct since his release from prison has been satisfactory, there being no reports of misbehavior.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County, in fact the trial judge, Honorable C. Crumlish, has written the Board of Pardons as follows: "... I am pleased to read of Mr. Calviello's fine record as a citizen in this community since his release on parole and his very meritorious record as a member of the armed forces, who saw actual combat service. It is consistent with the idea that I formed about him at the time I released him on parole. I am strongly of the opinion that it is highly possible that Mr. Calviello was a victim of circumstances and that he deserves to receive the benefit of the doubt at the hands of the Board of Pardons. As I have already indicated, I have no hesitancy in making this recommendation."

After carefully reviewing this case the Board of Pardons concur with the Honorable James C. Crumlish, and therefore, recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph Cairone, convicted of larceny of an automobile, operating automobile without consent of owner in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on December 23, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and has no prior criminal record. On December 23, 1937, applicant was sentenced to be on probation for a period of two years for the crime (which he was only guilty of a technicality) of larceny of an automobile and operating an automobile without consent of owner.

There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

Applicant is an honorably discharged veteran of World War II; he is happily married and the father of a two year old daughter. Applicant desires this pardon in order that he may become eligible for a position on the Philadelphia Police Force.

The Board of Pardons feels that consideration should be granted this applicant due to the fact he was only seventeen years of age when this crime occurred, also he was unaware that the car he was joy-riding in with friends was a stolen car. Therefore, we recommend to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of Christ Berkich, B-5131, No. 6259, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Christ Berkich, convicted of murder in the second degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Beaver County on July 7, 1936, be commuted from 20 years to 11 years and 11 months, expiring on June 7, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on the charge of murder in the second degree. Crime consisted of fatally shooting estranged wife while under the influence of alcohol. On July 7, 1946, he was released on parole from the Western State Penitentiary after serving his minimum sentence. He has been on parole nearly two years.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary reports that applicant had an excellent institutional record. The Ohio authorities who accepted applicant for supervision January 1947 have informed the Board of Pardons that his living and working conditions are satisfactory and he has established a good reputation in his neighborhood. They recommend commutation of his maximum sentence. There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Beaver County to the granting of clemency.

Applicant desires to be released from parole in order that he may engage in his own business. Therefore, the Board of Pardons recommends to Your Excellency that commutation of maximum sentence be granted applicant as we feel he has been completely rehabilitated.

In re application of Wallace Baker, D-7022, No. 6869, April Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Wallace Baker, convicted of entering with intent to steal, larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 14, 1939 to be computed from April 15, 1943, be commuted from 6 years to 5 years, 4 months and 13 days, expiring on May 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-six years of age and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from six to twelve years on the charge of entering with intent to steal, larceny. At the present time, applicant has served over five years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have informed the Board of Pardons that applicant has an excellent institutional record. He is employed in a position of trust as a janitor in the administration building and has never violated the confidence which has been placed in him. There is no opposition from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County to the granting of commutation.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion the acts of this applicant were the results of thoughtless impulse rather than studied violence and that his incarceration has taught him the folly of a criminal life. We, therefore, recommend to Your Excellency that commutation be granted.

In re application of Bernard Zack, B-5524, No. 7392, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Bernard Zack, convicted of robbery in the Court of Allegheny County on May 25, 1937, be commuted on Bill No. 69 March Sessions, 1937, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 8 years and 6 months expiring on October 25, 1948; on Bill No. 18 April Sessions, 1937, from a maximum term of 4 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on October 26, 1948; and on Bill No. 17 from a maximum term of 4 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on October 27, 1948—(Bill No. 19 concurrent with Bill No. 17 is also commuted).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from nine to eighteen years on a charge of robbery. At the present time, he has been on parole for a period of approximately one and one-half years. The applicant desires to enlist in the armed forces of the United States, but will not be granted permission so long as he remains on parole.

The district attorney's office of Allegheny County advised the Board of Pardons that they are not opposed to a commutation of the maximum sentence in this case.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has had a good parole record since commutation of his minimum sentence on October 25, 1946, and we feel that he should be continued on parole for a period of several more months or until he has served two years on parole. If he can continue to serve on parole until the expiration of that date, the Board is willing to recommend, in the light of his present performance, that his maximum sentence be commuted on October 25, 1948, being a time at which this applicant will have been on parole a period of two years and at which time he can enlist in the army if he desires.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Arthur Wolkiewicz, C-8382, No. 9362, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Arthur Wolkiewicz, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lackawanna County on October 15, 1932, be commuted on Bill No. 10-C October Sessions, 1932, from a maximum term of 6 years to a maximum term of 4 months and 14 days, expiring on June 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-nine years of age and he has been returned to the Eastern State Penitentiary as a technical parole violator. It was the contention of his counsel at the time of argument that the original imposition of sentence in 1932 was incorrectly figured so that the applicant was required to serve an additional period of six years on parole, which otherwise, he would not have been required to do had he been granted parole at the time he was entitled thereto.

Under the circumstances this applicant could be kept in prison until February 19, 1951, although under all the circumstances, he should have been freed from further parole supervision except for the fact that his sentence was incorrectly computed.

The district attorney of Lackawanna County leaves the matter of commutation entirely up to the Board of Pardons and they feel that since this matter was argued before the Superior Court of Pennsylvania and as this applicant is seeking relief leaves it to our Board.

Under all of these circumstances, we feel that this applicant is entitled to a commutation of his maximum sentence, and we therefore, so recommend.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank Wojnarowski, B-358, No. 1698, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Frank Wojnarowski, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Erie County on September 16, 1927 be commuted from life imprisonment to 20 years and 9 months, expiring on June 16, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is over sixty-one years of age and this was his first major conviction. The applicant had been drinking and states that he found his wife dead although it was under such circumstances, that upon examination, the applicant was found to have strangled his wife. He alleged infidelity on the part of the wife for the commission of the crime. At the present time, he has served over twenty years of a life sentence in the Western State Penitentiary.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have written us that this man has an excellent institutional record but that he has been a hospital case for approximately one and one-half years and that several operations have been performed upon him with the result showing cancer of the rectum. He will have a permanent Colostomy, and his release from prison will only be for the purpose of allowing him to spend the last few years of his life with his children in Dunkirk, New York. The trial judge, Honorable William E. Hirt, and the district attorney both leave the question of his release up to the Board of Pardons.

The Board of Pardons feels that the applicant should be granted commutation because of the applicant's long term in prison, he now having served over twenty years. Furthermore, in the light of the applicant's physical condition, we need not fear a return of this type of criminal as the applicant will be practically bedfast. We, therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of George Weir, C-4710, No. 2310, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of George Weir, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on July 13, 1928, be commuted from life imprisonment to 19 years and 11 months, expiring on June 13, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is sixty years of age and he is now serving a life sentence in the Eastern State Penitentiary on a charge of murder. This applicant, together with two accomplices had been out to look over the possibility of committing a robbery at a store. However, because of the number of people in the store, they decided not to commit the crime. They then were returning to their home when the applicant and two accomplices decided upon the robbery of an individual walking along the road. The applicant refused to participate in the robbery and advised the accomplices it would not be a success. It was not, and the accomplices killed the victim. They were electrocuted and the applicant, in spite of his attempted withdrawal from the conspiracy to rob, was convicted for murder in the first degree and sentenced to life imprisonment. At the present time, he has served a little over twenty years of this sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have written the Board and stated that this applicant has an outstanding record in the institution and has now reached such an age that unless he is to be kept in the institution for the balance of his natural life, now is the time that he should receive a commutation of sentence.

The trial judge is dead and there is no objection from either parole offices in Delaware County or from the district attorney, who appeared before the Board, and stated that he felt commutation was a matter for the Board's decision.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that having served over twenty years of his life sentence, he has served a substantial portion of it. We also are of the opinion that since this applicant is sixty years of age that he will not again engage in criminal activities. We further feel that the Delaware County authorities have no objection to granting the commutation in the light of his outstanding record. Under all of the circumstances recorded, we recommend that commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Robert C. Underwood, No. 9376, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Robert C. Underwood, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on November 19, 1945, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-four years of age and he seeks a pardon on a charge of robbery. At the present time the applicant is serving in the Merchant Marine and desires this pardon in order that he may apply for a Mate's license.

This applicant had an enviable war record and his anti-social conduct did not exhibit itself until his return from military duty. His military duty was in the southwest Pacific where he served in the armed forces on Guadalcanal. He was twice wounded and was in battle for a period of three months. He was given a medical discharge. He also suffered a speech impediment as a result of his war service. The Probation Department feels that this was responsible for his lack of orientation to civilian life. He was sentenced to a term of twenty-three months probation for his crime of robbery and was immediately placed on probation.

The probation officer in Philadelphia County has written the Board of Pardons that during the period of his probation he has responded favorably to supervision and adjustment, overcoming the negative aspects of his home life by steady employment in the Merchant Marine and has liberally contributed to the support of his aged mother.

The trial judge, Honorable James C. Crumlish, has written the Board of Pardons in which he states that he earnestly recommends a favorable consideration of this application for a pardon. The district attorney's office of Philadelphia County also states that they are not opposed to the granting of a pardon.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this applicant's anti-social conduct was brought about by reason of his unfavorable home life after severe and arduous war service.

We believe that an understanding probation officer and court have set this young man's path along a law-abiding course and that he will not again offend against society. In view of the judge's strong recommendation and the probation officer's strong recommendation, we join them in recommending to Your Excellency a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Allen James Powe, B-8619, No. 7742, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Allen James Powe, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on April 19, 1943 to be computed from March 12, 1943, be commuted from 7½ years to 5 years, 3 months and 13 days, expiring on June 25, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-five years of age and this is his first major crime. He was in several juvenile cases which resulted in his being continued on probation. At the present time, he has served nearly five and one-half years of a seven and one-half years minimum sentence in the Western State Penitentiary. The applicant still contends that he is innocent of the crime but there seems to be no doubt of his commission of the crime.

If the applicant is released he will return to live with his parents and will secure a position with the Griffin Coal and Salvage Company of Pittsburgh. The applicant has demonstrated a willingness to advance his educational qualifications by taking high school and college work while in the institution. The institution states that he has an excellent record and is regarded as a cooperative and trustworthy inmate.

In all of these instances we feel that the applicant has been severely punished and should receive a commutation at this time. We, therefore, recommend that a commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Anthony Joseph Narcise, C-8725, No. 3363, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Anthony Joseph Narcise, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on March 2, 1933 be commuted from 20 years to 15 years, 3 months and 10 days, expiring on June 12, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-three years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to twenty years on a charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon.

Following his release from Gratersford in 1940, he has made an excellent adjustment in society. This applicant is married and is the father of two sons, age five and three. He has an excellent record on parole but lost two very good positions, one with the Midvale Steel Company and the other with the Baldwin Locomotive Works, as a result of his parole term.

He now asks that he be relieved from parole supervision in order that he may raise the family without the necessity of supervision.

We believe that this applicant has been sufficiently rehabilitated by seven and one-half years of parole supervision and that further supervision will not add to his rehabilitation, and under these circumstances, we recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted and that he be released from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Matlack, C-7384, No. 3800, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of John Matlack, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County on September 30, 1931 be commuted from life imprisonment to 16 years and 9 months, expiring on June 30, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-three years of age and this was his first major conviction. The applicant and two accomplices held up a gas station and the two accomplices who perpetrated the holdup became excited and fired the fatal shot which killed the attendant. The applicant was the driver of the escape car. The applicant and the two accomplices were given life sentences and at the present time they have served nearly seventeen years of his life sentence.

The applicant has an excellent institutional record in the Eastern State Penitentiary and through his efforts has carved animals which are on sale in the novelty shop. He has attempted to better his position in life by not only being a skilled wood carver and metal worker, but by using the earnings which he arrives through this occupation to generously contribute to the support of his parents.

The trial judge, Honorable W. A. Valentine, wrote the Board of Pardons when this matter was last before them and stated that if any clemency was to be shown, the applicant should be the first to receive it. The district attorney also advised the Board of Pardons that he leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board.

This young man at the present time has spent almost half of his natural life in the institution. His parents are old, are in need of his support. He will live with his parents and will be employed by a coal company in his home town.

Because of this applicant's excellent institutional record it is evident an adjustment to society has been made, and the fact that he has now served nearly seventeen years for this murder, moves us to recommend to Your Excellency that clemency be granted in this case.

In re application of Jerome A. Massingale, B-5799, No. 118-B, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

computed from September 27, 1937, be commuted from 12 years to 10 years and 8 months, expiring on May 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

In re application of Victor Marsillo, C-4478, No. 1812, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Victor Marsillo, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on April 4, 1928, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-nine years of age and he received a sentence of not less than twelve nor more than twenty-four years in the Eastern State Penitentiary on a charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon.

The applicant, after his arrest and conviction, served approximately six years of his minimum sentence before his sentence was commuted. Following his commutation of sentence, this applicant became engaged in the prize fight business as a manager. He has always attempted to aid juvenile delinquents and wisely profited from his unfortunate brush with the law. The applicant has been on parole for a period of twelve and one-half years. He gives evidence of being a thoroughly rehabilitated individual. His former parole officer appeared before the Board and gave evidence and testimony of his high character since this unfortunate occurrence. This applicant has been advised by the New York State Boxing Commission that he will not be permitted to engage in his managerial activities unless he receive a pardon for the offense in Pennsylvania.

The trial judge, Honorable Frank Smith, has stated to the Board of Pardons that he feels this matter of pardon should be left up to the Board. The district attorney of Philadelphia County stated that he was not opposed to the granting of a pardon.

Under all of the circumstances, the Board of Pardons feels that this applicant should not be deprived of his managerial license in New York, and therefore, feel that in view of his evident rehabilitation we should not deprive him of his chance to further himself. We therefore recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Anthony Kuzniewski, B-2099, No. 990, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Anthony Kuzniewski, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on June 17, 1930, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-eight years of age and has no prior criminal record. Eighteen years ago he was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from four to eleven years on the charge of robbery. After serving his minimum sentence of four years, he was released on parole June 17, 1934. On June 17, 1941, he was granted final discharge from parole, and since that time, has been in no further trouble.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry H. Rowand, has advised the Board of Pardons that he can see no reason to object to a final pardon. The district attorney's office of Allegheny County has also advised the Board of Pardons that they feel warranted in recommending a full pardon to this applicant. Applicant is married and the father of two children. He has adjusted well in all respects and at the present time is sole owner of a taproom he recently purchased. He desires this pardon in order to clear his name for the sake of his two children.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion this is a very deserving application and recommends to Your Excellency that a full and complete gubernatorial pardon be granted.

In re application of John Francis Keller, C-5005, No. 4187, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon

due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of John Francis Keller, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 14, 1928 be commuted from life imprisonment to 19 years and 6 months, expiring on June 14, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-six years of age and this was his only conviction. He was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary on a charge of murder growing out of larceny of an automobile. This applicant, together with three accomplices, was attempting to steal the automobile when they were apprehended by the victim. The applicant fired the fatal shot.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has stated that the applicant, who has served nearly twenty years, has an excellent prison record and merits consideration. The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, states to the Board that he feels this applicant is entitled to a favorable consideration as he was only sixteen years of age when this killing took place. The district attorney of Philadelphia County has advised the Board of Pardons that he is not opposed to the granting of this commutation.

We feel that this applicant has been severely punished and will not again offend against society if released. He has an excellent parole record which is approved by the Board of Parole. Under all of the circumstances, we feel that this applicant should receive consideration and that the sentence should be commuted and we therefore so recommend.

In re application of Philip Karfunkle, No. 9365, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Philip Karfunkle, convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Montgomery County on January 16, 1948, be commuted from 6 months to 5 months, expiring on June 16, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-eight years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Montgomery County Prison for from six months to two years on a charge of receiving stolen goods. The applicant was induced by his nephew, who had recently opened up a stocking factory, to purchase certain stockings for finishing, which he did.

He paid what was a normal price for these stockings. They were delivered to his accomplice's warehouse, and it was not until approximately four or five months later that it was discovered that these stockings had been stolen. He was arrested together with the accomplice, the manufacturer and thief. It was on the uncorroborated testimony of the thief that Mr. Karfunkle, the applicant, was convicted.

We feel that this was a very close case and that under all of the circumstances, this applicant was sufficiently punished on the first day in which he entered jail. We do not believe that he will ever again commit a crime of any kind, and we therefore, recommend that under the circumstances, this applicant's sentence be commuted and that he be released on parole.

In re application of Viola Hollis, No. 2330, No. 9350, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, who is twenty-eight years of age, was separated from her husband and was living with her children and with the victim. The victim was extremely brutal to the petitioner and on the day in which the killing occurred, the victim knocked the applicant down to the floor and when she arose, the victim started fighting again. It was then, as she got from the floor, that she picked up a knife that was lying on the table and when the deceased came for her she stabbed him. The petitioner was badly beaten when she appeared at the station house. She made no effort to flee the scene of the crime.

The petitioner has three small children, ages twelve, eleven and three. The trial judge, Honorable L. Stauffer Oliver, states she did not appear to be a vicious or hardened offender and her case merits consideration. He further advised the Board that under all the circumstances, he thinks it would be proper to grant the petitioner's application so that her small children may be cared for by their mother. The district attorney of Philadelphia is not opposed to the granting of consideration in this case.

Under all of the circumstances, the Board of Pardons feels that this woman has been adequately punished and that her sentence should be commuted.

In re application of William Joseph Hennessey, D-4288, No. 7165, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Joseph Hennessey, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Bucks County on October 2, 1939 to be computed from September 16, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 9 months, expiring on June 16, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and this is not his first offense. However, he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on a charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon.

He has now served nearly nine years of this minimum sentence. He has a detainer lodged against him from New Jersey which is active and which he will have to serve before being released.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have written the Board of Pardons that the applicant is a most cooperative prisoner and has an excellent record. Both the trial judge and district attorney have written the Board of Pardons that they are not opposed to the granting of commutation.

Because this applicant served nearly nine and one-half years of his minimum sentence and has a further sentence staring him in his face in the State of New Jersey, the Board of Pardons is of the opinion and so recommends that his sentence be commuted in order that he may begin his service of the New Jersey sentence, whatever it may be.

In re application of Esther Greifer, No. 1132, No. 4553, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Esther Greifer, convicted of murder, in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on January 20, 1937, be commuted from life imprisonment to 11 years and 5 months, expiring on June 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-seven years of age and has no prior criminal record. She was sentenced to life imprisonment in the State Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy for murder in the first degree. At the present time she has served approximately eleven and one-half years of this sentence. The applicant and her husband, who was the victim, had been married for approximately twenty years, but during the last seven years of their married life, the victim desired a divorce and advised the applicant that he was going to separate from her. A gun was found and in the scuffle it went off, killing the victim. The victim, in a death bed statement, accused the applicant of shooting him.

The Philadelphia County authorities did not believe that this case was a first degree case and admitted the applicant to bail which would not have been done if the district attorney's office felt that a first degree verdict was justified. It was approximately one and one-half years after the killing before the applicant was brought to trial and much to the surprise of all parties, the applicant was convicted of murder in the first degree with the recommendation of life imprisonment.

His Honor, Judge Eugene V. Alessandrini, sentencing judge, states in a letter to the Board of Pardons that he feels on further consideration of the entire case, that the application for commutation now or in the near future, is worthy of consideration.

The petitioner is first approaching the age of sixty and unless she is to spend the rest of her days in confinement, the time seems to be mature to grant her the opportunity to spend her remaining days in the circle of the family life. The district attorney of Philadelphia has stated that he is not opposed to the granting of a commutation in this case as he did not believe it was a true case of murder in the first degree. During the applicant's stay at Muncy, her conduct has been very good.

The Board of Pardons, after carefully reviewing this application and taking into consideration the age of the applicant and the circumstances under which the applicant was arrested and the crime committed, is of the opinion that no further good can accrue to society to continue her incarceration. In view of the trial judge and district attorney's recommendation, we recommend that the application for commutation be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Nicholas Goshy, B-7222, No. 8874, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Nicholas Goshy, convicted of murder in the second degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on May 20, 1940 to be computed from March 29, 1940 be commuted from 9 years to 8 years and 3 months, expiring on June 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-five years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from nine to eighteen years on a charge of murder in the second degree. At the present time, the applicant has served slightly over eight years of his minimum sentence. This seems to have been a crime committed in the heat of passion as a result of an assault by the victim on the applicant when he was in an intoxicated condition.

The applicant sincerely regrets the commission of this crime and his past record would indicate that he would not again become involved in such an offense. He is an excellent carpenter and if released will be given employment at the trade to which he is suited.

The trial judge, Honorable J. Frank Graff, stated that he leaves the matter of commutation of sentence up to the Board of Pardons. The assistant district attorney of Allegheny County advised the Board that his office was unopposed to the granting of a commutation at this time.

Under all of the circumstances, we feel that this applicant has been sufficiently punished and if permitted to have his freedom, would not again commit any sort of crime. We, therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted and that he be placed on parole.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Jesse Frazier, D-9661, C-493, No. 9380, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Jesse Frazier, convicted of assault and battery with intent to maim in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lebanon County on June 4, 1947 to be computed from May 9, 1947, be commuted from 2 years to 1 year, 1 month and 10 days, expiring on June 19, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-three years of age and this has been his first conviction for any offense whatsoever. The facts of the case are that the applicant got into a barroom fight and hit his victim on the head with a broken glass.

He has an excellent record in the Eastern State Penitentiary and has served over one-half of his minimum sentence. Neither the trial judge nor the district attorney have any objections to granting him a commutation. His parole plan calls for him to go to his parents who live in Virginia. He has an excellent army record, having served overseas in the Southwest Pacific for slightly over three years.

The Board of Pardons feel that this applicant received a very severe sentence for a barroom fight and since he has served over one year of his sentence, we recommend that the balance of the sentence be commuted and that he be permitted to go to live with his parents in Virginia.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Antonio Elia, C-7501, No. 4801, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Antonio Elia, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Montgomery County on November 13, 1931, be commuted from life imprisonment to 16 years and 7 months, expiring on June 13, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-three years of age and was convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary. There was no motive shown for this crime. In the background of the entire case, it seems however that this applicant was threatened by the "Black Hand" Gang. Since he used a deadly weapon it was sufficient to convict in this case on the ground that he intended to commit murder by the use of this deadly weapon.

The trial judge, Honorable C. Corson, has stated that this applicant was much handicapped by his inability to express himself properly in English. It is shown in the record that when the officer arrested Elia, he threw himself upon his knees and gratefully kissed the officer's hand. The conclusion of Judge Corson's statement is that he recommends that the plea for commutation be granted. The district attorney in Montgomery County did not advise us of his attitude. However, we wish to state our records indicate that this is a case where the applicant has served almost seventeen years of a life sentence and has now reached a period of his life where he should either be released so that he can readjust himself to society or he should spend the remaining years of his life in prison.

The Board is of the opinion that since this applicant had no prior record, that no motive was shown for the perpetration of this crime, that his trial judge believes that he had been sufficiently punished and his sentence should be commuted. We, therefore, recommend that the sentence be commuted.

In re application of Norman Dunbar, No. 54968, No. 7371, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Norman Dunbar, convicted of forgery, false pretense, fraudulently uttering a written instrument in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on December 10, 1941, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years, 5 months and 20 days, expiring on May 30, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

In re application of Richard DeLong, No. 9347, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Richard DeLong, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Berks County on March 27, 1947 to be computed from March 7, 1947 be commuted from 2 years to 1 year, 7 months and 24 days, expiring on November 1, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-four years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced at the Oyer and Terminer Court in Berks County to a term of imprisonment in the Berks County Prison for from two to six years on a charge of burglary.

At the present time, the applicant has served approximately one year and six months. We are advised by his counsel, Honorable Paul N. Schaeffer, that the applicant has an excellent institutional record in the Berks County Prison where he is presently confined.

The crime consisted of the applicant breaking into a restaurant and stealing approximately $30.00 in nickels.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has been sufficiently punished and if granted commutation this time, he will become an honest and law-abiding citizen. We, therefore, recommend that the applicant's sentence be commuted as of November 1, 1948, at which time the applicant will have served one year and eight months.

In re application of Fred Davis, D-2944, No. 8308, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Fred Davis, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on March 2, 1938 to be computed from February 24, 1938 be commuted from 30 years to 10 years and 4 months, expiring on June 24, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-five years of age and this was his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from thirty to sixty years on the charge of robbery. The robberies were strong-arm robberies in which no weapons were used. The applicant was involved in three robberies. At the present time, he has served slightly over ten years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have advised the Board of Pardons that the applicant has an excellent adjustment and has established a very good reputation as a prisoner. He is quite cooperative and trustworthy. He has a position of trust in the penitentiary. The Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has written the Board of Pardons that he leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons and has no objection to their decision. The assistant district attorney of Philadelphia County, stated to the Board that it was the position of his office to leave the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

We feel that this applicant has been severely punished and that he has matured during his incarceration and is equipped and fit to retake his place in society and live a normal and constructive life. The Board feels if this applicant has not now learned his lesson, further incarceration will not teach it to him. We, therefore, recommend that his minimum sentence be commuted.

In re application of Joseph Corvi, D-2746, No. 9278, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph Corvi, convicted of burglary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 31, 1937 to be computed from December 27, 1937 be commuted from 25 years to 10 years and 6 months, expiring on June 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age. This was his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to twenty-five years on a charge of burglary. The applicant was charged with having broken into a number of homes in and about Philadelphia and for that reason received the above sentence.

The applicant served the entire minimum sentence without making application to the Board of Pardons for commutation of his sentence. Following the release on parole, the applicant immediately secured full time employment and married within four months of his release. He has been continuously employed and at the present time is a laundry route man. In December 1947, the applicant purchased his own home where he and his wife now reside, for the sum of $8250.00. The applicant paid $6250.00 in cash and has a small reducing mortgage. He also has savings in the sum of $3000.00.

The applicant has been on parole for five years and with the exception of one arrest in which he was cleared, the applicant has never again violated the law. We believe that this long period of his maximum sentence has reached the point where it is a deterrent to his conduct rather than a beneficial source of inspiration and guide. Under all of these circumstances, the Board is of the opinion that this petitioner will not again offend against society and in order to relieve him from the burden of supervision, we recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted.

In re application of Harry Cohen, C-2942, No. 2724, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Harry Cohen, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on May 29, 1925, be commuted on Bill No. 9 May Sessions, 1925, from a maximum term of 18 years to a maximum term of 5 years and 1 month, expiring on June 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is sixty-three years of age and it is not the first time that he has been arrested. However, it was his first major conviction and imprisonment. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from eighteen to thirty-six years on a charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. He served a period of thirteen years of this sentence and was released on parole on November 28, 1938. Since that time, he has been under the supervision of the Pennsylvania Board of Parole. The Pennsylvania State Board of Parole have given him a good record on parole. He served in the Merchant Marine from the period of his release in November 1938 until January 1946 when he suffered an injury which permanently incapacitated him.

The applicant at the present time is sixty-three years of age and in view of his service with the Merchant Marine, we do not feel that he will again offend against society. We believe that this applicant has been severely punished and has shown his complete and thorough rehabilitation during his ten years of parole.

Because there is no opposition to his discharge at this time, we recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted and that he be relieved from further parole supervision.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-four years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced at the Quarter Sessions Court in Berks County to a term of imprisonment in the Berks County Prison for from two to six years on a charge of burglary.

At the present time, the applicant has served approxi-

In re application of Solomon Bryant, D-3118, No. 7238, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Solomon Bryant, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, entering with intent to steal in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on June 1, 1938 to be computed from May 7, 1938 be commuted from 30 years to 10 years, 1 month and 10 days, expiring on June 17, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-eight years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for from thirty to sixty years in the Eastern State Penitentiary on a charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon and entering with intent to steal. This applicant was in three robberies, in all of which guns were used, and the total loot involved was $48.00. The applicant has a detainer lodged against him for his return to the State of Georgia which he must serve. At the present time, he has served slightly over ten years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have advised the Board of Pardons that this applicant has established and maintained an excellent disciplinary record and has earned a good reputation during his incarceration. The trial judge did not advise the Board of Pardons of his attitude in this case. James W. Tracey, Jr., Esquire, stated the position of the district attorney's office of Philadelphia County was not opposed to this application.

The Board of Pardons in considering this case feel that this applicant has served a substantial portion of his sentence. In view of the severity, they further feel that since he must return to Georgia and serve approximately four more years, that it is as good a time as any to release this prisoner by commuting his sentence. We are, therefore, recommending that the applicant's sentence be commuted and so recommend to Your Excellency.

In re application of Robert A. Broschious, D-8097, No. 9353, May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert A. Broschious, convicted of aggravated assault and battery, assault and battery and robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Northumberland County on January 29, 1945 to be computed from January 6, 1945, be commuted from 10 years to 3 years, 5 months and 10 days, expiring on June 16, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant and his accomplice robbed a victim of two ($2.00) dollars, his watch and car. This occurred after all of the parties, the applicant, his accomplice and his victim, had been drinking together over a greater portion of a day. No harm was done to the victim nor to his automobile.

This applicant has now served over three years of his minimum sentence of ten years. He has an excellent record in the institution and has done very well, having established a bank account of over $600.00 through working in his spare time. This crime seems to have been committed more on the spur of the moment than through any inherent viciousness on the part the applicant.

We were also advised by his counsel that he had no one to represent him at the time of his plea of "guilty". We feel that the court gave him what may be considered an extremely salty sentence in view of the fact that the applicant is a first offender. We believe that over three years' service for this type of crime together with the record which the applicant has made at the institution, should be sufficient to weigh the scales of mercy in his favor. We, therefore, recommend that the applicant's sentence be commuted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Everett William Bagby, convicted of murder, in the second degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on September 24, 1937 to be computed from June 23, 1937, be commuted from 12 years to 10 years, 11 months and 6 days, expiring on May 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Tony Alessio, B-3803 No 7121 May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the Life sentence of Tony Alessio, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Westmoreland County on September 15, 1933 be commuted from life imprisonment to 14 years and 9 months, expiring on June 15, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-nine years of age and this is his first major conviction for any offense whatsoever. It is alleged that this applicant shot and killed his victim by shooting through the rear window of the victim's home thereby causing his death. The victim and the applicant had been close friends and after this occurred, this applicant was one of the persons who came to the scene of the crime and was present when the officers were there and was present when many other persons were there. No one accused the applicant of the killing at that time. It was approximately six months afterward that the widow and the daughter of the victim made affidavit that this applicant was guilty of the commission of this offense. Strange as it may seem, the case went to the State Supreme Court and they affirmed the conviction, but later Patrick McKague, Counsel for the Commonwealth, was accused of subornation of perjury, and later was disbarred from practice before the Board of Pardons and the courts of Westmoreland County on the grounds of unethical conduct. Where there is so much smoke, we certainly believe that there may be some fire in this case.

The Board of Pardons has carefully reviewed this application on several occasions and Your Excellency was a member of the Board on two occasions when this case was heard argued by Thomas Whitten, Esquire, of Westmoreland County.

We feel that there was sufficient doubt in this case which should have caused the jury to acquit. However, since convicted, we wish to point out that this applicant has been incarcerated for approximately sixteen years. He has, by his excellent institutional record shown that he is ready for release.

We feel, that by reason of the very nature of this case and the facts surrounding the conviction, there exists some doubt as to the propriety of the conviction. We feel, that after having served sixteen years with a good institutional record, this applicant is entitled to some consideration at the present time. We, therefore, recommend that a commutation be granted.

In re application of Earl Allen, B-3583 No. 4682 May Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Earl Allen, convicted of burglary, rape in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on December 13, 1932, be commuted on Bill No. 32 (1st count) December Sessions, 1932, from a max. term of 15 years. to a max. term of 9 yrs. 5 mos. and 29 days, exp. on June 12, 1948; on Bill No. 32 (2nd count) from a min. term of 5 yrs. to a min. term of 1 day, exp. on June 13, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many prisoners whose release on parole has been affected by the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel. Thomas Lynch v. Stanley P. Ashe, Warden of the Western State Penitentiary, 320 Pa. 341. In this opinion it was held that unless a prisoner, who was serving sentences imposed to run consecutively, was recommended and approved for parole at the expiration of the first minimum sentence, he would be serving the maximum of that sentence, and if no recommendation for parole was made at the expiration of the second and subsequent minimum of sentences imposed to run consecutively, the prisoner would be serving the maximum of the second and subsequent sentences. In other words, a prisoner serving an indeterminate sentence is not automatically paroled at the expiration of the minimum term but is merely eligible for parole at that time, and if not favorably considered by the Prison Board at any time thereafter, the prisoner is required to serve the full sentence.

It was the custom for a long period of time for the officials of both the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries to lump consecutive sentences and the Boards of Trustees would only make recommendations for release on parole at the expiration of the period of time equal to the total of the minimum sentences.

Since the Supreme Court held this procedure improper, the applicant and others, whose cases were not considered for parole at the expiration of their minimum sentences, through no fault of their own, will have to serve a much longer period of time than contemplated by the sentencing judge and the prison officials.

The failure of the Board of Trustees to make the necessary recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum sentences was an honest mistake, as most, if not all, sentencing judges shared the same view as the prison officials in deeming it to be unnecessary to make recommendations for parole at the expiration of the minimum of every consecutive sentence. Sentencing judges throughout the state have uniformly believed and taken into consideration in passing sentences the Prison Board practice that consecutive sentences would be lumped making a total minimum and a total maximum.

We believe that a great injustice would be done and that it would be most unfair to keep the applicant incarcerated for a longer period of time than recommended by the Board of Trustees of the institution in which the applicant is confined.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Milford G. Williams, D-542 No. 4550 June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Milford G. Williams, convicted of assault with intent to rob, assault and battery with intent to kill in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lackawanna County on April 17, 1935, be commuted on Bill No. 22 February Sessions, 1935 (1st count) from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 13 years and 3 months, expiring on July 17, 1948; on Bill No. 22 (2nd count) from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on July 18, 1948; and on Bill No. 171 from a maximum term of 7 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on July 19, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

In re application of Isaiah James Weaver, D-4437 No. 5894 June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Isaiah James Weaver, convicted of breaking and entering, larceny in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Bradford County on June 6, 1938 to be computed from November 22, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 8 years and 8 months, expiring on July 22, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel Walton, D-7196 No. 9442 June Session 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Samuel Walton, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 4, 1943 to be computed from March 4, 1943 be commuted from 6 years to 5 yrs. 4 mos. 10 days, expiring on July 14, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty years of age and this is the only offense which he has ever committed. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from six to twelve years and at the present time, the applicant has served over five years and three months of his minimum sentence.

This applicant is serving a term on a charge of voluntary manslaughter which grew out of a fight which was started by the victim and his friends and the applicant and his friends as a result of an argument before a dance hall. The applicant, feeling that he was about to be set upon and injured by these other boys, pulled a gun and first fired into the air. The second shot which was fired struck the victim who died as a result of the shock. The applicant has an excellent institutional record in the Eastern State Penitentiary and they stated that he has matured considerably since the incarceration. At the present time, the applicant occupies a position of trust in the institution, being assigned to guard's quarters outside of the wall.

The district attorney of Philadelphia County is not opposed to the granting of commutation and the trial judge makes no recommendation to the Board.

Since this matter occurred when the applicant was only a juvenile, it is doubtful whether he should have been committed to the Eastern State Penitentiary. However, since he has now spent over five years in that institution and has matured considerably, we believe in view of his youth and the fact there was no opposition to the granting of commutation, he should now be permitted to return to society and we recommend that a commutation be granted.

In re application of Roger John Thomas, B-8937 No. 8037 June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open sessions, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Roger John Thomas, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on January 28, 1944 to be computed from December 29, 1943, be commuted from 12½ years to 4 years, 6 months and 15 days, expiring on July 14, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from twelve and one-half to twenty-five years on a charge of burglary. At the present time, he has served approximately five years of his minimum sentence.

* The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary state that he has excellent institutional record and if he was eligible for parole, they would recommend that a parole be granted.

The trial judge, Honorable Chester D. Fetterhoof, did not reply to our request for his recommendation. The district attorney of Allegheny County appeared before the Board of Pardons and stated that he was not opposed to a granting of commutation at this time.

This applicant served in the armed forces of the United States during the past conflict and was granted an honorable discharge.

Because of the fact that this was his first major conviction and at the present time he has served nearly one-half of the minimum sentence, and has a good record in the armed forces, we believe that he will not again become involved with the law, and therefore, recommend that his commutation be granted.

In re application of Harry Solow, No. 1826-D No. 120-B June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Harry Solow, convicted of robbery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 27, 1942 to be computed from February 16, 1942, be commuted from 10 years to 6 years and 5 months, expiring on July 16, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In re application of Hiram Clyde Sleaster, C-135 No. 5274 June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open sessions, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Hiram Clyde Sleaster, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Bedford County on May 7, 1945 to be computed from April 28, 1947 be commuted from 2 years to 1 year 2 months and 15 days, expiring on July 13, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-four years of age and this conviction resulted from the stealing of seven gallons of gasoline and two five-gallon gasoline cans. Unfortunately, the applicant was on parole at the time he was sentenced. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for from two to four years, but it was with the understanding of the trial judge, Honorable J. Colvin Wright, that this applicant should not serve more than two years. At the present time, the applicant has served over two years in the Western State Penitentiary and has an excellent institutional record.

Judge Wright has written the Board of Pardons and stated that this applicant should be granted commutation because he has served more than his two year minimum. This applicant has an excellent record in the Western State Penitentiary and after was assigned to Rockview Prison Farm where he maintains his excellent adjustment. No recommendation was made by the district attorney of Bedford County.

In the light of the trial judge's recommendation that he should serve two years and the fact that at this time he has served over three years, the Board feels that we should grant him an opportunity to continue his excellent adjustment in the institution, in society generally, and therefore, recommend that his commutation be granted.

In re application of John Sistrunk, D-5191 No. 9399 June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open sessions, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Sistrunk, convicted of assault and battery with intent to kill in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on November 18, 1947 be commuted from 2 years to 9 months, expiring on August 18, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-nine years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from two to five years for the cutting of his mother-in-law during a family fight. The applicant was a veteran of the past war and had some difficulty and his wife had left him. He went to his mother-in-law's home in an effort to seek a reconciliation with his wife. While there a fight ensued and the mother-in-law hit the applicant over the head creating a large gash in his skull which later required fourteen stitches to close. He then drew his knife, the wife attempted to intervene and in the melee his wife and mother-in-law were cut.

The applicant has had an excellent institutional record and has obeyed all of the prison rules and his conduct has been exemplary.

The Board of Pardons feels that the applicant in this case was not the aggressor and that the assault was occasioned by the intervention of the mother-in-law who had a feeling of hatred against this applicant. At the time of his release, the applicant will have served nine months of his minimum sentence. We feel that under all of the circumstances, this is sufficient punishment for this crime, and we therefore, recommend that a commutation be granted in order that he may again support his family and become a law-abiding citizen.

In re application of Robert W. Sehn, B-9985 No. 8820 June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open sessions, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Robert W. Sehn, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Somerset County on January 13, 1947 to be computed from July 23, 1946 be commuted from 4 years to two years, expiring on July 23, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-six years of age and has no prior institutional record. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from four to eight years on a charge of voluntary manslaughter. He has now served approximately two years of his minimum sentence.

While in the service, he suffered an accident which may be described as a war-induced "post concussion syndrome." This led to what the applicant has described as a "black-out" and for which he has been granted one hundred percent disability pension by the armed forces. On the day in question, the applicant did "blackout" and committed this crime.

The Board of Pardons is of the opinion that this applicant is ill mentally and that he was ill mentally when he committed the offense for which he is now imprisoned. We feel that it is to his advantage to have medical and psychiatric treatment for this concussion, and we therefore recommend that the sentence of this applicant be commuted only upon the condition that he be admitted to a veterans' hospital for treatment for this condition, and in event he cannot be admitted to a veterans' hospital, or some other hospital where he will receive treatment for his mental condition, the commutation recommended is to be withdrawn.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Savage No. 8926 June Session 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Savage, convicted of assault with intent to rob, robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 4, 1946 to be computed from September 24, 1946 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year and 10 months, expiring on July 24, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is twenty-eight years of age and has no prior institutional record. He was sentenced on a charge of assault with intent to rob, robbery. The applicant has now served one year and nine months of a two and one-half year minimum sentence. He has an excellent institutional record.

At the time of his arrest, the applicant was an honorably discharged veteran of the United States Army who had served honorably and with distinction in the Southwest Pacific and was awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received in the Philippine liberation. His army service was slightly over three years in duration.

The trial judge, Honorable Frank Smith, states that he reconsidered the sentence of John Savage to a term of one to three years. If such was the case, it is evident that he did not intend this applicant to serve longer than one year. However, the record at the institution does not show that this applicant's sentence was reconsidered and that he was given the benefit of this change.

The district attorney of Philadelphia County is not opposed to the granting of commutation in this matter. Since the court reconsidered this applicant's sentence and reduced it to a minimum sentence of one year, but the applicant was not granted the benefit of this change, we feel we should correct this error and grant unto him the change which the trial judge intended particularly since there is no opposition to the change by the district attorney's office of Philadelphia County. We therefore, recommend that a commutation be granted.

In re application of Francis A. H. Riether, B-6640 No. 7358 June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Francis A. H. Riether, convicted of robbery, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on March 17, 1939 to be computed from January 7, 1939, be commuted on Bills Nos. 29 and 30 February Sessions, 1939, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 9 years, 6 months and 6 days, expiring on July 13, 1948; and on Bill No. 31 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on July 14, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-nine years of age and this was his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from fifteen to thirty years on a charge of robbery, receiving stolen goods. After having served approximately six years of his minimum sentence, his sentence was commuted on condition that he enter the armed forces. The applicant did enter the armed forces of the United States and served overseas in the Asiatic-Pacific and the Islands of Siapan and Guam where he suffered a back injury and was returned to this country and given an honorable discharge. The applicant is now employed, is married, and has made an excellent adjustment in society. He is employed by the Superior Fur Company of Pittsburgh and is well-thought of by his employer.

The trial judge, Honorable W. H. Dithrich, has stated that he has no objection to the granting of commutation, provided his employment record has been satisfactory; and provided further that the Board, with knowledge of all the facts, should be disposed to recommend it. The Board of Parole, under whose supervision the applicant has been since his discharge from the United States Army, states that they do not object to a commutation of the maximum sentence.

Because of this applicant's complete adjustment and rehabilitation and his service in the United States Army, we feel that he is entitled to a commutation of his maximum sentence, and we therefore, recommend that it be granted.

In re application of George Steven Puskar, B-8363, No. 6690, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that George Steven Puskar, convicted of forging a written instrument and prison breach in the Quarter Sessions of Beaver County on October 10, 1942 to be computed from July 2, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-seven years of age and he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from five to ten years on a charge of forging a written instrument and prison breach. After having served approximately three and one-half years of his minimum sentence, he was granted commutation. He has now been on parole over two and one-half years.

As to the crime of prison breach, the Board of Parole made an investigation through their office and came to the conclusion that it was impossible for this applicant to have escaped from the Beaver County Jail as was alleged. Pictures in proof thereof were offered by the Board of Parole and are in the file. The Board believes the applicant's statement that he was released through an "inside job." The Board believes that this applicant was an unfortunate "dupe" of his accomplices and that his story of the crime which he gives in his application is true; that is, Bentley, his accomplice, was the moving factor in the scheme of forgery and that his escape from the Beaver County Jail was arranged by his accomplice, Bentley. Bentley was acquitted, while this applicant was convicted.

Subsequent to his release, this applicant secured a position in the American Bridge Company and has made an excellent record. He is now a draftsman at the American Bridge Company and is presently studying for his bachelor's degree in engineering at Carnegie Institute of Technology. He is married.

The Board is of the opinion that this applicant was more an innocent victim of circumstances than an active participant in this crime. Although he did receive a portion of the fraudulent transaction.

The Board does not feel that this applicant is the type of offender who will ever again be involved in the toils of the law, and because of the excellent record he has made with the American Bridge Company, and the fact that he is attempting to secure a degree in civil engineering, moves this Board to recommend a pardon.

The President Judge, Honorable Robert E. McCreary, states that the applicant has done an excellent job and he does not wish to do anything that might interfere with his continuing to be a good citizen and states that whatever action the Board of Pardons takes will meet with his approval.

The district attorney of Beaver County also states that he does not oppose the granting of a pardon and further says that he would like to see the applicant granted a pardon.

Because of the foregoing, we recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Francis William Piacentini, D-3713, No. 6451, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Francis William Piacentini, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 27, 1939 to be computed from December 17, 1938 be commuted from 15 years to 9 years and 7 months, expiring on July 17, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-six years of age and at the present time has served nine years and six months of his minimum sentence of fifteen years. He has no prior criminal record.

This applicant is one of a group who was known as the "Green Car Bandits." They participated in approximately fifty holdups in the City of Philadelphia during the latter part of 1938. The applicant participated in approximately ten of the holdups.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state that this applicant has a good institutional record and that the disciplinary record is reported as excellent. He has participated in the educational program at the institution for a period of two years and made good progress in the academic subjects chosen.

The district attorney of Philadelphia County has advised the Board of Pardons that they are not opposed to granting a commutation and feels, that this applicant having no prior record, has been sufficiently punished. He stated to the Board of Pardons that the reason for their position is that this applicant was only seventeen years of age when he committed these crimes, and believe that he was under the influence and domination of the other older members of the gang.

The Board is of the opinion that this applicant has served a substantial length of time and since he has no prior criminal record, and the further fact that the district attorney's office is not opposed to commutation at this time, the Board members recommend that the prayer of the applicant be granted and his sentence commuted.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Dominick Paul, A-14916, No. 2073, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Dominick Paul, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Indiana County on January 3, 1927 be commuted from life imprisonment to 21 years 6 months and 12 days, expiring on July 15, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is sixty-one years of age and is now serving a life term of imprisonment on the charge of murder in the first degree. He had no other criminal record and at this time has served over twenty-one and one-half years of a life sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary, in reviewing this case, state that this applicant is a very cooperative and trustworthy prisoner, and if he was eligible to apply for parole, they would recommend him for his excellent record. Since this is his first major conviction, and further for the fact that he has served such a long period of time they feel he merits the mercy of our Board.

Both the trial judge and the district attorney are deceased and the president judge and district attorney express no opinion as to the release of the applicant at this time.

He does not intend to return to the county from which he came or where this offense occurred, but will live with a sister-in-law in Latrobe, Pennsylvania. He has secured employment at Kingston Brick Company at Latrobe and will be gainfully employed.

This case merits our consideration in view of the fact that this applicant has served one of the longest terms on a first degree murder sentence of any inmate in the Western State Penitentiary. During his entire period of incarceration, he has not been cited for one breach of rules, and since he is recommended to us as a cooperative and trustworthy prisoner, we feel that he will not offend against society if given his release at this time. We therefore, recommend that a commutation be granted.

JAMES H. DUFF,

Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Edward Oden, Jr., B-9367, No. 8890, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles Edward Oden, Jr., convicted of breaking and escaping penitentiary in the court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County on December 11, 1945 to be computed from August 9, 1947 be commuted from 2 years to 11 months and 10 days, expiring on July 19, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and this was his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from two of four years on a charge of burglary and after having served approximately one month of this sentence, escaped from Rockview Prison Farm. Thereafter, he was given a consecutive sentence of two to four years to serve for his escape from Rockview. The applicant has served his Allegheny County sentence and at the present time has served slightly over ten months of his escape time.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary state that this applicant has an excellent institution record. Judge Walker of Centre County makes no recommendation. The district attorney of Allegheny County states that he has no objection to the granting of commutation. The trial judge in Allegheny County is now deceased.

The parole plan which is provided for this applicant is that he is to go to Brunswick, Maryland, where he will be employed as a farm laborer. The Maryland Parole and Probation Office agree to assume supervision over this applicant and accept his present parole plan.

Because of the fact that this applicant has served his minimum sentence on the Allegheny County charge, and has served an additional period of over ten months at the present time on his Centre County escape charge, we believe that he will become a credit to society if granted this parole plan and is permitted to return to his home in Maryland.

Because of the excellent institutional record over the past three years, we recommend that he be given an opportunity to place into effect this parole plan and recommend commutation of his sentence.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Robert Nonnemacher, D-6350, No. 7074, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of William Robert Nonnemacher, convicted of breaking and escaping prison, assault and battery in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lehigh County on October 19, 1937 to be computed from March 10, 1942, be commuted from 11 years to 6 years and 4 months, expiring on July 10, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-three years of age and since commutation of his minimum sentence on a charge of breaking and escaping prison and assault and battery, he has served four years and 2 months on parole. Subsequently to his release on parole in April of 1944 he secured employment with the C. H. Ettinger Company and his employment since his release has been a positive factor towards reestablishing and developing of his character. It is reported to the Board of Parole that he is exceedingly cooperative and the Board of Parole has exercised a salutary influence on the applicant. The Board of Parole under whose supervision the applicant has been for the past four years, feels that he has made definite progress under supervision and is now capable of assuming complete responsibility for himself. They do not object to the commutation of maximum sentence.

The trial judge, Honorable Richard W. Iobst, has written the Board that he has no objection to the granting of clemency if such is deemed advisable by the Board of Pardons. The district attorney of Lehigh County is not opposed.

Under all of the circumstances, the Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has made an excellent adjustment and is now able to take care of himself, and that further parole supervision is unnecessary. The authorities join with us in this view. We therefore, recommend that commutation of maximum sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
NOT SITTING
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Carl Nagle, D-7648, No. 9444, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Carl Nagle, convicted of breaking and entering, larceny, jail breaking, in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Wyoming County on June 25, 1938 to be computed from December 30, 1937; and of breaking and larceny, in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Susquehanna County on September 9, 1947; and of breaking and entering in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Wayne County on January 5, 1948; be commuted on Wyoming County sentence from a minimum term of 14 years to a minimum term of 10 years, 6 months and 15 days, expiring on July 15, 1948; on Susquehanna County sentence (to run concurrent and to be computed from September 9, 1947) from a minimum term of 2 years to a minimum term of 10 months and 7 days, expiring on July 16, 1948; and on Wayne County sentence (to run concurrent and to be computed from January 5, 1948) from a minimum term of 1½ years to a minimum term of 6 months and 12 days, expiring on July 17, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-nine years of age and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from fourteen to twenty-eight years on a charge of breaking and entering, larceny and jail breaking. He did commit a series of these crimes in Wyoming, Susquehanna and Wayne Counties and there is no ex-cusing his conduct. At the present time, he has served ten and one-half years of his minimum sentence. There is this one fact which recommends him to the Board of Pardons; he is presently confined to the prison hospital suffering from incipient tuberculosis.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state that this applicant has an excellent institutional record and they favorably recommend. He has established a substantial institutional balance. The trial judge, Honorable Edward B. Farr, states that in view of his physical condition, he will be satisfied with whatever disposition the Board feels inclined to make. The district attorney of Wyoming County not being advised of the applicant's physical condition, does not concur with the trial judge's recommendation.

The Board, however, is of the opinion that this applicant has served a substantial portion of his time and has an excellent institutional record. We therefore, recommend to Your Excellency that the sentence of the applicant be commuted on condition that he go to a State Sanatorium for treatment of his tuberculosis.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel Mitchell, C-8858, No. 5636, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Samuel Mitchell, convicted of felonious entry, robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Montgomery County, on April 12, 1933 to be computed from February 24, 1933; be commuted on Bill No. 51-6 February Sessions, 1933, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 4 months and 22 days, expiring on July 16, 1948. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bills Nos. 51 and 51-1).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-eight years of age and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years for his participation in the Ambler bank robbery. This applicant was convicted with three accomplices, one of whom subsequently committed suicide while awaiting trial. The other two accomplices were given fifteen to thirty years. Both of these accomplices had their sentences commuted prior to the expiration of their minimum sentences. This applicant is the last of the group remaining in prison. At the present time, he has served over fourteen and one-half years of a minimum sentence of twenty years.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary advised the Board of Pardons that this applicant has an excellent institutional record and has been able to establish a substantial balance from his earnings. A favorable report as to the possibility of parole is made.

We have been advised by the representative of the applicant that Judge Corson, who is the sentencing judge in this matter, wrote to the Board of Pardons in August 1947, "After all, we can't keep these men in jail forever and if you feel that Mitchell can be safely released on parole, I would not object to such procedure."

We feel, that this applicant realizing that he will be under parole supervision for a period of approximately twenty-five years, would hesitate to commit any further crimes against society. He realizes that if he should commit any further breach of the law, he would be returned for what would be practical a life sentence.

Since the trial judge, the Honorable George C Corson has no objection, and all the other accomplices have been released, the Board feels that this applicant should be entitled to commutation of his minimum sentence at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Fred A. Mendel, alias Fred Mendell, No. 9390, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Fred A. Mendel, alias Fred Mendell, convicted of larceny of an automobile in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 18, 1933, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows.

This applicant is thirty-one years of age and has no prior criminal record. In 1933 he was placed on probation for a period of three years on a technical charge of larceny of an automobile.

He was the occupant of a car which had been stolen and was not familiar with the fact that this car had been stolen, but was with the other three accomplices, one of whom had stolen the car. It should also be pointed out that this applicant at no time drove this car and when apprehended by the police of New Jersey voluntarily returned to Philadelphia. Subsequently, the applicant enlisted in the United States Navy and served for a period of three years. He was granted an honorable discharge.

The district attorney of Philadelphia County has stated to the Board of Pardons that he is not opposed to the granting of a pardon in this case. The trial judge, Honorable Eugene V. Alessandrini, has stated to the Board of Pardons that he has no comment to add to what already appears upon the record.

The Board of Pardons is satisfied of the rehabilitation made by the applicant. He has been in no further trouble for a period of fifteen years and at most was only technically guilty of charge for which he was sentenced. In the light of his excellent military record and the fact that he is now married, we feel that he should be given this opportunity to clear his name and we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Francis McMenamin, D-6090, No. 8955, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Francis McMenamin, convicted of assault, robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 30, 1941 to be computed from September 25, 1941 be commuted from 12 years to 6 years and 10 months, expiring on July 25, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows.

This applicant is thirty-four years of age and this is his first major imprisonment. He has now been imprisoned in the Eastern State Penitentiary for nearly seven years of his minimum sentence of twelve years.

This applicant and two accomplices committed six armed robberies over a period of seven months. The applicant was only involved in four of the robberies.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state that this applicant has an excellent record and his adjustment in the institution has been favorable. The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has written the Board of Pardons and stated that he has no objection to commutation of sentence at this time. The district attorney of Philadelphia County, in reviewing the matter, orally stated to the Board that his office has no objection to the granting of commutation prayed for.

In view of the length of service of the applicant in the penitentiary and his continued good record therein, and the further fact that there is no objection that the prayer of the applicant be granted, that commutation issue.

In re application of Maceo Lumb, D-1857, No. 6963, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Maceo Lumb, convicted of assault, being armed with intent to rob in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County on January 5, 1937, be commuted from 20 years to 11 years and 6 months, expiring on July 5, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows.

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release

from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Linonis, B-8171, No. 7354, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Linonis, convicted of burglary, receiving stolen goods, entering with intent to commit felony in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Venango County on May 5, 1942 to be computed from January 11, 1942 be commuted from 10 years to 6 years, 6 months and 5 days, expiring on July 16, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows.

This applicant is twenty-five years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for the crime of burglary, receiving stolen goods, entering with intent to commit felony. He and his two accomplices committed six burglaries. At the time he committed these offenses, he was nineteen years of age. Had he been the age of his accomplices, he would have been committed to the Pennsylvania Industrial School. As it was, one of his accomplices was permitted by the trial judge to enter the army and the other accomplice, who was one year younger was sentenced to White Hill where he served period of eighteen months. This applicant, being past the juvenile age, was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary stated that this applicant has maintained an excellent record and if he was eligible to apply for parole, they would recommend that he be granted parole. The trial judge, Honorable Lee A. McCracken, has written the Board of Pardons that he is not opposed to the granting of a commutation. The district attorney of Venango County has also stated that he is not opposed and in fact recommends that a commutation be granted.

Because the sentencing authorities in Venango County feel he should now be granted his release and the fact that his accomplices have all been released, one over five years ago, we feel that this applicant should be granted a commutation of sentence and so recommend.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Louis Kutzura, D-448, No. 6076, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Louis Kutzura, convicted of robbery, assault and battery with intent to rob in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lehigh County on March 25, 1935, be commuted on Bill No. 99 January Sessions, 1935, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 4 years and 4 months, expiring on July 25, 1948. (Granted parole on Bill No. 96).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows.

This applicant is fifty-one years of age and he has been in no other trouble with the exception of this case. This applicant, together with an accomplice, Tony Orlando, was involved in burglary and robbery, part of which sentence of fourteen years he has now served, and has been granted parole by the Pennsylvania State Board of Parole. Following the bank holdup, the applicant held up and robbed a manager of a grocery store in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, and he was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary. He has now served thirteen years and three months of this sentence. Commutation is asked in order that he may go to Michigan and there be reunited with his family.

This applicant has also made an excellent adjustment in prison and has sent the greater portion of his earnings to his wife. He is recommended by the prison authorities for a parole. The trial judge, Honorable Richard W. Iobst, has written the Board of Pardons that he has no objection to the granting of clemency, if deemed desirable. The district attorney of Lehigh County states he has no objection to the granting of commutation.

We feel that this applicant has served a great length of time and if granted clemency, will know the value of freedom and will not again commit an offense of this nature, or in fact, of any nature. This is his sixth appeal to the Board of Pardons and he has nine months more to serve of his minimum sentence. We feel that by thirteen years good record in the institution, the Board should grant him an opportunity to go out into the world and be reunited with his family. We therefore, recommend that a commutation be granted.

In re application of Anthony Thomas Kobus, No. 9448, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Anthony Thomas Kobus, convicted of robbery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Delaware County, on December 5, 1933, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-four years of age. When he was approximately nineteen years of age, this applicant together with two accomplices committed a robbery for which he received two years in the Delaware County Prison. The offense consisted of robbery of a saloon and the loot was $30.00. Following his release, he married and is the father of a six year old daughter.

We believe this applicant was influenced by his older associates and that he has given up the possibility of anti-social conduct. He is now the owner and operator of a hotel in Marcus Hook, Pennsylvania, and received letters of commendation from many persons in the vicinity where he resides. They all speak well of him and show that he has made a place for himself and his family in the Borough of Marcus Hook where he is definitely considered an asset.

In view of the act that this applicant has been in no further trouble for a period of fourteen and one-half years, and has become one of the outstanding citizens of his community so that persons of all walks of life recommend him to us, we feel that he has earned the right to a pardon, and we therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted in this matter.

In re application of Samuel H. Johnson, No. 9416, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Samuel H. Johnson, convicted of aggravated assault and battery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on April 4, 1929, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is fifty-seven years of age and this was his only conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for a term of six months on a charge of aggravated assault and battery in 1929.

The applicant appeared before us in person and gave the impression to the Board of Pardons that he was a very high type negro gentleman from Philadelphia. He is gainfully employed by the City of Philadelphia since his parole in the Department of Sanitation, and has the opportunity to improve himself by taking a civil service position. He cannot, however, take the civil service position unless he secures a pardon.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has written the Board of Pardons that he has no objection if the Pardon Board is not opposed to the granting of the pardon.

Under all of the circumstances, and the fact that this applicant has not been in any further trouble for a period of over nineteen years, we recommend that a pardon be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Allen P. Hunt, convicted of Larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 25, 1938 to be computed from January 20, 1938, be commuted from 40 years to 10 years and 6 months, expiring on July 20, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of Clayton Grier, No. 9392, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Clayton Grier, convicted of setting up an illegal lottery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on August 3, 1934, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-five years of age and desires a pardon on the charge of setting up an illegal lottery. The facts briefly are these: That this applicant had a package of "number slips" in his hand when he was apprehended by a police officer. It is also believed that this applicant was unaware that he was carrying "number slips" as they were given to the applicant in a package and he merely delivered them to a particular house as he was told. Since his imprisonment on that charge, the applicant has been in no further trouble.

At the present time, the applicant is steward of one of the largest colored lodges in Pennsylvania and has an opportunity of securing a civil service position with the City of Philadelphia.

There is no opposition to the granting of a pardon by any of the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County.

Since this applicant has not been in any further trouble for a period of approximately fourteen years, the Board of Pardons is of the opinion that he has had ample rehabilitation, and we therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of John Bernard Grieco, Jr. D-8996, No. 9440, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed upon John Bernard Grieco, Jr., convicted of burglary and larceny in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Delaware County on June 18, 1946, to be computed from April 25, 1946; and of burglary and larceny in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Montgomery County on December 13, 1946, be commuted on Bills Nos. 406, 407 and 414 June Sessions, 1946 (Delaware County) from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 2 years and 3 months, expiring on July 25, 1948; and on Bills Nos. 74-1, 74-2, and 74-3 April Sessions, 1946 (Montgomery County) from a minimum term of 1 year to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on July 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-two years of age and he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years on two charges of burglary, one occurring in Delaware County and the other in Montgomery County. This applicant has no prior criminal record and the indictments are that this applicant committed these offenses for the purpose of seeking a thrill and not to cause any one any physical violence or fear. At the time of the applicant's arrest, he was attending Temple University and if given an opportunity to again go out into society, he will return to Temple University to continue his course of study there. It should be pointed out to the Board, that the only places entered by this applicant and his accomplices were vacant homes. At the time the applicant committed these offenses he was only nineteen years old, and since his incarceration in the Eastern State Penitentiary, the Board of Trustees have found him outstanding.

The Delaware County Court offers no opinion in this matter since the trial judge, the Honorable Albert D. MacDade, was the sentencing judge and refuses to comment. The district attorney of Delaware County does not oppose a commutation at this time.

It may also be pointed out to Your Excellency that this applicant served in the armed forces of the United States and received an honorable discharge therefrom.

The Board of Pardons recommends that this sentence be commuted because we do not feel that this was any maladjustment on the part of the applicant that is permanent in nature, and we feel that he has been sufficiently punished by his incarceration for the past two years and three months.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James L. Green, No. 62567, No. 9401, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James L. Green, convicted of burglary, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on May 15, 1947 to be computed from March 15, 1947 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year and 6 months, expiring on September 15, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty years of age and this is his first conviction. He was sentenced on a charge of burglary and receiving stolen goods. He took no part in stealing, but goods were left at his home by the thief. They were left under such circumstances that the applicant knew or should have realized they were probably stolen goods, and for this was convicted and sentenced to a term of not less than two and one-half or more than five years in the Allegheny County Workhouse. At the present time he has served one year and three months of a minimum sentence of two and one-half years. If given an opportunity, the applicant will be restored to his wife and job of driving truck.

We believe that this applicant has learned his lesson and if released will not again offend against society and will become a law-abiding citizen.

We, therefore, recommend that his application for commutation be granted after he has served one year and six months of his minimum sentence of two years and six months.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James Gatti, D-1545, No. 4532, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of James Gatti, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on August 25, 1936, be commuted from 20 years to 11 years and 11 months, expiring on July 25, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Anthony Galasso, No. 9414, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Anthony Galasso, convicted of breaking and entering in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 18, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-three years of age and has no prior record of any kind. He was charged with the breaking and entering of a shoe store in Philadelphia and taking shoes therefrom. This applicant made restitution in full for the shoes that were taken.

Since applicant's offense in 1937, he has been steadily employed with the exception of the time he served in the armed forces of the United States. He entered the armed forces in June 1943 and was honorably discharged approximately three years later in 1946. He served overseas in the Asiatic-Pacific theatre for nearly two years and was discharged with the rank of corporal. This applicant, at the present time, is teaching in a veterans' training center and is the owner of his own shoe repair shop. He is married and has two children.

The Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has written the Board of Pardons and stated that he leaves the matter of pardon up to the Board. The district attorney of Philadelphia County states he has no objection to the granting of a pardon.

We believe this applicant has shown by his conduct that he has rehabilitated himself and become a useful member of society. We also feel that his service in the armed forces of the United States are sufficient that we should recommend, under all of the other circumstances, that he be granted a pardon, and we therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Edward J. Dugan, B-7216, No. 8356, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Edward J. Dugan, convicted of burglary and receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on April 16, 1940 and April 19, 1940, to be computed from August 12, 1944; be commuted on Bill No. 13 February Sessions, 1940 from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 3 years, 11 months and 10 days, expiring on July 22, 1948; and on Bill No. 12 from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on July 23, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-one years of age and this is not the first time he has served in an institution. At the present time, he is serving a sentence of twenty to forty years, to begin at the expiration of the back parole time, on a sentence imposed in 1932. His present conviction was the result of his burglary of two State Liquor Stores. The applicant has been confined in the Western State Penitentiary for a period of approximately eight and one-half years although only four years apply because of his previous parole violation. He has an excellent institutional record and it is believed he will make a good adjustment on parole.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary recommend that he be given another opportunity. The district attorney of Allegheny County leaves the matter of commutation to the Board of Pardons. His present plan for parole is to go and live with his brother-in-law in Lyons, Ohio. His brother-in-law, who is sponsor and employer, appeared before the Board of Pardons, where he made a favorable impression.

The Board believes that if the applicant is given the opportunity that his representative stated, he will not again offend against the law and become a good and law-abiding citizen. Because of his excellent parole plan and the fact that he has now served nearly nine years of his sentence, and the fact that the Board of Trustees recommends him for release, the Board is of the opinion that he be given one final chance to prove that he will not offend against the law, and we therefore, recommend that commutation be granted.

In re application of Joseph DiSanti, No. 9413, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph DiSanti, convicted of conspiracy with intent to enter and steal in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 18, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-two years of age and he was arrested on a charge of conspiracy with intent to enter and steal in 1937. Since his arrest, he has been in no further trouble.

Following the applicant's arrest in 1937, he was placed on probation for a term of one year and thereafter in 1941 was inducted in the armed forces of the United States and served honorably for a period of three years and four months, when he was given his discharge. He has been employed all of this time by Stephano Brothers, Cigarette Manufacturers in Philadelphia. He now desires to seek a civil service appointment in the City of Philadelphia and is unable to do this unless a pardon be granted.

The Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has stated to the Board of Pardons that he has no objection to the granting of this pardon nor does the district attorney's office of Philadelphia County.

Since this applicant has been in no further trouble for a period of over eleven years and because of his service in the armed forces, we believe he has shown himself to be a rehabilitated and useful citizen and that he will not again offend against society. For the above reasons, we recommend that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Preston L. Dewey, D-1891, No. 6450, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Preston L. Dewey, convicted of rape and robbery in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Delaware County on January 6, 1937 to be computed from November 7, 1936, be commuted on Bill No. 226 December Sessions, 1936 (Bill No. 209 concurrent) from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 4 years, 2 months and 9 days, expiring on July 16, 1948; and on Bill No. 223 (Bill No. 224 concurrent) from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on July 17, 1948. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bill No. 222).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-nine years of age and this is his first major conviction. He has now served approximately twelve years of his minimum sentence of seventeen and one-half years on a charge of rape and robbery.

This applicant committed these offenses when he was only seventeen years of age and after his incarceration in the Eastern State Penitentiary, he was watched closely to see if any psychopathic personality developed as a result of his anti-social conduct in the commission of these crimes. At the present time, there seems to be no psychopathic reaction and he seems to be mentally all right. The prison board believes that his neighborhood associates contributed to his behavior. He has served an extremely long period of time for his offense and at least one of his accomplices has already received commutation from this Board. He has been promised an opportunity at the plumbing trade which he mastered in the penitentiary upon his release. He has given every indication that he intends to become a law-abiding citizen if granted this opportunity.

The trial judge, Honorable W. Roger Fronfield, who tried the case, is deceased and the rule in Delaware County is not to express an opinion from other members of the court. The district attorney of Delaware County, however, had a representative present and he stated that the district attorney's office was not opposed to commutation of sentence.

Because of the long period of time which this applicant has served, and his excellent effort at rehabilitation in the penitentiary, we feel that further incarceration could have no beneficial effect, and we therefore, recommend that a commutation of sentence be granted.

In re application of Wendelle D'Aury, No. 9400, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Wendelle D'Aury, convicted of unlawful and felonious possession and use of drugs in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on September 5, 1941 to be computed from August 27, 1941 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-four years of age and he now seeks a pardon on the charge of unlawful and felonious possession and use of drugs.

In August of 1942, this applicant voluntarily gave himself up to the Philadelphia authorities for the purpose of securing a cure of the drug habit to which he had become addicted. This applicant was sentenced to a term of six months and during that time he did affect a cure of the use of narcotics. He has been turned down for two desirable positions, one with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and one with the federal government in Guam, Mariana Islands, as a result of this criminal record.

Since the trial judge and the district attorney have both stated to the Board of Pardons that they leave the matter of pardon to the Board, we feel that this applicant has suffered voluntary commitment and in fact asked to be arrested on this charge in order to obtain a cure for his habit, we feel that since the cure is effected, this applicant should be granted a pardon for this offense, and we so recommend.

In re application of Albert L. Connors, D-1922 No. 4377 June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the Maximum sentence of Albert L. Connors, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 22, 1937, be commuted from 20 years to 11 years and 6 months, expiring on July 22, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

In re application of Harry James Christy, B-3629, No. 2737 June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Harry James Christy, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on March 15, 1933 be commuted on Bill No. 24 March Sessions, 1933, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 5 years, 4 months and 14 days, expiring on July 29, 1948; and on Bill No. 25 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day expiring on July 30, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is fifty-one years of age and this was his only conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from fifteen to thirty years on a charge of robbery in 1933. The Board of Pardons, after reviewing this crime, believe this was an economic crime rather than any inherent maliciousness on the part of the applicant.

After this applicant served over eight years and nine months of his minimum sentence, he was released on parole and has been on parole for a period of nearly six and one-half years. Since his release, he has been employed and has made every opportunity to rehabilitate himself. Since his release, he has reestablished his family head in the rearing of his three children, the two daughters since married, and son served in the armed forces.

The Board of Parole has recommended to the Board of Pardons that they do not object to the granting of a commutation of the maximum sentence at this time as this applicant has had an excellent record on parole and has shown that he has been completely rehabilitated.

Because of the applicant's excellent record on parole and the fact that this was his sole conviction, we feel that the applicant has shown that he will not offend the Board of Parole, we recommend that his maximum against society and that he can be freed from further parole supervision. Because of the recommendation of sentence be commuted.

In re application of Joseph A. B. Cellini, No. 9427, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph A. B. Cellini, convicted of or pleaded guilty to the following offenses: (1) breaking and entering, larceny in the Juvenile Court of Philadelphia County on June 11, 1918; (2) unlawful possession and transportation of intoxicating liquor in Quarter Sessions Court on May 11, 1926; (3) burglary, entering with intent to commit a felony, larceny in the Quarter Sessions Court on December 8, 1925; (4) aggravated assault and battery in the Quarter Sessions Court on September 12, 1927; and (5) burglary in the Quarter Sessions Court on February 24, 1929, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-two years of age and desires pardon for five offenses which he committed approximately twenty to twenty-five years ago. The offenses consisted of breaking and entering, larceny, unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor, burglary, aggravated assault and battery. The last of these offenses took place in 1929 and since that time, the applicant has been in no further trouble.

Following his release from the Philadelphia County Prison in 1932, the applicant has become a Christian and has made every effort to rehabilitate himself and become a worthwhile member of society. He is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute and the Wheaton College Academy. He has been a missionary and itinerant preacher throughout the southern part of the United States and is at present the superintendent and founder of the Maranatha Settlement Association, which is a religious corporation ministering to the under-privileged children of Philadelphia.

There is no opposition from the authorities in Philadelphia County to the granting of this pardon.

We believe that this applicant has shown by his past nineteen years of honorable Christian life and by the work he is presently doing, that the follies of youth have been put aside and that he is truly a rehabilitated man in today's society.

Because of his Christian life and his work with the under-privileged children, we believe that this individual has gained the right to ask Your Excellency for this pardon and we recommend because of what we have said before, that a complete pardon be granted.

In re application of George Henry Chapman, No. 9460, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the death sentence of George Henry Chapman, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Potter County on November 24, 1947, be commuted from death sentence to life imprisonment.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-eight years of age and this is his first conviction. He was sentenced to death for the murder of his wife. His case was appealed to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court where the conviction was affirmed, but a very strong dissenting opinion was filed by the Mr. Justice Jones and Mr. Justice Stern. In that dissent they state the inescapable conclusion that the defendant was intoxicated to such an extent that he was incapable of deliberation, premeditation or intent. They also point out that the report of the psychiatrist shows that the applicant was suffering from chronic alcoholism. They also point out that the applicant appeared to be in a stupor when he got to his feet, this being several hours after the commission of this crime; that at that time he did not have the faintest comprehension of what he was doing or what was going on around him. The dissent further points out that although the victim was shot through the heart, it was a mere trick of fate, since the bullet entered the right breast, struck a rib, and was deflected to the vital organ.

The Board of Pardons feels that since the facts were such as to cause two of the justices of the Supreme Court to write so vigorous a dissent that such facts should inure to the benefit of this applicant. In view of a serious question being raised as to his inability to form a specific intent to take life, the Board of Pardons would be justified in recommending this applicant for commutation of the death sentence.

The Board wishes to point out to Your Excellency that up until this time, after having sat for a year and a half, they have examined approximately twelve applications for commutation of the death sentence; of those twelve, eleven have gone to the electric chair as required by their sentence, but this is the first case where more than a scintilla of evidence was presented which would cause us to alter the decision of the court below and that only because of the vigorous dissents which was offered in the Supreme Court opinion.

In the light of all which has heretofore been said, the Board of Pardons believes that this is a case for the commutation of the death sentence and that this sentence be commuted to life imprisonment.

In re application of Mike Castellana, A-13022, No. 1389, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Mike Castellana, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Cambria County on November 13, 1922 be commuted from life to 25 years and 8 months, expiring on July 13, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-nine years of age and his sentence for this murder was the only crime with which he has ever been charged.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant was not properly convicted of murder in the first degree in view of the facts which are admitted in this case. It seems that this applicant was set upon by the victim and the victim pulled a gun and threatened the applicant with it. The applicant escaped from the victim and after a sharp struggle, got the victim's gun from him and when the victim approached the applicant, he fired, killed the victim. After having served a period of over ten years in the Western State Penitentiary, the applicant's sentence was commuted. He has been on parole for a period of fourteen and one-half years and the Board of Parole has stated that they do not object to commutation of the maximum sentence, as he has an excellent record while on parole. He has been regularly employed at various coal companies in and about Lackawanna County and has made an excellent adjustment. He is married and has five children.

The Board of Pardons recommends a commutation of the maximum sentence be granted because of the excellent record on parole and because there is no objection from any of the sentencing authorities in Cambria County to the granting of the commutation action.

In re application of Domenick Carlucci, No. 9303, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Domenick Carlucci, convicted of entering with intent to steal, larceny in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on October 4, 1937, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-eight years of age and prior to this offense and subsequent thereto, has been in no further trouble. The offense consisted of stealing two pocketbooks in a theatre when he was a little more than seventeen years of age.

Subsequent to his becoming placed on probation, the applicant was inducted in the armed forces of the United States in May of 1942 and served in the battle of North Africa where he was wounded in the battle for Kasserine Pass. As a result thereof, he was granted a medical discharge from the armed services in July 1943. The applicant has been regularly employed since his discharge as maintenance technician for the Grundy Iron Works, and desires at the present time to take examination for an appointment to the Department of Public Safety with the City of Philadelphia. He is married and is the father of one child, a daughter. He has been in no further trouble.

The Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, leaves the matter of pardon up to the Board of Pardons and the district attorney of Philadelphia County has stated that he has no objection to the granting of a pardon as prayed for.

Because of his honorable service in the armed forces and the fact that he has been in no further trouble for nearly eleven years, the Board feels that this applicant committed this crime during a period of youthful indiscretion and we can take this into our consideration. This being all the factors, we believe that this applicant has earned a right to a pardon for this offense and we recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of Elton Bartholomew, B-9946, No. 9404, June Sessions, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Elton Bartholomew, convicted of burglary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Potter County on November 26, 1946 to be computed from November 15, 1946, be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year and 8 months, expiring on July 15, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-seven years of age and this is his first major conviction. He and an accomplice stole two quarts of honey and several items of furniture. As a result of this breach of the law, he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from two and one-half to five years.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary state that he has an excellent institutional record. The trial judge, Honorable Robert R. Lewis, states that because of his good prison record and his probable placement with a reputable employer, he recommends that his minimum sentence be commuted. The district attorney of Potter County has written and stated that he has no opposition to the granting of commutation of this applicant.

Because this applicant has served over half of his minimum sentence and both the trial judge and district attorney recommend that his sentence be commuted, we feel that he will be an acceptable risk on parole and recommend that his sentence be commuted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Richard James Ambrose, B-7124, No. 7902, June Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed upon Richard James Ambrose, convicted of robbery and receiving stolen goods, in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Allegheny County on April 25, 1940; and of robbery in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Allegheny County on April 24, 1941; be commuted on Bill No. 30 October Term, 1939, from a minimum term of 10 years to a minimum term of 7 months and 17 days, expiring on July 17, 1948; and on Bill No. 3 October Term, 1940, from a minimum term of 5 years to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on July 17, 1948. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bill No. 22 February Term, 1940—Westmoreland County).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-three years of age and was sentenced on charges of robbery and receiving stolen goods in Allegheny and Westmoreland Counties. At the time of his sentence, he was on parole from the Pennsylvania Industrial School. He has now served over eight and one-half years of a minimum sentence of fifteen to thirty years. He has served his minimum sentence in Westmoreland County and the Board of Parole has granted him parole on his Westmoreland County sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary state that if this applicant were eligible to apply for parole, they would recommend him because of the length of time he has served, his excellent record, his commendable progress and self-improvement, and that he is a co-operative and trustworthy inmate employed in a position of trust.

The district attorney of Allegheny County appeared before the Board of Pardons and stated orally to the Board that he was not opposed to a commutation of sentence at this time and that all of applicant's accomplices have been released. One accomplice was released by commutation of sentence in November 1945 and has since been maintaining a good record.

We believe if this applicant is given an opportunity to again prove his worth in society, he will not again become involved with the law as his record in prison indicated that such will be the case. He has an excellent parole plan and we believe that because of the long period of time which he has served, longer than any of his other accomplices, he should now be given an opportunity to demonstrate that he will not again become involved in any criminal action. We therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of George Zimmer, B-3353, No. 5856, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of George Zimmer, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, striking and ill-using in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Erie County on September 16, 1932, sentence to begin at the expiration of parole violation on September 16, 1935, be commuted from 20 years to 13 years and 1 month, expiring on October 16, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Rocco Trallo, D-4564 B-9415, No. 7927, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Rocco Trallo, convicted of robbery, burglary with intent to rob in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 5, 1940 to be computed from December 11, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 9 years expiring on December 11, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-one years of age and this is his first conviction for any offense whatsoever. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on a charge of robbery, burglary with intent to rob. At the present time he has served nearly nine years of his minimum sentence for his part in a payroll holdup in which the loot of $2100.00 was received by the applicant and his accomplice.

He has maintained an excellent disciplinary record and at the present time is serving his sentence in the Rockview Prison Farm.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has stated that he leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons and the district attorney has indicated that he has no objection at the present time.

In view of his excellent institutional record, we believe that nine years of his ten year minimum sentence is sufficient punishment for this applicant, and we therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted and he be released on parole December 11, 1948.

In re application of Joseph A. Shanno, C-8937, No. 4848, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Joseph A. Sanno, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County on May 8, 1933, be commuted from 20 years to 15 years and 5 months, expiring on October 8, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. In re application of William George Pye, Jr., No. 9466, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that William George Pye, Jr., convicted of killing a human being in mistake for game in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Bradford County, on July 1, 1946, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant was given a sentence of two years on a charge of killing a human being in mistake for game. The applicant shot his cousin in the mistake for a woodchuck. He was sentenced to a term of two years in the Bradford County Jail of which he served five months. He was then released on parole and entered the United States Coast Guard. Subsequent to his release from this, he entered preparatory school and expects to enter Rutgers University this fall. There is little chance of this applicant becoming involved again and there is no doubt about killing being a mistake.

Since it was a mistake; since the trial judge recommends; the Board of Parole recommends, and all the parties having anything to do with it, recommends; it is felt that this applicant is a proper person to receive a pardon.

We, therefore, recommend that this pardon be granted to this applicant.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of George B. Neild, D-3668, No. 8900, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of George B. Neild, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on November 18, 1946 to be computed from May 16, 1946 be commuted from 4 years to 2 years, 5 months and 12 days, expiring on October 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is fifty-nine years of age and he has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for from two to four years for larceny of sixteen dresses and one topcoat from the platform of the Pennsylvania Railroad station in Philadelphia. After having served approximately eight months of his two years minimum sentence, he was commuted and has been on parole since that time.

Following his release from prison, he was rehired by the Pennsylvania Railroad, from whom he had stolen the goods, and was moved to Harrisburg where he was assigned as pipe-fitter in the yards of the railroad. He has been reunited with his wife and children and supports them satisfactorily. He has adjusted himself to his job satisfactorily and his work supervisor verifies his good record.

We believe that this applicant has learned his lesson and he will not again become involved with the law.

There is no objection to the granting of this commutation of maximum sentence by the district attorney and the trial judge. The Honorable George G. Parry, the trial judge, admits he is not familiar with this case, but feels that the sentence was merited.

We believe that this applicant has shown that he will not again become involved with the authorities if given a commutation of his maximum sentence. Following his release, he has indicated a readjustment in society by getting away from Philadelphia and coming to Harrisburg, and we believe he will continue to do so if granted a commutation of his maximum sentence.

We agree with the district attorney, who feels that since he has been a good parolee and had a good record with the Pennsylvania Railroad prior to this arrest, that we would not be amiss in recommending that his maximum sentence be commuted. We, therefore, so recommend.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Gaspar Morganti, B-7702, No. 7859, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Gaspar Morganti, convicted of murder in the second degree, voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Indiana County on May 26, 1941 to be computed from January 24, 1941 be commuted from 16 years to 8 years expiring on January 24, 1949.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-six years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from sixteen to thirty-two years on a charge of murder in the second degree and voluntary manslaughter.

This applicant committed three offenses back in 1926 and the fight was carried to him by the two victims. At that time the victim had an argument with the applicant over a baseball bat on the day preceding the killing. On the day of the killing, the two victims approached the applicant when he was getting an ice cream soda in a little store, and with a hammer and tire iron proceeded to strike and beat the applicant. After he had been hit upon the head, the applicant drew a pistol, shot and killed both of the men. He immediately fled jurisdiction and after living in Los Angeles for a period of thirteen years, he was apprehended, brought back to Pennsylvania and plead guilty to voluntary manslaughter and was convicted of murder in the second degree. At the present time, he has served approximately one-half of his sentence. During the entire period of his life in California, after commission of this offense, he had nothing but the most excellent reputation. He now has an excellent reputation in the institution.

There is no adverse opinion to the release of this applicant from either the trial judge or the district attorney.

It is the conviction of the Board of Parole that this applicant was well rehabilitated in California, and after having served this additional time in Pennsylvania, is returned to his family in California, will not again offend against society.

We feel that this man will not again offend against society and that he was in great fear when he committed this crime, and under these circumstances, we recommend that the applicant's sentence be commuted as of January 24, 1949.

In re application of James Stewart Mock, No. 629-43, No. 9515, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Stewart Mock, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Berks County on March 27, 1947 be commuted from 2 years to 1 year and 7 months, expiring on October 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-three years of age and this is his first conviction whatsoever. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Berks County Prison for from two to six years for having committed a series of burglaries together with two accomplices.

At the present time he has served over one year and six months of this sentence. This applicant was sentenced along with his two accomplices Ciliberti and DeLong to two to six years. At the June Session of the Board of Pardons we granted a commutation to both Ciliberti and DeLong on the basis of the representations made by their counsel. Shortly after favorable recommendation to these two accomplices, Ciliberti escaped from the Berks County Prison but later gave himself up. The Board of Pardons withdrew its favorable recommendation from the Board of Parole and so noted it on their records. DeLong however was given his freedom.

Since this applicant did not receive any longer sentence nor was his prior record as bad as his accomplices, we feel he should be granted the same as the accomplices, and we therefore, recommend that the commutation of his sentence be granted.

In re application of John Mattis, B-8413, No. 7175, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon John Mattis, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on December 10, 1942 and to be computed from October 26, 1942; and in the Quarter Sessions Court of Westmoreland County on October 29, 1943 and to run concurrent with original sentence imposed in Allegheny County, be commuted on Bill No. 47 November Sessions, 1942 (Allegheny County) from a maximum term of 8 years to a maximum term of 6 years, expiring on October 26, 1948; and on Bill No. 126 May Sessions, 1943 (Westmoreland County and to run concurrent with Bill No. 47) is also commuted.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Nick Malta, D-4814, No. 9524, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed on Nick Malta, convicted of pandering, receiving proceeds of prostitution, transporting a female for purpose of prostitution in the Quarter Sessions Courts of Northumberland and Schuylkill Counties on March 25, 1940 to be computed from December 7, 1939, be commuted from a minimum term of 15 years (Northumberland County) to a minimum term of 9 years, expiring on December 7, 1948; and a maximum term of 10 years (Schuylkill County to run concurrent) to a maximum term of 9 years, expiring on December 7, 1948. (Applicant to be deported to Italy).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-nine years of age and he has been convicted on several occasions for pandering and transporting a female for immoral purposes. When he was arrested and convicted in both Northumberland and Schuylkill Counties on such an offense and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from fifteen to thirty years.

Under these circumstances, the applicant has now served approximately nine years of a fifteen year minimum sentence. At the present time there is outstanding against the applicant a warrant for deportation to Italy, from which country he emigrated when he was fourteen years of age. The applicant has an excellent record in the Eastern State Penitentiary where he is confined.

The president judge, Honorable Robert Fortney of Northumberland County, has no objection to the granting of commutation if the Board is satisfied in the matter. The present judge was the trial district attorney and the present district attorney has made no recommendation.

The district attorney of Schuylkill County has no objection and since the applicant has served more than the minimum sentence imposed in Schuylkill County and will be deported, it is the judgment of the Board of Pardons that he should be deported, and therefore, recommends that commutation be granted and he be deported to his native country of Italy.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Lockoski, B-8117, No. 8562, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Lockoski, convicted of burglary, larceny, attempted assault with intent to kill in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Washington County on March 27, 1942 to be computed from March 15, 1942 be commuted from 15 years to 7 years expiring on March 15, 1949.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and this is his first major conviction. He has now served approximately six and one-half years of a minimum sentence of fifteen years in the Western State Penitentiary.

He and three accomplices broke into several places where they stole liquor, cigarettes and money. Following one of the burglaries, the applicant celebrating his birthday, got drunk and got into an argument with the victim and cut him with a knife.

He has an excellent record in the Western State Penitentiary and since he has served nearly one-half of his minimum sentence, the Board of Trustees would recommend that he be granted a commutation. All of the accomplices received very slight sentences, the heaviest being a term of two to five years. The applicant has now served over three times the heaviest sentence meted out to his accomplices.

Under all of these circumstances, we feel that the applicant has been severely punished and we recommend that he be released at the expiration of seven years, and therefore, recommend to Your Excellency that his sentence be commuted as of March 15, 1949.

In re application of Albert Kuzmiskey, No. 9469, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Albert Kuzmiskey, convicted of entering a building, robbery, violation of the Firearms Act in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on May 7, 1942 to be computed from February 19, 1942 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-nine years of age and this is his first offense in Pennsylvania and he seeks a pardon on the basis that he has been completely rehabilitated. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Allegheny County Workhouse for from two to ten years for participating in three holdups. After his release on parole, the applicant joined the Merchant Marine and served for a period of several years. Subsequently he secured a position as cook and has been working at this position for the past four years. It is the opinion of applicant's wife and others who know him, that he is a good husband and attentive to the home. It is felt that he will not again become in delinquent behavior.

The report of the New York Parole Agent is that the applicant is industrious and capable and is entitled to a favorable action by the Board of Pardons.

The applicant feels that this conviction prevents him from exercising his full citizenship and desires that this be returned to him.

In view of the fact that he served four years in the Merchant Marine and has exhibited evidence of rehabilitation, we believe this applicant is a worthy person to receive the pardon which he seeks. Under all of these circumstances, we recommend that the pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Walter J. Kunkle, D-8352, C-463, No. 8948, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Walter J. Kunkle, convicted of rape, adultery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on June 13, 1945 be commuted from 5 years to 3 years and 5 months, expiring on November 13, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-five years of age and this is his first conviction. He was charged with the crime of rape and adultery and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to fifteen years. At the present time he has served over three years of his minimum sentence.

The evidence as produced before the Board of Pardons would indicate that this girl on whom he was alleged to have committed rape was a girl of bad moral repute. Both before and since this occurrence, she was seen in a drunken condition on more than one occasion in the company of other men. This applicant has an excellent institutional record in the Eastern State Penitentiary and has been transferred to Rockview Prison Farm where he maintains an excellent record.

The district attorney of Delaware County states that he is not opposed to commutation since he has served more than one-half of his sentence. The trial judge, Honorable Albert D. MacDade, is no longer judge of this court and the present judge will offer no opinion.

Under these circumstances, we believe that the applicant is sufficiently punished, and therefore, recommend that his minimum sentence be commuted.

In re application of Leo Kulesik, B-2343, No. 3789, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Leo Kulesik, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on November 24, 1930, be commuted on Bill No. 23 November Sessions, 1930, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 17 years and 11 months, expiring on October 24, 1948; on Bill No. 26 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on October 25, 1948; and on Bill No. 28 from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on October 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Kennedy, C-3351, No. 9523, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on William Kennedy, convicted of robbery in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Philadelphia County on April 5, 1926, be commuted on Bill No. 1298 March Sessions, 1926, from a maximum term of 20 years to a maximum term of 2 years and 7 months, expiring on November 6, 1948; and on Bill No. 1300 from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 1 day, expiring on November 7, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-nine years of age and in 1926 he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty-five to fifty years on a charge of robbery.

At the time of his sentence he was only fifteen and one-half years of age and the loot which he was alleged to have received amounted to approximately $12.00. There were approximately twenty-two persons robbed during that period of time. The applicant was released from prison after having served nearly five years of his twenty-five year minimum sentence. He was on parole for a period of seventeen years when he was arrested in the Enola yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad for illegal train riding. As a result of this arrest and because he was intoxicated at the time, he was returned to the Eastern State Penitentiary as a technical parole violator. He has now served nineteen months of this sentence. He has asked that his maximum sentence be commuted in view of his unsullied record on parole for approximately two decades.

We feel that he has served a sufficiently long period of time for this technical violation, having been in the Eastern State Penitentiary now for nearly two years during which time the Board of Trustees advise he had an excellent institutional record.

The trial judge states that in his opinion the granting of commutation of this maximum sentence is quite worthy. The district attorney is not opposed to the granting of commutation of maximum sentence.

Under these circumstances, we feel that after seventeen years on parole the applicant should not be returned to prison nor continued on parole to the full extent of the fifty years of his maximum sentence and he should be given the full measure of freedom and his maximum sentence be commuted. We, therefore, so recommend to Your Excellency.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Patrick Kenney, No. 58970, No. 9480, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Patrick Kenney, convicted of murder in the second degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on June 7, 1944 to be computed from April 28, 1944 be commuted from 7½ years to 4 years and 6 months expiring on October 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-eight years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Allegheny County Workhouse for from seven and one-half to fifteen years, resulting from the accidental killing of his common-law wife. He was advised by his counsel to plead guilty of this charge of murder in the second degree. He did so, and after he was sentenced to this term of imprisonment because of his previous record, it was found that he had been improperly sentenced on an earlier case, and this was not taken into consideration in the length of the sentence in this case.

The trial judge, Honorable J. Kennedy, has written that he feels that this applicant should receive commutation of sentence. To read from his letter, as follows: ". . . that had I known that Kenney had been illegally sentenced and that he really was not a parolee at the time of the offense for which he is now serving time, that I would not have imposed the sentence which was given to him." The judge further quotes that from the records at the Allegheny County Workhouse, ". . . that this applicant has a good institutional record and that he is an excellent man for release on parole."

The district attorney of Allegheny County has no objection, and under all of the circumstances, the Board of Pardons feels that since this sentence was entered as a result of prior illegal sentence and would not have been given except for erroneous assumption in the first instance, this applicant would now be on parole. We, therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted to conform with the judge's recommendation in this matter and that he be granted a commutation of sentence.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Salvatore Iocco, D-6920, No. 7672, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Salvatore Iocco, convicted of pandering, accepting bawd money in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on January 18, 1943, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant was arrested on a charge of pandering and accepting bawd money and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from three to six years. He was released on parole January 18, 1946. Upon his release he made an effort to secure employment and has become thoroughly rehabilitated. He comes from a family that is highly regarded and well-thought of in the community in which they live.

This applicant was brought to the United States at the age of two years and has resided here for the past twenty-nine years. As a result of his conviction in this case, the applicant is subject to deportation. Ten years ago, in an industrial accident, the applicant lost his left arm and purchased a home in which they live, from funds received from the State Workman's Insurance. This applicant has no friends or relatives in Italy and does not even speak the language. If he was returned to Italy, in his physically handicapped condition, he would be a certain object of charity and probably would receive a much greater penalty than the law anticipated in this case.

Neither the trial judge or district attorney object to the granting of a pardon in this matter.

We feel that the law never contemplated that a defendant in this position would be deported and torn from the bosom of his family, his friends and his employment and sent to a land where he knows neither the language nor their customs.

We feel this to be a harsh penalty for a man convicted of pandering and receiving bawd money. We, therefore, recommend to Your Excellency that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John R. Hoban, D-3458, No. 6788, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John R. Hoban, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 1, 1938 to be computed from September 24, 1938 be commuted from 30 years to 10 years, 1 month and 4 days, expiring on September 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his first conviction for any offense whatsoever. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from thirty to ninety years for robbery of milkmen over a period of one month. He has at this time served slightly more than ten years of his minimum sentence of thirty years.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, states that he has no objection to the granting of commutation at this time since his accomplice had his sentence commuted at the October 1947 Session of the Board, and would be inclined to give this man the same treatment by commuting his sentence. The district attorney of Philadelphia County likewise states he leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons and their findings, that they are not opposed to commutation.

In view of this man's excellent institutional record, and the fact that since the authorities of Philadelphia County would be inclined to give this applicant another chance, the Board of Pardons feels that this applicant should be granted commutation of his minimum sentence.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

Lieutenant Governor.

CHARLES M. MORRISON,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Walter L. Henry, No. 9476, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

(4) assault and battery in the Quarter Sessions Court on April 13, 1939, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-seven years of age, and except for the offenses for which he seeks a pardon, has not been in any other trouble. During the years 1931 and 1933 he was arrested and he either plead guilty or was convicted of four offenses. All of the offenses for which he complains were minor and in one he was arrested and charged with a conspiracy to commit a holdup. There was no proof that the applicant actually knew or agreed to participate in this holdup. In the second offense, the applicant took a car from a friend without the friend's knowledge or consent. For this he was arrested. In the third offense, the applicant while unemployed, took a position as a "number writer" and was arrested. In the fourth offense, while drinking, he got into a fight in the firehouse and broke a glass door. The last of these offenses occurred approximately nine and one-half years ago. He has been in no further trouble.

He served in the armed forces of the United States Army four and one-half years. Following his release, he was employed with the United States Postal Department driving a mail truck. In May 1948 he received a letter from the postmaster advising him that because of his arrest, hereinbefore set forth, that his services with the United States Postal Service was terminated.

The Honorable Harry C. McDevitt, in advising the Board of Pardons, stated he would be in favor of granting a pardon to this man in order that his means of livelihood would not be deprived to him. The district attorney let the matter of granting a pardon up to the Board of Pardons.

The Board has already felt that when a criminal record actually deprives the person of his right to earn a livelihood, the Board has the mercy to grant the clemency required. Further, the Board of Pardons recommends this man on the basis of his military service and the fact that the President Judge of Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County, where he was convicted, recommends that this be done.

The Board, therefore, recommends to Your Excellency that a pardon be granted in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Henry Leon Hellyer, Jr. D-8997, No. 9018, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentences of imprisonment imposed upon Henry Leon Hellyer, Jr., convicted of burglarly and larceny in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Delaware County on June 18, 1946, to be computed from April 25, 1946; and of burglarly, larceny and receiving stolen goods in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Montgomery County on December 13, 1946, be commuted on Bills 406-407-414 (concurrent with 407) June Sessions, 1946 (Delaware County) from a minimum term of 5

years to a minimum term of 2 years, 6 months and 3 days, expiring on October 28, 1948; and on Bills Nos. 74-1 (74, 74-2, 74-3 concurrent with 74-1) April Sessions, 1946 Montgomery County from a minimum term of 1 year to a minimum term of 1 day, expiring on October 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-seven years of age and this is his first conviction for any offense whatsoever. At the time he was sentenced to this term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary, he was a student and had been attending college regularly. However, he got in with some companions who had been in trouble before and he succumbed to their talk of easy money.

The applicant comes from excellent parents, the father is a Presbyterian minister and recently attended the Conference of the Federal Council of Churches in Amsterdam. This boy seems to be the product of a family who spent too much time traveling from place to place and not giving enough care to his development.

At the present time, the applicant has served nearly two and one-half years of his minimum sentence of six years and because of his superior intelligence and his good background, we believe that this applicant has been sufficiently punished. He is an outstanding inmate in the Eastern State Penitentiary and if granted this commutation we would have no qualms that he would again repeat his conduct for which he is now serving.

Both the district attorneys in Delaware and Montgomery Counties state they have no opposition to the granting of commutation at this time. The applicant's accomplice was granted commutation at the June 1948 Session.

Under these circumstances, we believe this applicant should be treated likewise since he received a similar sentence. We, therefore, recommend that his minimum sentence be commuted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Bernard Harris, B-4534, No. 7778, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on Bernard Harris, convicted of robbery in the Oyer and Terminer Court of Allegheny County, on May 31, 1935, to run concurrent with his unexpired violation, be commuted on Bill No. 17 September Sessions, 1926, from a maximum term of 10 years to a maximum term of 8 years and 7 months, expiring on November 12, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty years of age and although his prior criminal record has not much to offer to the Board, the consideration as a whole is that this applicant is not inherently bad. This applicant is now on parole from a sentence of five to twenty-five years imposed in 1926 when he and three accomplices were alleged to have heldup the victim and taking the sum of $3.00. This applicant is now in the tobacco business with his father and has stated that if granted a commutation of his maximum sentence, he will be in a position to take over the father's business. It is almost impossible for a person on parole to conduct their own business. At this time he has been on parole for approximately six and one-half years.

There is some argument made here on the original indictment and this applicant would not have been on parole at the present time. This is borne out of the Supreme Court opinion in the Kinsella case which caused a recomputation of applicant's sentences, but still left him with an exceedingly long period of parole.

Since all of the accomplices have been either acquitted or on parole for approximately twenty years, we believe that this applicant who has served all of this length of time will not offend against society, and therefore, recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted since he would have approximately one and one-half more years of parole to serve.

In re application of William Goodlock, B-6632, No. 123-B, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of William Goodlock, convicted of larceny of an automobile in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on March 9, 1939 to be computed from February 27, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years and 8 months, expiring on October 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

In re application of Harding Fuller, D-8965, No. 9494, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Harding Fuller, convicted of assault with intent to rob in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County on June 13, 1946 to be computed from May 4, 1946 be commuted from 5 years to 2 years and 6 months, expiring on November 4, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-eight years of age and this is his first conviction for any offense whatsoever. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years. There were two cases of purse snatching involved in this case.

The applicant has an excellent institutional record in the Eastern State Penitentiary where he is confined and he is described as having made a very good adjustment and good performance record in the industry section.

The present judge of Delaware County will state no opinion in cases which were heretofore handled by the Honorable Albert D. MacDade, formerly president judge of Delaware County. The district attorney, however, states that he feels that two and one-half years is sufficient for what this applicant has done and recommends to the Board of Pardons that his sentence be commuted when he has served two and one-half years.

We, therefore, recommend that the sentence of the applicant be commuted to two and one-half years, expiring on November 4, 1948.

In re application of Thomas Martin Ferguson, No. 8978, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Thomas Martin Ferguson, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Delaware County on March 19, 1946 to be computed from December 17, 1945 be commuted from 6 years to 3 years expiring on December 17, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-nine years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Delaware County Prison for from six to twelve years on a charge of voluntary manslaughter on an individual he had taken into his home. While in his home, both the applicant and the victim being under the influence of liquor, the victim was assaulted by applicant when found in bed with the applicant's wife. Fists were used, but the victim was beaten with such severity that he died. The applicant was convicted and sentenced to a term hereinbefore set forth.

He has now served approximately three years of his minimum sentence. During his incarceration in the Delaware County Prison, he has been given at least two paroles, one during Christmas of 1947 and one to attend the funeral of his mother. These the Board believes are without authority in the least. As a result of the Christmas parole, which extended two days before Christmas until one day after New Year's, the wife became pregnant and gave birth to a child.

Since this matter is highly irregular and since the district attorney in Delaware County is not opposed to the granting of commutation at this time, and further, since he has a good record in the Delaware County Prison for the period he has served, we therefore, believe that this applicant's place is with his wife and young son, and therefore, recommend that commutation be granted as of December 17, 1948.

In re application of Earl L. Francke, No. 9477, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Earl L. Francke, convicted of fornication in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on June 22, 1940, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-one years of age and this is his only offense of any kind whatsoever. He has been charged with fornication and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25.00. The applicant pleaded guilty to the crime of fornication. All the other counts including rape and statutory rape were discharged against him.

It was shown by the judge's letter that the prosecutrix was a person of poor repute and she become quite confused and admitted while in New York, after this offense, she had relations with two other men.

The trial judge, in this matter, suggests that he give full consideration to his application for pardon. The district attorney, likewise, suggests it.

The applicant has been an honest and up-right citizen and served in the armed forces of the United States. At the present time he desires to apply for a civil service position with the police department of the City of Philadelphia. He is married and has two children. For the sake of these children and his possibility of securing a position with the police force, he desires this pardon.

The Board of Pardons feels that this applicant has been sufficiently punished and this slight offense should not deter him from securing the employment he desires, and therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of George Duncan, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on May 11, 1939 to be computed from May 6, 1939, be commuted from 30 years to 9 years and 5 months, expiring on October 6, 1948.

In re application of Martin Cohen, 9471, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Martin Cohen, convicted of conspiracy in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on June 25, 1942, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is forty-eight years of age and this is his first conviction of any offense whatsoever. He was accused of taking food stamps for merchandise instead of money in violation of the Pennsylvania Public Assistance Law. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for three months, which he served.

During the past six years and three months he has been in no other trouble. He is married and has two children, and for the sake of his family, he desires a pardon to rid his name of this offense. His two conspirators in this matter, who were equally guilty, received six months probation, while the applicant went to prison.

All parties having anything to do with the applicant of this offense, have no objection to granting of a pardon.

In this matter, we feel that the applicant has been sufficiently punished and he will not again become involved with the law, since for the past six years he has maintained himself and family in a position of high regard in the neighborhood. We, therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

In re application of John Joseph Carroll, D-1379, No. 5270, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of John Joseph Carroll, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 3, 1936 be commuted from 20 years to 12 years and 5 months, expiring on November 3, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty years of age. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on the charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. After having served five years of this sentence, his minimum sentence was commuted by the Board of Pardons and he was released on parole. Following his release on parole, the applicant attempted immediately to rehabilitate and has reestablished himself in society.

The Board of Parole has advised the Board of Pardons that the applicant's conduct during his seven years on parole and in this resume of his parole record, they feel this applicant has evidenced an ability to maintain a stable place in society, and they would have no objection to the granting of commutation of the maximum sentence.

Since the Board of Parole, who has had this applicant under supervision for the past seven years and who has no objection to the granting of commutation of maximum sentence, the trial judge, Honorable Frank Smith, leaves the matter of commutation of sentence up to the Board of Pardons. The district attorney feels that this is a matter of decision for the Board of Pardons.

The Board of Pardons feel that since he has maintained a good work, church and home record, has supported his two sons, and make a home for his aged mother, that he be given the opportunity now to live his life in society without further supervision. We, therefore, recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted.

In re application of James Bryson, D-2977, No. 9529, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommended that the minimum sentence of James Bryson, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 15, 1938 to be computed from March 4, 1938 be commuted from 25 years to 10 years and 8 months, expiring on November 4, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-one years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty-five to fifty years on a series of holdups of stores and taprooms. His share of the loot was $200.00.

This applicant has an excellent institutional record in the Eastern State Penitentiary. As reported by the Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary, he has conducted himself well, and during the ten and one-half years of his imprisonment has been steady, industrious and capable of working with limited supervision, as described in his imprisonment record.

The trial judge, Honorable Frank Smith, has advised the Board of Pardons he may have learned his lesson. The assistant district attorney, James W. Tracey, Jr., Esquire, has no objection to the granting of his release prayed for.

Under all of these circumstances, we believe that this applicant has been severely punished, having no prior criminal record, and since he has been an excellent prisoner for ten and one-half years, we recommend that commutation of sentence be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Orville J. Barclay, C-4684, No. 5195, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sessions of Philadelphia County on June 28, 1928 be commuted from life imprisonment to 20 years and 4 months, expiring on October 28, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-two years of age and has not much in his past record to recommend him to this Board, and for that reason we have refused to recommend commutation on three prior occasions. At the present time he has served nearly twenty-one years of a life sentence for murder in the first degree.

This applicant has been in the Eastern State Penitentiary during the entire period of incarceration. He has maintained and established an excellent disciplinary record and has adjusted easily and well during the long period of incarceration. He has demonstrated a habit of industry during the ten years of continuous employment in the print shop and has become proficient in all phases of that work. He has been employed as a leather worker and became skillful in designing and producing leather goods which the members of the Board have seen evidence. The quality of his work as a leather craftsman has been praised and he has earned considerable money and has invested this in war bonds and also has a substantial balance.

He is well recommended by the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary to Your Excellency. This is the only inmate in the career of Frank P. Tucker, Senior Parole Officer of the Eastern State Penitentiary, for whom he has offered to act as sponsor. He has written to the Board and stated that in his opinion he feels this applicant has thoroughly rehabilitated himself and wishes to be helpful to this applicant in reclaiming his life to society. He will have a position with Horace J. Mayer, who is engaged in the leather goods business.

The trial judge, Honorable James Gay Gordon, has refused to make comment, as is his custom, feeling he has not known anything of the inmate for twenty years, and therefore, does not feel qualified to make a recommendation. The assistant district attorney of Philadelphia County, James W. Tracey, Jr., has stated he is opposed to granting commutation, but he is opposed to granting of commutations in all life sentences and not because he does not feel that Orville J. Barclay has become rehabilitated.

The Board of Pardons has seen evidence of this man's industry and thrift; we have seen evidence of his craftsmanship; and even though he was involved in this holdup in which a murder was committed and the accomplice was sentenced to death and paid the supreme penalty, we feel that this applicant has now reached a point where "we can take a chance" on his being rehabilitated and send him back into society, or we can keep this relatively young man in prison for the rest of his life.

In view of his excellent job, home, and sponsorship, which the Board of Parole recommends be adopted, we feel that after twenty-one years in the institution, Orville J. Barclay's sentence should be commuted. We, therefore, so recommend.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Wallace Lapinski, C-6826, No. 7090, September Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application have been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Wallace Lapinski, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Luzerne County on February 16, 1931 be commuted from life imprisonment to 18 years expiring on February 16, 1949.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-six years of age and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary.

The applicant and two accomplices held up a gas station and in perpetration of the holdup a fatal shot was fired and the attendant was killed. The applicant was not the actual killer. The actual killer, Flood, was sentenced to death and later had his sentence commuted to life imprisonment. Accomplice Matlack was sentenced to life imprisonment and his sentence was commuted by this Board in May 1948.

This applicant has been confined in the Eastern State Penitentiary for over seventeen and one-half years. The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has reported to this Board that he has maintained an excellent institutional record.

The present judge, Honorable William A. Valentine, has stated to the Board of Pardons that: "... If any clemency is to be shown I am of the opinion that Matlack is entitled to the first consideration. He had no prior record. However, the matter is entirely up to the good judgment of the Board." The district attorney of Luzerne County also left the matter of commutation up to the Board.

The applicant has employment with the Tobin's Plumbing Company of Tampa, Florida, which is accepted by the parole authorities. He will be under the Florida Parole supervision.

In view of this applicant's excellent institutional record for the past seventeen and one-half years and since there is no objection from the sentencing authorities, we feel that this applicant has been sufficiently punished and will not again offend against society, and we therefore, recommend to Your Excellency that this applicant's sentence be commuted to eighteen years and that he be released on parole February 16, 1949.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Louis Zemler, B-3126, No. 4567, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Louis Zemler, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on February 17, 1932 be commuted from life imprisonment to 16 years, 9 months, and 10 days, expiring on November 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-one years of age and has now served over sixteen years of a life sentence. This was his first major conviction and applicant was the driver of the car in which the two accomplices shot and killed the victim during the holdup in order to get away.

Both the trial judge and district attorney of Allegheny County left the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons. The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary states that this applicant is serving his first major imprisonment, that he has an excellent institutional record, and if he was eligible for parole they would recommend him for parole.

This applicant if released will make his home with his aged mother and father, will be given an opportunity to adjust himself in society and to aid his aged parents, who are living on relief. This applicant's prior criminal record was not any worse than the accomplices whose sentences were commuted.

Under all of the circumstances, the Board of Pardons feels that this applicant is now fully matured and has learned a profitable trade while in prison and will be able to assist his parents if released. Considering the fact that he has served over sixteen years of his sentence, the Board of Pardons recommends that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Joseph Cecil Yontz, D-6977, No. 8419, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Cecil Yontz, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Dauphin County on September 21, 1942 to be computed from September 17, 1942 be commuted from 10 years to 6 years, 2 months, and 10 days, expiring on November 27, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty years of age and he has now served over six years of a minimum sentence of ten years. Applicant and his brother, who was his accomplice, robbed the victim of the day's receipts and as a result of this robbery he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years.

This applicant has an excellent institutional record and he has learned barbering proficiently. He is also a member of the prison fire department and as such is authorized to go outside of the prison walls in the line of duty. He has never taken advantage of this authorization and in fact has received nothing but the highest commendation from the officers. The victim has written a letter to the Board of Pardons in which he states that the applicant has a brother who was paroled in 1947 and he believes this applicant should receive the same treatment.

The present judge, Honorable J. Paul Rupp, has stated that he would leave the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons. The district attorney of Dauphin County has written a letter to the Board of Pardons in which he states that he wholeheartedly recommends that commutation of sentence be granted.

Since he was in prison his father has died and his mother is suffering from cancer and she does not have long to live, and the applicant desires commutation in order to help her in her few remaining years on this earth. A suitable parole plan has been established and applicant will work in a shop in Harrisburg. He has served nearly three-fourths of his minimum sentence and we feel that this applicant, together with the excellent institutional record which he has, and the excellent parole plan he has offered, is entitled to one more chance.

We, therefore, recommend that commutation of his minimum sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of James R. Wynn, C-202, D-9055, No. 9564, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommended that the minimum sentence of James R. Wynn, convicted of burglary and larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Montgomery County on August 2, 1946 to be computed from July 26, 1946 be commuted from 4 years to 2 years and 6 months, expiring on January 26, 1949.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is fifty-six years of age and he has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from four to eight years after a plea of guilty to taking a ring from a friend. He has now served over twenty-three months of a minimum sentence of four years.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have advised the Board of Pardons that this applicant has an excellent institutional record and because of his good record has been transferred to Rockview Prison Farm where he is a gardener at the Deputy Warden's residence and has made an excellent adjustment there.

The trial judge, Honorable William F. Dannehower, has written the Board of Pardons that he has no objection to the granting of clemency in this case. The district attorney, however, is opposed at this time, but feels that three years would be a proper sentence.

The Board of Pardons feels this applicant has offered a good parole plan, has no prior criminal record, and has an excellent institutional record, and that we could recommend commutation to Your Excellency after applicant has served two and one-half years. We, therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted to expire on January 26, 1949.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Fred Webster, D-2820, No. 6870, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Fred Webster, convicted of larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 25, 1938 to be computed from January 20, 1938, be commuted from 20 years to 10 years 10 months and 2 days, expiring on November 22, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-nine years of age and this is his first major conviction. He and two accomplices were guilty of strong-arming eight women and stealing their pocketbooks. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years and at the present time has served over ten years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state that he has an excellent work record over the past three years and that he receives a favorable record from his custodian officers. He is a paid musician in the band in the institution. During the war he was a worker in the Tent Peg Shop. He is also interested in sports in the prison and is a member of the prison baseball team.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has visited the institution and interview him and believes he is cured of criminal tendencies and would be inclined to give him another chance. The district attorney of Philadelphia County stated to the Board that he is not opposed to the granting of commutation because the applicant has a good institutional record. This record has been discussed above.

The Board of Pardons feels the applicant has served the major portion of his sentence and since this is his first conviction and he has a good institutional record, the Board is inclined to agree with the persons who have seen him and recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Richard D. Taylor, D-1262, No. 4126, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due

public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Richard D. Taylor, convicted of kidnapping in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lehigh County on April 29, 1936, be commuted from 50 years to 12 years and 7 months, expiring on November 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is fifty-four years of age and prior to his plea of guilty in this case has been in no further trouble. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty-five to fifty years on a charge of kidnapping and having served five years of his minimum sentence he was granted commutation and released on parole.

Since his release on parole the applicant is gainfully employed by the Westinghouse Electric Corporation and he and his wife have established their home in Philadelphia. He has during his period of parole saved approximately $2,000.00 which he has invested to a good advantage. He is well thought of in his position and was made shop steward in his position at the Westinghouse Electric Corporation. He is still employed there. He is sober, industrious, and is taking care of his family obligations.

The present judge in Lehigh County has stated to the parole agent that he does not oppose commutation of his maximum sentence. The district attorney of Lehigh County has written the Board that he recommends commutation of his maximum sentence.

The supervisor of Industrial Relations of Westinghouse Electric Corporation in Philadelphia has written the Board of Pardons and stated that this applicant's position with the company has been so enviable and that his record of rehabilitation so excellent that he unhesitatingly recommends this applicant for a favorable consideration to the Board of Pardons. It is stated that he is "an ideal employee."

This applicant has shown that he merited the confidence which was placed in him when he was granted his commutation. After hearing of his rehabilitation as testified to by his employers who know him and supervised him, the Board wholeheartedly recommends that the commutation of his maximum sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Bruno Szymanski, D-4715, No. 8063, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Bruno Szymanski, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 5, 1940 to be computed from February 16, 1940 be commuted from 20 years to 8 years 9 months and 10 days, expiring on November 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-nine years of age and this is his first major conviction, in fact, it is the first time he has committed any offense whatsoever. However, he and three accomplices did commit a series of nine robberies during a period of one month.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state that the applicant has an excellent institutional record and that he has periodically sent money to his mother during his period of incarceration.

The present judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has written the Board of Pardons and stated that he would be inclined to give the applicant another chance. The district attorney of Philadelphia County leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

The Board of Parole states that two of the applicant's accomplices have already had their sentences commuted and the district attorney of Philadelphia County pointed out to the Board of Pardons that this applicant is in the same category as the other two accomplices.

Because this applicant has an excellent institutional record and this is his first major conviction, having served nearly nine years of his minimum sentence, and further, that he is in the same position as his accomplices whose sentences have been commuted, the Board of Pardons is inclined to agree with the trial judge and give him another chance. We, therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,

CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Robert Lee Scott, No. 9575, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Robert Lee Scott, convicted of operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, failure to stop and render assistance in the Court of Quarter Session of Philadelphia County on December 31, 1935, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-six years of age and he has no prior or subsequent criminal record. He was convicted of driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, failure to stop and render assistance. He is not on parole. He served in the United States Navy for a period of time being in the Seabees in the South Pacific.

The Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, has no objection to the granting of a pardon. The district attorney of Philadelphia has no objection.

We recommend that this pardon be granted for the following reasons: The applicant served in the United States Navy for two years in the South Pacific, and has an honorable discharge as Petty Officer. He has conducted himself well over the last ten years. He is the sole support of his widowed mother and he desires to clear his record.

We, therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Paul Krupocin, D-4280, No. 8211 October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Paul Krupocin, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Schuylkill County on September 28, 1939 to be computed from July 1, 1939 be commuted from 15 years to 9 years 4 months and 25 days, expiring on November 26, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from fifteen to thirty years for the commission of several armed robberies. Applicant was the driver of the get-away car which also had been stolen. All of the accomplices have had their sentences commuted by the Board of Pardons, some of them as long as two years ago, although this applicant has not had any worse record than the accomplices, whose sentences were commuted.

If released this applicant is going to live in New York City. He has a good institutional record with the institution, and they have stated to us that he has demonstrated trustworthiness and capability and his record has always been adequate.

The trial judge, Honorable Cyrus M. Palmer, states he is glad to recommend the applicant. The district attorney of Schuylkill County does not make any recommendation.

Since this applicant has served nearly ten years of his minimum sentence of fifteen years and has an excellent institutional record and since all of his accomplices have been released, we feel this applicant merits consideration, and we therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Jordan, D-4681, No. 9583, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Jordan, convicted of attempted burglary in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on July 17, 1947 to be computed from July 1, 1947, be commuted from 2 years to 1 year and 6 months, expiring on January 1, 1949.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-five years of age and this is his first conviction for any offense whatsoever. He has served nearly one and one-half years of a minimum sentence of two years at the time of this application.

The facts on which he has been convicted are as follows: Applicant had been drinking too much and opened a window of a house, and when accused by the occupant, stated he was "looking for Jimmy." When the police were notified they found the applicant in another house on another street still "looking for Jimmy."

The Board has been informed by the Philadelphia County Prison that the applicant has a good institutional record and has not been cited for any violation of the prison rules.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, is opposed to granting of commutation. However, the district attorney of Philadelphia County feels this is only a slight violation and since he had no prior criminal record, he could be released and therefore, left the matter of commutation up to the Board.

Since this applicant has a good institutional record and served in the armed forces of the United States during the war, we believe he will be able to adjust in the community if given a slight reduction of sentence and will not again become involved in any criminal activities. We, therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted from two years to one and one-half years, expiring on January 1, 1949.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Edward Harris, No. 9533, October Sessions, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Edward Harris, convicted of larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on January 21, 1939, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-five years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced on a technical larceny charge and was only sixteen years of age when this offense took place. He did not have anything to do with the stealing of the car, however, he was driving the car when the automobile locked bumpers with another automobile. This applicant asked the accomplice where he had gotten the car and the accomplice informed him it was a borrowed car.

He has been in no further trouble for over ten years.

He served in the armed forces of the United States with three years overseas service. He is well recommended by his friends and neighbors in his vicinity.

He now desires to take a civil service appointment but cannot do so as long as this record appears against him.

There is no objection from the sentencing authorities of Philadelphia County to the granting of a pardon as prayed for.

Because of this applicant's extreme youth when the crime was committed, since he is only technically guilty and because of his good military record, we recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Nicholas Futrago, B-9693, D-6068, No. 8714, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Nicholas Futrago, convicted of larceny and burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lackawanna County on October 18, 1941 to be computed from October 13, 1941, be commuted from 8 years to 7 years 1 month and 10 days, expiring on November 23, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-six years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from eight to sixteen years for breaking and entering four different places. At the present time, he has served over seven years of his minimum sentence of eight years.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state that this applicant has had an excellent institutional record in the institution and because of this was transferred to Rockview Prison Farm where he has continued to prove his rehabilitation by continuing a good work record. They state that his attitude has shown improvement, is satisfactory and general adjustment shows rehabilitative effort on the part of the prisoner.

The present judge, Honorable Linus T. Hoban, has advised a member of the staff of the Board of Parole that he has no objection and leaves the matter of clemency in the hands of the Board of Pardons. The district attorney of Lackawanna County states that he would leave the matter up to the Board of Pardons.

Since this applicant is serving for his first major conviction, has an excellent institutional record, and has served over seven-eighths of his sentence we recommend that commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re application of Wilfred Flood, C-7517, No. 2, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Wilfred Flood, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Luzerne County on October 21, 1931 be commuted from life imprisonment to 17 years and 1 month, expiring on November 21, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is fifty years of age and prior to this offense had not been in any other trouble. This offense, however, was a murder committed by perpetration of a robbery and this applicant is the last of the group who committed the crime to be in prison. He now asks that his sentence be commuted.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary stated that this applicant has an excellent institutional record, that he has demonstrated an excellent habit of industry and thrift, is commended by all of the officials and officers who have close contact with him. He has a substantial institutional balance as the result of his industry.

At the time counsel appeared before the Board of Pardons for the applicant, he presented to the Board of Pardons letters from the trial judge and district attorney in which they indicated they were not opposed to the granting of commutation in this case as both of the accomplices of the applicant have been released.

Since this applicant has an excellent institutional record for seventeen years and his accomplices have all been released through commutation of sentence, we believe this applicant is entitled to consideration, and we therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Lee Evans, B-9627, D-4311, No. 8054, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Lee Evans, convicted of murder in the second degree in the Court of Oyer & Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Franklin County on October 2, 1939 to be computed from August 9, 1939 be commuted from 10 years to 9 years 3 months and 20 days, expiring on November 29, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-three years of age and this is his first conviction for any offense whatsoever. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on a charge of murder in the second degree. At the present time he has served over nine years of his minimum sentence of ten years.

Both the trial judge and district attorney have stated that they are not opposed to the granting of commutation in this matter. The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has advised the Board of Pardons that this applicant has an excellent institutional adjustment.

The Board of Pardons feels this applicant has been sufficiently punished by the serving of the nine years of a ten year minimum sentence during which time he has had an excellent institutional record and should be given another chance in society, and we therefore, recommend that commutation of his minimum sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

In re application of Thomas Burwell, No. 2408-D, No. 124-B, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Thomas Burwell, convicted of murder in the second degree in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 7, 1937, be commuted from 12 years to 11 years and 10 months, expiring on November 7, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Berydas, D-4738, No. 9070, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles Berydas, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 13, 1948 to be computed from March 2, 1940 be commuted from 15 years to 8 years 8 months and 20 days, expiring on November 22, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-two years of age and this is his first major conviction although he has been in other trouble. He and three accomplices committed seven robberies over a period of one month during February 1940. At the present time he has served over eight years and seven months of his minimum sentence of fifteen years. Two of his accomplices have been freed, the other served five years of his minimum sentence.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary indicates that this applicant has an excellent institutional record and that he is considered by the officers, who have him in charge, as a model prisoner and also stated he has used his earnings wisely and generously contributed toward the support of a sister. He has established a savings account in the institutional bank.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, in writing to the Board, states that he thinks this applicant is deserving of another chance. The district attorney of Philadelphia County leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

In the light of this applicant's performance in the institution and recommendation of the trial judge and district attorney, we feel that this applicant has adjusted himself and will not again offend against society if granted commutation of sentence. Under all of these circumstances, the Board recommends that a commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Harry Berger, No. 9542, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Harry Berger, convicted of assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery, indecent assault in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on October 28, 1938, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-eight years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced on a charge of assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery and indecent assault to a term of imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison for a period of four months. He was released after he had served approximately one month of this sentence. He is on parole and at the present time is living in New Jersey.

The Board believes at most this was a technical offense and since the victim did not make any outcry or anyone observe any untoward incident, we find it hard to believe the victim's story about the applicant. However, a jury did, and he was convicted. He has not been in any further difficulty for a period of ten years.

The district attorney of Philadelphia County leaves the matter up to the Board of Pardons.

He is married and has three children and desires this pardon in order that his name may be cleared.

We feel that this applicant not having been in any further difficulty for a period of ten years, and since at most it was a technical violation, should be entitled to some consideration. We therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John K. Bennett, C-8219, No. 9547, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of John K. Bennett, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Sullivan County on September 5, 1932, be commuted from 20 years to 16 years, 2 months and 20 days, expiring on November 25, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-four years of age and he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on a charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. He served his entire minimum sentence and following his release on parole in 1942, he was placed under the sponsorship of Dr. Linn Bowman, Restoration Director of the Eastern State Penitentiary. He secured employment with the Westinghouse Electric Corporation and has established a home for himself and his wife.

The Parole Agent states he has made excellent progress toward complete rehabilitation; has continued his co-operative conduct toward the Board of Parole, and has saved more than $4,000.00. The Board of Parole recommends that his maximum sentence be commuted. It appears that he is in a position to be appointed turbine repairman with the Westinghouse which would require his traveling.

The Honorable Edward B. Farr, has written the Board of Pardons and stated that he feels this applicant has earned a pardon. The district attorney who was not district attorney at the time of sentence, states he has no comment or record in this case.

Because of the good record which this applicant has had on parole and the high esteem that he is held in by his employer, and the possibility that he may secure advancement with his employer, we recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
 Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
 Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Frank Armstead, C-9455, No. 8277, October Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon Frank Armstead, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 17, 1934, be commuted from a minimum term of 10 years on Bill No. 598 January Sessions, 1934, to a minimum term of 4 years, 10 months and 5 days, expiring on November 22, 1948. (Applicant has been granted parole on Bill No. 597).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-one years of age and this was his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty to forty years on a charge of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon. Most of these cases were the familiar strong-armed robberies on women, and there were at least twelve women who were robbed by the applicant. At the present time the applicant has served nearly fifteen years of his minimum sentence. At the time the applicant committed these robberies he was only sixteen years of age.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state that he has a good adjustment in the penitentiary and has shown increased ability in his adjustment. He is an excellent musician and has a good disciplinary record. He is regarded as a trustworthy.

The trial judge, Honorable Eugene V. Allesandroni, leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons. The district attorney of Philadelphia County also leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board.

Because this applicant has served three-fourths of his minimum sentence and he was only sixteen years of age when these offenses were committed, the Board feels that he has an excellent institutional record he should now be again given an opportunity to show whether or not he can adjust outside of prison walls, and because he has an excellent parole plan and will be adequately supervised, we recommend that a commutation be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
 Attorney General.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of William Wallace, D-9241, No. 9623, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Wallace, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on November 14, 1946 to be computed from November 4, 1946, be commuted from 5 years to 2 years, 1 month and 10 days, expiring on December 14, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is twenty-seven years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years on a charge of robbery but the Board is of the opinion he should not have been convicted of anything more than assault and battery. All he did was catch up with the girl on the street and say: "What's the matter with you? Are you acting cute?" and then he struck the victim in the eye. There was no attempt to take any money nor was it shown any guns were used and he was apprehended immediately after having struck victim.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary stated to the Board of Pardons that this applicant's institutional record has been excellent over the past year and nine months.

Since he has now served what would be the equivalent for the sentence of aggravated assault and battery and since we feel that he improperly pleaded guilty to robbery when no robbery was committed, we feel that this sentence should be reduced and that he should be granted commutation of sentence, and therefore, recommend that his sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
 Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
 Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
 Attorney General.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Walter Twardy, No. 4250, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Walter Twardy, convicted of lottery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on April 27, 1938, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty years of age and is seeking a pardon from a lottery conviction which occurred in April 1938.

At the present time, this applicant is self-employed and runs a dry cleaning establishment in Shallow Street in Pittsburgh. He lives in an excellent neighborhood in the City of Pittsburgh and has a wife and two children, one daughter, at present, being a student at Mt. Mercy Academy.

This applicant has an opportunity at the present time of going into the insurance business with Mr. C. K. Pikiel. However, in order to qualify as a real estate and insurance agent, an examination must be taken. The Departments of Public Instruction and Insurance will not issue licenses where there has been a conviction.

Because of this applicant's complete rehabilitation and the fact that he has conducted himself in an excellent manner in the past eleven years and is interested in entering the real estate and insurance partnership to still further his rehabilitation, the Board of Pardons recommends that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John Michael Toomey, No. 9595, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Michael Toomey, convicted of abortion in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lancaster County on June 13, 1947 be commuted from 2½ years to 1 year and 6 months, expiring on December 13, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is fifty-two years of age and was sentenced on June 13, 1947 to a term of imprisonment in the Lancaster County Hospital for from two and one-half to five years on the charge of abortion. At that time, he was suffering from advanced cancer and his sentence was made to read: "The Lancaster County Hospital." Since that time he has grown progressively worse and his jaw and glands of the neck have become involved and portions of his jaw bone and throat have been removed. It is the considered opinion of the medical director in charge at the Lancaster County Hospital, that he has but a few weeks to live. His wife has been loyal to him and has worked hard to see that he has a few of the comforts in the institution.

Both the sentencing judge and district attorney of Lancaster County have stated that they have no objection to the granting of this commutation because of this man's physical condition and the obvious fact that he will soon die.

In order that this man may be released from confinement to die with his wife and family, we recommend that commutation of his minimum sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Dominic N Thomasulo, B-3836, No. 2878, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Dominic N. Thomasulo, convicted of assault, being armed with an offensive weapon with intent to rob; aggravated assault and battery; assault and battery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of McKean County on October 7, 1933 be commuted from 20 years to 14 yrs. 10 mos. and 15 days, expiring on December 11, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-four years of age and he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on a charge of assault, being armed with an offensive weapon with intent to rob; aggravated assault and battery; assault and battery. After having served approximately eight years of his minimum sentence, his sentence was commuted and the applicant was released to a parole plan in Buffalo, New York.

This applicant had some trouble with his parole agent and returned to Pittsburgh and volunteered to go back in the penitentiary because he could not get along with him. Following this Pennsylvania parole, the authorities provided him with a plan in Pittsburgh and he was placed on parole.

He has performed excellently on parole under the Pennsylvania supervision and now owns the shop where he began approximately two years ago as an employe. He caters to a good class of clientele and has redecorated a room in his shop where he expects to live. He appears to the parole officers to be appreciative and interested in help given him. He reports promptly and has complied with all of his instructions. The parole agent feels he has made an excellent adjustment on parole and both the sentencing judge and district attorney are not opposed to the commutation of his maximum sentence. We, therefore recommend that his maximum sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of John J. Sukle, D-4211, No. 7030, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John J. Sukle, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Dauphin County on August 22, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years and 4 months expiring on December 22, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced on a charge of three robberies from taxicab drivers in and about the City of Harrisburg and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years.

At the time of the hearing, the representative for this applicant presented to the Board of Pardons letters from the three victims in which they joined in the plea that this applicant may be released through a commutation of sentence.

At the present time, this applicant has served nine years and three months of his minimum sentence of ten years. If released, he will be able to contribute to the support of his family. He has an excellent institutional record and his sponsor will be the Reverend Michael M. Menko of St. Peter's Church of Steelton, Pennsylvania. He will be employed by Mr. A. F. Kempf of Oberlin, Pennsylvania, who operates a general trucking and contracting business.

Under these circumstances, we believe this applicant has been sufficiently punished by the service of over nine years of his ten year minimum sentence and the fact that he has both a job and a home awaiting him, and the further fact that all the victims join with this applicant's plea of mercy. We, therefore, recommend that commutation of his minimum sentence be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Louis Smith, D-5012, No. 6722, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Louis Smith, convicted of burglary, receiving stolen goods in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on June 20, 1940 to be computed from May 29, 1940 be commuted from 10 years to 8 yrs. 6 mos. and 20 days, expiring on December 19, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty years of age and this is his first conviction of any offense whatsoever. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary on a charge of burglary and receiving stolen goods. He was accused of buying wrecked cars, saving the motor and serial numbers and would then steal a good car and would change the serial number from the wrecked car. Twenty cars were involved.

At the present time applicant has served nearly nine years of his minimum sentence of ten years. He has an excellent record in the institution, has studied aviation mechanics, has taken extension courses in agriculture and carpentry. He is cited as having made an outstanding adjustment.

The trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, leaves the question of commutation up to the Board. The district attorney of Philadelphia County has stated he is not opposed to commutation in this matter.

This man received one of the heaviest sentence in this case and all of the other accomplices have been released. If released, he will be able to support his aged mother and his brother who lives near Millville, New Jersey.

Since he has served a longer period of time than all of his accomplices who have heretofore been released, we recommend that the applicant's sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Charles Richard, D-4484, No. 5781, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Charles Richard, convicted of murder in the second degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Monroe County on December 11, 1939 to be computed from March 27, 1939, be commuted from 20 years to 10 years, expiring on March 27, 1949.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is fifty-two years of age and this was his first major conviction whatsoever. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on a charge of murder in the second degree. Although this applicant was convicted of murder in the second degree, the sentencing judge has always been of the opinion he was guilty of a lesser degree of the crime.

Briefly to state the facts, this applicant is a cripple and at the time of this occasion, the victim owed the applicant a considerable sum of money. The victim, when asked for the money, struck at the applicant with a sledge hammer handle which knocked applicant's crutches away from him. Applicant fired a shot into the wall to scare him and tried to get out of the door, but the victim blocked his flight and struck him with a hammer handle. Applicant again shot at the victim but victim continued his attack and applicant struck him with the crutch.

He has an excellent institutional record in the Eastern State Penitentiary and is regarded as a model prisoner.

Judge Bonnelly of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, has written the Board of Pardons that he believes this applicant has served a sufficient amount of time.

Since this applicant has served a longer period of time than he would have been required to serve had he been convicted of manslaughter and since we find him to be fully rehabilitated, we are recommending that his maximum sentence be commuted at the expiration of his minimum sentence, that is, March 27, 1948, and that he be freed from the Eastern State Penitentiary on that date without further parole supervision.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Daniel E. Johnston, Sr., D-5709, No. 6217, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Daniel E. Johnston, Sr., convicted of larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 15, 1941 to be computed from April 6, 1941, be commuted from 9 years to 7 years and 8 months, expiring on December 6, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is one of many parolees whose release from parole by commutation of the maximum sentence has been recommended to the Board of Pardons by the Board of Parole.

The Board of Parole has recommended this applicant, as well as the others, because of his excellent record in the armed forces of the United States. By reason of his fealty to country, steadfastness in courage, and military earnestness, he helped overpower the enemies of our country in World War II.

As a token of appreciation, and feeling that his gallant conduct has atoned for the error of his past ways, it is our recommendation to your Excellency that the term of the maximum sentence of the applicant be commuted and that he be freed from further parole supervision.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Thomas H. Howard, B-1825, No. 5908, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Thomas H. Howard, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on January 24, 1930, be commuted from life imprisonment to 18 years and 11 months, expiring on December 24, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-seven years of age and this was his first major conviction. He is a native of West Virginia and although he plead "not guilty", he was convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree and sentenced to life imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary.

The Board of Pardons after hearing the argument in this case and reading the applicant's contention, became interested in this matter and sent for the typewritten transcript of testimony. Several members of the Board of Pardons, having read the transcript came to the conclusion that this applicant very easily could have been the victim of mistaken identity. We are unable to see how a prosecution could identify this applicant at 12.30 o'clock at night, especially when he was a colored boy with whom neither the victim nor his companion were acquainted. Furthermore, the coroner never did associate the fact that the gun which the applicant was found to possess, fired the bullets which caused the fatal death. And it should be pointed out that in the testimony it was disclosed that victim's girl friend shortly after the shooting, went to her home and there in the presence of witnesses, deposited a gun which had been fired and describing the manner in which she carried this gun which was in the victim's cap. No investigation was ever made to determine whether or not the victim's gun had been used to fire the shots which were lodged in the victim nor was it ever determined applicant's gun fired the shots. Applicant, however, had an alibi but it was not believed.

The Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary have stated to the Board of Pardons this applicant has an excellent institutional record and they would recommend him.

We feel that since his conviction was on this slight basis and he has now served nearly nineteen years he is entitled to some consideration and for that reason we are recommending to Your Excellency that his sentence be commuted and that he be permitted to return to his relatives in West Virginia.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Raymond Eagle, D-71, No. 6411, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Raymond Eagle, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lebanon County on October 22, 1934 be commuted from life imprisonment to 14 years and 2 months, expiring on December 22, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is forty-three years of age and has no prior criminal record. He was sentenced to a term of life imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for the murder of his employer. It was represented to the Board of Pardons that this applicant committed this murder when he found out that the victim had been molesting the applicant's wife. This, however, did not come out at the trial and the reason given by the applicant was that the victim had paid off a note for the applicant and he was required to work it out.

The district attorney of Lebanon County states that he recommends commutation of this sentence. The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary has advised that this applicant has had an excellent institutional record and was one of the first life term prisoners assigned to the Graterford institution, which is a medium security prison.

His prison earnings have been good and he has established a savings account which will help in his adjustment. When released, his plan of parole calls for his return to his relatives, a brother in Harrisonburg, Virginia, where he will be employed and where he will receive care and kindness from his relatives.

The Board of Pardons feels that if the representation made to it by counsel had been brought to the attention of the court and jury at the time of his trial, that perhaps there may have been a different result in the verdict; and since his parole plan calls for a return to Virginia and the fact that he has served over fourteen years, the Board of Pardons therefore recommends that his life sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel DeMeo, D-5737, C-451, No. 9602, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Samuel DeMeo, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, etc. in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on April 29, 1941 to be computed from April 16, 1941 be commuted from 10 years to 8 years, expiring on April 16, 1949.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is charged with having held up and robbed several parking lots and to having stolen two cars. One of the accomplices was acquitted and the other was given a sentence of eight to ten years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. This was the applicant's first major conviction and he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary report to the Board of Pardons that this applicant's institutional record has been excellent and he has always had a satisfactory attitude toward the prison authorities.

The trial judge, Honorable Joseph L. Kun, feels that this sentence should be commuted under the same conditions as his accomplice was commuted. The district attorney has no objection and leaves the matter of commutation up to the Board of Pardons.

Since this applicant has served almost eight years of his minimum sentence, we recommend that he serve the full eight years and that his sentence be commuted as of April 16, 1949.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Samuel D'Amore, D-4563, B-9543, No. 6308, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Samuel D'Amore, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on January 5, 1940 to be computed from December 11, 1939, be commuted from 10 years to 9 years, expiring on December 11, 1948.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-three years of age and this is his first major conviction whatsoever. He together with five accomplices held up a linen supply company and escaped with a loot of $3200.00 and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years. At the present time, he has served nine years of his minimum sentence of ten years.

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary have advised the Board of Pardons that the applicant has an excellent institutional record.

Since he has no previous criminal record and he has served nine years of his minimum sentence and the fact that the trial judge, Honorable Harry S. McDevitt and the district attorney have no objection to the granting of commutation, the Board of Pardons recommends that his minimum sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of Michael John Dalessio, No. 9534, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Michael John Dalessio, convicted of vagrancy in the Court of magistrate of Allegheny County on May 26, 1947, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

This applicant is thirty-five years of age and this is the only time he was ever arrested for any offense whatsoever.

He was charged with vagrancy in Pittsburgh, whereas, at the time he had several thousand dollars in his possession. Under these circumstances, the Board of Pardons is unable to see how he was charged with vagrancy and adjudged guilty.

Since the district attorney has no objection and since the investigation shows that the applicant did have sufficient funds on his person and was not engaged in any breach of the peace, we therefore, recommend that a pardon be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re application of David Brown, B-5389, No. 3999, November Session, 1948.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons, recommend that the sentence of imprisonment imposed on David Brown, convicted of robbery, larceny in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions Court of Allegheny County, on February 10, 1937, be commuted on Bill No. 6 June Sessions, 1936, from a maximum term of imprisonment to a maximum term of 8 years, 1 month and 17 days, expiring on December 11, 1948. (Maximum sentence on Bill No. 991 (Bills Nos. 992, 993 and 995 concurrent, expiring on January 9, 1945).

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is thirty-nine years of age and this is his first major conviction. He was sentenced on a charge of robbery and larceny which had to do with the holding up of a restaurant in Allegheny County. The applicant was also involved in the larceny of several automobiles. The robbery charge grew out of the holdup of an employee of a cleaning company, but both the employee and helper denied the applicant was the one who committed the robbery; but because of the similarity of the license numbers given which the victim's and applicant's license numbers, he was convicted. The applicant has been on parole since May 1, 1946, when he was reparaed from the Western State Penitentiary having been returned there on a charge of engaging in "number writing."

In more than the past two years, this applicant has been employed at Pittsburgh as representative of the Ideal Motor Car Company of Tulsa, Oklahoma. In this connection, he has handled large sums of money in a very satisfactory manner and has been offered an advance in position with this company. He recently has become associated with the Paramount Radio and Television Company in addition to his work with the Ideal Motor Car Company.

The Board of Parole reports that this applicant has made a good adjustment and has a good attitude toward parole supervision being cooperative at all times, he has not been involved in any difficulty and has been steadily employed.

The trial judge, Honorable A. A. Nelson, recommends that his maximum sentence be commuted. The district attorney of Allegheny County states he is not opposed to commutation of maximum sentence.

In order that this applicant may not be further deterred in advancing to a profitable position and because of his good record on parole, the Board of Pardons is recommending that his maximum sentence be commuted.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL B. STRICKLER,
Lieutenant Governor.
CHARLES M. MORRISON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
T. McKEEN CHIDSEY,
Attorney General.
WILLIAM S. LIVENGOOD, JR.,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

JAMES H. DUFF,
Governor.

THE 131ST ANNUAL STATEMENT

Each year a statement is prepared for our depositors and others who are interested in a more detailed account of our investments and progress than afforded in the Condensed Statement. The 131st Annual Statement retains information of the character contained in previous reports and in addition gives a brief resume of our various services.

The Philadelphia Saving Fund Society is a Mutual Savings Bank, having no stockholders, and is operated solely for the benefit of its depositors. It exists for the purpose of affording a safe place for the savings of thrifty people and to assist its depositors in winning financial security.

We take pride in the record achieved over the 131 years of our existence that no depositor has ever lost a penny of his savings entrusted to our care. The safety of the savings of our depositors has always been and continues to be our primary concern and our conservative investment policy is based on that principle.

We continue to study ways and means of improving our operational practices to the end that greater efficiency may be achieved and more helpful banking facilities provided for the Public.

PSFS SERVICES

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

A variety of types of savings accounts are available at PSFS; one suited to meet the needs of each of our depositors. If you already have an Individual Account, you may be interested in a Joint Account with your husband or wife; a Trust Account for the children or a Special Purpose Account. Complete information on all types of accounts will be given gladly.

CHRISTMAS CLUB ACCOUNTS

This is, as the name implies, a special account by which systematic savings can be made for Christmas expenses. Club accounts may be opened beginning in November of each year. Fifty weekly deposits of $.50, $1.00, $2.00, $5.00, and $10.00 will provide you with a check at Christmas time for $25.00, $50.00, $100.00, $250.00 and $500.00, respectively.

SALARY SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

These accounts are available to groups of employees through the cooperation of their employers. It is the easiest way to save systematically with a minimum of effort on the employee's part and a minimum of work for the employer. Interested employees or employers are invited to contact the Salary Savings Department for complete details.

SCHOOL SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

PSFS conducts a School Bank in many of the Philadelphia schools in an effort to promote thrift early in the careers of our future citizens. Children in the Elementary, Junior and Senior High grades in schools so served may open an account of their own in which to make weekly deposits. These accounts teach the value of thrift and provide the cornerstone for adult savings in later years.

BANK MONEY ORDERS

The purchase and use of PSFS Bank Money Orders provide the means for paying certain bills by check. The cost is low; they are acceptable throughout the United States and are available at all offices.

MORTGAGE LOANS

Service is a byword with PSFS. Our mortgage department is anxious and willing to help prospective home buyers with their home financing problems. Advice is freely given and a variety of plans are available to suit the individual needs of depositors and non-depositors alike. Men experienced in mortgage lending will be glad to discuss the merits of the Regular, G.I. and F.H.A. loans as applied to each home financing requirement.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS

Five of the Society's offices are equipped with modern Safe Deposit Vaults. Security for your valuable papers is afforded at a modest fee and access may be had, with convenient booth facilities provided, at any time during banking hours.

BANKING BY MAIL

For those depositors who are unable to come to the bank in person, or find it inconvenient to do so at times, the Society provides a complete Banking by Mail service. Special folders are available and will be supplied, along with detailed information, upon request. This service provides a safe, convenient and easy method to make deposits or withdrawals, for it brings PSFS as near as the nearest mailbox.

TRAVELERS' CHECKS

The Travelers' Check is a safe and convenient way to carry money when traveling on business or for pleasure. They may be purchased at all offices in several different denominations at a cost of only 75c per $100.

FOREIGN DRAFTS AND REMITTANCES

When the occasion arises to send money to a relative or friend in a foreign country, we invite you to use our Foreign Draft and Remittance service. The Draft can be issued in dollars or the currency of the country to which it is sent or the Remittance, made payable to anyone you name in any country in the world. All offices provide this service and the charge is moderate.

REPORT OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

We have examined the appended statement of condition of the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society at the close of business December 31, 1947, and the appended statement listing in detail the bond investments of the Society at that date.

Our examination included a verification by count or confirmation of the cash on hand and in banks and of all investments of the Society in bonds, mortgages and deeds to real estate.

The net value shown for bonds is less than market. The mortgages, office building and real estate for Society's use are shown at conservative figures with adequate reserves.

We have reviewed the system of internal control and accounting procedure and have examined or tested accounting records and other supporting evidence to the extent and by methods which we deemed appropriate.

In our opinion the statements correctly reflect the assets and liabilities and the bond investments of the Society as of December 31, 1947.

GENERAL REPORT OF THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION—1947-1949

TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

January, 1949

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Room 450, Capitol Building

Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

There is submitted herewith the General Report of the Joint State Government Commission.

The General Report deals briefly with the assignments made to the Commission by the General Assembly of 1947, and the projects initiated by the Commission under authority of Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended by Act No. 380, Session of 1939, Section 2(b).

This report is designed to serve as a reference guide for the members of the General Assembly. It is divided into six parts. Parts I to IV, inclusive, outline the findings of Commission studies undertaken in accordance with specified directives. Whenever findings of fact eventuated into Commission recommendations, the suggested policies are briefly outlined. Part V lists studies which were initiated by the Commission. Part VI presents a listing of the committees created by statute, the subcommittees of the Commission which were created in accordance with Act No. 4, Session of 1943, Section 1, and the administrative and technical staff of the Commission.

Specific Commission recommendations are embodied in bills drafted by the Legislative Reference Bureau. These drafts will be submitted for the review, consideration and action of the General Assembly.

On behalf of the Commission, the splendid cooperation of the subcommittees, their advisors and the Legislative Reference Bureau is gratefully acknowledged. The Commission regrets the deaths, during this biennium, of Clarence D. Becker, member of the Joint State Government Commission on the part of the Senate, and Senator Henry I. Wilson and Representatives Furman H. Gyger and Thomas B. Stockham, members of subcommittees.

Recognizing the need for up-to-date, reliable, factual information, competently analyzed and compactly presented, the Commission has carried out the following recommendation made to the 1947 General Assembly:

"The research facilities of this Commission should be enlarged by the addition of a permanent research division, staffed with qualified research assistants especially trained in governmental research work,—trained to find acts, analyze information, and prepare impartial reports."

To aid in the solution of the increasingly complex problems, such facilities are now maintained by the Commission to better serve the General Assembly.

WELDON B. HEYBURN, Chairman

Joint State Government Commission

PART I

STUDIES DIRECTED BY ACTS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Twenty-eight studies and investigations were undertaken. Three of these were directed by acts of the General Assembly. They are State-Local Highway Financing, Post-High School Education, and Tax Study.

1. State-Local Highway Financing

(Senate Concurrent Resolution Serial No. 129, adopted by the Senate, April 25, 1945, concurred in by the House, May 4, 1945; Act No. 55-A, App. Acts P. L. 40, approved May 29, 1945; Act No. 12-A, App. Acts P. L. 22, approved May 23, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To make a thorough and impartial study, to develop a sound and scientific financial highway program for the Commonwealth and the political subdivisions and an equitable basis for State aid to local governments for highway purposes.

Investigation:

Continued the study of the bases for State aid to local governments for highway purposes and invited suggestions from interested groups.

Evaluated the suggestions received.

Strategic Facts:

The Commission was concerned with the following: (1) maximum development of locally-administered highways, (2) allocation of State aid by the Commonwealth, and (3) safeguards necessary to assure economical expenditures of State allocations.

Recommendations:

The study has developed several alternative plans to carry out the above mentioned aims on a permanent basis.

(Separate report to be issued)

2. Post-High School Education

(Act No. 565, P. L. 1476, approved July 8, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study the educational facilities and needs of the citizens in the field of formal education commencing with graduation from high school; the present college facilities, their financing, administration, the courses offered in said colleges and the educational needs of the applicants for admission to college, by and with a committee created by statute. This committee consisted of fifteen representatives of educational and other interests in the several geographic sections of the State, ten appointed by the Governor, two appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, two appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate, together with the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Investigation:

The President of Temple University, Robert L. Johnson, was elected chairman of the committee and Theodore A. Distler, President of Franklin and Marshall College, was elected vice-chairman.

The committee urged that the Joint State Government Commission employ a survey director to plan and superintend the researches of the committee, and requested that Dr. George Alan Works, formerly Dean of the School of Education of the University of Chicago, be engaged to serve in this capacity. The Commission followed the committee's recommendation.

Dr. Works, in turn, selected a number of educators and others to serve as consultants. The Chairman of the Joint State Government Commission, acting under the authority of Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended, appointed five advisors in order to give representation to additional types of institutions offering post-high school instruction.

On September 13, 1948, the committee and its advisors met to consider the Summary Statement and Recommendations of the Survey Director and to formulate its recommendations. Subsequent to the meeting, copies of the recommendations as agreed upon were submitted to the members of the committee and the advisors for comment. Dr. Ralph Cooper Hutchison, Dr. Francis B. Haas, Senator Frederick L. Homsher and Representative John N. Hoffman advised that they did not subscribe to all of the recommendations contained in the report. Others indicated a desire to file minority reports at a later date.

On September 28, 1948, the committee chairman presented the Official Report of the Committee on Post-High School Education to the Joint State Government Commission.

As required by statute, the Joint State Government Commission filed a report with the Governor and the General Assembly on November 15, 1948.

Strategic Facts:

Pennsylvania places heavy dependence on student fees as a source of educational income. This practice, unless other sources of income can be increased, places a relatively heavy burden on the students to meet the cost of their education. Considerable numbers of able youths are deprived of the opportunity for higher education as a result of their economic status.

Further study of the subject is necessary before specific recommendations may be made.

Recommendations:

In view of the divergence of opinion indicated above, the Joint State Government Commission has directed its technical staff to review and supplement the material collected by the Committee on Post-High School Education.

(See separate report: Findings and Recommendations of the Committee on Post-High School Education, November, 1948)

3. Tax Study

(Act No. 562, P. L. 1468, approved July 9, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

A Tax Study Committee, two members of which were appointed by the Governor, two by the President pro tempore of the Senate, two by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Secretary of Commerce as chairman, was directed to study the tax laws of the Commonwealth and of other states and countries in order to ascertain ways and means of financing the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions upon a more scientific and equitable basis, and to make a report to the Governor and the General Assembly by February 1, 1949.

Investigation:

The Tax Study Committee review the tax systems in neighboring and comparable industrial states; considered the effect of such systems if applied to the economy of Pennsylvania; reviewed other types of taxation not now employed in Pennsylvania and the amount of revenue such would produce; evaluated all the so-called emergency taxes and emergency tax rates. The Committee will, by February 1, 1949, specifically report its findings.

Strategic Facts:

There is apparent need for the reenactment of some emergency taxes and tax rates on a permanent basis and for modification of other taxes as well as for discontinuing others now in effect.

Recommendations of the Committee:

That some of the emergency taxes and tax rates be reenacted on a permanent basis and modified and related to the suggested corporate tax structure; and that others, such as the soft drinks tax, be discontinued. That certainty in ascertaining business taxes and elimination of double taxation ought to be achieved by the elimination of the corporate loans tax, capital stock tax, corporate franchise tax, and the present corporate income tax, and the substitution of a corporate privilege tax based upon (1) earnings or (2) capital employed or (3) a minimum charge, whichever is the highest, at a rate which will produce the same amount of revenue now paid under the tax statutes whose abolition is contemplated. Additional recommendations and suggestions will be set forth in the separate report of the Tax Study Committee.

(Separate report to be issued)

PART II

STUDIES DIRECTED BY CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Six of the twenty-eight studies and investigations were undertaken by the Commission as directed by Concurrent Resolutions of the Senate and the House of Representatives. They are Vehicle and Tractor Codes, Alcoholism, Mental Health Laws, Penal Laws and Criminal Procedure, Juvenile Delinquency, and Historical Survey.

1. Vehicle and Tractor Codes

(House Resolution No. 22, March 12, 1947; agreed to April 8, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study, revise and prepare for reenactment The Vehicle and Tractor Codes, with amendments and separate laws properly to be incorporated therein.

Investigation:

Reviewed suggestions received from Pennsylvania State

Police, Department of Revenue, Department of Highways and interested citizens' groups; considered proposals advanced at a public hearing on July 21, 1948; and prepared a codification of the vehicle and tractor laws.

Strategic Facts:

The Vehicle and Tractor Codes were last codified in 1929; since then frequent amendments have been made and laws on related subjects have been enacted.

Recommendations:

That existing law be codified and enacted as one Act of Assembly.

That separate bills be introduced to accomplish the following.

(a) Operators of heavier than "U" classification commercial vehicles be required to pass a special examination.

(b) A driver-training program be provided in the public schools, financed from the Motor Fund, and that the learner's permit fee be increased 5 cents to aid in financing the proposal.

(c) Legal recognition of the "white cane" as a signaling device for the blind when used at intersections.

(d) Uniform maximum rate of speed for all vehicles be set at 50 m.p.h. (not to affect traffic on Turnpike).

(e) Operators be permitted to drive commercial vehicles already covered by liability insurance without being required to provide additional financial responsibility coverage.

(f) Vehicle numbers be used for identification instead of engine numbers.

(g) Traffic be required to stop before passing a school bus; school bus operators be required to pass a physical examination as well as a special examination to determine fitness to operate such vehicles.

2. Alcoholism

(House Resolution No. 20, March 12, 1947; agreed to May 13, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study problems relating to the effects of alcoholism; survey methods of treatment and rehabilitation of persons so addicted; gather and compile pertinent data and investigate the experience of existing organizations and adequacy of clinical facilities; recommend methods for dissemination of information.

Investigation:

Surveyed the available literature on the subject; held public hearing, February 25, 1948, in Harrisburg, at which lay and professional groups were afforded an opportunity to present facts and views; visited the C. Dudley Saul Clinic, St. Luke's and Children's Medical Center,, Philadelphia, on August 10, 1948.

Strategic Facts:

The problem of alcoholism is most acute in urban areas. Informed medical opinion concludes that alcoholism is a sickness, that generally it is not curable, but that many alcoholics can be rehabilitated, and that the so-called "short-treatment" has achieved the best results.

Recommendations:

That an appropriation be made to qualified clinics in the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh areas, conditioned upon the development of research in alcoholism; that the Department of Health develop forms for the collection of reliable statistics; that instruction of nurses and medical students in this field be encouraged.

(See separate report: Alcoholism, December, 1948)

3. Mental Health Laws

(Senate Resolution No. 108, March 3, 1947; concurred in by the House of Representatives May 19, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To survey, investigate and consider laws relating to mental health; revise and restate same in codified form.

Investigation:

Compiled provisions of Mental Health Act of 1923, miscellaneous provisions relating to mental health generally, acts relating to lunatics and habitual drunkards and guardianship of weakminded persons, general provisions as to hospital patients, and State mental institutions; reviewed problems relating to "sexual psychopaths."

Strategic Facts:

The Commonwealth is engaged in carrying out an extensive mental health program; aspects of the problem dealing with "habitual drunkards" and youthful offenders have been considered in the studies on alcoholism and juvenile delinquency, and recommendations applying to these appear in the Commission's reports on these subjects.

Recommendations:

That revision and codification of the mental health laws follow the extensive mental health program now in progress, in order that all necessary areas may be adequately covered.

4. Penal Laws and Criminal Procedure

(Senate Resolution No. 113, March 10, 1947; concurred in by the House of Representatives May 26, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

Continue the survey, investigation and consideration of penal laws and laws of criminal procedure; revise, restate and codify same.

Investigation:

Reviewed the penal laws of the Commonwealth, and prepared a proposed codification of the same, together with a reference table relating the sections thereof to sections of existing law, which will be made available to members of the General Assembly.

Ten advisors were appointed, under authority of Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended, to assist in the preparation of a code of criminal procedure.

Strategic Facts:

No general codification of the penal laws has been undertaken since 1939 and no codification of the laws of criminal procedure since 1860; numerous amendments to such laws have caused confusion.

Recommendations:

That the penal laws and laws relating to criminal procedure as redrafted be enacted in codified form.

5. Juvenile Delinquency

(House Resolution No. 58, May 27, 1947; agreed to June 4, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To list, study and appraise the problems relating to juvenile delinquency—namely, its underlying causes, the adequacy of existing governmental and private agencies to prevent juvenile delinquency, and measures which will conserve and improve the conditions of youth in the Commonwealth.

Investigation:

Studied the problems relating to juvenile delinquency and the steps taken in other states to correct it; conferred with groups and agencies interested in child welfare and youth adjustment problems; held a public hearing on February 11, 1948; and consulted with experts in child guidance and preparation of legislation dealing with juvenile behavior.

Strategic Facts:

Juvenile delinquency increased during the war years, but since the end of the war has declined; it has been more pronounced in metropolitan than in suburban areas. Juvenile behavior may be controlled through guidance in the homes and in the schools; juvenile offenders can, in most cases, be rehabilitated. There is apparent need of a youth authority to cope with the problem. Other states have recently adopted youth authority acts which meet many of the problems existing in Pennsylvania.

Recommendations:

That youth guidance clinics be established in the office of the county superintendents of schools; that two experimental forestry camps be established to accommodate selected youthful offenders; and that establishment of a Youth Conservation Board, similar to the agencies established in other states, be authorized.

(Separate report to be issued)

6. Historical Survey

(Senate Resolution No. 124, May 27, 1947; concurred in by the House of Representatives, June 11, 1947.)

Legislative mandate:

To survey and prepare, in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, a list of historic buildings and sites and archaeological sites of distinctive significance.

Investigation:

In collaboration with the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, compiled a list of buildings and sites deemed to be of distinctive significance; supplemented same by additions furnished through county historical societies of the Commonwealth; appointed a committee of advisors to assist in the appraisal and rating of listings.

Strategic Facts:

Each county of the Commonwealth can boast significant historical treasure worthy of concern for its preservation.

Recommendations:

That only those buildings and sites designated by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, with the guidance of the Committee of advisors, should be of prime concern to the General Assembly.

(Separate report to be issued)

PART III

STUDIES DIRECTED BY SENATE RESOLUTIONS

By direction of Senate Resolutions, nine studies were undertaken. They are Decedents' Estates Laws, Corporations and Cooperatives, Retirement Systems, Labor Laws, Group Insurance Laws, Public Library Laws, Administrative Agencies, Administrative Code and Legislative Subpoena Powers.

1. Decedents' Estates Laws

(Senate Resolution, Serial No. 34, adopted March 10, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To further study, revise and prepare for reenactment the Orphans' Court Partition Act, the Orphans' Court Act, the Revised Price Act, the Register of Wills Act and the Fiduciaries Act, together with all of their supplements and all separate laws that should properly be incorporated therein, and to present them for the consideration of the General Assembly.

Investigation:

Studied existing laws on the subject; prepared with the guidance of the Advisory Committee on Decedents' Estates Laws, a proposed draft of a Fiduciaries Act, a Fiduciaries Investment Act, and amendments to the Register of Wills Act, the Orphans' Court Act, the Orphans' Court Partition Act, and the Revised Price Act.

Strategic Facts:

Found necessity for revising and amending existing laws and for redrafting the Fiduciaries Act and the Fiduciaries Investment Act.

Recommendations:

That the proposed Fiduciaries Act, Fiduciaries Investment Act and the prepared amendments to other decedents' estates laws as finally prepared be adopted.

(Separate report to be issued)

2. Corporations and Cooperatives

(Senate Resolution No. 42, adopted April 1, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To review, investigate, study and consider all of the laws dealing with and relating to corporations and cooperatives and to report its findings to the next session of the General Assembly.

Investigation:

Revised statutes relating to cooperatives, the Business Corporation Law and its amendments, and miscellaneous statutes relating to business corporations and the Non-profit Corporation Law and its amendments and miscellaneous statutes relating to nonprofit corporations; reviewed and evaluated changes in existing law suggested by the Secretary of the Commonwealth; conferred with the members of the Committee on Corporation Law of the Pennsylvania Bar Association concerning such proposed changes.

Strategic Facts:

Basic corporation laws of the Commonwealth have been found to work reasonably well and require only such changes as will facilitate their administration. These changes may be achieved by amendment to the present law.

Recommendations:

The recommendations are concurred in by the Department of State and the Committee on Corporation Law of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, and are incorporated in drafts of bills to be submitted to the General Assembly.

3. Retirement Systems and Laws

(Senate Resolution Serial No. 55, adopted May 7, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To survey, investigate and consider the various retirement systems and law, to revise and restate such laws, and to report findings and conclusions to the General Assembly with bills for introduction embodying the results of the studies.

Investigation:

Considered the suggestions of interested groups and individuals on changes in existing law; consulted with experts on retirement; surveyed present retirement systems and laws affecting them; made a comparison between the State Employees' and the School Employees' Retirement Systems.

Strategic Facts:

The three Pennsylvania retirement systems; State Employees' Retirement System, the School Employees' Retirement System and the Municipal Employees' Retirement System (not yet in operation), differ in many respects but also have certain elements in common. All systems are funded. All call for contributions from employee and employer and are made by payroll deduction and by appropriations on the basis of estimates made by the respective retirement boards. All make allowance for disability. They differ with respect to administrative responsibility and management, assumption of administrative responsibility and management, assumption of administrative costs, coverage, guarantee of obligation, rates of interest payable by the employer, and employees' contributions and benefits.

Recommendations:

That the facts gathered in this study be incorporated in a report to be submitted to the members of the General Assembly for their information.

(Separate report to be issued)

4. Labor Laws

(Senate Resolution Serial No. 62, adopted May 12, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study and investigate the labor laws of this and other states, the advantages and disadvantages, merits and effects and to report its findings to the next session of the General Assembly, together with such legislation as it deems necessary to carry out its recommendations.

Investigation:

Prepared a list of state regulation of labor relations and a summary of significant labor laws of Pennsylvania; studied the labor laws of Pennsylvania and other comparable states; considered the suggestions of interested persons and groups.

Strategic Facts:

The all-inclusive jurisdiction of the Federal labor laws reduces the field within which State labor laws are now operative.

Recommendations:

That the machinery provided by State laws be sufficiently coordinated with Federal legislation to provide maximum disposition of labor disputes on the State level.

5. Group Insurance Laws

(Senate Resolution Serial No. 63, adopted May 13, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To survey, investigate and consider the laws relating to group health and accident insurance and group life insurance; to revise and restate such laws; and to report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly with bills for introduction embodying the results of its studies.

Investigation:

Contacted insurance organizations and requested their suggestions on the subject; compared existing Pennsylvania laws with model statutes; reviewed the following aspects of group insurance; coverage of all types of group life insurance, group accident and health insurance, blanket health and accident insurance and franchise health and accident insurance.

Strategic Facts:

Pennsylvania laws relating to group life, group health and group accident insurance seem similar to the model bills and suggestions submitted by the various organizations contacted, although controversy exists as to the types of groups to whom issued and maximum amounts allowable.

Recommendations:

Recommendations are embodied in bills to be introduced at the current session of the General Assembly.

6. Public Libraries

(Senate Resolution Serial No. 66, adopted May 26, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study public library services throughout the Commonwealth and to report and recommend to the General Assembly such changes in the legal structure, organizing, supervising and financing of such services as are desirable to promote the establishment of additional libraries and the adequate maintenance of all public libraries throughout the Commonwealth.

Investigation:

Studied the existing legal structure, organization and financing of the State's public libraries and the extent to which such facilities are being used.

Strategic Facts:

Approximately 70% of the residents of Pennsylvania have access to free, nonsectarian libraries. All municipal corporations, including counties as well as school districts, have statutory authority to establish public libraries and to aid in their maintenance. The Commonwealth makes biennial appropriations to free, nonsectarian county public libraries. Local authorities do not fully exploit their statutory capacity on behalf of libraries.

Recommendations:

In view of the fact that local authorities do not take full advantage of existing statutory authority, no changes in Pennsylvania's library laws are recommended.

(See separate report: Public Libraries, January, 1949)

7. Administrative Agencies

(Senate Resolution Serial No. 70, adopted June 12, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To review, investigate, study and consider the problems arising from administrative bodies, boards and commissions and the exercise of legislative powers delegated to them and to report its findings and conclusions with proposed legislation to the General Assembly.

Investigation:

Studied problems arising from administrative boards, commissions, etc.; prepared an annotated listing of administrative departments, boards and commissions; reviewed proposals relating to administrative agencies from individuals and groups.

Strategic Facts:

Charges and allegations as to particular boards were received. Comprehensive investigation of these charges appears to be beyond the scope of the Senate Resolution.

Recommendations:

That boards, agencies and commissions should consult with the Attorney General with a view to improving procedural practices.

8. Administrative Code

(Senate Resolution Serial No. 33, adopted March 10, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study, revise and prepare for reenactment "The Administrative Code of 1929" and laws on subjects related thereto. To include revisions to the code which eliminate and revamp existing boards, commissions and agencies or create new ones where the ends of efficient administration would be best served.

Investigation:

Studied "The Administrative Code of 1929"; prepared a compilation of amendments to the code made since 1929 and a catalog of administrative departments, boards and commissions showing method of creation and legislation governing their operation; considered suggestions made by departments, etc.

Strategic Facts:

Amendments to The Administrative Code are needed to eliminate obsolete text and to further facilitate its administration.

Recommendations:

Recommendations are incorporated in drafts of bills to be submitted to the General Assembly.

9. Legislative Subpoena Powers

(Senate Resolution Serial No. 71, adopted June 13, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study and investigate the rights and powers of the General Assembly and its committees and their subcommittees to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence and testimony necessary to the complete transaction of the business of the General Assembly, and to report findings and conclusions.

Investigation:

Examined the constitutional and statutory provision conferring subpoena power upon the committees of either branch of the General Assembly.

Strategic Facts:

Right of legislative subpoena power is recognized in the Constitution, Article II, Section 11, and failure to obey such subpoena of Act No. 375, 1939, P. L. 872, Section 212, which provides:

"Whoever wilfully neglects or refuses to appear and testify before any committee of either branch of the General Assembly or before any joint committee thereof, after being duly served with a subpoena to so appear, or is in contempt, by reason of any such neglect or refusal so to appear and testify, or either, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year, or to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or both."

Doubt has arisen as to the mechanics of enforcement of this right.

Recommendations:

That legislation be enacted prescribing the procedural steps necessary to compel compliance and to punish those who refuse to obey the legislative subpoena.

PART IV

STUDIES DIRECTED BY HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

By direction of House Resolutions, four studies were undertaken. They are Susquehanna River Fishways, Uniform Practice and Procedure, Commonwealth-Owned Tax-Exempt Real Property and Pennsylvania's Industrial Economy.

1. Susquehanna River Fishways

(House Resolution No. 35, adopted April 9, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study the problem of constructing fishways around the Safe Harbor, Holtwood and Conowingo Dams on the lower Susquehanna River to permit fish to ascend the river at spawning time and the utilization of newly developed devices for preventing the loss of fish in the hydraulic power plants on the river, with the objective of restoring both recreation and employment and of creating possibilities of migratory fish which once flourished in the Susquehanna River and its tributaries.

To institute, if such study reveals such construction practicable, suitable action to require the owners of these dams to construct fishways as required in the original permit to construct the dams, and in lieu of which the dam owners are paying a small annual penalty.

Investigation:

Studied the importance of the migratory fish in the lower Susquehanna River; consulted with organizations and groups interested in the preservation and replacement of fish in the river. Consulted with representatives of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service; heard the reports and arguments of the owners of the dams.

Strategic Facts:

The most important migratory fish in the lower Susquehanna River has been the shad. At one time shad fishing was a significant industry.

Overfishing and pollution reduced the quantity of shad in the river prior to 1910 and the construction of the three dams mentioned in the resolution blocked the spawning migrations. Maximum in-lieu payment now made by the owner of a dam is $4,000 per year. Owners may install fishways and make no payment. Information on shad is not sufficient to design successful fishways for use on the Susquehanna.

In-lieu payments were sufficient in 1945 to purchase only 57 per cent of the quantity of fish for replacement in the lakes above the dams as was possible in 1930.

The problem of reestablishing the shad is one which Pennsylvania had in common with a number of other Eastern Seaboard States and any solution would benefit them equally.

Recommendations:

That a resolution be introduced in the General Assembly asking that the Congress of the United States direct a study of the biological and hydraulic factors which must be known if successful fishways are to be designed. That an upward adjustment of the in-lieu payments called for by the present law be considered by the General Assembly.

(Separate report to be issued)

2. Uniform Practice and Procedure

(House Resolution No. 40, Serial No. 47, adopted April 15, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study the problems of making uniform the practice and procedure before administrative agencies of the State government and of appeals therefrom, as well as the review of regulations promulgated by such agencies; to study the problem of publishing all regulations of State agencies in one register, and making their validity contingent on such publication; and to present recommendations, together with drafts of proposed legislation, for the consideration of the General Assembly.

Investigation:

Prepared a study of the rules and regulations of various boards, commissions and departments; made a summary of statutes of selected states relating to the filing, review and publication of rules and regulations of state agencies; conferred with members of the Section on Administrative Law of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and members of the former Registry Board.

Strategic Facts:

There are no requirements providing for the publication of rules of administrative boards, agencies and commissions. The practice before such agencies is confused by reason of lack of access to rules of procedure.

Recommendations:

That legislation be enacted providing:

That all rules and regulations be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth 30 days before the effective date thereof.

That the Secretary of the Commonwealth be required to furnish, upon request, a certified copy of any such rule or regulation.

That each department, board and commission be required to publish its rules and regulations and furnish copies thereof to the public without charge.

That the Secretary of the Commonwealth be required to maintain a convenient index of all such rules and regulations.

3. Commonwealth-Owned Tax-Exempt Real Property (House Resolution No. 41, Serial No. 48, adopted April 23, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To study, investigate and devise ways and means of compensating the political subdivisions of the Commonwealth with Commonwealth funds for their loss of revenues arising from such real property being exempt from taxation.

Investigation:

Ascertained the extent of state-owned real property in Pennsylvania and the classifications in which it is held, its approximate value, and the amount of revenue it would yield if locally taxed.

Strategic Facts:

Commonwealth property in Pennsylvania is exempt from local property taxes.

The estimated assessed value of Commonwealth-owned property is $103,616,901. If taxed at the average local rate (1946) of 39 mills, this property would have produced local tax revenue of approximately $4,040,000.

A comparison of the practices of seven other states and the national government shows that of the jurisdictions compared, none reimburse local subdivisions for tax-exempt property.

Annual in-lieu payments made for 1947 by the Commonwealth on game, forest and flood control lands amounted to $152,882.74.

Recommendations:

That all departments of State government acquiring title to real property for the purpose of protecting a Commonwealth investment be required to pay the equivalent of real estate taxes to local subdivisions.

That the tuition of pupils attending public schools whose parents or guardians reside in or on State-owned property and are employed by the Commonwealth be paid by the Commonwealth.

That Commonwealth in-lieu payments now made in connection with Commonwealth or Federal ownership of game and forest lands be increased from five to ten cents per acre.

(See Separate Report: Commonwealth-Owned, Tax-Exempt Real Property, January, 1949.)

4. Pennsylvania's Industrial Economy

(House Resolution No. 59, Serial No. 71, adopted June 11, 1947.)

Legislative Mandate:

To make a study and investigation into the cause and reasons for the movement of industry from the Commonwealth and the decrease in the number of new industries being established in the State and to evolve recommendations of a legislative program designed to attract the retention, expansion and growth of industry already located in the Commonwealth and the establishment of new industries therein.

Investigation:

Conferred with state-wide organizations interested in economic development and studied communications from interested persons and organizations; prepared an outline memorandum showing the industrial development of Pennsylvania for the period 1939-1946; investigated factors influencing the location of industry.

Strategic Facts:

The resolution which directs this inquiry assumes that industry has not expanded within the Commonwealth, and that the number of new industries being established in this State has been decreasing.

The evidence does not justify these assumptions. New industries have located here, local industry has expanded, and Pennsylvania still occupies a position above the national average. This continued progress has not, however, been sufficiently rapid to maintain at the same relatively high level the better-than-average position, held for many years prior to the beginning of the depression.

Factors affecting industry in Pennsylvania which are controllable by the Commonwealth are (1) business taxes, (2) unemployment compensation taxes, (3) availability of well-trained labor, (4) adequacy of basic facilities, such as highways and water supply, and (5) encouragement of research in basic products, such as coal and timber. The first three of these factors are presently under review by separate committees and the findings and recommendations concerning them will be separately reported to the General Assembly. Local ordinances, practices and procedures also may affect industrial locations and economic development. There are other factors which are beyond the control of the Commonwealth but are controllable, or partially so, by private economic units.

The economy of Pennsylvania also has been affected by factors controlled by the Federal Government. This was particularly true in the war years when Pennsylvania received a smaller proportion of "prime" war contracts than its proportion of total pre-war manufacturing business. Also, Federal wartime price controls on products which were important in Pennsylvania's economy did not permit their prices to rise proportionately even as high as the average of all wholesale prices.

Recommendations:

That the facts gathered in this study be incorporated in a report to be submitted to the members of the General Assembly for their information.

(See Separate Report: Pennsylvania's Industrial Economy, January, 1949.)

PART V

STUDIES INITIATED BY THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Commission by Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended by Act No. 380, Session of 1939, Section 2 (b), the Commission undertook inquiries into four additional subjects which it deemed "useful to the General Assembly." These studies are: Education, Legislative Journal, Unemployment Compensation and Philadelphia City-County Government. Included in the study of Education were Codification of School Laws, the Hatfield Case and Vocational Education.

1. Education

Problems affecting public schools have been of great interest to the General Assembly and, accordingly, the Commission reviewed the problem of codifying the school laws, the cost and financing of vocational education in Pennsylvania, and the special problems growing out of court decisions affecting the extracurricular activities and permissive use of public school property.

Codification

The Commission's efforts have been directed toward a faithful codification of existing law, with only such changes as are intended to clarify the text.

(See Separate Report: Codification of the School Laws, January, 1949)

The Hatfield Case

The decision of the Pennsylvania Superior Court in the case of Hatfield Township School District Auditors' Petition, 161 Pa. Superior Ct. 388 (1947), to the effect that monies collected in the form of admission and membership fees "must be handled exactly as tax monies" has caused confusion and uncertainty in the conduct of desirable extracurricular activities, such as sports and other events traditionally carried on in conjunction with instructional programs in the public schools.

The Commission recommends remedial legislation which will facilitate the financing of extracurricular activities in the traditional manner, subject, however, to official audit and control by local school boards.

(See Separate Report: The Hatfield Case, November, 1948)

Vocational Education

The Commission ascertained per pupil cost in general and vocational curricula with a view of determining the adequacy of supplemental Commonwealth subsidies for vocational education. The Commission recommends: the requirement of filing consolidated reports, which, among other things, shall show the cost of specific programs and, that the Commonwealth reimburse school districts for vocational educational programs on the same basis as standard subsidies.

(Separate report to be issued)

2. Legislative Journal

The Commission recognized the concern which members of the General Assembly have had by reason of the delay in making available to the public the record of proceedings of the General Assembly. The subcommittee created reviewed the present practice of recording and printing of the Legislative Journal. Recommendations on this subject will be made.

3. Unemployment Compensation

Because of the opportunity to obtain advantage to Pennsylvania taxpayers and the public and to further industrial growth in the Commonwealth, it was found desirable to review present provisions of the unemployment compensation laws and revise them in order to take advantage of these benefits and to provide for improvement in the administration of the law.

The Commission recommends that the waiting period for obtaining merit rating, which reduces the time in which the maximum 2.7% rate has to be paid, be shortened by a year and that certain other changes be made to permit increased administrative efficiency in the operation of the law. The recommendations call for revision in the law so that taxpayers are not penalized for delays in filing, and so that they will have opportunity to settle their problems before penalties become irrevocable. The recommendations are embodied in drafts of bills submitted to the General Assembly.

(Separate reports to be issued)

4. Philadelphia City-County Government Survey

This survey grows out of the widespread concern of citizens and citizen groups in the Philadelphia area and is one of necessary interest to the General Assembly.

Public hearings were held in the City of Philadelphia on July 19 and December 15 to afford citizens an opportunity to present their views, facts and proposals, looking toward the improvement of the administrative machinery to the extent that the same may be dealt with by law.

The collected data are available for the use of the General Assembly.

FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE ON POST-HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATIONA REPORT TO THE GOVERNOR AND THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

of the
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA from the
JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION
NOVEMBER, 1948

The Joint State Government Commission was created by Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended by Act No. 380, Session of 1939, and Act No. 4, Session of 1943, as a continuing agency for the development of facts and recommendations on all phases of government for the use of the General Assembly.

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Weldon B. Heyburn, Chairman; Baker Royer, Vice Chairman; Herbert P. Sorg, Secretary-Treasurer.

SENATE MEMBERS

Joseph M. Barr, Leroy E. Chapman, John H. Dent, Anthony J. DiSilvestro, James A. Geltz, Weldon B. Heyburn, Frederick L. Homsher, A. Evans Kephart, A. H. Letzler, John G. Snowden, O. J. Tallman, M. Harvey Taylor, John M. Walker.

HOUSE MEMBERS

Hiram G. Andrews, Adam T. Bower, Homer S. Brown, Charles H. Brunner, Jr., Edwin C. Ewing, Ira T. Fiss, Robert D. Fleming, W. Stuart Helm, Earl E. Hewitt, Sr., Thomas H. Lee, Albert S. Readinger, Baker Royer, Herbert P. Sorg.

Guy W. Davis, Counsel and Director; Paul H. Wueller, Associate Director in Charge of Research and Statistics; L. D. Stambaugh, Resident Secretary; Antoinette S. Giddings, Administrative Assistant.

COMMITTEE ON POST-HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION

Appointees of the Governor

Robert L. Johnson, Chairman, President of Temple University; Theodore A. Distler, Vice Chairman, President of Franklin and Marshall College; Ralph Cooper Hutchison, President of Lafayette College; Very Reverend Francis X. N. McGuire, O.S.A., President of Villanova College; J. Belmont Mosser, Vice President of Speer Carbon Company; Alan M. Scaife, Chairman of Board, Scaife Company; Member of Board of Trustees, University of Pittsburgh; Carl E. Seifert, Executive Secretary, Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities; Herbert L. Spencer, President of Bucknell University; Robert M. Steele, President of California State Teachers College; John A. Stevenson, President of Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company; Member of Boards of Trustees, University of Pennsylvania and Temple University.

Appointees of the Speaker of the House of Representatives

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To His Excellency, the Honorable James H. Duff, Governor of Pennsylvania, and the Honorable the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The Joint State Government Commission transmits herewith report titled "Findings and Recommendations of the Committee on Post-High School Education," in accordance with the provisions of Act No. 565, Session of 1947, Section 2, which requires that the Commission shall file a report with the Governor and the General Assembly on or before November 15, 1948.

Act No. 565 authorizes a study of the educational facilities and needs of the citizens of the Commonwealth in the field of post-high school education and provides for the appointment of a committee. Concerning the appointment and functions of the Committee, Act No. 565 specifies:

"A committee which shall consist of fifteen (15) representatives of educational and other interests in the several geographical sections of the Commonwealth shall be appointed, ten (10) of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, two members shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and two members shall be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate of the General Assembly. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be a member of the committee. It shall be the duty of this committee to cooperate with the Joint State Government Commission in making the study referred to in Section one."

By October 9, 1947, the Committee appointments had been made in accordance with the statute. At the organization meeting of the Committee, held on November 6, 1947, Robert L. Johnson, President of Temple University, was elected chairman. Dr. Johnson appointed a subcommittee to outline a preliminary definition of the scope of the study and make suggestions to the full Committee regarding procedures and the employment of research personnel. On November 13, 1947, the undersigned, acting under authority of Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended, appointed five advisors in order to give representation to additional types of institutions offering post-high school instruction.

On January 8, 1948, at a meeting of the Committee on Post-High School Education, Theodore A. Distler, President of Franklin and Marshall College, was elected vice-chairman.

At this meeting the Committee urged that the Joint State Government Commission employ a survey director to plan and superintend the researches of the Committee, and requested that Dr. George Alan Works, formerly Dean of the School of Education of the University of Chicago, be engaged to serve in this capacity. The Commission followed the Committee's recommendation.

Dr. Works, in turn, selected a number of educators and others to serve as consultants. These consultants and the monographs which they prepared under the supervision of the Survey Director are listed below.

1. Engineering Education and Technical Instruction—
A. A. Potter, Dean of Engineering, Purdue University.
2. Post-High School Education in Agriculture—Ernest
L. Anthony, Dean of Agriculture, Michigan State College; William L. Slate, Director Emeritus, Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station.
3. Population of Pennsylvania: Trends in Growth, Distribution and Educational Attainment—Newton Edwards, Professor, Department of Education, University of Chicago; Herman G. Richey, Secretary,
Department of Education, University of Chicago.
4. Teacher Education in Pennsylvania—W. Earl Armstrong, Dean of Education, University of Delaware;
William J. Haggerty, President, New Paltz State
Teachers College, New York.
5. A Community-College Plan for Pennsylvania—L. V.
Koos, Professor Emeritus, Department of Education,
University of Chicago; Sebastian V. Martorana,
United States Office of Education.
6. Medical Education in Pennsylvania—Division of Public Health Methods, United States Public Health Service.
7. Dental Education in Pennsylvania—Division of Public Health Methods, United States Public Health Service.
8. Nursing Education in Pennsylvania—Division of Public Health Methods, United States Public Health Service.

On May 27, July 29, and August 26, 1948, the above data with the exception of that dealing with medical, dental, and nursing education, were reviewed by the Committee sitting with its advisors.

On September 13, 1948, the Committee and its advisors met to consider the Summary Statement and Recommendations of the Survey Director and to formulate its recommendations. Subsequent to the meeting, copies of the recommendations as agreed upon were submitted to the members of the Committee and the advisors for comment. Dr. Ralph Cooper Hutchison, Dr. Francis B. Haas, and Senator Frederick L. Homsher advised that they did not subscribe to all of the recommendations contained in the report. Others indicated a desire to file minority reports at some later date.

On September 28, 1948, Dr. Johnson presented the Official Report of the Committee on Post-High School Education to the Joint State Government Commission.

Dr. Johnson's statement of presentation, the Official Report of the Committee on Post-High School Education, Summary Statement and Recommendations of George Alan Works, Survey Director (to which the Official Report makes reference), and a Financial Statement covering expenditures incurred on behalf of the Committee, are herewith filed with Your Excellency and the General Assembly.

In view of the divergences of opinion indicated above, the Joint State Government Commission has directed its technical staff to review and supplement the material collected by the Committee on Post-High School Education.

WELDON B. HEYBURN, Chairman

Joint State Government Commission
Capitol Building
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania
November 15, 1948.

STATEMENT BY ROBERT L. JOHNSON, CHAIRMAN
OF THE COMMITTEE ON POST-HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION

The Committee wishes to express sincere appreciation and thanks to the Legislature and to Governor James H. Duff for authorizing and providing the necessary funds to conduct the study on Post-High School Education in the Commonwealth; to the Joint State Government Commission for their favorable consideration of the plan of procedure suggested by the Committee; and to Senator Weldon B. Heyburn, Chairman of the Joint State Government Commission, and his staff for their thoughtful cooperation, sympathetic understanding and help in conducting the study.

The Committee regrets that it was unable to present the type of final report which it had planned. The report is neither as extensive nor as intensive as was originally visioned. There remain many valuable conclusions still to be drawn from the mass of material collected. Lack of time precluded a more thorough consideration of the facts. The Committee would like additional time in which to complete its findings and to prepare additional recommendations.

It required a great deal of effort and time to secure competent men to do the work; however, we were fortunate to secure men of wide experience and National reputation to assist in the study. Dr. George Allan Works, the Survey Director, is well known all over the United States for his outstanding work and contributions in this field. A. A. Potter, Newton Edwards, Herman G. Richey, Leonard V. Koos, Sebastian V. Martorana, E. L. Anthony, William L. Slate, W. Earl Armstrong, William J. Haggerty, and George Perrott were well qualified and widely known for their work in their respective fields.

The conclusions by the Committee are based largely on a discussion of the recommendations by the Survey Director. It should be pointed out that the Committee did not accept or consider all of the recommendations of the Survey Director.

The following recommendations deserve favorable consideration:

1. A reorganization of the State Council of Education in order that it may become a more important factor in determining educational policies in the Commonwealth.

This to be accomplished by longer terms, staggered appointments and by permitting the Council to elect its own chairman and removing the State Superintendent of Public Instruction as a member of the Council.

2. The creation of a Division of Higher Education in the Department of Public Instruction. This Division should be directed by a Deputy or an Associate Superintendent and be responsible to the State Department of Public Instruction and to the State Council of Education. Its responsibility should be to provide leadership in post-high school education and to work for the cooperation among the various institutions. A Division of Higher Education appears to be a very important need and would solve many of our present difficulties in higher education.

3. It is recommended that the Legislature pass appropriate legislation assigning to the State Council of Education the duty and the responsibility to establish standards for extension centers and require all extension centers to secure the approval of the State Council. Further, that the State Council shall establish a policy and general regulation for the control of extension courses offered by any institutions of higher learning.

4. All grants to privately controlled State-aided institutions should be made on a basis of agreement between the State and the institutions as to the service that is to be rendered.

5. There is a definite need of some type of post-high school education of less than a four-year college curriculum. It should be on a subprofessional basis with one or two year terminal courses. Such institutions should be especially geared to the occupational opportunities of the community with specific emphasis on the technical, commercial, agricultural and home making fields. The present plan of vocational education should be incorporated in the above plan.

6. The State Council of Education has the authority to expand, contract, or redefine the functions of any or all the State Teachers Colleges; therefore, the Committee desires to call attention to the urgent need for elementary school teachers and the possibility that this might be given immediate attention. It may be possible to restrict a number of the State Teachers Colleges to the education of elementary school teachers. Another possibility would be to require all State Teachers Colleges to reserve a certain percentage of their enrollment to elementary teacher education and to limit the enrollment in other fields, namely, the secondary field.

7. All institutions on the approved list for the preparation of teachers for any certificates should be notified that this permission will be cancelled automatically three years from March 1, 1949. Institutions should be informed that their proposals for preparing teachers for the various levels and areas will be approved upon the presentation of evidence of carefully formulated goals, and adequate facilities, faculty, internal organization, and programs to prepare teachers.

8. The medical schools of Pennsylvania should develop a more general policy of giving consideration to the needs of Pennsylvania residents, since 45 per cent of the capacity of the medical schools and 48 per cent of the capacity of the dental schools is utilized by the residents of other states.

9. A new formula of State-aid for medical education should be devised, possibly a block grant to each school plus an additional grant based either on the total number of students or the total number of Pennsylvania residents enrolled in each school.

10. There should be further study given to the following areas and it is recommended that the proposed Division of Higher Education be assigned this responsibility:

- a. A comprehensive study of professional schools of nursing.
- b. Further study of medical education.
- c. Further study to determine to what extent there is a need for junior or community colleges.
- d. A careful study of scholarship plans for young people of the Commonwealth recognizing that the present scholarship plans are not entirely satisfactory nor adequate from many points of view.

OFFICIAL REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON POST-HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION

Introductory Statement

The Post-High School Committee regrets that lack of time has not permitted as complete a study as the committee would have liked to give; that it has not been possible under the circumstances for the committee to do as thorough a job as it had hoped. Both the Survey Director and the committee desired a far more intensive and extensive study than that which was possible under the time limitations. The committee strongly feels that there are certain phases of higher education which require further study and recommends that such studies continue. It is further suggested that such studies should be among the primary responsibilities of a Division of Higher Education in the Department of Public Instruction. The committee is willing to render further service, if this service is desired by the Joint State Government Commission. The committee will be very happy to meet at any time for conference or discussion of any phase of the study. The Committee deeply appreciates the opportunity which it has had to work with the Joint State Government Commission and the splendid cooperation which it has received. The committee hopes that something of value may result in the improvement of higher education in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Recommendations

The following recommendations by the committee on Post-High School Education consist of the adoption without modification of certain recommendations contained in the final report of the Survey Director, George Alan Works. Some of his recommendations were modified before approval by the committee. It should be pointed out that there are a number of recommendations in the final report of the Survey Director not referred to in this report. They were either rejected or not considered. It should be further noted that the recommendations on medical, dental and nursing education were not ready for consideration by the committee at its final meeting on September 13, 1948, but are included in this report upon the suggestion of the Chairman, Robert L. Johnsons.

Recommend—

1. That members of the State Council of Education be appointed by the Governor for nine-year terms and shall not be removed from office without due cause,

That the membership be fixed at a minimum of twelve and a maximum of eighteen with terms staggered so that the terms of two members expire each year,

That the members be representative citizens who have to be sought out for the position and who serve without compensation but receive reimbursement for expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties,

That no more than half of these members shall come from the field of education and that such members shall not be drawn from either the officers or the trustees of state-aided institutions,

That a majority of the Council shall constitute a quorum.

2. That the Council of Education be a policy making and legislative body within the limits set by the General Assembly. The executive functions should be discharged by the members of the professional staff working under the policies established by the Council.

3. That the State Superintendent of Public Instruction be the sole executive officer of the Council, but not a member of it. The Council should elect a Chairman from its own membership.

4. That an effort be made to secure an amendment to the Constitution in order that the Superintendent of Public Instruction may be nominated by the State Council of Education and appointed by the Governor for an indefinite term of office.

5. That the State Legislature create the position of Deputy or Associate Superintendent of Public Instruction who shall be given responsibility for higher education under the supervision of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. This officer should have the assistance necessary for proper conduct of the duties as have been suggested for assignment to that office.

6. That the president of the State Teachers Colleges be selected by the Boards of Trustees in cooperation with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and appointed by the State Council of Education.

7. That a careful study be made of scholarship plans for young people of the Commonwealth, recognizing that the present scholarship plans are neither entirely satisfactory nor adequate from many points of view.

8. That all grants to privately controlled State-aided institutions be made on the basis of agreements between the State and the institutions as to the service that is to be rendered.

The following statement contained on pages 8 and 9 of the Survey Director's report was approved after eliminating one paragraph and one other statement.

"The recommendations in the summary of the special report on teacher education are consistent with and, in several instances, reinforce the recommendations contained in this general report. They go into greater detail in certain phases of teacher education than does this statement. Attention is directed to specific recommendations concerning the need for continuing data regarding the supply and demand for teachers; the statutory provisions relating to teacher education; the appointment and functions of the local Boards of Trustees of the State Teachers Colleges and the relation of the State Council of Education to those institutions; the budgetary and purchasing procedures affecting the State Teachers Colleges; the relation of the State Council of Education to private institutions preparing teachers, including the criteria for approving such institutions and the method by which those criteria are administered; the need for State-wide cooperation in studying and working out solutions to problems of teacher education; the importance of in-service programs of education for teachers; and the need for greater financial support from the State for teacher education if an adequate supply of competent and qualified teachers is to be available for the children in the public schools.

"The data on financial expenditures (Chapter V) show that Pennsylvania places heavy dependence on student fees as a source of educational income. This practice, unless other sources of income can be increased, places a relatively heavy dependence on the students to meet the costs of their education. It is a well established fact that considerable numbers of able youths are deprived of the opportunity for higher education as a result of their economic status. The greater the fees the more marked the limitation becomes . . .

"The suggested expansions in engineering, which are made only after careful consideration, appear to be conservative. The director does not join in endorsing the proposal for the 200 to 500 undergraduate scholarships recommended in that report. No recommendation is made for a general program of undergraduate scholarships in this report. The suggestion of research professorships, graduate fellowships and assistantships is endorsed in the belief that the resulting studies and research will contribute materially to the development of the engineering profession in the State.

"There is a brief statement in Chapter V regarding the extension of educational facilities in which caution is urged in establishing additional State-aided privately controlled institutions. This suggestion applies with emphasis in the case of the National Agricultural College which changed from a junior college to a degree granting institution in the field of agriculture. In the opinion of the survey committee one such institution in agriculture is adequate for the needs of the Commonwealth. . . ."

The following statements by George Alan Works, Survey Director, found in his report, are submitted for conclusion in this report as suggestions, but not as recommendations of the committee.

"During the last two decades efforts have been made to increase the number of State-aided privately controlled institutions in the Commonwealth. Governors have vetoed some of these efforts in the past, and undoubtedly similar attempts will be made in the future.

"Instead of extending opportunities for higher education by this means the following suggestions are offered:

"1. Increase the State's participation in the support of publicly controlled higher education by additional aid to publicly controlled institutions now in operation or by the establishment of new publicly controlled institutions.

"2. Increase the aid to privately controlled institutions that now receive funds from the State.

"3. Establish contract colleges as is done in New York State."

Recommendations on Special Areas of Post-High School Education.

A. Community College

The committee fully recognized the need of some type of Post-High School Education on the sub-professional level and accepted the following statement contained in the Survey Director's report:

"1. Data show that Pennsylvania ranks very low in the percentage of her youth having the opportunities of post-high school education.

"2. A canvass made of the vocation interests of students graduating from senior high school in 1948 revealed that approximately three-fourths of those reporting were interested in sub-professional fields of service. The sub-professional fields of work have received little attention by most of the post-high school institutions of the Commonwealth. Emphasis is also placed on the need for this kind of training in the section of the report dealing with engineering and technical training."

The committee rejected the Survey Director's recommendations 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, & 8 and substituted the following recommendation:

"That a further study be made on a county and community basis to determine to what extent there is a need for junior or community college programs."

B. Engineering Education and Technical Training in Pennsylvania

1. Pennsylvania has 7.24 per cent of the country's population and employs more than 9 per cent of its industrial workers. It seems that considering its industrial situation the ratio of engineers to the total population will increase.

2. Programs leading to engineering degrees are offered by fifteen Pennsylvania institutions. Ten of these are on the approved list of Engineers Council for Professional Development.

3. Undergraduate enrollment in the engineering schools of Pennsylvania constitutes about 6.5 per cent of the Nation's total full-time undergraduate enrollment in this subject.

4. A conservative estimate places at 10 per cent the proportion of the output of the engineering colleges of the country that must be made available to the armed forces as civilian engineers to insure adequate national security.

5. In comparison with the assistance given to Land Grant. Colleges in other industrial states engineering education at Pennsylvania State College is receiving a small amount of financial aid from the Commonwealth.

6. It is considered desirable to increase the undergraduate enrollment in engineering by 20 per cent.

7. That a study be made to determine whether the present engineering colleges in the State can formulate a plan to increase undergraduate enrollment in engineering for the required 20 per cent set forth in item 6. The study is to determine whether such increase in enrollment can be offered without cost to the State and if not, what State funds would be required.

8. It is suggested that all the engineering schools be requested to make a study of the possibility of setting up a cooperative plan of engineering.

9. That a scholarship program be studied including engineering education and technical training.

10. That attempts be made to increase the facilities for graduate engineering and research.

11. Since training at the technical institute level is most inadequate, it is recommended that the State give special consideration to the development of technical institutes at industrial centers. The present part-time programs provide opportunities for about 7000. This number should be increased to about 20,000 to insure about 2000 graduates a year.

It is recommended that further study be made by the State Council of Education in conjunction with the study of junior or community colleges.

12. The full-time programs enroll about 1500. This should be increased to about 2500 which should result in 500 to 750 graduates a year.

13. These expansions would involve an annual expenditure of about a million dollars for operating expenses.

C. Agricultural Education

1. The School of Agriculture is one of the seven schools of Pennsylvania State College. Its organization is based on its three-fold functions: resident instruction, research (The Agricultural Experiment Station), and extension.

2. The resident instruction consists of a considerable variety of short courses; technical preparation leading to the bachelor's degree; graduate instruction designed to prepare teachers, researchers and other workers at the professional level.

3. It is recommended that the School increase its emphasis on the two-year vocational curriculum. The logical place to develop this program is at the State School where the faculty, farms, herds, and flocks are to be found. In the opinion of the survey committee it would be a mistake to locate it elsewhere.

4. It is recommended that facilities be provided for a minimum of 500 short course students. The need for housing is especially urgent. These facilities should be provided even though they may call for a decrease in the emphasis given some of the present activities of the College.

5. The Agricultural Experiment Station, which has had a long record of service to the State, should have more adequate financial support than it is now receiving.

6. At present college policy prohibits cooperation of the Agricultural Extensions Service with such Federal agencies as the Soil Conservation Service. The policy has brought some criticism of the Extension Service. The extension staff is following the instruction of the Board of Trustees of the College.

D. Population of Pennsylvania: Trends in Growth, Distribution and Educational Attainment

1. If birth and death rates fluctuate in the State about the same as for the rest of the Nation, it appears that the number of young persons of college age in the Commonwealth will not again exceed the number in this age group in 1945 except during a period centering around the decade 1960-1970.

2. It appears all too clear that in view of the increasing demands which modern life makes upon trained intelligence, technical skill, and social understanding far too few of the youth of Pennsylvania are acquiring any part of a college education. This conclusion seems all the more true when the record of educational attainment of the youth of Pennsylvania at the college level is compared with the record of youth in other states. When its educational attainment is measured by the percentage of its population 25 to 29 years of age in 1940 who had completed two or more years of college, or four or more years of college, Pennsylvania ranks extremely low in comparison with other States. In the percentage of its total population in this age group that had attended college two or more years Pennsylvania ranked eleventh from the bottom.

In 1940, Pennsylvania ranked lowest among the states for which data are available in the percentage of its white urban population 25 to 29 years of age that had attained two or more years of college education.

E. Teacher Education

1. Three factors are contributing to the teacher shortage (a) opportunities in other fields; (b) loss in relative prestige of the teaching profession; (c) low salaries paid teachers.

2. Shortage of teachers in elementary schools is greater than in high schools.

3. There is need for data bearing on supply and demand of teachers, and it is recommended that the State Council of Education make provision for the continuing collection of such data.

4. Recommendations affecting the State organization for teacher education:

(a) That it be clearly established that the State Council of Education is the responsible agency for the determination of educational policies and plans at the post-high school level for State-aided and State-controlled institutions.

(b) That provision be made for the nomination of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction by the State Council of Education and appointment by the Governor for an indefinite term.

(c) That the Department of Public Instruction be placed under the jurisdiction of the State Council of Education with a professional staff headed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(d) That the General Assembly place matters of detailed policy concerning teacher education in the hands of the State Council of Education.

5. As a means of further clarification of the place of the State Teachers Colleges in teacher education the following recommendations are made:

(a) Since the State Council of Education has the authority to expand, contract, or redefine the functions of any or all of the State Teachers Colleges, the committee desires to call attention to the urgent need for elementary school teachers and urges that this need be given immediate attention.

(b) Make provision for the local Boards of Trustees to be appointed by the State Council of Education on the recommendation of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(c) Among the responsibilities of the Board of Trustees should be: final approval of curriculum problems on recommendation of faculties and presidents; appointment of staff members on recommendation of the presidents of the Colleges; authorization that each institution be a body authorized to receive, hold locally, and expand or dispose of any money or property from public or other sources except that which comes through appropriations by the General Assembly.

(d) It is recommended that the presidents of the State Teachers Colleges be selected by the Boards of Trustees in cooperation with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and be appointed by the State Council of Education.

(e) The liaison between the State Department of Public Instruction and the Colleges should be through the office responsible for post-high school education.

(f) The identity of the budgets of the individual State Teachers Colleges should be maintained from the time they are formulated until the funds are expended.

6. It is recommended that all institutions now on the approved list for the preparation of teachers for any certificates should be notified that this permission will be cancelled automatically three years from March 1, 1949. Institutions should be informed that their proposals for preparing teachers for the various levels and areas will be approved upon the presentation of evidence of carefully formulated goals, and adequate facilities, faculty, internal organization, and programs to prepare teachers.

7. A program of in-service education for teachers should be formulated under the general direction of the State Department of Public Instruction.

F. Medical and Dental Education

Pennsylvania provides more than its share of the medical education of the Nation. It educates 10.5 per cent of the doctors and 12.1 per cent of the dentists, but utilizes itself only 7.7 per cent of the doctors and 8.4 per cent of the dentists.

The Commonwealth does not meet the demands for such education for its own residents. Available figures indicate that for both medicine and dentistry there are each year many qualified applicants who do not secure admission to those professional schools.

Although Pennsylvania has relatively ample facilities for medical and dental education, about 45 per cent of the capacity of the medical schools and 48 per cent of the capacity of the dental schools is utilized by the residents of other states. To give Pennsylvania residents an opportunity equal to that of many other states would require either increasing the enrollment of the Pennsylvania schools or the development of a more general policy of giving consideration to the needs of Pennsylvania residents.

Elsewhere in this report the establishment of a division or bureau of post-high school education is suggested. It is recommended that this bureau give early consideration to the following problems in medical and dental education.

1. The determination of a policy to meet the needs of Pennsylvania youth for medical and dental education.

2. Study the possibility of devising a formula for State financial aid to the medical and dental schools. Consideration should be given to the feasibility of a block grant to each school plus an additional grant based either on the total number of students or the total number of Pennsylvania residents enrolled in each school.

G. Nursing Needs and Resources

There is a marked deficiency in the numbers of nurses available for the several different forms of nursing service. To correct this situation 5000 to 6000 nurses should be graduated annually during the next few years.

There are at present 128 schools approved for the education of professional and non-professional nursing personnel. There are marked differences in the quality of the work done in the schools.

It is recommended that the suggested division or bureau of higher education make a comprehensive study of these schools including plans for the education of the professional nurse in both basic and advanced programs as well as for training programs for the non-professional nurse.

SUMMARY STATEMENT AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF GEORGE ALAN WORKS, SURVEY DIRECTOR

The study of post-high school education in Pennsylvania, beginning with the appointment of the Director on January 26, 1948, has involved the services and cooperation of many individuals and groups of persons in the State. In addition to the consultants who prepared reports in special fields, groups of persons engaged in working in those fields have been called together from time to time, to contribute suggestions, criticisms, and points of view arising out of their experience.

The Committee authorized in the law "To cooperate in making the study" has cooperated at all points during the progress of the work, not only through meetings of the Committee as a whole, but through meetings of its Steering Committee and through the help of individual members of the Committee on various problems. The suggestions of individual members and the deliberations of the Committee have influenced the course of the study from its inception.

The collection of data began with the preparation of the following reports:

1. Engineering Education and Technical Instruction, Dean A. A. Potter, Purdue University.

2. Post-High School Education in Agriculture, Dean E. L. Anthony Michigan State College, and Dr. William L. Slate, Director Emeritus of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station.

3. Population of Pennsylvania: Trends in Growth, Distribution and Educational Attainment. Professor Newton Edwards, University of Chicago, and Professor Henry G. Richey, University of Chicago.

4. Teacher Education in Pennsylvania, Dean W. Earl Armstrong, University of Delaware and President William J. Haggerty, State Teachers College, New Paltz, New York.

5. A Community-College Plan for Pennsylvania, Leonard V. Koos, Professor Emeritus, University of Chicago

6. Medical Education in Pennsylvania.

7. Dental Education in Pennsylvania.

8. Nursing Education in Pennsylvania.

Reports Nos. 6, 7 and 8 were prepared in cooperation with the Division of Public Health Methods, United States Public Health Service.

Each member of the Committee has been furnished with copies of these reports except the last three. They will be completed October 1, 1948.

During the time the consultants were preparing the foregoing special reports Mary Elizabeth Schlayer and the director prepared a General Report consisting of the following chapters:

Chapter I. Post-High School Educational Institutions in Pennsylvania

Chapter II. Education at Post-High School Level in Pennsylvania

Chapter III. The State Council of Education and Post-High School Education

Chapter IV. Enrollment Data

Chapter V. Economic and Financial Data

Using the data from the studies made by the consultants and those made in the director's office this general statement has been prepared by the director. It includes what appear to be more significant aspects of Post-High School Education in Pennsylvania.

The data in the special report on population (Report C) and Chapter II (Education at the Post-High School Level in Pennsylvania) reveal a picture of a relatively low level of college attainment on the part of the population of the Commonwealth. If the citizens of the State are interested in improving this situation the report on a Community College Plan for Pennsylvania is recommended as a practicable one. Furthermore, the report on Teacher Education carries a statement from the consultants in that phase of the study indicating that they believe the adoption of the community-college plan would contribute materially to the program of Teacher Education of the State by increasing the supply of prospective teachers through making it possible for large numbers of young persons to begin their pre-professional work at lower costs than are now possible. The community-college would serve the same function with regard to other professions as well as furnish an opportunity for a broader basis for citizenship for large numbers of youths.

Data obtained through a questionnaire sent to all high schools in the State, that had students completing the work of the senior year, revealed that approximately 75 per cent of the seniors reporting were interested in secur-preparation for some subprofessional type of service rather than a professional career. This is an area of educational service in which the higher institutions of Pennsylvania have done relatively little. The report on Engineering Education and Technical Training makes definite suggestions concerning the numbers of students the State should have enrolled on a full-time and on a part-time basis in this phase of higher education. These estimates cover only the phases of technical training related to engineering.

There are two questions in connection with the technical institute that should be borne in mind. As developed in the engineering field the technical institute is only one of the forms which should be available. There is a need for parallel opportunities for youths to prepare as clerical workers, laboratory technicians, farmers, and home makers, and other like opportunities for usefulness.

There appears to be an honest difference of opinion among those interested in this form of preparation as to where it should be placed in a State plan of education. The question is whether it should be developed as a part of the locally controlled school program or whether this development should come through the establishment of State Schools. Experience may show that for some condition both types of institutions may be needed but it is evident that it is a field of service in which the community college can make a large contribution.

The short-course work in agriculture (Report D) comes within the scope of the kind of training under consideration. In that report a great deal of attention is given to the need for instruction in farming through the development of short-courses or terminal programs, especially of the two-year type. Emphasis is placed on the importance of locating the instruction at the State School of Agriculture. The facilities and faculty are there and to duplicate them would involve heavy expenditures. If the demand for instruction in agriculture at the short-course level becomes so heavy that it cannot be met at one location, other centers, if established, should be under the supervision of the School of Agriculture as a means of safeguarding against over expansion.

For the country as a whole there has been a marked increase in the past generation in the expenditure of public funds for post-high school education. As is pointed out in this study (Chapter V) Pennsylvania has placed relatively little dependence on funds from public sources. In spite of this fact it will be seen from the table in Chapter I that the amount of money appropriated by the General Assembly for higher education has reached sizeable proportions. With the lapse of time the amount expended from State sources on post-high school education will almost certainly increase. Furthermore, it seems highly probable that the proportion of the funds expended for post-high school education coming from the State will increase.

The increase in the number of publicly-controlled higher institutions, the multiplicity of curriculms, the duplication of work and requests for public funds have directed attention in many states to a consideration of means by which the efforts of the publicly-controlled higher institutions can be coordinated so as to give the maximum return on the expenditures. As a result of this movement, in the past generation, thirteen states have replaced their several boards of control of public higher institutions with a single board for the purpose of securing a greater degree of unification in their programs of higher education.

Pennsylvania has fourteen State Teachers Colleges each with its own Board of Trustees. These institutions, however, are under the general supervision of the State Council of Education which has ample authority for coordinating their efforts.

In addition to the State Teachers Colleges there are twelve privately-controlled colleges and universities receiving financial aid from the State. They are known as State-aided institutions. It is no reflection on those responsible for the guidance of these institutions to suggest that very naturally they have a tendency to look at the educational needs of the State from an institutional point of view a problem that is discussed in Chapter III of this report. In the judgment of members of the survey staff some provision should be made for the further coordination of the expenditures of State funds through the State-aided colleges and universities in Pennsylvania.

In the opinion of the staff this can be done best by a further development of the means now used. Briefly stated this would be through a lay board consisting of outstanding citizens serving the Commonwealth without compensation. This body should have authority to determine educational policies within the limits set by the legislature. And it should have a professional staff competent to execute the policies established by it. The State has created the State Council of Education which in a measure meets the need but not as completely as seems desirable but it does appear to furnish a basis for further development. The functions envisioned by the survey staff are considered in Chapter III of this report, in the special report on Teacher Education, and in the consideration of Senatorial Scholarships in Chapter V.

Apparently the State Council of Education has legal authority for the discharge of most of the functions suggested in Chapter III but apparently they are not fully meeting them except in the case of the State Teachers Colleges. It is recommended that the State Council of Education accept the responsibilities outlined in this report in full if it has legal authority for such action. If it does not have the authority, it should be assigned to the Council by the General Assembly.

The list of proposed functions will increase materially the activities of the State Council of Education over those now exercised by that body. To make for their most effective discharge the following suggestions are ordered:

1. Members of the State Council of Education should be appointed for nine year terms instead of six ; now provided by law. There are nine members of the Council and it is recommended this number be continued with the terms staggered so that one term expires each year. The purpose is to reduce the dangers of abrupt changes of policy.

2. The members of the Council should be appointed by the Governor as is now the case. They should be layman, who serve without compensation, but receive reimbursement for expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties. They should be representative citizens who would have to be sought out for the position.

3. The Council of Education should be a policy making and legislative body within the limits set by the General Assembly. The executive functions should be discharged by the members of the professional staff working under the policies established by the Council.

4. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction should be the sole executive officer of the Council but he should not be a member of it. The Council should elect a Chairman from its own membership.

5. The appointment of the executive officer of a council or state board by that body itself is generally regarded by students of educational administration as the most desirable procedure. In Pennsylvania the Superintendent of Public Instruction is appointed by the Governor. To have him elected by the State Council of Education would require an amendment of the Constitution of the State. It is recommended that an effort be made to secure such an amendment.

6. Reference has been made to the need for a professional staff to deal with problems in post-secondary education. To meet this situation it is recommended that the position of Deputy or Associate Superintendent of Public Instruction be created and given responsibility for higher education under the supervision of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. This officer should have the assistance necessary for the proper conduct of duties such as have been suggested for assignment to that office.

7. The choice of an individual for the presidency of a teachers college should be subject to the approval by the Superintendent of Public Instruction rather than by the Governor as is now the case.

8. Appointments to the staff in the Department of Public Instruction should be made by the State Council of Education only on the recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The recommendations in the summary of the special report on teacher education are consistent with, and in several instances, reinforce the recommendations contained in this general report. They go into greater detail in certain phases of teacher education than does this statement, and attention is called to specific recommendations concerning: the need for continuing data regarding the supply and demand for teachers; the statutory provisions relating to teacher education; the appointment and functions of the local Boards of Trustees of the State Teachers Colleges and the relation of the State Council of Education to those institutions; the budgetary and purchasing procedures affecting the State Teachers Colleges; the relation of the State Council of Education to private institutions preparing teachers including the criteria for approving such institutions and the method by which those criteria are administered; the need for State-wide cooperation in studying and working out solutions to problems of teacher education; the importance of in-service programs of education for teachers; and the need for greater financial support from the State for teachers education if an adequate supply of competent and qualified teachers is to be available for the children in the public schools.

The data on financial expenditures (Chapter V) show that Pennsylvania places heavy dependence on student fees as a source of educational income. This practice, unless other sources of income can be increased, places a relatively heavy dependence on the students to meet the costs of their education. It is a well established fact that considerable numbers of able youths are deprived of the opportunity for higher education as a result of their economic status and the greater the fees the more marked the limitation becomes.

The report on engineering (Engineering Education and Technical Training (Report B) recognizes this situation by suggesting that two institutions with relatively low fees be encouraged to expand their facilities to accommodate a total of 2500 to 3000 additional students. The utilization of institutions with relatively low fees is sound in view of the effect of heavy tuition fees. It would in the opinion of the survey staff be a distinct gain for the youth of the State if there were more opportunities for them to attend good low cost institutions.

The suggested expansions in engineering which are made only after careful consideration appear to be conservative. The director does not join in endorsing the proposal for the 200 to 500 undergraduate scholarships recommended in that report. No recommendation is made for a general program of undergraduate scholarships in this report. The suggestion of research professorships, graduate fellowships and assistantships are endorsed in the belief that they will contribute materially to the development of the engineering profession in the State.

There is a brief statement in Chapter V regarding the extension of educational facilities in which caution is urged in establishing additional Stateaided privately controlled institutions. This suggestion applies with emphasis in the case of the National Agricultural College which changed from a junior college to a degree granting institution in the field of agriculture. In the opinion of the survey committee one such institution in agriculture is adequate for the needs of the Commonwealth and it is suggested that State funds should not be appropriated to the National Agriculture College.

During the last two decades efforts have been made to increase the number of State-aided privately controlled institutions in the Commonwealth. Governors have vetoed some of these efforts in the past but undoubtedly similar attempts will be made in the future.

Instead of extending opportunities for higher education by this means the following suggestions are offered:

1. Increase the State's participation in the support of publicly controlled higher education by additional aid to publicly controlled institutions now in operation or by the establishment of new publicly controlled institutions.

2. Increase the aid to privately controlled institutions that now receive funds from the State.

3. Establish contract colleges as is done in New York State.

All grants to privately controlled State-aided institutions should be made on the basis of agreements between the State and the institutions as to the service that is to be rendered.

In this same chapter consideration is given to Senatorial scholarships. The conclusion reached is that they should be discontinued and it is so recommended. In case this step cannot be taken it is suggested that the selection of the recipients should be left to the State Department of Public Instruction.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended by Act No. 380, Session of 1939, Section 2(b), we submit herewith a report dealing with the decision of the Pennsylvania Superior Court in the Hatfield Case and the implications of the decision as regards the future of extracurricular activities, such as sports, carried on in conjunction with the instructional programs of the public schools.

In accordance with Act No. 4, Session of 1943, Section 1, the Commission created a "subcommittee" to facilitate and expedite the investigation and the formulation of remedial legislation.

On behalf of the Commission the cooperation of the members of the subcommittee is gratefully acknowledged.

WELDON B. HEYBURN, Chairman.

Joint State Government Commission

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The decision of the Pennsylvania Superior Court in the case of Hatfield Township School District Auditors' Petition, to the effect that monies collected in the form of admission and membership fees "must be handled exactly as tax monies" has caused confusion and uncertainty in the conduct of desirable extracurricular activities such as sports and other events traditionally carried on in conjunction with instructional programs in the public schools.

The Commission recommends remedial legislation which will facilitate the financing of extracurricular activities in the traditional manner subject, however, to official audit and control by local school boards.

I. FINANCING OF EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES PRIOR TO SUPERIOR COURT'S DECISION

Prior to the decision of the Pennsylvania Superior Court in the Hatfield case, extracurricular activities of the public schools were financed out of membership and admission fees. In some school districts it was established practice to subject the financial transaction coincident to extracurricular activities to a school district audit. In other districts the financial management was not subject to a district audit, but was handled by some school employee. The arrangement made for considerable flexibility in the management of activities which are not an integral part of the instructional program.

It appears that the latitude for which these arrangements provided is essential if athletic, dramatic and other events are to be an adjunct to regular instructional programs. Latitude is essential because the present School Code rigidly prescribes the expenditures which school boards may legally make. For example, the School Code does not authorize school boards to purchase liability insurance. Some districts consider such coverage desirable.

II. THE FACTS OF THE HATFIELD CASE AND THE SUPERIOR COURT'S DECISION

The facts of the Hatfield case are briefly as follows:

Monies raised by various classes, athletic and school activities were deposited in an "activities account" and a savings account in charge of the supervising principal of the "Hatfield Joint Consolidated School District" (Montgomery County). The supervising principal kept a ledger purporting to show that the monies received from various activities were divided into separate accounts. There were other accounts or funds of the school district, derived from taxes, which were paid by the school district into the activities account to be used as petty cash for some of the general expense items of the district. The auditors of the district requested the production of the records pertaining to the "activities account." The board refused to produce the records of the accounts which did not involve monies of the district. The auditors, upon a petition granted by the lower court, obtained an order upon the school board to produce the accounts and records in question. From this order an appeal was taken to the Superior Court by the officers' board of directors and supervising principal of the school district.

The Superior Court, in considering the whole subject, stated that "where monies or property are derived directly or indirectly through the use of school buildings, or from the expenditure of public funds of the district, the monies thus derived are public property, must be handled exactly as tax monies and be paid to the district treasurer." The court observed that to give any other plan, "wise and honest as it may be, a legal status, requires a legislative enactment, for which even the best of intentions is no substitute."

III. REMEDIAL LEGISLATION

Upon examination of the pertinent facts and in consultation with representatives of the Pennsylvania State School Directors' Association, the Pennsylvania State Education Association, and the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association, the Commission has concluded that:

1. Properly controlled, adequately supervised, and soundly financed extracurricular activities constitute a desirable part of the program of the public schools.
2. The impact of the Superior Court decision upon extracurricular activities is likely to result in their severe curtailment or elimination.
3. Procedures previously followed by local authorities, though these authorities acted in good faith, may be questioned if not in conformity with the Superior Court decision.

Under the circumstances, the Commission recommends the following changes in the School Code to the General Assembly:

1. Addition of a section validating the acts of local authorities which do not conform to the decision of the Superior Court in the Hatfield case.
2. A clarification of Section 627 of the School Code, so that school premises may be used by organizations indirectly associated with education, without obligation to the board for income received from such use.
3. Amend Section 405 by authorizing school organizations to raise and expend funds under the control of said organizations, but subject to official audit.
4. Authorize the board to pay to any activities fund, monies paid to the school board from such funds since September 30, 1947, the date the decision in the Hatfield case. Such authorization, however, shall not extend into the future following the effective date of the proposed legislation.
5. Provide for the bonding of persons charged with the custody of activities funds.
6. Authorize the board to make rules and regulations governing the establishment and maintenance of such funds.

Drafts of legislation designed to carry the above recommendations into effect will be found in Appendix A.

APPENDIX A

Proposed Amendments to the School Code

Section 405. (a) The board of school directors or the board of public education in every school district, [of the first or second class shall and in every district of the third or fourth class may,] shall prescribe, adopt and enforce such reasonable rules and regulations as it may deem proper, regarding: (1) the management, supervision, control or prohibition of exercises, athletics, or games of any kind [taken part in or played by any pupils as members of or in connection with any public school,] school publications, debating, forensic, dramatic, musical, and other activities related to the school program, including raising and disbursing funds for any or all of such purposes and for scholarships; and [regarding] (2) the organization, management, supervision, control, financing, or prohibition of [school publications and of] organizations, clubs, [or] societies and groups of the members of any class or school; and may provide for the suspension, dismissal, or other reasonable penalty in the case of any appointee, professional or other employee, or pupil who violates any of such rules [and] or regulations.

(b) Any school or any class, activity, or organization thereof, with the approval of the board, may affiliate with any local, district, regional, state, or national organization whose purposes and activities are appropriate to and related to the school program.

Section 405.1 (a) The board of school directors may (1) permit the use of school property, real or personal, for the purpose of conducting any activity related to the school program, or by any school or class organization, club, society or group, (2) authorize any school employee or employees to manage, supervise and control the development and conduct of any of such activities, (3) employ or assign any school employee to serve in any capacity in connection with any of such activities.

(b) Notwithstanding the use of school property or personnel, it shall be lawful for any school or any class, or any organization, club, society or group thereof, to raise, expend or hold funds, including balances carried over from year to year, in its own name and under its own management, under the supervision of the principal or other professional employee of the school district designated by the board. Such funds shall not be the funds of the school district, but shall remain the property of the respective school, class, organization, club, society or group. The treasurer or custodian of such funds shall furnish to the school district a proper bond, in such amount and with such surety or sureties as the board shall approve, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer or custodian. The premium of such bond, if any, shall be paid from the fund or funds secured thereby or from the funds of the school district, at the discretion of the board. The treasurer or custodian shall be required to maintain an accounting system approved by the board, shall deposit the funds in a depository approved by the board, shall submit a financial statement to the board, quarterly, or oftener at the discretion of the board, and shall submit the accounts to be audited in like manner as the accounts of the school district.

(c) All purchases of materials or supplies made by any organization, club, society or group, or by any school or class, in excess of three hundred dollars, shall be made upon solicitation of quotations or bids from three or more responsible manufacturers of, or dealers in such materials or supplies. All such purchases shall be made from the lowest responsible bidder on the basis of price and quality.

Section 4. Whenever heretofore any board of school directors of any district shall have permitted the retention and expenditure or use, by any organization, club, society or group of members of any class or school, or by any class or school, of monies and property realized from athletic events or games of any kind, or from school publications of debating, forensic, dramatic, musical or other activities related to the school program—if such action does not evidence any fraud or conspiracy to violate the provisions of the school laws, then such action of the board of school directors shall be valid and binding on the school district and the same is hereby ratified, confirmed and validated, notwithstanding the fact that such monies or property may have been derived directly or indirectly through the use of public property of the school district or from the expenditure of tax monies. No board of school directors, nor any member, officer or employee thereof, shall be subject to surcharge for, on account of any such action.

Section 5. The board of school directors of any district is hereby authorized and empowered to refund and appropriate to any class or school, or to any organization, club, society or group of members of any class or school, any monies or property realized from athletic events or games of any kind, or from school publications, or debating, forensic, dramatic, musical or other activities related to the school program, that heretofore became the property of the school district, whether or not such monies or property have been derived directly or indirectly through the use of public property of the school district or from the expenditure of tax monies.

Section 627. Insert between paragraphs one and two the following:

Funds raised by individuals, groups, associations, or corporations through the permissive use of school grounds or buildings, now or hereafter authorized by law, shall be the property of the individuals, groups, associations, or corporations and not the property of the school district, subject, however, to such lease, rental or tax charges as the board may at its discretion lawfully impose.

APPENDIX B

Text of Opinion of the Pennsylvania Superior Court in the Cost of Hatfield Township School District Auditors' Petition, 161, Pa. Superior Ct., 388 (1947).

Opinion by Arnold, J., September 30, 1947:

This appeal is from an order of the court below directing the officers, directors and supervising principal of the Hatfield Joint Consolidated School District to comply with a duces tecum subpoena issued by the official auditors calling for the production of various books, vouchers and papers.

The Hatfield Joint Consolidated School District was formed by the school districts of the borough of Hatfield and the township of Hatfield. Its bank account is carried by its treasurer in the Hatfield National Bank under the name, "Hatfield Joint Consolidated School District," hereafter called the "official account." The warrants or vouchers thereon are executed by the proper officers of the district.

In the same bank is an account called "Hatfield Joint School Accounts," and the sole right to withdraw funds therefrom is possessed by Elmer B. Laudenslager, the supervising principal. This we will refer to as the "activities account." The appellants challenge the right of the statutory auditors to examine this account.

Prior to 1936 money raised by various classes, athletic and school activities had been banked separately with an account for each particular activity, including the athletic association. This resulted in a considerable number of separate bank accounts, all of which bore some relationship to the high school.

In 1936 the board of the consolidated school passed a resolution that the activity and the athletic association accounts be consolidated "under the supervision of the supervising principal and the control of the school board . . . , and [that] the account be audited annually." (emphasis supplied.) A later resolution provided that money raised by any class, or through the school, must be used for a class memorial, or a trip to Washington; and any balance be given to the alumni association, the library, or other school activity. By resolution the supervising principal and the treasurer were to sign the vouchers. Later, with the acquiescence of the board, withdrawals were had on the signature of the supervising principal only. In 1937 by resolution all student class funds prior to 1936 were appropriated to the general fund of the consolidated school. A similar resolution confiscated other class monies.

The system thus initiated continued, and into this one activities account, the sole power over which was in the supervising principal (although presumably he was subject to the direction of the board), went monies derived from athletics, dramatics, the school paper, and school annual, various manual training shop activities, and a number of other similar enterprises.

For the fiscal year 1943-1944 there passed into this account over $13,000; for the year 1944-1945, over $16,000.

The supervising principal kept a ledger which purported to show that these monies were divided into some twenty-six accounts, each of which was "an activity." In 1943-1944 the bank balance, thus on paper divided among the various activities, was over $4,000; and for 1944-1945, over $4,500.

In addition to this checking account there was carried in the same bank a savings account, in excess of $1800 and also under the sole control of the supervising principal. This savings account, too, was divided on the ledger of the supervising principal into six accounts: Hatfield Joint School; Library; Farmcraft; Miscellaneous Department; Athletic Association; Orange and Black (school publications.)

Both the checking and the savings accounts created from these activities were "audited" only by two members of the school board appointed by the president, and their so-called audit was offered in evidence. It did not show the sources of the deposits but merely the gross deposits of $11,411.06, during the fiscal year 1943-44. It did not show the items withdrawn nor to whom paid, but merely the aggregate checks which were in excess of $9,400. In the year 1944-45 the checks paid were in excess of $12,000.

In the ledger of the supervising principal was a "miscellaneous general account," a "miscellaneous tuition account" and a "miscellaneous book account," and each showed a balance in varying amounts. These admittedly were funds of the school district derived from taxes, and by the school district paid into the activities account, and used as a petty cash account of the consolidated school district, known colloquially as an "In and Out Account." Thus from the activities account were paid items of general expense of the school district, such as janitor's salary, school supplies and fuel.

The appellant concedes that these three accounts are subject to official audit, but contends that the school district need only show, (a) the vouchers from the district to the activities account, (b) proper vouchers from the activities account for proper expenditures, and (c) the balance on hand. But on this phase the whole account is subject to audit, and not the particular items sought to be segregated. Apparently the activities account carried by the supervising principal is treated by the appellant as creating a debtor-creditor relationship between the some twenty-six activities (including the school district itself) and the supervising principal, and that the "debt" owed the school district is to be audited by merely an inspection of the ledger balance. But to determine whether there are sufficient funds to pay these three "creditor" activities the balances thus shown on the ledger, there must be a determination of whether sufficient funds are on hand to pay the other twenty-three; otherwise if there is a shortage so that all may not be paid, there would be so way of determining where the shortage should fall. But the supervising principal is not a licensed private banker, though he is acting as if he were. The funds of the district rather are trust funds in his hands, which he and the board have intentionally intermingled with other funds. This carries the whole intermingled fund into audit, for the activities account is subject to check for other purposes than that of the school district. This is an illegal device and contrary to the School Code. It is also subject to official audit to safeguard the public funds. The activity account concerned in this appeal is subject to audit for another reason: The monies are under the control of the district, acting through its directors. It determines what may be done with funds derived from these class activities. It determines what bills shall be paid from the funds derived from activities such as athletics, school publications and dramatics. While the checks or vouchers are manually executed by the supervising principal, they are in fact issued by the board through him as its agent. They are therefore subject to an official audit, for §2601 of the School Code of 1911 (24 PS 2201) provides: "The finances of every school district . . . , in every department thereof, together with the accounts of all school treasurers, school depositors, . . . directors' association funds, sinking funds, and other funds belonging to or controlled by the district, shall be properly audited. . . ." (emphasis supplied.)

Appellants also allege in this case that the duces tecum subpoena was invalid because it summoned each of them (who were in fact officers of the consolidated district) to bring with them the papers and records of the school district of the township, and did not require the records of the consolidated district. But when the appellants appeared before the auditors, in obedience to the subpoena (and this they were bound to do regardless of the duces tecum clause) they did not refuse to produce the papers of the consolidated school district because they had not been called for by the duces tecum clause. Instead they stated that they had brought with them the documents of the consolidated school, but that they refused to give them up to the auditors. The reason now alleged as an excuse for disobeying the subpoena its not the reason on which they stood.

Appellants have asked us to determine whether the activities account is subject to official audit even though no tax monies were in it, and state: "This question is a matter of interest to every district in the Commonwealth. The decision in this case will affect every school district. . . . [and] . . . will decide once and for all the status of such funds . . . even as the legislature established the status of the cafeteria funds (§8 of Act of 1931, P. L. 243, and Act of 1945, P. L. 688, (24 PS 331)]." Indeed the evidence in this case disclosed four other nearby communities operating a similar system, and in fact the system is widespread. It is fraught with great danger. High school football and other athletics have achieved great popularity, and this means that almost any school district, depending in a degree upon the skill of the athletes, has athletic events the admission fees of which aggregate a large sum of money, probably in excess of $10,000. It would be a great blow to the public school system if, by embezzlement or lack of care, such funds should be lost. Not only has the school board a moral duty to perform but there is also a legislative imperative. The public school system of this Commonwealth is entirely statutory. Within the constitutional limitations the legislature is supreme, and there reposes in the courts no power to permit deviation from its commands; and neither the local school districts nor the State Department of Education may by-pass the duties enjoined.

In the so-called activity accounts various situations obtain. Of course, if pupils of a class give money to a supervising principal to purchase for them class jewelry or similar things, the school district has no official duty (although it may have a moral duty), for the supervising principal acts as agent of the pupils. This is the smaller end of the problem. At the other pole, a school district, acting under the express provisions of §405 of the Code, 24 PS 339, has athletic events. These activities produce large sums of money from paid admission. Under the instant system these sums of money are not disbursed through the treasurer, nor through a resolution of the board, but are solely at the command of one individual, who has no statutory standing or duty. It is possible that some school district may neither directly nor indirectly furnish any money for the playing field or stadium; or for the coaching of the athletics, or for their uniforms or playing togs, or for the apparatus with which the sport is connected, or for the lighting of the field; although it is very doubtful whether such case exists. But it is certainly true that, if a school district operates and expends tax money for the acquisition, maintenance or lighting of the playing field, or for the payment of services of a coach, the admissions charged result from the use of public property and from the expenditure of tax monies and are the property of the school district, must go into the official account of the treasurer thereof, and are subject to audit.

The monies derived from the sale of admissions to witness the event in question come into being because of (1) the use and wear of the school building and grounds; (2) the use and wear on personal property owned by the district; (3) the payment to employees such as coaches for their services; (4) the payment by the district for light, heat and various maintenance charges, including janitor service. By reason of the use of these public funds the event takes place and from it are reaped the admission fees paid to witness the performance. The pupils are not expected to and do not furnish any of the money. The admission fees could not belong to them, and indeed if taken they would be professional instead of amateurs. The spectators are not to get their money back. No one has any investment except the school district. The money raised by admissions therefore belongs to the district, which by its property and funds made the admission fees possible.

Of lesser importance, but in the same category, are the admission fees charged for dramatic and musical enterprises held in the buildings of the district. These belong to the district for the same reasons and with the same results. For instance, the school districts usually and properly provide musical instruments, just as they provide equipment and uniforms for athletics. In the instant case admission fees were expended through the activities account for such instruments, but it was frankly admitted that when bought the instruments belonged to the district. So do the admission fees themselves.

We have not attempted to discuss each situation that may present itself, but where monies or property are derive directly or indirectly through the use of school buildings, or from the expenditure of public funds of the district, the monies thus derived are public property, must be handled exactly as tax monies and be paid to the district treasurer.

We have some difficulty in understanding why it is desirable to have this system, which is alleged to be general in the state, and thus handle these funds separate and apart from the general funds of the district. It is said that it is a convenience, although of course convenience cannot over-ride the legislative mandate that the funds must be handled by the treasurer. There would seem to be no greater inconvenience in placing these funds with the school treasurer and having the same sort of ledge accounts opened as are exhibited in this system; or separate bank accounts could be opened by the treasurer for the athletic or other activities of the school district. If the purpose is to encourage the activities to be self-supporting; or to discourage the excessive use of tax monies to promote activities;—the same result can also be accomplished by this method. Certain it is that the statute never contemplated that large sums of money thus coming in through the use of the school property and appropriations should pass into the hands of those who are not officials and have no public or official responsibility, who are not statutorily required to be bonded, and whose expenditures are not subject to public inspection and audit. Probably the real reason for the system lies in the fact that those in charge of our schools, having full confidence in their own integrity and educational skill, feel that there would be considerable difficulty in making members of the public understand the wisdom of the expenditures in question. With that position we have sympathy, but to give that plan, wise and honest as it may be, a legal status, requires a legislative enactment, for which even the best of intentions is no substitute.

Order affirmed.

² By the School Code of 1911, §2514, 24 PS 2173, library accounts are also subject to official audit.

THE CODIFICATION OF THE SCHOOL LAWS

A REPORT OF THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

JANUARY, 1949

The Joint State Government Commission was created by Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended by Act No. 380, Session of 1939, and Act No. 4, Session of 1943, as a continuing agency for the development of facts and recommendations on all phases of government for the use of the General Assembly.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended by Act No. 380, Session of 1939, Section 2(b), we submit herewith a report dealing with the codification of the school laws.

In accordance with Act No. 4, Session of 1943, Section 1, the Commission created a "subcommittee" to expedite the task of codification.

On behalf of the Commission the cooperation of the members of the subcommittee is gratefully acknowledged.

WELDON B. HEYBURN, Chairman

Joint State Government Commission, Capitol Building, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, January, 1949.

Section I

THE LEGISLATIVE HISTORY OF THE PROPOSED CODIFICATION OF THE SCHOOL LAWS

The basic school law is the Act of May 18, 1911 (P. L. 309), commonly referred to as the School Code.

In 1931 the General Assembly appropriated the sum of $5,000 to the Department of Justice for the preparation of a revision of the school laws and for its presentation to the General Assembly at the Session of 1933. As directed, the revision was prepared and published in printed form, with source notes and explanations, in a bulletin consisting of 297 pages. The proposed codification was introduced in both the House and the Senate at the Session of 1933. The two bills were referred to the Education Committees on February 6. From these committees neither bill emerged.

In the letter of transmittal of the draft referred to, Attorney General William A. Schnader made the following statement: "The School Code was enacted in 1911. Hundreds of amendments have been made since then, but there has been no general revision.

"A complete revision of the school law as it now stands, together with such changes as present economic conditions dictate, will be most helpful in the administration of the public school system."

In 1947, the School Commission submitted a proposed codification of the school laws to the General Assembly. The proposed codification was incorporated in Senate Bill 191, introduced by the late Senator Clarence D. Becker on February 24, 1947.

Unlike the proposed codification of 1933, which admittedly contained "such changes as present economic conditions dictate," Senate Bill 191, Session of 1947, was "a faithful reproduction of existing school law."

Shortly after the introduction of Senate Bill 191, it became apparent that numerous consequential amendments to the then-existing school law were under serious consideration by the members of the General Assembly. Under the circumstances, it was felt that legislative action upon the proposed code might lead to confusion and possibly jeopardize the amendments.

The proposed codification of the school laws presented by the Joint State Government Commission to the Session of 1949 is based upon Senate Bill 191, Session of 1947. The Commission has inserted the 1947 amendments to the school laws in the appropriate places, and the entire draft has been reviewed with the Legislative Reference Bureau, the Department of Justice, and the Department of Public Instruction.

Section II

THE NEED FOR THE CODIFICATION OF THE SCHOOL LAWS

Every session of the General Assembly has seen fit to amend the School Code of 1911. The Session of 1947 alone passed, and the Governor approved, amendments affecting the substance of seventy-one sections of the Code.

Many of these amendments have been added to the Code without much regard for proper arrangement or division into sections and subsections. Instead of adding new sections, the prevalent practice has been to add a proviso at the end of an existing section which has little or no bearing on the matter to be added. The result, in a great number of cases, is that the School Code has sections, each several pages long, which are not even divided into grammatical paragraphs.

There also remain in the Code of 1911 provisions that have become obsolete or that have been transposed into the Administrative Code.

A number of Supreme Court decisions have construed language in the School Code so as to give certain provisions meanings not altogether obvious from the present language. In other cases there appear inconsistencies and ambiguities in language, that have not been passed on by the court, but which need clarification.

In preparing the proposed Code of 1949, care has been taken to make no change of language that might result in a change of meaning or in the application of any provision of the school laws. Most of the language remains unchanged. Wherever a provision has been restated, an effort has been made to clarify it through the use of simple language and short sentences.

All lengthy and involved sections have been broken up into several separately numbered sections. There has also been some rearrangement of provisions in order to bring about a more logical arrangement of the material. Each section has been given a section heading which gives, in brief language, some indication as to what is treated in the section. All the section headings are included in a Table of Contents at the beginning of the bill. It is hoped that the proposed Code, if favorably acted upon by the General Assembly, will be much easier to work with, not only for those already familiar with the school laws, but for those who have infrequent occasion to refer to them.

Section III

RECOMMENDATIONS RELATING TO DELETIONS AND CHANGES IN LANGUAGE

Analysis of the school law shows that certain sections now contained in the compilation of the Department of Public Instruction should be deleted from a new code because they are contained in other statutes.

Again, review of the present school law discloses that the language of some sections is not entirely clear. In view of these facts, the Joint State Government Commission recommends the following deletions and changes in language. It is believed that the changes in language will give explicit legislative sanction to current practice.

Recommended Deletions

1. Section 223 of the existing Code, which is titled "Election Set Aside on Contest, Filling Vacancies," should be deleted because the matters dealt with in this section are covered fully in the Election Code.¹

2. Sections (4108) to (4112), inclusive, of the existing Code should not be included in a new code, because the legislation in question was declared unconstitutional on the grounds that its title was defective and that it constituted special or class legislation. The sections deal with the instruction of unnaturalized foreign-born residents in the duties, privileges, and rights of citizenship and in the principles of government of the United States of America and of this Commonwealth. In view of the great importance of universal knowledge of the principles of American government, the Commission recommends amendments designed to overcome the judicial objections to the sections referred to above.

Changes in Language

1. Sections 703 and 704 of the proposed Code, which are the equivalent of parts of Section 602 of the existing Code, call for a change in language.

The sections in question deal with the "Acquisition of Sites for School Buildings and Playgrounds and Disposing Thereof," and "Acquisition and Disposition of Property in Other Districts, Freedom from Taxation," respectively. The sections regulate the acquisition, disposition, and exemption from taxation of real property used for school buildings and playgrounds. The Commission recommends that the phrase "proper school purposes" be substituted for the phrase "school buildings and playgrounds," because under contemporary conditions properties owned by many school districts are not adequately described by either the designation "school building" or the designation "playground." For example, some playgrounds or parts of playgrounds in the larger districts are used for athletic fields, and some structures owned and operated by school districts are not "school buildings" in the traditional sense, but are powerhouses, warehouses, and similar units.

2. Section 731 of the proposed Code, which is the equivalent of Section 615 of the existing Code, deals with the "Submission of Plans, etc., of Buildings to State Council of Education, Exceptions." This section provides in substance that no public school buildings may be contracted for or constructed until the plans and specifications have been submitted to the State Council of Education, whereas in the case of structural changes, such as the moving of doors and windows, the approval of the State Council of Education is required.

It seems incongruous to require a school district to obtain the approval of the State Council of Education when it wishes to move a door or a window, and to require it merely to submit plans when it wishes to erect a structure. The Commission recommends that the law require mere submission of plans in both cases.

3. Section 1125 of the proposed Code, which is the equivalent of Section 1205 (b) of the existing Code, deals with "Suspensions and Reinstatements." The section in question provides in part: "In cases in which suspensions are to be made, professional employes shall be retained on the basis of seniority rights where no differences in rating are found."

As will be noted, this section does not specify whether the seniority rights in question are to be determined on the basis of service in the district contemplating suspension, or on the basis of service in the public schools of the Commonwealth. With a view of clarifying the law, the Commission recommends that after the word "rights" the phrase, "acquired within the school district of current employment," be inserted.

4. Section 1345 of the proposed Code, which is the equivalent of Section 1435 of the existing Code, deals with "Penalty for Interfering with Inspections," and provides in part: "Any officer, director, superintendent, manager, employe, or other person at any place where any child between fourteen (14) and sixteen (16) years of age is engaged . . ."

This section is based upon the assumption that the compulsory school age does not change. As a matter of fact, the compulsory school age has been changed by the General Assembly and may be changed again in the future. In order to facilitate compliance with the attendance laws at any one time, the Commission recommends that the phrase, "between fourteen (14) and sixteen (16) years of age," be deleted, and that the phrase, "of compulsory school age," be substituted in lieu thereof.

5. Section 1608 of the proposed Code, which is the equivalent of Section 1707 of the existing Code, prescribes "Requirements for Attendance in Other Districts," and reads in part: "Pupils desirous of having their tuition paid in the high school of another district on account of having completed such program of studies in their own district. . . ."

The wording of this section suggests that a pupil who has successfully completed a course of studies in the schools of his own district may be desirous of repeating such course in the schools of some other district. The Commission recommends that the law be clarified by the deletion of the word "such" and the substitution therefor of the word "the."

6. Section 2541 of the proposed Code, which is the equivalent to Section 1243 of the existing Code, governs "Payments on Account of Pupil Transportation."

The Commission recommends that the phrase, "to all school districts, for pupils transported to and from approved consolidated elementary schools or approved consolidated junior high schools or approved joint consolidated schools," be supplemented by the addition of the phrase, "or approved vocational district schools."

The Commission finds that vocational district schools are legally within the category of "consolidated schools." It recommends the insertion of the supplemental phrase referred to above with a view of clarifying the law in such manner as to remove whatever doubt may exist regarding the reimbursability of charges incurred in connection with the transportation of pupils attending such schools.

REFERENCE TABLE SHOWING SECTIONS OF THE LAW OF 1945, AS COMPILED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION DECEMBER, 1945, AND ACTS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1947 RELATING TO THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND EQUIVALENT SECTIONS OF THE PROPOSED SCHOOL CODE

For the convenience of the members of the General Assembly who may wish to compare sections of the existing Code with the equivalent sections of the proposed Code, the reference table reproduced below has been prepared.

Columns 1 and 3, unless otherwise indicated, list the sections of the existing Code. Columns 2 and 4 list the equivalent sections of the proposed Code.

The reference table should be read as follows: Section 101 of the existing Code is contained in Sections 201, 202, and 2401 of the proposed Code.

Whenever a section of the existing Code is obsolete by virtue of judicial decisions or subsequent legislative enactment, the fact is indicated in Columns 2 and 4. For example, Column 1, Row 22, makes reference to Section 121 of the existing Code. The corresponding row in Column 2 indicates that the section in question is obsolete.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Pursuant to House Resolution No. 41, Session of 1947, we submit herewith a report dealing with the extent of State-owned, tax-exempt real property and methods of compensating local governments for tax revenue losses occasioned by such State ownership.

In accordance with Act No. 4, Session of 1943, Section 1, the Commission created a "subcommittee" to facilitate and expedite the study of State-owned, tax-exempt real property.

On behalf of the Commission the cooperation of the members of the subcommittee is gratefully acknowledged.

WELDON B. HEYBURN, Chairman

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

I. Commonwealth property in Pennsylvania is exempt from local property taxes. Except for payments in lieu of taxes on forest, game, and flood control properties, the Commonwealth makes no payment to local subdivisions on account of State ownership of real property. (See Section I.)

II. The estimated assessed value of Commonwealth-owned property is $103,616,901. If taxed at the average local rate (1946) of 39 mills, the properties would have produced local tax revenue in the amount of approximately $4,040,000. (See Section II.)

III. A comparison of the practices of seven other states and the national government shows that of the jurisdictions compared, none reimburse local subdivisions on account of the tax-exempt status of all their property. (See Section II.)

IV. Annual in-lieu payments now made by the Commonwealth are as follows:

|-------------------------------|--------------|
| On Game lands | $41,049.51 |
| On forest lands | 83,047.25 |
| On flood control lands | 6,428.18 |
| On Federal forest lands | 22,357.80 |
| | <hr/> |
| | $152,882.74 |

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS

I. All departments of State government which acquire title to real property for the purpose of protecting a Commonwealth investment, to pay the equivalent of real estate taxes to all local subdivisions. (See Section III.)

II. An appropriation to be made by the General Assembly and it be made mandatory upon the Department of Public Instruction to pay local school districts the tuition bill of pupils attending Commonwealth public schools whose parents or guardians reside in or on State-owned property and are employed by the Commonwealth. (See Section III.)

III. Commonwealth in-lieu payments now made in connection with Commonwealth or Federal ownership of game and forest lands to be increased from five cents to ten cents per acre. This would increase payment to counties from one cent to two cents per acre, to local school districts from two cents to four cents per acre, and to townships and other political subdivisions from two cents to four cents per acre. (See Section III.)

The approximate cost to the Commonwealth of these recommendations and present in-lieu payments is shown as follows:

| Bases for State Payments | Current In-Lieu Payments (1947) | Recommended Additional In-Lieu Payments | In-Lieu Payments under Commission Plan |
|---|---------------------------------|---|--|
| Game lands | $41,049.51 | $42,870.00 | $83,919.51 |
| Forest lands | 83,047.25 | 83,761.00 | 166,808.25 |
| Flood control lands | 6,428.18 | 0.00 | 6,428.18 |
| Federal forest lands | 22,357.80 | 22,358.00 | 44,715.80 |
| Properties acquired to protect Commonwealth investments* | 0.00 | 6,320.00 | 6,320.00 |
| Tuition for pupils residing in or on State-owned property | 0.00 | 21,497.00 | 21,497.00 |
| | <hr/> | <hr/> | <hr/> |
| | $152,882.74 | $176,806.00 | $329,688.74 |

* At the time of the survey only the Department of Public Assistance held property to protect Commonwealth investments.

I. CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS RELATING TO TAX-EXEMPT STATE-OWNED PROPERTY

Commonwealth property in Pennsylvania is exempt from local property taxes. Except for payments in lieu of taxes on forest, game, and flood control properties, the Commonwealth makes no payment to local subdivisions on account of State ownership of real property.

1. Constitutional and Statutory Provisions Relating to Tax Exemption

The Constitution provides that "... the General Assembly may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes, . . ."¹ General exemptions are provided for in the acts governing assessments.² Specific exemptions have often been included in acts authorizing the acquisition of designated properties.³

2. Statutory Provisions for Payment In Lieu of Taxes

Forest Lands: The act of 1929⁴ provides that for all tax-exempt forest lands of the Commonwealth or the United States acquired for purposes of conservation, the Commonwealth shall pay a total of five cents per acre—one cent per acre to the county, two cents per acre to the school districts, and two cents per acre to the township where such lands are located. The annual Commonwealth payments on lands acquired by the national government shall continue only until the receipts by the local subdivisions from the national government equal or exceed the amount paid by the Commonwealth.

Game Lands: The act of 1937⁵ provides that the lands and buildings owned by the Game Commission shall be exempt from payment of all taxes. However, it authorizes payment in lieu of taxes at the same rate and in the same distribution as prevail in connection with State forests.

Flood Control Lands: The act of 1936⁶ provides for payment annually by the Commonwealth to the political subdivisions, in which the properties of the Water and Power Resources Board are located, of an amount equal to the current tax rates times the assessed value of the properties at the time of acquisition by the Board.

II. EXTENT AND VALUE OF STATE-OWNED PROPERTY

Cost, book value, assessed valuation, and acreage data for Commonwealth-owned property are given in Table I, p. 6. The table presents a summarization of the information submitted to the Commission by the various State departments holding title to and/or having administrative control of State-owned property.

1. Valuation of State-Owned property

Column 1 of Table I lists the departments which hold title to real property.

Column 2 shows the land area expressed in terms of acres held by the Department of Forests and Waters and the Game Commission respectively. The extent of the property held by the Water and Power Resources Board has not been included because tax equivalent payments to the political subdivisions are made on this property.⁷

Column 3 shows the construction or original cost of real properties, exclusive of roads and highways, owned by the Department of Highways, the Department of Military Affairs, the State Police, the Liquor Control Board, the Department of Agriculture, and the Department of Property and Supplies. A valuation for the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation has been omitted as at the present time the property is Commonwealth-owned but leased to the Federal Government.

Column 4 shows the valuations of the Auditor General on properties held by the Department of Welfare, the Department of Public Instruction, and the Erie Home of the Department of Military Affairs.

^a Omitting Water and Power Resources Board.

^b Indiantown Gap Military Reservation omitted.

^c The acreage figure above does not include the more than 400,000 acres of forest land owned by the National Government but upon which the Commonwealth makes in-lieu payments.

Column 5 shows the estimated present book value of properties held by the Fish Commission, the Historical Commission, and the Department of Health.

The Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission holds title to property with a present estimated book value of $4,717,375, which would mean an assessed value of approximately $1,179,344.⁸ However, as the large part of this property is leased, it is not included in the computations.

Column 6 shows the assessed valuation, as determined for local tax purposes, of properties acquired by the Department of Public Assistance.

The departments do not determine the current value of their properties in accordance with uniform procedures. Data received from the Department of Highways, Military Affairs, State Police, Liquor Control Board, Agriculture, and Property and Supplies reflect construction and original costs. For the Erie Home of the Department of Military Affairs and for the respective properties of the Departments of Welfare and Public Instruction, only the original valuations of the Auditor General are available. The Fish Commission, the Historical Commission, and the Department of Health reported estimated present book value. Actual assessed value at the time of acquisition was available for the properties of the Department of Public Assistance.

The cost, book value, and area data shown in Table I must be reduced to a common denominator if local taxes which the properties under review would pay if privately owned are to be approximated.

2. Estimates, on a State-Wide Basis, of Local Taxes Which Commonwealth Properties Would Pay if Privately Owned

The following procedure has been used in connection with the estimation of the taxes payable by these properties if privately owned.

State Forest and Game Lands: Following the prevalent practice of the counties which place an assessed valuation upon forest and game lands, an assessed value of $2 per acre is assigned to these properties.⁹ At this per acre figure, the total assessed valuation of forest and game lands becomes $5,065,244.

Properties Other than Forest and Game Lands:

(1) Properties valued on basis of original construction cost or Auditor General's valuation—The "cost" of these properties as furnished was adjusted by multiplying the sum total of the cost by 1.67,¹⁰ to take account of the increase in price levels between 1929—the year of most extensive building activities in the Commonwealth—and the present. The total so obtained was multiplied by .25—the contemporary ratio of assessed valuation to current construction cost as determined by spot surveys of the Commission's technical staff.

(2) Properties valued on the basis of estimated present book value—The "present book value" of the properties of the Fish Commission, the Department of Health, and the Historical Commission was multiplied by .25.

(3) Properties valued on the basis of assessed valuation—The total of the assessed valuation of the properties, title to which is held by the Department of Public Assistance, is used as shown.

The operations outlined above produce an assessed valuation of all State-owned property of $103,616,901.

Evidence tending to substantiate the validity of the staff estimates: In view of the assumptions necessary for the estimation of the assessed valuation of State-owned property, it seems advisable to compare this estimate with comparable, independently developed data in order to gain a sense of security.

The staff has made two tests. Test I involves a comparison with the State of New York. Test II involves a comparison of the staff estimate with the assessed valuations which some counties place, for purely informational purposes, upon State-owned properties.

In regard to the comparison with the State of New York, the following should be noted: On the basis of the staff estimates, 1.0% of the total assessed value of taxable real property in Pennsylvania,¹¹ including the estimated value of public utility property, is owned by the Commonwealth, as compared with 1.6% of the total assessed valuation of taxable real property located in New York.¹²

Again, according to staff estimates, 5.059% of all tax-exempt real property located in Pennsylvania is owned by the Commonwealth.¹ According to official computations of the State of New York, 5.097% of the tax-exempt property within New York is owned by the State.

The staff estimates of properties located in seventeen counties which made available the county's assessed valuations of State-owned properties are 10.6% lower than the county figures for selected properties.¹³

3. Practices of Other States and the National Government in Regard to Tax-Exempt Property

A comparison of the practices of seven other states and the national government shows that of the jurisdictions compared, none reimburse local subdivisions on account of all state or federally owned property.¹⁴ Two states, Ohio and Kansas, make no payments to local subdivisions. The other states and the national government make payment on only selected types of their property.

The national government makes in-lieu payments for designated types of revenue-producing property such as housing developments and Tennessee Valley Authority holdings. In addition, fixed percentages of the revenue, incidental to certain properties held for conservation purposes, is used for in-lieu payments. Wisconsin makes payments to school districts for children of parents who are resident employees of certain state institutions. Illinois makes special compensatory payments to school districts in which orphanages and similar institutions are located. Texas allows taxation for county purposes of the lands owned by the University of Texas. Michigan law permits colleges to make in-lieu contributions to municipalities and makes partial reimbursement to local governments for certain park properties.

The laws of the State of New York provide that the property of the state "other than property expressly subject to taxation" shall be exempt. Specific provisions appearing in the tax statutes of New York, the conservation statutes and the public school statutes, subject $34,000,000 worth of state-owned property to taxation by local subdivisions. The State of New York owns property which has an aggregate assessed valuation of approximately $400,000,000; in other words, the State of New York permits the taxation of but a small fraction of the property which it owns.

The Budget Office of the State of New York estimates that the State will pay $1,580,000 in local real estate taxes during the fiscal year 1948.¹⁵

4. Pennsylvania In-Lieu Payments

In 1947 Pennsylvania made the following payments in lieu of taxes to local units:

|-------------------------------|---------------------|
| On game lands | $41,049.51 |
| On forest lands | 83,047.25 |
| On flood control lands | 6,428.18 |
| On Federal forest lands | 22,357.80 |
| TOTAL | $152,882.74 |

If all State-owned property had been taxable at the rate of 39 mills, the average local real estate tax rate, including county, institution district, school district, and municipal, which prevailed in Pennsylvania during 1946, the properties in question would have paid a total local tax of approximately $4,040,000.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS FOR IN-LIEU PAYMENTS UPON SPECIFIC TYPES OF PROPERTY

The only in-lieu payments made by the Commonwealth at the present time are the payments made in connection with game, forest and flood control lands. (See page 11.)

By virtue of changing economic conditions the adequacy and extent of the present system of in-lieu payments calls for a legislative review.

1. Commonwealth Payments on Account of Game and Forest Lands

Payments of five cents per acre on forest and game lands were fixed in 1929 and continued through the depression. If these payments are to be adjusted in accordance with changes in cost levels, the payment per acre should be increased from five cents to approximately ten cents.¹⁶ Such an adjustment would increase Commonwealth cost by approximately $126,631 for State-owned lands and $22,358 for Federally owned lands.¹⁷

2. Commonwealth Payment of Tuition on Account of Pupils Who Reside on or in State-Owned Property

From time to time bills have been introduced into the General Assembly which contemplate the payment by the Commonwealth of the tuition bill on account of pupils enrolled in the public schools who reside in or on State-owned property. The most recent attempt to provide for this tuition payment was made during the Session of 1947. Senate Bill 670, Printer's No. 330 was passed by the General Assembly but was vetoed by the Governor on the grounds that Commonwealth subsidies to the school districts were adequate. Without raising the question of adequacy, it should be noted that since 1945 the rate at which school districts are subsidized by the Commonwealth depends exclusively upon the number of pupils enrolled in public schools who are bona fide residents of the district.¹⁸

The staff has attempted to estimate the Commonwealth cost if the school law should be amended in such manner to provide for Commonwealth payment of the net tuition bill of pupils residing on or in State-owned property.¹⁹ It is estimated that 341 children aged 6 to 18 live on or in State-owned real estate. Assuming that all these children attend the public schools, the annual net tuition charge would amount to approximately 341 (number of children age 6 to 18) multiplied by $63.04 (net tuition charge), which equals $21,496.64.

3. Payments on Account of Properties Acquired to Protect Commonwealth Investments

Departments acting for the Commonwealth sometimes buy property at public or private sale against which such Departments hold judgment liens on account of claims due from former owners. The sole purpose for buying the property is to protect the equity of the Commonwealth. Prior to acquisition by the Commonwealth these properties are assessed by the properly constituted local authorities, and hence the tax liability which would arise were these properties purchased by a private individual can easily be calculated. However, when the Commonwealth acquires title to these properties, they are removed from the local tax rolls.

The legality of such removal has been upheld in the case of *Commonwealth v. Lycoming County, et al.*²⁰

However, a decision of the Schuylkill County Court has denied the legality of the removal.²¹ The Department of Public Assistance is at present awaiting an appeal of the decision of this latter court.

As of October 22, 1947, the Department of Public Assistance which at the time of the survey was the only Department holding property to protect Commonwealth investments, held title to real property of relief recipients or former relief recipients carrying an aggregate assessed valuation of $162,063. If taxed at the average rate (all local levying jurisdictions combined) which prevailed in 1946, the properties in question would have paid approximately $6,320. In other words, Commonwealth in-lieu payments designed to produce the equivalent of local taxes would amount to $6,320 per year.

Figures for the average net tuition charge were supplied by the Department of Public Instruction. The net tuition charge for high school students in 1947-48 was $84.00 and the net tuition charge for elementary students was estimated at $50.00. The average tuition charges weighted by the number of high school and elementary pupils for Pennsylvania is $63.04.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Pursuant to House Resolution No. 59 (1947), I have the honor to present herewith a report on Pennsylvania's economic position with regard to the establishment and growth of industry.

In accordance with Act No. 4, Session of 1943, Section 1, the Commission created a "subcommittee" to facilitate and expedite the study of Pennsylvania's industrial position. In accordance with the authority granted by Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended, the Secretary of Commerce was appointed as an advisor.

On behalf of the Commission the cooperation of the members of the subcommittee and the Secretary of Commerce is gratefully acknowledged.

The resolution which directs this inquiry assumes that industry has not expanded within the Commonwealth, and that the number of new industries being established in this state has been decreasing.

The evidence does not justify these assumptions. New industries have located here, local industry has expanded and Pennsylvania still occupies a position above the national average. This continued progress has not, however, been sufficiently rapid to maintain at the same relatively high level the better-than-average position held by the state for many years prior to the beginning of the depression.

An analysis of the strategic factors which have affected the industrial phase of Pennsylvania's economy shows several which come within the control of the Commonwealth, and a goodly number about which the General Assembly can do little.

Among the factors controllable by the Commonwealth are:

- (1) business taxes
- (2) unemployment compensation taxes
- (3) availability of well-trained labor
- (4) adequacy of basic facilities, such as highways and water supply
- (5) encouragement of research in basic products, such as coal and timber.

The first three of the above enumerated factors are presently under review by separate committees and the findings and recommendations concerning these factors will be separately reported to the General Assembly. Local ordinances, practices and procedures also may affect industrial locations and economic development.

Some other factors are beyond the control of the General Assembly but are controllable, or partially controllable, by private economic units. Among these are such items as the current pricing policies of some industries, notably the steel industry, which appears to have continued the allocation system imposed by the federal government in wartime. There may also be "invisible" restrictions by already established enterprises upon the entry of others who might bid against them for available resources and labor, even though the prospective venture might not be competing for the same market.

The economy of Pennsylvania also has been affected by factors controlled by the federal government. This was particularly true in the war years. In the gradual readjustment to peacetime production, its influence is still evident. The federal government allocated to Pennsylvania enterprise a smaller proportion of "prime" war contracts than its proportion of total pre-war manufacturing business. Also, federal wartime price controls on products which were of considerable importance in the Pennsylvania economy—metals and metal products, fuel and lighting materials, and chemicals—did not permit their prices to rise proportionately as high between 1939 and 1945 as farm prices, or even as high as the average of all wholesale prices. There is little doubt that the price pattern established in the war period reduced Pennsylvania's relative income position. Then again, federal development of production facilities—such as the construction of dams for irrigation and electric power projects—have been concentrated in the Southwest, the Northwest and the Tennessee Valley. Pennsylvania has received very little federal assistance or industrial stimulation of this type, yet it is against these states with federally-provided advantages that Pennsylvania competes in search for new industry.

In spite of the fact that some other states have experienced a more rapid rate of economic growth in recent years, Pennsylvania continues to hold its time-honored place as the nation's second most important manufacturing state. With its natural resources, transportation facilities and geographic position, the Keystone State may well improve its lead in industrial growth and recoup its former position. Indeed, some of the figures now becoming available indicate that it has already begun to do so.

WELDON B. HEYBURN, Chairman.

CHANGES IN PENNSYLVANIA'S ECONOMIC POSITION

Pennsylvania's Economy Has Continued to Expand But Less Rapidly Than That of Nation as a Whole

Although per capita income payments in Pennsylvania grew almost continuously from the bottom of the depression (1932) until 1945, Pennsylvania's relative per capita income position has been declining. The ratio of per capita income payments in Pennsylvania to per capita income payments in the United States as a whole has fallen from a high of 113% in 1932 to 104% in 1947.

This means that although Pennsylvania's income payments per capita have grown, they have grown less rapidly than per capita income payments in the economy as a whole.

Pennsylvania is not the only state which has experienced a rate of growth in per capita income payments which is less than the rate for the nation as a whole. In 1947, New England, the Middle East and the Far West had per capita income payments proportionately closer to the United States average than in 1929, when they were substantially above it. The neighboring states of New York and New Jersey, as well as Illinois and Massachusetts, to mention only a few, have experienced a decline in their relative positions similar to that of Pennsylvania. The southeast, southwest and northwest states are in a relatively more favorable per capita income position today than they were in 1929.

The economic welfare of the people residing within a geographic area is dependent on the area's net income. An increase in per capita net income adjusted for price level changes generally can be identified with an increase in economic welfare.

A rise in adjusted per capita net income of an area between two points in time represents an improvement of the economic welfare of the people of that area in the sense that, with any relative distribution of income prevailing at both times, all of the people in the area could be better off than they were before. Similarly, if one area has a higher per capita net income than another, the people of the first area could be better off than those of the other.

Income Payments in Pennsylvania, 1932-1947, Show Growth of Approximately 5.8 Percent Per Year

As did net income payments, adjusted and unadjusted, in virtually every state, Pennsylvania income payments per capita fell sharply during the early years of the depression of the thirties. Since 1932, per capita income payments, adjusted and unadjusted, have shown a rising trend. Adjusted per capita income payments reached a peak in 1945 which was more than 50 percent above 1929 and more than double the low point of 1932. Since 1932, the rate of growth in adjusted per capita income payments has averaged about 5.8 percent per year. The movement of annual per capita income payments in Pennsylvania, 1929-1947, and the cost of living index used for adjustment purposes are illustrated in Table 2.

The rate of growth in adjusted per capita income achieved in Pennsylvania since 1932 is high compared with the expected rates. The unusual rate of increase since 1932 was due primarily to (1) a gradual increase in the level of employment, (2) improved technological processes permitting a larger output per man hour, (3) increases in the amount of plant and equipment and (4) a lengthening of the work week—a factor of significance during the years 1943-45. Of these factors, the increase in the level of employment probably was most important. Some sources have estimated that, even today, the industrial plant capable of turning out peace time products is smaller than in 1929.

Section II

GENERAL FACTORS AFFECTING PENNSYLVANIA'S RELATIVE POSITION

1. CHANGES IN THE GEOGRAPHIC PATTERN OF MANUFACTURING

An examination of trends in the ratio of per capita income payments in various states and regions to per capita income payments in the United States (see Table 3) suggests that the decline in Pennsylvania's relative position is but a part of a change in the geographic structure of the income distribution throughout the nation. The geographic differentials in income payments have been narrowing—the relative positions of New England and the Middle East and the Far West have declined, while the relative positions of the Southeast, Southwest and Northwest have improved since 1932. The relative position of the Central States has remained approximately unchanged.

Older Manufacturing Areas No Longer Offer Advantages of Cost and Market

These changes, in part, have been brought about by the geographic decentralization of manufacturing activity.

The "older" areas have not declined in the amount of manufacturing activity taking place within their borders; in fact, in the "older" areas manufacturing has grown. But manufacturing growth in the "newer" areas has been more rapid. Cost advantages resulting from relatively less expensive sources of labor and power and reduced transport distances, together with an expanding market for manufactured products in the "newer" areas, seem to have encouraged industry to locate in these areas rather than expand in the older ones and ship the products greater distances.

Comparison of the economy of 1929 and 1940 shows that, while the change was not very great, manufacturing activity (as measured by total manufacturing wages and salaries) has tended to shift away from the older areas and toward the Southeast, Southwest and Far West (see Table 4).

Expansion in War Manufacturing Greater in Central, Far West States

The war period served to accentuate the shift which was already under way. In 1944, the peak year of war manufacturing, about two-thirds of the plants of the country were devoted to producing war manufactures. New England and the Middle East had noticeably smaller percentages of war manufacturing in 1944 than their percentages of total manufacturing in 1940—accepting manufacturing pay rolls as a measure of manufacturing activity. The expansion in war manufacturing was proportionately greater in the central and far west states (see Table 5, Col. 5 and 6).

Pennsylvania has been and is one of the most important manufacturing states, ranking second to New York in total manufacturing activity. Also, the proportion of total income payments derived from manufacturing in Pennsylvania is relatively high compared with most other states.

Nearly 30 percent of total income payments in Pennsylvania in 1947 was obtained from manufacturing pay rolls. Although several other states had higher percentages of income payments received from manufacturing than did Pennsylvania, the average for the U. S. was 22.4 percent.

2. CHANGE IN THE GEOGRAPHIC POPULATION PATTERN, 1900-1945

The changes which have taken place in the geographic population pattern within the United States constitute another factor in the decline in Pennsylvania's income position.

Although the total population of Pennsylvania has grown rather steadily, having increased by more than 50 percent since 1900, the population of Pennsylvania has grown less rapidly than the population of the nation as a whole. Pennsylvania, along with other states in the northeast and central portions of the United States, has relatively less of the total population than it had in 1900 (see Table 6). Census extrapolations do not change the indicated population pattern.

While many kinds of goods and some types of services may be furnished to the population of one area by the population of another, certain kinds of services usually are produced only in the area where they are consumed. Personal services such as medical services, education, and recreation are examples.

3. CHANGES IN THE CHARACTER OF DEMAND IN AN EXPANDING ECONOMY

As the per capita income of an economy expands, the character of its expenditure (and hence its income) changes. Historically, agricultural products have become relatively less important as a source of income and manufactured products have become relatively more important. As further expansion takes place, income payments from heavy industry represent a smaller percentage of income payments and light manufacturing and services account for a relatively larger proportion of total income.

Consumers' Expenditures for Services, Finished Goods Show Larger Proportionate Increase

It has been estimated that, as national income increases by one percent, expenditures for agricultural products will, on the average, increase by about 0.2 percent. The shrinkage in the proportion of the total United States labor force working in agriculture from nearly 35 percent in 1900 to about 16 percent in 1944 (see Table 7) and the decline in the proportion of total national income payments from agriculture from approximately 20 percent of the total in 1900 to less than 10 percent in 1940 are evidence in support of this contention. Similar developments have been noted in other expanding economies.

The relative importance of mining as the per capita income of the economy expands follows a pattern similar to that of agriculture. From a high point of about 3 percent in the 10-year period after 1909, the percentage of the total employed labor force in the U. S. which worked in mining and quarrying has declined to slightly less than one percent in 1947.

Percentage of National Income from Manufacturing Remains Relatively Constant over Long Period

Manufacturing has essentially held its own during the growth of national income. The percentage of national income derived from manufacturing sources has remained relatively constant between 20 and 25 percent since 1870, although wars and major depressions have raised or lowered manufacturing outside of this range.

Even though most categories of manufacturing activity remained relatively constant between 1919 and 1939, textile and leather manufactures and metals manufacture decreased in relative importance. Since 1940, the shares of national income attributed to both of these classes have increased. The decline from 1919 to 1939 was due to long-run factors—the relatively smaller proportionate increase in expenditures for these items with a given proportionate increase in national income and to the depression of the 30's which hit the heavy industries with particular force.

The rise since 1940 has been primarily due to the recent war. Clothing for the armed forces and metal manufactures were both important war items. Since the end of the war, there has been a high demand for textiles and leather goods which grew out of the war period. As soon as replacements have been made, the long-run trend noted before 1940 may again become evident. Construction materials and furniture manufacture showed a sharp decline during the depression, but there is little evidence that this is a long-run trend.

A rise in the proportion of national income attributable to chemicals occurred during the 30's and has continued during the war and immediate postwar periods. Food and kindred products and tobacco manufactures have also risen, although the years since 1945 probably are not typical of what might be expected in the future, barring another war. The structure of the economy from 1919 to 1947, in terms of the percentages of national income attributable to various sectors, is shown in Table 8.

Trend Points to Increased Expansion in Trades And Services; War Interrupted Development

The sector of the economy which includes such items as personal services, communication, transportation, advertising and selling, and government is often called "tertiary." Such a sector may be expected to grow relatively as national per capita income expands. This has been the experience of virtually all economies in which the per capita income has reached a fairly high level, and has continued to expand.

That such a development is a reasonable one to expect is also suggested by an examination of the expenditure patterns of consumers receiving various amounts of income; these data indicate that, in the middle income groups, as income increases by a given percentage, expenditures upon the products of tertiary industries increase by more than this percentage.

Although tertiary industry as a whole has expanded generally, the growth within this group has not been uniform. Railroad transportation has declined relatively as have banking and other financial services. Retail and wholesale trades have grown since the decade of the twenties. Services, personal, recreation, amusement, etc., have shown some expansion, particularly prior to the war.

An increasing share of the national income has been attributable to service performed by government, although the growth pattern has not been uniform. During the depression, the federal government's share expanded considerably compared with the decade of the 20's while services produced by state and local governments contracted. This trend continued through the period of the war and has reversed only recently.

The long-run developments summarized above have been interrupted by the war with its heavy demands upon manufacturing, reconstruction and food products. The rise during the past three years in the relative income positions of the agricultural states of the Midwest has been primarily a result of the rearrangement in the price structure.

Section III

THE STRUCTURE OF THE PENNSYLVANIA ECONOMY

Manufacturing Contributes 30 Percent of Pennsylvania's Total Income Received by Individuals

About 30 percent of Pennsylvania's total income payments for 1947 were received from manufacturing pay rolls, another 25 percent from the trades and services, 12 percent from government and the remainder from agriculture, mining, public utilities (including railroads), dividends from manufacturing enterprises, etc. (see Table 9).

Pennsylvania Still Holds Traditional Place In Total Manufacturing Activity

Ever since the beginning of the industrial era in the U. S., Pennsylvania has ranked second in total manufacturing activity. Although Pennsylvania's share of total manufacturing activity has declined since 1914,¹ it still maintains second place among the states. Of the 19 major categories of manufacturing activity listed by the Department of Commerce (Survey of Current Business, Aug. 1947) Pennsylvania's share, as measured by wages and salaries, declined between 1940 and 1946 in all except tobacco manufactures, lumber and basic products, chemicals, petroleum and coal products, rubber, nonferrous metal products and transportation equipment. The changes in Pennsylvania's relative position between 1940 and 1947 are shown in Table 11.

Expansion in Manufacture of Finished Goods Greater Than in Heavy Industry in Pennsylvania

Changes in the structure of the Pennsylvania manufacturing economy since 1921 can be traced by reference to Table 12, which shows the relative importance of the various sectors as measured by the value of product, 1921-1946.

The changes in the relative values of finished product suggest that the Pennsylvania industrial economy has been lately rounded and diversified by adding to heavy industry other enterprises which produce finished goods.

Agricultural Factors Have Had Some Influence On Pennsylvania's Relative Income Position

The farm population of Pennsylvania has declined less rapidly than the farm population of the nation as a whole, and farm income in Pennsylvania has risen less rapidly than in the nation as a whole. Each of these factors has exerted some influence in the downward relative income position of Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania's proportion of total U. S. farm population and cash receipts from farming in 1930, 1940 and 1945 are shown in Table 13.

Section IV

ANALYSIS OF FACTORS AFFECTING PENN- SYLVANIA'S RELATIVE PER CAPITA INCOME POSITION

1. Factors Controllable by the General Assembly

The more important economic variables which are controllable by the Commonwealth are:

- Business taxes—at present under review by the Tax Study Committee created by the Act No. 562, Session of 1947, P. L. 1468.
- Unemployment compensation taxes—at present under review by the Subcommittee on Unemployment Compensation of the Joint State Government Commission.
- Adequacy of such facilities as highways and water supply.
- Adequacy of well-trained labor—as present under review by the Subcommittee on Education of the Joint State Government Commission.
- Development of activities such as research in basic products, as coal and timber.

2. Factors Not Controlled by State Government

The recent decline in the relative per capita income position of the manufacturing areas is attributable, in a large measure, to a change in the "terms of trade," or relative prices, between raw materials, particularly farm products, and manufactured products and services.

From 1939 to 1947, the various components of the wholesale price index increased as follows: farm products—177 percent; hides and leather products—90 percent; textile products—102 percent; fuel and lighting materials—47 percent; metals and metal products—53 percent; building materials—98 percent; chemicals and allied products—67 percent; house furnishings—50 percent; and miscellaneous items—54 percent. The index of all wholesale prices increased by 97 percent.

With no change in the relative structure of production—i. e. if output of all commodities had increased by the same percentage—and with the Pennsylvania share of output of each class of commodity remaining unchanged, Pennsylvania's relative gross income position would have declined by about 20 percent due to these price changes. Net income would have declined somewhat less. The wartime increases in the output of manufacturing were relatively greater than the output of goods and services as a whole, thus making the decrease less than the figure mentioned above.

Privately Controlled Factors

Since the end of price control, such commodities as steel have remained underpriced as can be noted from the "shortages" which have existed. The welfare of the economy as a whole might not be increased if underpriced commodities were priced at levels which would "clear the market"; but the distribution of income would be altered in Pennsylvania's favor.

The importance of metals and metal manufactures, particularly iron and steel, to the Pennsylvania economy makes it desirable to investigate possible future long-run cost changes in iron and steel. Of current interest is the recent abandonment of basing-point pricing. It may be argued that, since the steel industry of western Pennsylvania is not as close to the important steel users as is the steel industry of Ohio, Michigan or Illinois, Pennsylvania producers will be at a disadvantage, because of transport costs, in selling to those markets. This disadvantage will not be important, however, until steel is priced to "clear the market."

Several factors must be taken into consideration in analyzing this argument. First of all, it is not clear that basing-point pricing will be permanently abandoned. Legalization of such pricing is possible in the future. However, assuming that the basing-point system is not reinstated, this in itself need not adversely affect the Pennsylvania steel industry. If the cost advantages of being near steel supply sources exceed the selling advantages of being near markets, fabricators of steel rather than the steel industry may move. There are reports that some fabricators are planning moves toward the basic steel producing areas, including Pennsylvania. Then too, the investment in plant and equipment required for the production of pig iron and basic steel has been relatively large.

Also, there is the influence of local ordinances and restrictions. There may also be "invisible" restrictions by already established enterprises upon the entry of others who might bid against them for available resources and labor, even through the prospective venture might not be competing for the same market.

Federally Controlled Factors

During and since the war many manufactured products, particularly metals and their products, have been "rationed" by devices other than the price mechanism. Governmentally determined prices and allocations were enforced during the war, while industry-determined allocations have prevailed since the war's end. In both cases, the prices asked by sellers have been less than the prices which buyers would have been willing to pay for the quantities available. Since the abandonment of price control, food and many other consumers' goods (housing and automobiles being notable exceptions) have been priced at levels which would essentially "clear the market."

A factor influencing Pennsylvania's relative income position is the pattern of prices established by the federal government during the war. Such federal price controls on products of considerable importance in the Pennsylvania economy, metals and metal products, fuel and lighting materials, and chemicals, did not permit their prices to rise proportionately as high between 1939 and 1945, as farm prices, in fact, they were held below the average of all wholesale prices (see Table 14).

An examination of the distribution of government contracts for war supplies, industrial plant and equipment reveals a prime reason for the wartime decline in the relative positions of the eastern industrial states. As indicated in Table 15, the federal government allocated to Pennsylvania enterprise a smaller proportion of "prime" war contracts than its proportion of pre-war manufacturing business.

Throughout the history of the U. S., the federal government has influenced industrial growth through development of various kinds of production facilities. Land grants to railroads, funds for highway construction, canal and river and harbor development, construction of dams for irrigation and construction of electric power generating facilities are examples of such aids.

A relatively "new" factor in stimulating service activity and the consequent improvement in the relative per capita income position of certain areas has been federal aid in the construction of electric power generating facilities (Hoover, Grand Coulee and Bonneville Dams and Tennessee Valley Authority). The electric power operations of the federal government accounted for about 10 percent of total electric energy output and 8 percent of total generating capacity in the U. S. in 1945 (see Table 16). These operations were concentrated in the Southwest, Northwest and in the Tennessee Valley.

A REPORT OF THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT
COMMISSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

January, 1949

The Joint State Government Commission was created by Act No. 459, Session of 1937, as amended by Act No. 380, Session of 1939, and Act No. 4, Session of 1943, as a continuing agency for the development of facts and recommendations on all phases of government for the use of the General Assembly.

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Honorable Weldon B. Heyburn, Chairman; Honorable Baker Royer, Vice Chairman; Honorable Herbert P. Sorg, Secretary-Treasurer.

SENATE MEMBERS

Joseph M. Barr, Leroy E. Chapman, John H. Dent, Anthony J. DiSilvestro, James A. Geltz, Weldon B. Heyburn, Frederick L. Homsher, A. Evans Kephart, A. H. Letzler, John G. Snowden, O. J. Tallman, M. Harvey Taylor, John M. Walker.

HOUSE MEMBERS

Hiram G. Andrews, Adam T. Bower, Homer S. Brown, Charles H. Brunner, Jr., Edwin C. Ewing, Ira T. Fiss, Robert D. Fleming, W. Stuart Helm, Earl E. Hewitt, Sr., Thomas H. Lee, Albert S. Readinger, Baker Royer, Herbert P. Sorg.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Pursuant to Senate Resolution No 66, Session of 1947, we submit herewith a report dealing with the legal structure, organization and financing of free, nonsectarian public libraries in Pennsylvania.

In accordance with Act No. 4, Session of 1943, Section 1, the Commission created a "subcommittee" to facilitate and expedite the survey of public libraries in Pennsylvania.

On behalf of the Commission the cooperation of the members of the subcommittee is gratefully acknowledged.

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

I. At present approximately 70% of the residents of Pennsylvania have access to free, nonsectarian public libraries. (See Section II)

II. All municipal corporations, including counties, as well as school districts, have statutory authority to establish public libraries, singly or jointly, and to aid in the maintenance of free, nonsectarian public libraries. In addition, the Commonwealth makes biennial appropriations to free, nonsectarian county public libraries.

A. Municipal corporations may levy two mills upon taxable real estate, and school districts may levy one mill for library service. (See Section I)

B. The Commonwealth makes the following percentage contributions to county libraries:

| Class of County | Commonwealth Percentage Contribution |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------|
| Third | 20% |
| Fourth | 25% |
| Fifth | 33% |
| Sixth | 50% |
| Seventh | 75% |
| Eighth | 125% |

However, no county library may receive more than $2,500 in any one year. (See Section I)

C. The 1947-1949 Commonwealth appropriation for free, nonsectarian county libraries amounted to $100,000; this amount represented an increase of 257% over the appropriation for 1937-1939, which amounted to $28,000. (See Section I)

III. Local authorities do not fully exploit their statutory capacity on behalf of libraries.

A. For example, in 1946, local exploitation of statutory capacity ranged from zero per cent (Fulton, Montour, Pike and Union) to 33.8% for Potter County. (See Section III)

B. In 1947 only seven counties (Adams, Bedford, Butler, Cameron, Huntingdon, Monroe and Somerset) appropriated sufficient funds for library services to become eligible for the maximum State grant of $2,500 per county. (See Section II)

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS

In view of the fact that local authorities do not take full advantage of existing statutory authority, the Commission recommends no changes in Pennsylvania's library laws at this time.

I. STATUTORY PROVISIONS RELATING TO SUPPORT OF PUBLIC LIBRARIES

All municipal corporations, including counties, as well as school districts, have legal authority to establish public libraries, singly or jointly, and to aid in the maintenance of free, nonsectarian public libraries.

1. Municipal Corporations¹

Municipal corporations, including cities, boroughs, towns, townships and counties, may appropriate monies to establish and maintain, or aid in the establishment and maintenance of free, nonsectarian public libraries. The funds may be derived from special taxes levied for this purpose or from current general-purpose revenues. If a special levy is imposed for library purposes, it may not exceed two mills on the dollar of the assessed value of taxable property.

The question as to whether a library is to be established or an established library aided may be submitted to the voters by the municipal corporation. The question must be submitted to the voters upon petition of three per cent of the registered voters at the last general election.

Property located in a municipality which levies a local tax for library purposes is exempt from paying any county library tax.

The law permits the formation of joint county libraries.² At the present only two counties, Bradford and Sullivan, operate a joint library.

2 School Districts³

School districts may appropriate up to one mill on the assessed valuation of taxable property for maintaining a library as an integral part of the school system or aiding in the maintenance of a public library within the school district. Two or more school districts may join for the purpose of establishing a library.

A special library tax not to exceed one mill on the assessed value of taxable property may be levied by the school directors in second class school districts.

3. Commonwealth⁴

In addition, the General Assembly of the Commonwealth makes biennial appropriations designed to aid in the financing of free, nonsectarian county public libraries.

For the biennia 1937-1939 to 1947-1949, the Commonwealth appropriations as approved by the Governor have been as follows:

|-----------------|----------|
| 1937-1939 | $28,000 |
| 1939-1941 | 40,000 |
| 1941-1943 | 55,000 |
| 1943-1945 | 55,000 |
| 1945-1947 | 79,000 |
| 1947-1949 | 100,000 |

The Commonwealth appropriations are distributed county libraries maintained by counties other than those of the first and second class on the basis of the county's classification. The Commonwealth percentage contribution varies directly with the classification of the county and is based on the appropriation of the county commissioners to the county library in accordance with the following table:

| Class of County | Commonwealth Percentage Contribution |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------|
| Third | 20% |
| Fourth | 25% |
| Fifth | 33% |
| Sixth | 50% |
| Seventh | 75% |
| Eighth | 125% |

However, the law provides that total State aid to any one county library shall not exceed $2,500 in any one year. In this connection, it may be noted, too, that contributions made to county libraries by school districts and municipal corporations other than counties are not eligible as a basis for Commonwealth aid.

It appears that there is no restriction as to the way in which the State appropriation may be spent by the county library, as long as it is devoted to library purposes. The payments of State aid are made to the Board of Trustees in charge of the county library, and a report of the expenditure of State aid must be made to the county commissioners and the Department of Public Instruction. These reports are filed with the Extension Division of the State Library.

II. EXTENT OF PUBLIC LIBRARY FACILITIES IN PENNSYLVANIA ON A COUNTY BASIS

Under the Pennsylvania system of public libraries, approximately 70% of Pennsylvania's population has access to such libraries. The percentage of population serviced by free public libraries varies considerably among the counties. One county (Fulton) has no library facilities. In some counties (Butler, Indiana, Somerset, Clearfield, Bedford, Huntingdon, Centre, Cameron, Clinton, Franklin, Lycoming, Adams, York, Dauphin, Lancaster, Chester, Montgomery, Lehigh, Columbia, Monroe, Pike, Sullivan, Bradford, Susquehanna, Wayne, Mifflin and Philadelphia), the entire population of the county has access to free public libraries.

Of the 27 counties listed for library service to their entire county population, 26 (Philadelphia is excluded) have county libraries. These county libraries claim to have library facilities available to all residents of their county. In the body of this text an evaluation of service rendered by these libraries has not been attempted; however, Appendix Table A is attached to afford some degree of evaluation to be made by those interested in this aspect of th study.

Map I,⁵ following, shows the percentage of population, on a county basis, which has access to public libraries.

III. STATUTORY ABILITY TO SUPPORT PUBLIC LIBRARIES AND EXPLOITATION OF THAT ABILITY BY THE POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS

Map II⁶ shows the statutory ability, on a per capita basis, of Pennsylvania's counties to support public libraries.

A glance at the map shows that the statutory ability varies considerably. For example, in Fulton, Clearfield and Potter Counties, the statutory ability per capita ranges from $0.50 to $1.00. At the other extreme, Montgomery County has a statutory ability per capita of between $6.00 and $7.00.

In this connection, it may be noted that the American Library Association, in a publication titled Post-War Standards for Public Libraries, specifies that a desirable minimum standard for public libraries is represented by a per capita expenditure of $1.00 per year. In the light of the above evidence, it appears that the only counties in Pennsylvania which cannot meet the standard of the American Library Association are Fulton, Clearfield and Potter.

With a view of ascertaining the extent to which school boards and municipal corporations take advantage of present law as regards appropriations to public libraries. Table I, attached, was prepared.

Table I, column 1, shows the total assessed valuation of taxable property for the counties listed. Column 2 shows the amounts which the municipal corporations within the county might levy if they took full advantage of the present law. Column 3 shows the actual appropriations by municipalities within the county. Column 4 expresses the actual appropriations. Column 5 shows the amounts which school boards within the county might levy if they took full advantage of contemporary statute law. Column 6 shows the actual amounts appropriated. Column 7 expresses the actual amount as percent of the potential amount, and column 8 expresses the actual amounts allocated by both municipal corporations and school boards as percentages of the potentials which they are authorized to allocate under existing law.

Perusal of column 8 shows:

1. In not a single county of the Commonwealth do the properly constituted authorities exploit their statutory ability to the full; in fact, only one county (Potter) exploits as much as one-third of its statutory ability.

2. Most of the counties exploit less than one-tenth of their statutory ability; in fact, only 14 counties exploit more than 10% of their statutory ability.

3. There are wide variations as regards the extent to which school boards as well as municipal corporations take advantage of present statutory authorization to allocate money to public libraries. The actual amounts allocated expressed as fractions of the permissible amounts range from zero per cent in Fulton, Montour, Pike and Union Counties to 33.8% in Potter County.

4. No county is at present approaching the statutory limits of financial support of public libraries. Even Potter, which exploits its potential more fully than any of the other counties, could increase its support of public libraries approximately 200% before reaching the statutory limits.

Map III⁷ demonstrates the degree of school and municipal exploitation. Actual expenditures made for library purposes by the political subdivisions (excluding counties) are expressed as percentages of expenditures possible under present enabling legislation. A glance at the map shows that the largest number of counties fall within the one to five per cent classification. In other words 25 counties spend more than one per cent but not more than five per cent of the total expenditures authorized for library purposes.

IV. COMPARISON OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF PUBLIC LIBRARIES IN PENNSYLVANIA AND IN OTHER STATES

Table II,⁸ page 13, has been prepared to facilitate comparison of the financial support made available by Pennsylvania and selected other states. The data are for the fiscal year ending in 1946, the last year for which roughly comparable figures are currently available.

Inspection of the table shows that for the states for which data are readily available at this time, per capita state appropriations for public libraries ranged from 9.2c for Vermont to .4c for Pennsylvania. Comparison of columns 3 and 4 of the table indicates that there is no relationship between a state's ability to support library services as measured by per capita income payments and its per capita appropriation for public library service. For example, Pennsylvania, which had a per capita income in 1946 of $1,238, appropriated .4c per capita for this purpose. New York, with a per capita income of $1,633, appropriated .5c per capita. On the other hand, Vermont, with a relatively low per capita income of $1,085, appropriated 9.2c, and Louisiana, with a still lower per capita income of $784, appropriated 6.3c.

Table III, page 14, compares the sources of receipts of the public libraries of the United States with the sources of receipts of public libraries in Pennsylvania. The computations underlying the table are made on the basis of 1945 data.

Inspection of Table III shows that whereas all reporting public libraries in the United States received 87.8% of their funds from local sources, Pennsylvania's public libraries received but 81.0% of their funds from local sources. This fact, taken in conjunction with the data presented in Table I, strongly suggests that Pennsylvania's local governments are less interested in the maintenance and support of public libraries than local governments in the other states.

Again, perusal of the table shows that for the nation as a whole, state agents accounted for 1.5% of the receipts of public libraries. The comparable percentage for Pennsylvania is .7%. Further, the table shows that whereas in the case of all public libraries endowments and gifts accounted for 4.1%, in Pennsylvania 10% of the receipts of public libraries were derived from this source.

In connection with the above discussion, it should be remembered that expenditures do not necessarily constitute a measure of the efficiency of the service.

It would appear that one aspect of efficiency can be measured in terms of the ratio, books in stock to circulation of books. This measure has been developed for the forty-eight states, translated into per capita terms, and the per capita utilization of books in turn has been related to per capita expenditures for library services.

Chart I,⁹ page 15, shows that for the nation as a whole there is no relation between per capita expenditures and per capita utilization of books. If such relationship obtained, all the dots shown on the attached chart would cluster around the line of perfect correlation. As inspection of the chart indicates, no such cluster exists.

V. EVALUATION OF PRESENT PRACTICES

Taking the evidence as a whole, the following may be observed:

1. The Pennsylvania community does make less than an average effort to support public libraries. For example, in 1945, the last year for which comparable data are readily available, Pennsylvania ranked 28th (high to low) as regards per capita receipts of public libraries.¹⁰ However, during the same year Pennsylvania ranked 15th as regards the per capita income of its residents.¹¹

2. Currently, municipal corporations and school districts do exploit but a small fraction of their statutory ability to support public libraries. (See Table I.)

3. Pennsylvania counties currently do not take full advantage of the State appropriations for public libraries available to them.

Table IV, substantiates this latter claim conclusively. The table shows, for eligible counties, the amount of State aid received during 1947, as well as allocations as percentages of the maximum amount of $2,500 for which the counties are eligible.

Of the twenty-six counties which operate county libraries, only seven (Adams, Bedford, Butler, Cameron, Huntingdon, Monroe and Somerset) appropriate enough money out of county funds to become eligible for the maximum State grant of $2,500.

Table V, shows the appropriations which different classes of counties would have to make in order to become eligible for the maximum State grant of $2,500 per year.

Table V, should be read as follows: If a sixth class county appropriated $5,000 for its county library, it would receive the maximum amount of State aid allowable by law for its library, namely $2,500.

If the sixty-five counties eligible for reimbursement from the State established county libraries and received the maximum amount allowable under present law, the State would have to provide an appropriation of $162,500 a year for this purpose, or $325,000 for a biennium. The counties, in order to receive this amount would have to appropriate for public libraries a total of $380,378.70 for one year, or $760,757.40 a biennium.

APPENDIX TABLE D

PER CAPITA STATE APPROPRIATIONS FOR LIBRARY SERVICES—SELECTED STATES—1946

Report of J. J. Weadock, Jr., Director of Studies, to the Ohio Library Survey Commission

Alabama

$64,000 allocated to state aid for 1945-1947 out of a total appropriation for the state agency of $100,000; plus a conditional appropriation of $40,000 (depending on the condition of the Treasury) all of which will be allocated to state aid. Distributed to county and city public libraries, for books and personnel, under standards set by the Public Library Service Division.

Arkansas

$170,000 appropriated for 1945-1947 for state aid and for operation of the State Library Commission ($120,000 for 1943-1945). Of this, $118,560 is for establishment and continuing aid to county and regional libraries, for books and personnel, under standards set by the Library Commission for local support, personnel and service.

Connecticut

$34,000 appropriated for 1945-1947 for establishment and annual aid in books for very small libraries.

Delaware

$11,400 appropriated for 1943-1945 ($10,600 in preceding biennium) for establishment and annual aid for books for small libraries.

Georgia

$100,000 included in budget of Department of Education for 1945-1946 (same as preceding year) for state aid for rural public library service.

Illinois

$300,000 appropriated for 1945-1947 to the State Library for a series of demonstrations of rural library service in large areas, called districts.

Louisiana

$300,000 appropriated for 1944-1946 for parish demonstrations, under the sponsorship of the Library Commission, as well as for the regular Commission activities ($144,820 for 1942-1944, plus a special allocation of $70,000).

Maine

$19,000 appropriated for 1945-1947 to the State Library for establishment and annual aid for books for small libraries.

Maryland

$20,000 for 1946, as a first appropriation for aid to county libraries.

Massachusetts

$39,220 appropriated for year 1945-1946 for the Division of Public Libraries. The budget provides for three regional library centers with bookmobile service, for direct aid to individual libraries, and for all other activities.

Although not earmarked state aid as such, all services are directed to the aid of the small libraries of the state.

Michigan

$371,625 appropriated for year 1945-1946 for state aid for existing libraries and for development of new service. Detailed law divides the sum into an equalization fund for establishment, especially for county and regional libraries; an administration fund; and a general fund for grants to existing libraries. The State Board for Libraries is authorized to set standards for personnel in administering the fund. The act itself sets standards for local support, including a minimum of $6,000 by July, 1948.

New Hampshire

Provision for two regional bookmobile services, begun in 1938 and 1940, is made in the regular budget of the State Library. Not called "state aid" but seems comparable to that of other states. In addition, $4,000 appropriated 1945-1947 for establishment and aid for books for small libraries—a continuation of an older type of aid.

New Jersey

$10,000 appropriated for year 1945-1946 for state aid to school libraries or to county libraries for service to schools. $200 also appropriated for aid for books for very small public libraries.

New Mexico

$11,000 of the appropriation for 1945-1947 for the State Library Commission "For aid for rural libraries" assigned to direct aid, contingent on increased local appropriations.

New York

$73,000 appropriated for year 1945-1946 for annual aid to registered libraries which meet standards set by the Regents.

North Carolina

$350,000 for 1945-1947 ($250,000 for 1943-1945) for state and for "promoting, aiding, and equalizing public library service." The short act empowers the State Library Commission to plan allocation and set requirements.

Ohio

$100,000 appropriated for state aid for biennium 1945-1947. The State Library Board, which allocates funds under a very general law, has emphasized grants to one strong library in each county to enable it to extend service to rural areas, with complete service on a county or regional basis as a goal. Small direct grants have been made to other libraries whose standards justify them. (In 1939 an enabling act empowering the State Library to accept and administer state and federal aid, directed the State Library Board to use the fund "to increase, improve, stimulate and equalize library service to the people of the whole state.")

Pennsylvania

$79,000 appropriated for 1945-1947 for State aid for encouragement of county libraries. Allocations to individual counties by the State Department of Public Instruction, which includes the State Library, vary (inversely as to the population) from 20 per cent to 125 per cent of the amount appropriated by the county but not more than $2,500.

Rhode Island

$14,000 appropriated for year 1945-1946 or to the State

Library annual aid for small libraries for books and salaries.

South Carolina

$10,815 of an appropriation of $20,000 for the State Library Board for the year 1945-1946 is set aside for state aid for large unit libraries.

Tennessee

$75,000 appropriated for 1945-1947 "To be matched by funds made available through other sources on a fifty-fifty basis."

Vermont

$66,000 appropriated for 1945-1947 for four regional library centers and bookmobile services (begun in 1937 with a separate fund of $25,000 for the biennium) and for the other activities of the State Library Commission. Not called "state aid," for it has become an integral and major part of the state agency's service—but it seems comparable.

Virginia

$100,000 for 1944-1946 for state aid for state-wide public library development, particularly in rural areas, with emphasis on county and regional libraries, under standards set up by the State Library Board.

Washington

$283,000 appropriated for the first time for 1945-1947, as a "public libraries fund," in short act which leaves administrative policies to the State Library Commission.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Pursuant to House Resolution No. 20, Session of 1947, we submit herewith a report dealing with the problems of alcoholism in Pennsylvania.

In accordance with Act No. 4, Session of 1943, Section 1, the Commission created a "subcommittee" to facilitate and expedite the survey of alcoholism in Pennsylvania.

On behalf of the Commission the co-operation of the members of the subcommittee is gratefully acknowledged.

WELDON B. HEYBURN, Chairman.

Joint State Government Commission

CONTENTS

Summary of Findings.

Summary of Recommendations.

Section I. Introduction.

Section II. The Characteristics of Alcoholics and Extent of Alcoholism.

Section III. Public Attitudes and the Rehabilitation of the Alcoholic.

Section IV. Short Treatment.

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

I. It appears to be the consensus of informed medical opinion that alcoholism is "a sickness characterized by emotional and social maladjustment and by compulsive dependence upon alcohol."¹ (See Section II)

II. As a matter of long-term trend, alcoholism in the United States has decreased from 1,248 alcoholics per 100,000 adult population in 1910 to 857 alcoholics per 100,000 adult population in 1945. However, as a matter of short-term trend, there has been an apparent increase in alcoholism. In 1940, for example, 757 persons per 100,000 adult population suffered from alcoholism; in 1945, this number had risen to 857. (See Section II).

III. Whereas alcoholism increased in the nation as a whole between 1930 and 1945 by roughly 28%, alcoholism in Pennsylvania decreased 7.8% between 1930 and 1944. It is estimated that at present, Pennsylvania has approximately 58,000 alcoholics. (See Section II).

IV. The evidence indicates that alcoholism is predominantly an urban problem. For example, the relative frequency of alcoholism in cities with populations of 100,000 and over, is twice the relative frequency in rural areas. (See Section II).

V. It is the consensus of medical opinion that at the present time, alcoholism is not curable. However, medical opinion is generally agreed that many alcoholics can be rehabilitated by means of the so-called "short treatment," which requires approximately one week of hospitalization. As regards rehabilitation rates, Dr. C. Nelson Davis, formerly Physician-in-Charge of the C. Dudley Saul Clinic in Philadelphia, which received an appropriation of $50,000 from the Commonwealth in 1947, reports that 37.5% of the patients treated at the clinic were still "dry" three months after discharge. (See Section IV).

VI. Currently, the cost of the "short treatment" (five days) at the Saul Clinic is approximately $75.00 per patient. On the basis of this cost per patient figure, the total annual cost of subjecting Pennsylvania's alcoholics to the short treatment would be approximately $4,350,000. (See Section II).

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS

I. The biennial appropriation of $50,000 to be continued to some qualified clinic in the Philadelphia area, and provision to be made for an appropriation of like amount for the Pittsburgh area. (See Section II).

II. These funds to be made available on the condition that some fraction thereof shall be devoted to research in alcoholism.

III. It be made mandatory upon the Department of Health, and an appropriation be provided therefor, to develop such report forms as will eventually produce reliable statistics indicating the effectiveness of any rehabilitation programs carried forward by State-aided clinics for alcoholics, State hospitals and State-aided hospitals receiving alcoholics.

IV. Though at this time it is deemed inexpedient to require all medical and nursing schools to provide instruction in the care and treatment of alcoholics, they should be encouraged to offer such instruction.

V. All public and private general hospitals to be encouraged to admit alcoholics.

Section I

INTRODUCTION

House Resolution No. 20. agreed to May 13, 1947, directs the Joint State Government Commission to

1. Study problems relating to the physiological, psychological, psychiatric, economic, and social effects of alcoholism;
2. Survey methods of treatment and rehabilitation of persons so addicted;
3. Gather and compile pertinent data, including clinical experience of existing public and private organizations;
4. Investigate adequacy of existing clinical facilities;
5. Recommend methods for the dissemination of information regarding the nature of alcoholism.

In accordance with the above mandate, the Subcommittee on Alcoholism of the Joint State Government Commission took the following steps:

1. Surveyed the available literature on the subject;
2. On February 25, 1948, held a hearing in Harrisburg at which lay and professional groups were afforded an opportunity to present such facts and views as in their judgment bear pertinently upon the problem under review;
3. On August 10, 1948, visited the C. Dudley Saul Clinic, St. Luke's and Children's Medical Center, Philadelphia. This institution received an appropriation of $50,000 from the Commonwealth in 1947.

The pertinent facts constituting the problem of alcoholism which are of legislative interest are detailed in the subsequent sections.

Section II

THE CHARACTERISTICS OF ALCOHOLICS AND EXTENT OF ALCOHOLISM

Some authorities differentiate between "excessive drinkers" and "alcoholics." The essential difference between the two seems to be as follows:

In the judgment of the community, the "excessive drinker" imbibes too much for his own good. The "alcoholic" admits he drinks too much, but he cannot stop drinking unless subjected to treatment.

In the phraseology of one observer, the alcoholic drinks because he cannot stop drinking, although he may "hate liquor, hate drinking, hate the taste, hate the results, and hate himself for succumbing."²

A rehabilitated alcoholic (Case S. M.) before the Medical Society of Delaware on October 15, 1947, described his drinking habits as follows:³

"I started drinking in 1916 and drank for thirty years. The first ten years, I would say, was sociable drinking, the second ten was getting a little serious, and the last ten my life became unbearable because of alcohol. I went to several sanatoriums. I think the difference is $50.00 a week between sanatoriums and sanitariums, and I came home to no avail.

"To show you what a pattern an alcoholic can get in, I will give you an example of my daily routine from the store. The store closed at 5:30. I would leave the store twenty minutes after five, walk up Sixth and King Streets or Seventh and King and by a fifth of whiskey, walk down to Seventh and Shipley, walk in a bar—the bartender knew I would be coming at that time—I would have three double shots in a hurry and be right on time at 5:30 to meet my neighbor with whom I drove home.

"Then when I got home I didn't go in the house. I went in the garage to collect the eggs and count the eggs or something, and I would have three or four more, and then I would go up in the house and if my wife was upstairs I would have three or four more drinks downstairs, or vice versa."

In the main, this report is concerned with the alcoholic—the person for whom the first drink signifies the beginning of a spree which inevitably ends in utter collapse.

"Alcoholics come from all strata of the population insofar as family, background, wealth, and education are concerned."⁴ However, the available evidence would seem to indicate that rates of alcoholism are different for various ethnic groups. "Poles, Irish, and so-called White Americans have high rates; Italian and Greeks have low rates; while among Jews alcoholism is rare. As assimilation to American culture patterns increases, the alcoholism rate (of all ethnic groups) tends to approach the average American rate."⁵

Most alcoholics are between the ages of thirty and fifty-five. Approximately 85% of the known alcoholics are male.⁶ As far as the information goes, it would appear that the rate of alcoholism among adult males is approximately six times the rate among adult females.⁷

At this time it is hazardous to attempt to measure the extent of alcoholism. Until very recently, members of the community have regarded alcoholism either as something to be ashamed of or something to be condemned. Neither attitude is productive of reliable statistics.

However, the available data such as it is, suggests that as a matter of long-term trend, alcoholism in the United States has decreased from 1,248 alcoholics per 100,000 adult population in 1910 to 857 alcoholics per 100,000 adult population in 1945. It should be noted, however, that as a matter of short-term trend, there has been an apparent increase in alcoholism. In 1940, for example, 757 persons per 100,000 adult population suffered from alcoholism; in 1945, this number had risen to 857.⁸

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it may be noted, in 1930 had an estimated 896 alcoholics per 100,000 adult population. By 1944 this number had decreased to 826 alcoholics per 100,000 adult population. For the United States as a whole, there were 671 alcoholics per 100,000 adult population in 1930 and 857 alcoholics per 100,000 adult population in 1945.⁹

The above comparison shows that whereas the rate of alcoholism has increased approximately 28% in the United States as a whole over the period 1930 to 1945, the rate of alcoholism in Pennsylvania over the period 1930 to 1944 has decreased 7.8%.⁹

Assuming that the Pennsylvania rate of alcoholism has remained fairly constant since 1944, it may be expected that the Commonwealth today has approximately 58,000 alcoholics.

As regards the geographic distribution of alcoholism, it appears reasonably well established that the incidence of alcoholism is greater in cities than in rural areas. For example, the relative frequency of alcoholism in cities with populations of 100,000 and over, is twice the relative frequency in rural areas.¹⁰

Section III

PUBLIC ATTITUDES AND THE REHABILITATION OF THE ALCOHOLIC

Traditionally the attitude of the public toward the alcoholic has been one of contempt. Those who dealt with him either in the capacity of physician or prison official considered the alcoholic hopeless. The attitude of prison officials constantly harassed by unruly guests in "Drunk Row" is succinctly summarized by the warden of a large city prison who gave the prison physician the following advice: "They are hopeless. They are no good. They are moral cowards. They are weaklings. Kid, the only thing we can do is lock the door and throw the key away."¹¹

Functionaries of mental hospitals regarded the alcoholic as "an atrocious and arrogant, pugnacious and irritating, difficult patient."¹² Many psychiatrists concurred in the view of a leader of their profession who summarized his experiences with alcoholics by saying, "We can't do anything with them."¹³

Needless to say, this highly negativistic attitude did not facilitate the rehabilitation of alcoholics, nor did it tend to reduce the cost of alcoholism, which, prior to World War II, was estimated at one billion dollars for the nation as a whole.¹⁴

Toward the end of the thirties it became apparent to groups of citizens that punishment and exhortations had failed to reduce the dimensions of the problem of alcoholism. Between 1938 and 1946 various organizations were formed for the purpose of tackling the problem on different levels. Taking the nation as a whole, between 1938 and 1944 were established, the Research Council on Problems of Alcohol (1938), the Yale Summer School of Alcohol Studies (1943), the Yale Plan Clinics (1944), and the National Committee for Education on Alcoholism (1944). Alcoholics Anonymous, founded in 1934, began to develop into a national organization in 1938.

These organizations have different objectives and functions. The Research Council on Problems of Alcohol is a national organization which seeks through research and education to bring about a reduction in alcoholism. It provides funds for the establishment of research centers in medical school hospitals where competent scientists may utilize the resources of medicine, public health, physiology, nutrition, psychiatry and psychology in the study of the problem, and makes available to organizations, educators, and other adult groups, condensations of technical and scientific reports for study and discussion. The National Committee for Education on Alcoholism is primarily interested in reorienting public thinking with respect to the problem of the alcoholic. It is a basic concept of the Committee that alcoholism is a disease, and that the problem of the alcoholic cannot be attacked effectively unless and until the public at large looks upon him as a sick person. Scientific research on the relation of alcohol to the welfare of man, has been carried on by the Section of Alcohol Studies of the Laboratory of Applied Physiology, Yale University. These findings have been made available to various groups and interested persons through the Yale Summer School of Alcohol Studies. The Yale Summer School of Alcohol Studies has served as a pattern for local educational programs throughout the country. The Yale Plan Clinics—established at Hartford and New Haven in 1944 by the Yale Section of Alcohol Studies—for the diagnosis and guidance of inebriates, have become a pattern for enlightened treatment of the alcoholic which is being followed in various parts of the country under private, civic or State auspices. Alcoholics Anonymous consists of groups of laymen who have had first-hand experience with alcoholism. These groups attempt to rehabilitate the alcoholic by means of group therapy.

In addition to the activities of organized groups, the growth of public and scientific interest in alcoholism is reflected in the fact that in the twelve states listed below, and in the District of Columbia, legislative action has been taken on the problem¹⁵:

|-----------------------------------|--|
| Alabama (1945) | Legislation—Commission on Education with respect to Alcoholism created Purpose—Education and Research Appropriation—$5,000 annually |
| Connecticut (1945) (1947 amended) | Legislation—Connecticut Commission on Alcoholism established Purpose—Treatment and Diagnostic facilities Appropriation—$200,000 to $250,000 annually (9% of all fees for permits received by Liquor Control Commission) |
| Louisiana (1948) | Legislation—Research Commission created (Exact title not specified) Purpose—Collect data on need for hospitalization and rehabilitation Appropriation—$10,000 annually (Tax receipts from beer) |
| Massachusetts (1947) | Legislation—Commission on Alcoholism created Purpose—Make continuous study of treatment and related problems and report annually to legislature Appropriation—$10,000 annually (All members unpaid except Secretary) |
| Mississippi (1948) | Legislation—Makes provision within State Building Commission Purpose—Provide suitable accommodations at State Hospitals Appropriation—Not specified |
| Nebraska (1947) | Legislation—Makes provision within State Hospitals Purpose—Study of care and treatment; admission to State Hospitals Appropriation—Not specified |
| New Hampshire (1947) | Legislation—Board for Treatment of Inebriates created Purpose—Study, education, and establishment of facilities for diagnosis and rehabilitation. Report biennially to Governor and legislature Appropriation—$30,000 biennially |
| New Jersey (1945) | Legislation—Committee for Rehabilitation of Alcoholics and Promotion of Temperance. (Bill to establish Bureau on Alcoholism in Department of Health, provide facilities for medical treatment, research, etc. under consideration in 1948 session) Purpose—Survey facilities and make recommendations for rehabilitation Appropriation—$25,000 annually in 1945 and 1946 (Unexpended balance of $28,000 on hand) |
| Oregon (1943) | Legislation—Rehabilitation Clinic to be established by Educational Advisory Committee Purpose—Establish and maintain rehabilitation agency and treatment center Appropriation—Not to exceed $115,000 for 1947-1949 (Monies collected and received by Liquor Control Commission) |

Utah

Legislation—Board to Investigate Causes of Alcoholism established
Purpose—Investigate causes of alcoholism; provide education, and treatment of alcoholics
Appropriation—$50,000 annually

Virginia (1948)

Legislation—Division of Alcohol Studies and Rehabilitation created in Department of Health
Purpose—Study problem of alcoholism, promote preventive and educational programs, and establish hospital and clinic facilities
Appropriation—$100,000 annually

Wisconsin (1947)

Legislation—State Board of Alcohol Studies established in Department of Welfare
Purpose—Study and treatment; assist counties in establishing facilities for treatment Appropriation—$50,000 (1947), $100,000 (1948)

District of Columbia

Legislation—Alcoholic Clinic established officially (in operation prior to passage of law)
Purpose—Establish program for medical, psychiatric and other scientific treatment and rehabilitation of alcoholics
Appropriation—$100,000 (Est.) (Funds derived from 10% increase of annual liquor license fees)

Clinical and hospital facilities and research programs are now or soon will be in operation under state auspices in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Oregon, Utah, Virginia, Wisconsin, and the District of Columbia. Educational programs and related activities are in operation in all of the states above listed.

It should be noted that in Pennsylvania the problem of alcoholism was recognized by the organization of the Western Pennsylvania Committee for Education on Alcoholism (1945) which is affiliated with the National Committee for Education on Alcoholism. With some modifications designed to take care of peculiar local problems, the Pennsylvania Committee pursues the policies of the National Committee.

In addition, a clinic for alcoholics was established in Philadelphia in 1946. This clinic—which received from the Commonwealth an appropriation of $50,000 for the biennium 1947-1949—known as the C. Dudley Saul Clinic, St. Luke's and Children's Medical Center, Philadelphia, does research in alcoholism and attempts to facilitate the rehabilitation of alcoholics by means of the so-called "short treatment," which is described in the next section.

Section IV

SHORT TREATMENT

The application of the "short treatment," so-called because it takes place within a span of one week, was developed at the Saul Clinic by Dr. C. Nelson Davis, and Dr. Thomas K. Rathmell. It should be noted, however, that the application of the "short treatment" is not confined to the Saul Clinic. It is also used at the Knickerbocker Hospital in New York City.

At the Saul Clinic the "short treatment" takes five days and is currently available to alcoholics at a cost of approximately $75.00 per person. The "short treatment" does not "cure" the alcoholic, but represents one step in his rehabilitation process. The alcoholic who is subjected to the "short treatment" is "sobered up" by the use of the most modern methods known to contemporary medical science, and thoroughly diagnosed for organic and mental ailments and social maladjustments. Briefly, the treatment involves the complete elimination of alcohol, injection intravenously of glucose and vitamin solutions, and the administration of oxygen by mask for twenty minutes every hour for six hours. Whenever possible, the use of sleeping potions is avoided. In addition, the patient is encouraged to participate in educational conferences for five days.

Broadly speaking, the alcoholics passing through the Saul Clinic, or for that matter any clinic, may be divided into two groups. Some alcoholics suffer from organic or mental ailments. Other alcoholics, in the light of contemporary knowledge of medicine and psychiatry, are "normal" except for the alleged fact that they are "sensitive" to alcohol in the sense that the consumption of even so minute a quantity of alcohol as may be contained in the ordinary dose of cough medicine, is certain to lead to a "binge" and collapse. Alcoholics belonging to the first group are referred to appropriate medical practitioners or psychiatrists. Alcoholics who belong in the second group are frankly told that they must avoid the first drink. Whenever possible, the families of all alcoholics are contacted with a view of explaining to them the problems of alcoholics and securing their understanding and co-operation. Successful and sustained rehabilitation of the alcoholic depends in large measure upon the co-operation of his family.

In view of the fact that the Saul Clinic has been in operation but a short time, adequate statistics showing the effectiveness of the treatment are not yet available. However, Dr. C. Nelson Davis reported to the Philadelphia Psychiatric Society that of the patients admitted to the Saul Clinic during the month of June 1946, 60% were found to be dry one month after discharge, and 45% were still dry three months after discharge. He further reported that of the patients admitted during the month of July 1946, 60% were found to be dry one month after discharge, and 37.5% were still dry three months after discharge.¹⁶

To some, the above percentages may seem somewhat discouraging. When passing judgment, however, it is well to remember that this record appears to be better than that of the few general hospitals which admit alcoholics. In addition, it should be pointed out that there is good reason to believe that the record will be improved as scientific research succeeds in discovering the nature of alcoholism.

PART I

Commonwealth Business Taxes, "Emergency" Taxes and Emergency Tax Rates, and the County Personal Property Tax.

I. PROPOSED CHANGES IN THE CORPORATE TAX STRUCTURE

A. With a view of eliminating excessive administrative discretion in the application of the tax laws, unnecessary compliance costs and unjustifiable double taxation, the Committee recommends the abolition of the following taxes levied for general fund purposes at the indicated rates:

| Tax Bases | Rates | Receipts Fiscal Year Ending 5-31-48 |
|----------------------------|---------|-------------------------------------|
| Capital stock | 5 mills | $28.6 millions |
| Corporate franchise | 5 mills | 10.3 millions |
| Corporate loans | 4 mills | 2.0 millions |
| Corporate net income | 4 % | 58.4 ¹ millions |
| Total | | $99.3 millions |

B. In order to compensate for the general fund revenue loss occasioned by the abolition of the above listed taxes, the Committee recommends the introduction of an alternative base corporate tax at the following rates:

|----------------------------|---------|
| Corporate net income | 6 % |
| Employed Capital | 3 mills |
| Minimum fee | $25. |

The taxable corporation would be liable in any one year to whichever of these levies produces the highest yield.

It is estimated that at the prevailing corporate income level the alternative base corporate tax, if applied in Pennsylvania at the rates recommended above, will produce the same yield as the taxes, abolition of which is recommended under A, above.

C. The Committee recommends that (1) corporations file only one annual report which shall contain all needed information with respect to the taxes imposed under B hereof, and (2) the statutes providing for the filing of reports with the Secretary of the Commonwealth with respect to corporate capitalization be amended to make it necessary for corporations to file such reports only when the capitalization of the corporation has changed.

¹ Corporate net income tax receipts for May, 1948, were substantially smaller than receipts for June, 1948. For prior years, the reverse was true. Therefore, total receipts for fiscal 1948 are not strictly comparable to total receipts for previous fiscal years.

¹ Amount to be distributed among the counties: $17,000,000. County net gain: $7,000,000.

II. PROPOSALS REGARDING "EMERGENCY" OR "TEMPORARY" TAXES

The Committee recommends that the soft drinks tax be abolished and that other taxes and tax rates now classified as "emergency" or "temporary" be retained as a part of the general tax structure.

III. PROPOSED NEW TAXES

A. Investment Income Tax

At the present time securities owned by Pennsylvanians which are issued by a corporation subject to capital stock, corporate franchise and corporate loans taxes are exempt from the county personal property tax which is levied at the rate of four mills upon the capital value of these securities. The capital value of the securities thus taxed by a county is added to the assessed valuation of the taxable real property for the purpose of establishing the county's constitutional debt limit. In 1947, the total yield of the county personal property tax amounted to approximately $10,400.00.

If the Committee's recommendation for the abolition of corporate loans, corporate franchise, and capital stock taxes is approved by statutory enactment, it may become at least desirable, if not necessary, to amend the county personal property tax law. Failure to amend that law would result in the taxation at the rate of four mills of all securities held by Pennsylvania residents which are now tax-exempt, with the exception of Federal and Pennsylvania bonds.

To meet the situation the Committee suggests either:

1. Permit the taxation of securities now tax-exempt by virtue of the fact that the issuing corporation is subject to capital stock, corporate franchise and corporate loans taxes, but reduce the rate of the county personal property tax from four to two mills, or
2. Abolish the county personal property tax and, in lieu of this levy, impose a Commonwealth tax upon all investment income of Pennsylvania residents, except income derived from Federal, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania municipal securities, at the rate of 4%.

It is estimated that at 1948 income levels, the tax on investment income, exclusive of income derived from Federal, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania municipal securities, would produce approximately $24,600,000 annually.

The Committee recommends:

1. That a Commonwealth investment income tax be substituted for the county personal property tax because:

- a. During periods of relatively low economic activity capital base taxes, such as the county personal property tax, are unduly burdensome upon all taxpayers but even more so on taxpayers of limited means.
- b. The county personal property tax as administered on the county level is both avoided and evaded.

2. Distribution of the yield from this tax be as follows:

- a. Distribute to each county an amount equal to its average annual collections from the county personal property tax for the period 1943-1947, this distribution would absorb about $10,000,000 of the estimated annual yield of $24,600,000.
- b. Distribute an additional $7,000,000 of this revenue among the counties on the basis of the ratio investment income tax collections within a given county to total investment income tax collections.
- c. Assign the remainder, approximately $7,600,000, to the Commonwealth for general fund purposes.

The reduction in the borrowing capacity of the counties resulting from the abolition of the county personal property tax presents no insurmountable problem.

B. Tax on Unincorporated Business and Professional Activity:

At present, no Commonwealth taxes are imposed upon the income derived from unincorporated business and professional activity.

The Committee recognizes (for further details see Part II of the Committee's report) that Article IX of the Constitution of Pennsylvania makes it apparently impossible for the Commonwealth to levy a constitutional tax upon the income derived from unincorporated business and professional activity which would permit the deduction of reasonable salary and wage allowances for proprietors, partners and self-employed professionals, therefore the Committee recommends that a tax at the rate of 1½% be imposed for General Fund purposes upon the income derived from unincorporated business and professional activity. The yield of this tax is estimated at $24,165,000 annually at 1948 income levels.

Effect of Committee Recommendations Upon General Fund Revenues.

The Committee recommends:

Effect on Annual Commonwealth Revenues

PART II

STATE-LOCAL FISCAL RELATIONS

I. Modification and Clarification of the Powers of Selected Municipal Corporations to Levy Taxes

To assure adequate revenues for the political subdivisions under conditions that will "safeguard and enhance the industrial position of the Commonwealth," the Committee recommends the following changes in existing tax statutes.

A. That Act No. 481, Session of 1947, be amended to authorize local taxation, restricted to residents, at only one level of government—cities, towns, first class townships and boroughs—permissive taxes to be restricted to the following levies:

1. Wage and salary taxes.
2. Per capita taxes.
3. Taxes upon the income derived from unincorporated business and professional activity, provided the General Assembly of 1949 does not elect to impose such a tax at the state level.

The Committee suggests that the General Assembly specify the maximum rates at which the taxes enumerated above may be imposed by cities, towns, first class townships and boroughs.

B. That school districts be restricted by means of general statutes to the imposition of real estate and per capita taxes.

The above recommendation implies that the General Assembly of 1949 not reenact P. L. 733 and P. L. 745, Session of 1947, which authorize the school districts of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, respectively, to levy personal property taxes at the maximum rate of four mills and mercantile license taxes at the rate of ½ mill wholesale and 1 mill retail. It further implies that the General Assembly of 1949 not reenact P. L. 728, Session of 1947, which authorize the school districts of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, respectively, to levy personal property taxes at the maximum rate of four mills and mercantile license taxes at the rate of ½ mill wholesale and 1 mill retail. It further implies that the General Assembly of 1949 not reenact P. L. 728, Session of 1947, which authorizes the school district of Pittsburgh to levy a per capita tax at the maximum rate of $5 for "the fiscal year beginning January first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight."

II. The Financing of State-Mandated Local Functions

The Committee recommends that Commonwealth-mandated increases in local governmental costs be financed by means of a broad-based, Commonwealth-imposed tax, properly allocated among the political subdivisions.

At present Article IX of the Constitution of Pennsylvania makes it impossible for the Commonwealth to levy personal income taxes which provide for personal exemptions and graduated rates. The Committee recommends that the General Assembly take appropriate amendment to Article IX of the Constitution under advisement.

The Committee recommends:

A. The imposition of a retail sales and use tax upon the sale at retail of tangible personal property, except food sold for off-premise consumption and such commodities as are now subject to Commonwealth excise taxes, at a rate not to exceed 2%.

B. That 75% of the proceeds of this tax be distributed among the school districts in such manner as to assure the financing of Commonwealth-mandated school costs at local tax rates not to exceed 6 mills upon the valuation of locally taxable property; the remaining 25% to be distributed on a population basis among all political subdivisions other than school districts and counties.

It is the purpose of the recommended sales tax to facilitate the financing of Commonwealth-mandated local governmental costs and to compensate for the loss, actual and potential, to political subdivisions occasioned by the limitations upon now existing local taxing powers recommended by the Tax Study Committee and outlined under I, above.

REPORT OF FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS ON THE PENNSYLVANIA TAX SYSTEM BY THE TAX STUDY COMMITTEE

Under Authority of Act of Assembly Approved
July 9, 1947 (P. L. 1468)

PART I

FEBRUARY, 1949

ACT OF ASSEMBLY CREATING TAX STUDY COM-MITTEE AND DIRECTING ITS INVESTIGATION OF PENNSYLVANIA TAX STRUCTURE

Authorizing the Joint State Government Commission to make a thorough study of the tax laws of the Commonwealth and of other states and countries in order to ascertain ways and means of financing the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions upon a more scientific and equitable basis; providing for the appointment of a tax study committee; authorizing the employment of necessary assistants; prescribing the powers and duties of the committee; and making an appropriation.

Whereas, the existing tax structure of the Commonwealth has been developed on a piecemeal basis with the result that it lacks a scientific and equitable basis.

Whereas, it is frequently represented that our present tax structure unduly burdens industrial enterprise, with the result that new industrial enterprises are deterred from locating in the Commonwealth, and existing industrial enterprises are in an unfavorable competitive position, and

Whereas, increasing demands for government service result in the necessity of raising additional revenue to pay the cost thereof which must not be levied so as to destroy the industrial position of the Commonwealth.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. A committee to be known as the Tax Study Committee is hereby authorized under the Joint State Government Commission, consisting of the Secretary of Commerce, ex officio, who shall be chairman thereof, and six other members, two of whom are to be appointed by the Governor, two by the President pro tempore of the Senate, and two by the Speaker of the House of Representatives to study the laws of this Commonwealth and of other states and countries relating to taxation; to investigate systems and methods of taxation in order to provide ways and means of financing the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions upon a more scientific and equitable basis and to safeguard and enhance the industrial position of the Commonwealth. The members of the Committee shall serve without compensation, but they shall be reimbursed for their living and traveling expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.

Section 2. The Committee is hereby authorized to sit at Harrisburg, or elsewhere, within the Commonwealth and to employ a secretary and counsel and such other assistants as may be necessary.

Section 3. Vacancies occurring in the membership shall be filled by appointment by the authority who appointed the members whose place is vacated.

Section 4. The Tax Study Committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the Joint State Government Commission, and the Commission on or before February one, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine shall report the results of its investigation to the Governor and the General Assembly, together with such proposed legislative measures as it deems advisable to carry its recommendations into effect.

Section 5. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to the Commission for the purpose of paying the expenses of the members of said Tax Study Committee and the salaries and traveling expenses of its employes for the preparation, editing, printing and distribution of the report of the Commission and any other expenses necessary to be paid on warrants of the Auditor General in favor of the chairman of the Commission, on presentation of his requisition for the same, for the work of the Commission in connection with said tax study.

Approved—The 9th day of July, A. D. 1947, in the sum of $50,000. I withhold my approval from the remainder of said appropriation because of insufficient State revenue.

JAMES H. DUFF.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Joint State Government Commission:

In accordance with Act No 562, Session of 1947, Section 4, the Tax Study Committee transmits herewith Part I of a report of its findings and recommendations on the Pennsylvania Tax System for submission to His Excellency, the Honorable James H. Duff, Governor of Pennsylvania, and the Honorable the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Because of the complexity of the subject matter assigned to the Committee by the General Assembly, it has been decided to present the Committee's report in two parts.

Part 1 reviews Commonwealth business taxes, the county personal property tax which is related to existing corporate taxes, "emergency" taxes and emergency tax rates. Part II, to be submitted subsequently, will survey the area of state-local fiscal relations.

PRECEPTS, FACTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

When the General Assembly of 1947 created the Tax Study Committee, it directed the group to recommend to the General Assembly of 1949 "ways and means of financing the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions upon a more scientific and equitable basis and to safeguard and enhance the industrial position of the Commonwealth."

The legislative mandate has set the course for the Committee's factual explorations and deliberations.

On the one hand, the Committee had no difficulty when attempting to give specific content to the legislative mandate that matters fiscal be placed on "a more scientific basis." The sum and substance of scientific endeavor is the attainment of certitude. Translated into tax language, this means the enactment of tax statutes which facilitate the determination of tax liability with a minimum of discretion on the part of taxpayers and tax gatherers.

On the other hand, the legislative directive that the Committee recommend "ways and means of financing the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions on a more equitable basis" presented the members of the Committee with some interpretive difficulties. In a period of rapid economic change such as the present, concepts of equity do not pass unchallenged. Nevertheless, men must somehow manage to agree upon some few basic concepts of equity. In the absence of such agreement, tax systems degenerate into a conglomeration of unrelated levies.

The Committee's recommendations and suggestions are based upon two simple precepts.

First, a worthy public general-purpose expenditure should be financed by means of broad based general taxes. Second, the tax base or bases should be selected to facilitate determination of the tax liability with a minimum of administrative discretion.

Unless the second precept is inseparably joined to the first, tax administrators are apt to usurp the legislative prerogative.

It is the judgment of the members of the Tax Study Committee that the recommendations outlined below will go a long way toward the attainment of the legislative objectives as interpreted by the Tax Study Committee.

I. PROPOSED CHANGES IN THE CORPORATE TAX STRUCTURE

A. With a view of eliminating excessive administrative discretion in the application of the tax laws, unnecessary compliance costs and unjustifiable double taxation, the Committee recommends the abolition of the following taxes levied for general fund purposes at the indicated rates:

| Tax Bases | Rates | Receipts Fiscal Year Ending 5/31/48 |
|--------------------------|---------|-------------------------------------|
| Capital stock | 5 mills | $28.6 millions |
| Corporate franchise | 5 mills | 10.3 |
| Corporate loans | 4 mills | 2.0 |
| Corporate net income .. | 4 % | 58.4* |
| TOTAL | | $99.3 millions |

B. In order to compensate for the general fund revenue loss occasioned by the abolition of the above listed taxes, the Committee recommends the introduction of an alternative base corporate tax at the following rates:

|----------------------------|---------|
| Corporate net income | 6 % |
| Employed capital | 3 mills |
| Minimum fee | $25. |

The taxable corporation would be liable in any one year to whichever of these levies produces the highest yield.

It is estimated that at the prevailing corporate income level the alternative base corporate tax, if applied in Pennsylvania at the rates recommended above, will produce the same yield as the taxes, abolition of which is recommended under A, above.

C. The Committee recommends that (1) corporations file only one annual report which shall contain all needed information with respect to the taxes imposed under B hereof, and (2) the statutes providing for the filing of reports with the Secretary of the Commonwealth with respect to corporate capitalization be amended to make it necessary for corporations to file such reports only when the capitalization of the corporation has changed.

II. PROPOSALS REGARDING "EMERGENCY" OR "TEMPORARY" TAXES

The Committee recommends that the soft drink tax be abolished and that other taxes and tax rates now classified as "emergency" or "temporary" be retained as a part of the general tax structure.

III. PROPOSED NEW TAXES

A. Investment Income Tax

At the present time, securities owned by Pennsylvanians which are issued by a corporation subject to capital stock, corporate franchise and corporate loans taxes are exempt from the county personal property tax which is levied at the rate of four mills upon the capital value of these securities. The capital value of the securities thus taxed by a county is added to the assessed valuation of the taxable real property for the purpose of establishing the county's constitutional debt limit. In 1947, the total yield of the county personal property tax amounted to approximately $10,400,000.

If the Committee's recommendation for the abolition of corporate loans, corporate franchise and capital stock taxes is approved by statutory enactment, it may become at least desirable, if not necessary, to amend the county personal property tax law. Failure to amend that law would result in the taxation at the rate of four mills of all securities held by Pennsylvania residents which are now tax-exempt, with the exception of Federal and Pennsylvania bonds.

To meet the situation the Committee suggests either:

1. Permit the taxation of securities now tax-exempt by virtue of the fact that the issuing corporation is subject to capital stock, corporate franchise and corporate loans taxes, but reduce the rate of the county personal property tax from four to two mills, or
2. Abolish the county personal property tax and, in lieu of this levy, impose a Commonwealth tax upon all investment income of Pennsylvania residents, except income derived from Federal, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania municipal securities, at the rate of 4%.

It is estimated that at 1948 income levels, the tax on investment income, exclusive of income derived from Federal, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania municipal securities, would produce approximately $24,600,000 annually.

The Committee recommends:

1. That a Commonwealth investment income tax be substituted for the county personal property tax because:
 - a. During periods of relatively low economic activity capital base taxes, such as the county personal property tax, are unduly burdensome upon all taxpayers but even more so on taxpayers of limited means.
 - b. The county personal property tax as administered on the county level is both avoided and evaded.
2. Distribution of the yield from this tax be as follows:
 - a. Distribute to each county an amount equal to its average annual collections from the county personal property tax for the period 1943-47;² this distribution would absorb about $10,000,000 of the estimated annual yield of $24,600,000.
 - b. Distribute an additional $7,000,000 of this revenue among the counties on the basis of the ratio investment income tax collections within a given county to total investment income tax collections.
 - c. Assign the remainder, approximately $7,600,000 to the Commonwealth for general fund purposes.

The reduction in the borrowing capacity of the counties resulting from the abolition of the county personal property tax presents no insurmountable problem.

B. Tax on Unincorporated Business and Professional Activity

At present, no Commonwealth taxes are imposed upon the income derived from unincorporated business and professional activity.

The Committee recognizes (for further details see Part II of the Committee's report) that Article IX of the Constitution of Pennsylvania makes it apparently impossible for the Commonwealth to levy a constitutional tax upon the income derived from unincorporated business and professional activity which would permit the deduction of reasonable salary and wage allowances for proprietors, partners and self-employed professionals, therefore the Committee recommends that a tax at the rate of 1½% be imposed for General Fund purposes upon the income derived from unincorporated business and professional activity. The yield of this tax is estimated at $24,165,000 annually at 1948 income levels.

Summary of Part I—General Fund Revenues

The Committee recommends:

| I. The abolition of the present capital stock, corporate franchise, corporate loans and corporate net income taxes, and the substitution therefore of an alternative base corporate tax at the following rates: | Effect on Annual Commonwealth Revenues | |
|---|--|---------------------|
| | Gain | Loss |
| A. Corporate net income—6% | | |
| B. Employed capital—3 mills | None | None |
| C. Minimum fee—$25 | | |
| II. The elimination of "emergency tax," "temporary tax," "emergency tax rate" and "temporary tax rate" classifications by the abolition of certain taxes and the retention of others as parts of the general tax structure. | | |
| A. Emergency taxes to be abolished: | | |
| 1. Soft drinks | | $13,353,000 |

Section I

THE COMMONWEALTH TAX SYSTEM CHANGES IN THE COMMONWEALTH TAX STRUCTURE SINCE 1942

For the fiscal year ending May 31, 1948, total Commonwealth general fund tax revenues yielded approximately $241 million. This was an increase of about $64 million (36 per cent) over the fiscal year 1947, and an increase of about $54 million over the fiscal year 1942. In addition to general fund tax revenues, the Commonwealth also received for general fund purposes, nontax revenues from other sources such as licenses and fees, fines and penalties and institutional and liquor store earnings (totalling nearly $54 million in fiscal 1948). Revenue from institutions, licenses, fees, etc., and the earnings of the liquor stores are not generally considered as "taxes," although high earnings from the liquor stores constitute the equivalent of an additional liquor tax. General fund revenues from various sources³ for the fiscal year 1948 are shown in Table 1.⁴

Although the Commonwealth's total tax collections have increased substantially during recent years, some of the increase has come without the imposition of new taxes or increases in the rates of old taxes. The total general fund tax revenues increase for fiscal 1948 over fiscal 1947 was $13 million by the soft drink tax; approximately $30 million by the doubling of cigarette and malt beverage tax rates; about $2 million by elimination of the carry-forward and carry-back provisions in the corporate net income tax and the remainder of the increase (approximately $19 million) from the overall expansion in money income in the national economy.

Taxes on selected products (cigarettes, malt beverages, liquor and soft drinks) occupied a more important position in the general fund tax system in fiscal 1948 than in fiscal 1942. The corporate net income tax now accounts for about one-fourth of total general fund tax revenues.⁵ However, the relative importance of the corporate net income tax yield diminished during fiscal 1948, as compared with fiscal 1947, primarily because of the addition of the soft drinks tax, and the increased rates upon cigarettes and malt beverages.

RELATIONSHIP OF STATE TAX RECEIPTS TO INCOME RECEIVED BY RESIDENTS OF PENNSYLVANIA

While the Commonwealth's total tax collection in fiscal 1948 were substantially above those of fiscal 1942, they represented a smaller percentage of 1947 (calendar year) income received by residents of Pennsylvania than was the case in fiscal 1942 (based on calendar 1941 income). State tax collections as a percentage of such income by fiscal years, 1941-1948, for Pennsylvania and neighboring states are shown in Table 4.

The data presented in Table 4 indicate that in neighboring states, as well as in Pennsylvania, state tax revenue as a percentage of income of residents has decreased since 1941. The decrease in Pennsylvania was proportionately greater, however, than in any of the neighboring states.

Comparisons of state tax collections as percentage of income of residents are not particularly revealing. Three levels of government—federal, state and local—collect taxes from the typical taxpayer. While it is reasonable to assume that taxpayers with identical taxable incomes will be treated in the same manner for federal tax purposes, regardless of the state in which they reside, the same assumption cannot be made with respect to tax treatment at the state and local level. Local taxes paid by taxpayers with given incomes, or given taxable assets, may vary considerably from state to state. A relatively high ratio of state tax collections to income of residents may indicate that (1) the state government is performing some functions that are performed in other states by local units, and/or (2) state and local services to citizens are more extensive in the high ratio state. Hence, state and local tax collections as related to income of residents provide more accurate comparisons of tax treatments in the various states than do state tax collections related to income of residents. Table 5 shows the relationships between state and local tax collections and income of residents in Pennsylvania and neighboring states.

COMPARISON OF TAX STRUCTURE OF PENNSYLVANIA AND NEIGHBORING STATES

Table 6 shows the major sources of tax receipts in Pennsylvania and neighboring states. As has been pointed out, Pennsylvania relies heavily upon taxation of selected products and services and the taxation of business with more than 90 per cent of tax revenues (including motor fuels, but excluding social security revenues) coming from these sources. New York employs personal income tax which accounts for about one-fifth of its revenues. New Jersey does not levy a corporation net income tax, but does impose a corporate franchise tax; New Jersey also collects real property taxes at the state level. Ohio employs a general sales tax which occupies a more important relative position in its tax structure than does the corporation net income tax in Pennsylvania. Maryland has an individual income tax, a general sales tax and a real property tax. West Virginia receives more than half of its state revenue from taxing general sales and occupations.

Table 7 shows state-level tax collections per capita for all states, Pennsylvania and states bordering on Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania state taxes per capita are about 25 per cent lower than the nation's average, and lower than any neighboring state with the exception of New Jersey.

The appraisal of Pennsylvania's tax structure should not rest wholly on data relating to taxes as a proportion of income or per capita tax payments. The impact of a state's tax system on economic activity must also be judged by such criteria as cost of administration, the costs of taxpayer compliance, the uniformity of application among taxpayers similarly situated, the consequences of taxpayer uncertainty resulting from excessive administrative discretion, the impact of state taxes on patterns of production and consumption, and finally, but by no means least important, the adequacy of the state's revenue sources to meet citizen needs for governmental services. The modifications in the Commonwealth's tax structure which are here recommended take cognizance of these criteria.

Section II

CORPORATE TAXES

In the Pennsylvania tax system, taxation of corporate activity is an important source of the Commonwealth's revenue, producing 42 per cent of general fund (tax and nontax) revenues.

A. THE PRESENT CORPORATE TAX STRUCTURE

The characteristics of Pennsylvania's corporate tax system have been detailed elsewhere.⁶ The principal features can be summarized as follows:

- (1) Certain specified types of enterprise whose characteristics do not lend themselves to general tax treatment are taxed under special statute. Important in this category are blanks and trust companies, subject to the tax on shares but exempt from the corporation net income, capital stock or franchise taxes. Foreign insurance companies are taxed on premiums but are exempt from corporation net income and capital stock assessments. Domestic stock insurance companies other than life insurance companies are taxed at a lower rate on premiums but pay the capital stock and net income tax. Domestic stock life insurance companies pay only the capital stock and the net income tax.

- (2) Railroad and other utility corporations are included within the scope of general corporate taxes in Pennsylvania. Unlike other corporations, however, utilities (electric power and light, telephone and telegraph, etc.) are exempt from local property taxes and liable for an in lieu gross receipts tax. Railroads are subject to a similar gross receipts tax which is in lieu of local property taxes except on terminal property in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.
- (3) With no important exceptions other than those described above, all corporations are liable for both a capital stock tax (franchise tax on foreign corporations) and a net income tax.
- (4) In addition, all domestic corporations pay a bonus on the amount of capital stock issued from foreign corporations pay a bonus on the amount of capital employed in Pennsylvania.
- (5) Domestic corporations or foreign corporations with fiscal offices located in Pennsylvania are liable for the corporate loans tax on behalf of Pennsylvania residents.

1. The Corporate Net Income Tax

The corporate net income tax is roughly equivalent in revenue importance to all other taxes paid by corporations. The estimated distribution of tax payments by types of corporate business activities is shown in Table 8. It will be observed that manufacturing corporations in Pennsylvania produce about two-thirds of corporate net income tax receipts. Retail merchandising corporations produce the second largest amount of corporate net income yield.

Since its introduction in Pennsylvania in 1935, the corporate net income tax has been closely geared to Federal concepts of corporate income. At the present time there are, however, three important exceptions to this general rule:

- (1) The Federal government recognizes gains and losses on intangible and tangible property, while Pennsylvania recognizes gains and losses on intangible property, and on tangible property if located within the Commonwealth.
- (2) The Federal government permits corporations a two year carry-back and a two year carry-forward of net operating losses. This carry-back and carry-forward provision was eliminated from the Pennsylvania tax effective as of 1946.
- (3) Income for Federal tax purposes excludes 85% of inter-corporate dividends. Since 1936 Pennsylvania has excluded all dividends from taxation.

The corporation net income tax is an essential and desirable part of the Pennsylvania tax structure. However, the statutory allocation procedure employed in computing the fraction of the base taxable in Pennsylvania tends to discourage the development of merchandising and selling activities in the Commonwealth.

2. Capital Stock and Franchise Tax

The capital stock tax paid by domestic corporations produced 23 per cent of total corporate tax payments to the general fund in Pennsylvania in the fiscal year ending May 31, 1948. The franchise tax on foreign corporations produced 8 per cent of fiscal 1948 corporation tax payments.

Table 8 shows the distribution (estimated on the basis of a sample of 1,028 corporations) of capital stock and franchise tax payments by types of corporate business activities in Pennsylvania in 1947. On the basis of this sample it appears that manufacturing corporations paid about 57 per cent of the capital stock taxes.

Table 9 shows results of a sample survey of the same 1,028 domestic and foreign corporations filing corporation net income and capital stock or franchise tax returns in Pennsylvania for 1947. Column 5 shows the ratio of capital stock or franchise tax payments to net income tax payments by types of corporate business activity. It is apparent that railroad capital stock tax liabilities are greater in relation to net income tax liabilities than for any other types of business enterprise.

Under Pennsylvania statutes the capital stock and franchise tax liability is determined by applying a millage rate (current rate 5 mills) to ". . . actual value in cash." Actual value in cash is determined by taxing officers in the Department of Revenue on the basis of: (1) value indicated or measured by net earnings or by the profit; (2) value indicated or measured by dividends paid; (3) the actual value indicated or measured by the intrinsic value of assets including good will, franchises and privileges after consideration of the amount of indebtedness; (4) average price of capital stock sold during the taxable year. None of these bases of value can be computed without arbitrary assumptions. The taxpayer's judgment may differ from the judgment of the assessing officer with the result that final tax liabilities are very often settled only after protracted negotiation frequently ending in litigation.

Since the settlement of these tax liabilities is dependent on the judgment of taxing officers and taxpayers with respect to "values," non-uniform treatment of corporations similarly situated is likely to result. A more uniform and more prompt determination of tax liability cannot be assured within the framework of the existing capital stock and franchise tax statutes. Negotiation and delay will continue to characterize Pennsylvania's capital stock and franchise tax settlements so long as these statutes remain in force. This increases the Commonwealth's cost of administration and the expense which the taxpayers must assume in order to secure final tax settlement. In addition, uncertainty as to the amount of the tax liability may impede production and investment planning.

The Pennsylvania capital stock tax fails to satisfy many widely recognized requisites of a "good" tax.

3. The Allocation of Interstate Corporate Activity

For the purposes of the net income tax and the franchise tax Pennsylvania's share of interstate corporate activity is determined by use of the "Massachusetts" formula. This formula assigns equal weight to three fractions: the value of tangible property in Pennsylvania divided by the value of all tangible property; wages and salaries paid in Pennsylvania divided by total wages and salaries; and gross receipts assigned to Pennsylvania divided by all gross receipts.

The present Pennsylvania law allows corporations to exclude from the numerator of the gross receipts fraction "those sales negotiated or effected in behalf of the corporation by agents or agencies chiefly situated at, connected with, or sent out from, premises for the transaction of business maintained by the taxpayer outside of the Commonwealth." (P. L. 208, 1935; amended by Act No. 91, 1945.) This determination of gross receipts in accordance with the consummation of sales permits a corporation, most of whose manufacturing activities are conducted in Pennsylvania, to establish an out-of-state sales office, thereby reducing its gross receipts fraction and reducing its Pennsylvania corporate tax liability.

A sample survey of allocation fractions of corporate taxpayers doing business in Pennsylvania reveals that a large number of corporations have gross receipts fractions substantially below the wages and property fractions. This suggests that some corporations engaged in interstate activity have been able, through the operation of present allocation procedures, to reduce the volume of corporate activity attributable to Pennsylvania. Perhaps more important than the loss in Commonwealth revenue, the present definition of sales allocable to Pennsylvania offers positive encouragement to taxpayers to establish sales offices in other states, thus depriving Pennsylvania of economic activity which might otherwise be carried on within the state. The Committee recommends that this encouragement to locate sales offices outside the state be terminated, and that, together with the recommended revision in the method of taxing corporations, a revision be made in the method of computing the gross receipts fraction employed in the allocation of interstate business activity.

B. AN ALTERNATIVE BASE CORPORATE TAX

The taxation of corporate net income should continue to constitute the most important base for determining corporation tax liability in Pennsylvania. This is in keeping with Pennsylvania's successful past practice and also with the successful experience of the Federal government and a large number of states. Corporate net income can be ascertained with a minimum of controversy between the taxpayer and the Commonwealth. Pennsylvania can and should continue to utilize, as far as possible, net income as determined for Federal purposes. This procedure minimizes taxpayer's cost of compliance and greatly simplifies the administrative work of the Department of Revenue since it increases the usefulness of information exchanged with the Federal Bureau of Internal Revenue.

However, where corporate taxation is an important part of the Commonwealth's revenue structure, and where that taxation depends heavily on net income, the Commonwealth will experience sharp fluctuations in revenue in accordance with changes in the level of national income and employment. A limit may be set to these fluctuations by the addition of a tax base alternative to net income. A convenient base for this purpose is "employed capital," defined as total capital less short term liabilities. A low millage rate should be applied to this base and the taxpayer required to pay the higher amount.

A third alternative should be utilized for purposes of assuring that every corporation contributes a minimum amount to offset the Commonwealth's administrative costs consequent upon the exercise of the privilege of doing business within the state. Twenty-five dollars would seem to be a reasonable minimum payment.

An alternative base corporate tax in Pennsylvania modeled along the lines suggested would require corporations to pay in any one year, whichever of the following levies produces the highest yield:

- (1) a statutory percentage of net income;
- (2) a millage rate imposed upon "employed capital";
- (3) a flat sum of $25.

Table 10 shows estimates of total yield and the estimated distribution of tax payments by types of business activity resulting from the application of an alternative base franchise tax in Pennsylvania.

These estimates have been computed on the basis of the following assumptions, definitions and rates:

(1) Taxable Corporations—All corporations, joint stock associations and limited partnerships which are now subject to the capital stock and franchise tax in Pennsylvania.

(2) Net Income (taxable at the rate of 6%) (a) as reported to or as ascertained by the federal government, minus all dividends received and excluding gains or losses on the sale of tangible assets; the gains or losses of tangible assets located in Pennsylvania to be added to income as allocated in accordance with the procedure outlined under (4), below. The net income determined in the indicated manner shall be the taxable income of the corporation unless the following computation yields a larger sum: (b) Add to the net income as computed under (a), above, the compensation paid to elected and appointed officers, and to stockholders individually owning in excess of 5% of the corporation's issued stock, deduct from the sum so obtained $15,000, and multiply the difference by .30; allocate the product on the basis of the procedure outlined under (4), below.

(3) Employed Capital—All assets other than investment in stock of other corporations, minus liabilities which are payable on demand or within one year from the date incurred.

(4) Allocation of Net Income and Employed Capital—Net income and employed capital to be allocated by a three-factor formula which assigns equal weight to each of the following factors:

- a. The value of tangible property located in Pennsylvania divided by the value of all tangible property.
- b. Wages and salaries paid in Pennsylvania divided by total wages and salaries paid.
- c. Gross receipts assignable to Pennsylvania divided by total gross receipts.

The property and wage factors are to be determined in accordance with present Pennsylvania procedure.

The gross receipt factor is to be calculated on the basis of the origin of the services performed or the goods shipped. Receipts from sales of tangible property are to be assigned to Pennsylvania if the property was located within the Commonwealth at the time of sale or if it was not located in the Commonwealth at the time of sale nor at any permanent place of business maintained by the taxpayer outside the state.

Table 10 shows the distribution of the tax liability of corporations engaged in different types of activities if the Committee's plan had been in effect in 1947.

The alternative base corporate tax has marked advantages when compared with Pennsylvania's existing corporation tax structure.

The Tax Study Committee is confident that the change from present methods of taxing corporations to the alternative base method proposed here could be accomplished with a minimum of inconvenience and expense to the taxpayer and to the Commonwealth.

Section III

STATE-COLLECTED TAX ON INVESTMENT INCOME

Pennsylvania residents are currently subject to a county tax of four mills on the market value of certain classes of intangible personal property.

Shares of stock in banks, domestic corporations and foreign corporations which are liable to the capital stock, franchise or shares tax and public loans issued by this Commonwealth, its political subdivisions and the United States are exempt from the county personal property tax.

It has long been recognized that the county taxation of personal property in Pennsylvania is subject to many administrative difficulties. During the years in which the state levied a tax on personal property, the counties frequently employed state assessments rolls. Since the repeal of the state tax, counties have not had recourse to this administrative assistance. Collections of the county personal property tax have varied widely from year to year.⁷ In one case a county has doubled its personal property tax collections within a single year, and, in a few other cases, the yield was cut in half within a year. Ratios of collections to levies show extreme variation among the counties and within the same county over a period of years.⁸

Apart from difficulties of collection, the county personal property tax in Pennsylvania is not uniformly assessed or employed among the several counties.⁹ A comparison of levies in 1947 in Pennsylvania counties generally similar in economic structure and income distribution reveal some marked discrepancies. For example, per capita levies in York County were $.79, while in Montgomery County they were $.417. Similarly, Crawford County levies were $1.03 per capita while Schuylkill County levies were $.22 per capita.

Not all of the fluctuation in revenue may be attributed to inconsistent administration. The securities of a foreign corporation may be removed from the county tax rolls if that corporation decides to register in Pennsylvania and become subject to Pennsylvania corporate taxes. Or some wealthy individuals may transfer their residence, suddenly depriving the county of a substantial portion of its tax collections from this source. In short, even if well administered, the personal property tax is an unstable source of county revenue.

In addition, its economic impact is not always satisfactory. A tax on the market value of securities is only indirectly related to the yield from securities. In periods of economic recession the security-holder may receive no dividends, yet still be subject to taxation. Furthermore, a four-mill tax on market value as a comparatively heavy tax burden. For example, the holder of a security of $100 market value, paying $4 a year in dividends, would be liable for an annual tax of 40 cents, which is 10 per cent of its yield.

There has been a growing tendency for state legislatures to eliminate the ad valorem assessment of intangible and tangible personal property. Many state and local governments have abandoned ad valorem taxation of intangibles because of the difficulties of assessment and collection, and because state taxation of intangible property on an income basis produces a more equitable distribution of tax burden.

For these reasons, the Committee recommends that (1) the county personal property tax be repealed and that a Commonwealth tax on investment income be substituted therefore; (2) the base of the tax consist of all net rents, royalties and dividends received by Pennsylvania residents and all interest received by Pennsylvania residents with the exception of interest from federal, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania municipal securities; and (3) the tax on investment income be imposed at the rate of 4 per cent. Such a tax would produce estimated revenues of $24,600,000 annually at 1948 levels of investment income.

The Committee recommends that the proceeds of the investment income tax be distributed as follows:

A. Distribute to each county an amount equal to its average annual collections from the county personal property tax for the period 1943-47¹⁰ which would absorb $10,000,000 of the estimated annual revenue of $24,600,000.

B. Distribute an additional $7,000,000 of this revenue among the counties on the basis of the ratio investment income tax collections within a given county to total investment income tax collections.

C. Assign the remainder of this revenue, approximately $7,600,000, to the Commonwealth for general fund purposes.

The repeal of the county personal property tax and the substitution of a state-collected tax on investment income would bring about the following improvements in the state-local tax structure in Pennsylvania:

1. Administrative efficiency in the assessment and collection of taxes on personal property would be improved. One collection agency—the Department of Revenue—would be substituted for the collection mechanisms now employed in Pennsylvania's 67 counties. Through an exchange of information with the Federal Bureau of Internal Revenue the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue could audit tax returns and determine tax liabilities with a minimum of administrative expense.

2. Intangible taxation in Pennsylvania would be broadened to include all types of investment income from all sources.

3. The taxation of intangible property would be placed on an income rather than a capital base.

The committee is cognizant of the fact that the removal of personal property from county assessment rolls would reduce the borrowing capacity of Pennsylvania counties. Maximum county indebtedness is now limited to 10 per cent of assessed valuations for county tax purposes. Specifically, for all counties except Philadelphia, no indebtedness in excess of 2 per cent may be incurred without the consent of the electors and total indebtedness may not exceed 7 per cent of assessed valuations unless the increased indebtedness is incurred to purchase or construct waterworks, subways, underground railways, or street railways or the appurtenances thereof.¹¹

Examination of the records of the Department of Internal Affairs reveals that, on a 7 per cent basis, the total debt limit of all counties except Philadelphia was $551 million in 1947. With a total county debt of $92 million, there was an unused borrowing capacity of $459 million. The removal of personal property from the assessment rolls would reduce the unused borrowing capacity to $328 million.¹²

The reduction in county borrowing capacity occasioned by the removal of personal property from assessment rolls could be rectified by the realistic assessment of real property.

Available evidence suggests that the average ratio of assessed value to market value of Pennsylvania real property does not exceed 50 per cent. Realistic assessment of real property would produce an aggregate unused borrowing capacity of $721 million after the removal of personal property from county assessment rolls.

The debt limit of Philadelphia, on a 10 per cent basis, was $341 million in 1947. With a net debt of $321 million, there was an unused borrowing capacity of $20 million. The removal of personal property from the assessment rolls, which would reduce the debt limit $71 million, would eliminate the borrowing capacity. However, realistic assessment of real property (assuming that the present ratio of assessed value to market value is .60) would produce an unused borrowing capacity of $129 million after the removal of personal property from the assessment rolls.

In addition, the effect on borrowing capacity of removing intangibles from assessment rolls could be offset by constitutional amendment and enabling statute to raise the limit of permitted county borrowing from a maximum of 10 per cent to some higher ratio of assessed values.

Section IV

TAX ON UNINCORPORATED BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

To secure a more uniform application of Commonwealth taxes to all types of business enterprise, the Committee recommends the enactment of a levy on the net income of unincorporated business and professional activity at the rate of one and one-half per cent. The Committee feels that this type of economic activity should make some contribution to the Commonwealth general fund, although at a lower rate than corporate activity. The advantages of the corporate form, particularly those inherent in the limited liability of stockholders, would appear to justify a higher rate of tax than in the case of unincorporated business and professional activity.

The Committee estimates that, at a one and one-half per cent rate, this tax would yield approximately $24,165,000 annually at 1948 levels of income. It is recommended that the revenue from this levy be assigned to the general fund of the Commonwealth.

To simplify the administration of this tax the income of unincorporated enterprises and of professionals should be defined in accordance with the concepts employed in the determination of corporate net income. The income derived from interstate operations should be allocated to Pennsylvania in the same manner as the allocation of interstate corporate income.

Section V

"EMERGENCY" OR "TEMPORARY" TAXES

It is anomalous to continue to describe as "emergency" or "temporary" those Commonwealth taxes which now account for 44 per cent of general fund revenues. Because these taxes have been continued as "emergency" measures, they have contributed an element of instability to the tax system. In general, the Committee is opposed to the singling out of any commodity for tax purposes. However, the Committee recommends the continuation of emergency rates and emergency taxes, other than the soft drink tax because: (1) they have come to be an integral and accepted part of the tax system and (2) a substantial group of citizens does not regard these commodities as necessities and therefore approves their taxation as luxuries.

With the exception of the soft drinks tax, "emergency" and "temporary" taxes and tax rates should be made a permanent part of the Commonwealth's tax structure. This will relieve the General Assembly of the necessity for reenactment of a major part of the Commonwealth's tax system at successive sessions of the Legislature.

* Corporate net income tax receipts for May, 1948, were substantially smaller than receipts for June, 1948. For prior years, the reverse was true. Therefore, total receipts for fiscal 1948 are not strictly comparable to total receipts for previous fiscal years.

Source: Based on a study of 1,028 corporation tax returns filed with the Department of Revenue.

Note: The sample of 1,028 corporation tax returns, which provides the basis for the estimates, was selected from the files of the Department of Revenue. The processing techniques applied by the Department to various categories of returns affected somewhat their availability for sampling. It was therefore necessary to divide the tax returns with respect to their position in the taxing process. The returns at different stages of processing were not strictly homogeneous with respect to income size and in some cases were not completely available for sampling. About 3 per cent of the returns in all but one group were selected at random as far as the filing system of the Department of Revenue permitted.

Because of the small number of companies involved the sampling technique was not applied to railroads. The 139 companies represent all railroads and affiliated companies operating in Pennsylvania.

The nature of the filing system of the Department of Revenue made it impossible to test the sample by statistical methods. However the result of alternative computations tends to establish the reliability of the yield estimates.

REPORT OF FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS ON THE PENNSYLVANIA TAX SYSTEM BY THE TAX STUDY COMMITTEE

Under Authority of Act of Assembly, Approved
July 9, 1947 (P. L. 1468)

PART II

FEBRUARY, 1949

ACT OF ASSEMBLY CREATING TAX STUDY COM- MITTEE AND DIRECTING ITS INVESTIGATION OF PENNSYLVANIA TAX STRUCTURE

Authorizing the Joint State Government Commission to make a thorough study of the tax laws of the Commonwealth and of other states and countries in order to ascertain ways and means of financing the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions upon a more scientific and equitable basis; providing for the appointment of a tax study committee; authorizing the employment of necessary assistants; prescribing the powers and duties of the committee; and making an appropriation.

Whereas, the existing tax structure of the Commonwealth has been developed on a piecemeal basis with the result that it lacks a scientific and equitable basis.

Whereas, it is frequently represented that our present tax structure unduly burdens industrial enterprise, with the result that new industrial enterprises are deterred from locating in the Commonwealth, and existing industrial enterprises are in an unfavorable competitive position, and

Whereas, increasing demands for government service result in the necessity of raising additional revenue to pay the cost thereof which must not be levied so as to destroy the industrial position of the Commonwealth.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. A committee to be known as the Tax Study Committee is hereby authorized under the Joint State Government Commission, consisting of the Secretary of Commerce, ex officio, who shall be chairman thereof, and six other members, two of whom are to be appointed by the Governor, two by the President pro tempore of the Senate, and two by the Speaker of the House of Representatives to study the laws of this Commonwealth and of other states and countries relating to taxation; to investigate systems and methods of taxation in order to provide ways and means of financing the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions upon a more scientific and equitable basis and to safeguard and enhance the industrial position of the Commonwealth. The members of the Committee shall serve without compensation, but they shall be reimbursed for their living and traveling expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.

Section 2. The Committee is hereby authorized to sit at Harrisburg, or elsewhere, within the Commonwealth and to employ a secretary and counsel and such other assistants as may be necessary.

Section 3. Vacancies occurring in the membership shall be filled by appointment by the authority who appointed the members whose place is vacated.

Section 4. The Tax Study Committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the Joint State Government Commission and the Commission on or before February one, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine shall report the results of its investigation to the Governor and the General Assembly, together with such proposed legislative measures as it deems advisable to carry its recommendations into effect.

Section 5. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to the Commission for the purpose of paying the expenses of the members of said Tax Study Committee and the salaries and traveling expenses of its employees for the preparation, editing, printing and distribution of the report of the Commission and any other expenses necessary to be paid on warrants of the Auditor General in favor of the chairman of the Commission, on presentation of his requisition for the same, for the work of the Commission in connection with said tax study.

Approved—The 9th day of July, A. D. 1947, in the sum of $50,000. I withhold my approval from the commander of said appropriation because of insufficient State revenue.

JAMES H. DUFF.

The foregoing is a true and correct copy of Act of the General Assembly No. 562.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the Joint State Government Commission:

In accordance with Act No. 562, Session of 1947, Section 4, the Tax Study Committee transmits herewith Part II of a report of its findings and recommendations on the Pennsylvania Tax System for submission to His Excellency, the Honorable James H. Duff, Governor of Pennsylvania, and the Honorable the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Part I, previously submitted, reviewed state business taxes, the county personal property tax, which is related to existing corporate taxes, and "emergency" taxes and emergency tax rates. Part II, which completes the report of the Tax Study Committee's findings and recommendations, surveys the area of state-local fiscal relations.

PRECEPTS, FACTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The General Assembly of 1947 directed the Tax Study Committee to recommend to the General Assembly of 1949 "ways and means of financing the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions upon a more scientific and equitable basis and to safeguard and enhance the industrial position of the Commonwealth."

Part I of the Committee's report presents tax measures calculated to assure the financing of the Commonwealth in conformity with the legislative mandate. Part II deals with the financing of the Commonwealth's political subdivisions, exclusive of local highway financing because Act No. 12-A, Session of 1947, amending the Act of May 29, 1945, assigned the subject to another committee.

The Tax Study Committee's recommendations relating to the financing of the political subdivisions are based upon the following broad precepts, facts and considerations:

1. If the industrial position of the Commonwealth is to be safeguarded and enhanced, local taxing powers must be so defined as to give reasonable assurance that effectiveness of productive processes will not be impaired thereby.

2. Continued reliance upon real property taxation as the principal source of local revenue is no longer practical and equitable; increasing resistance to the taxation of real property has developed in large measure by virtue of the inadequate and inequitable assessment practices. Even should these practices be completely corrected, real property, as an object of local taxation will not, within sound economic limitations, produce adequate revenues necessary to meet the present minimum needs of local government.

Faced with the need for additional local revenues, and cognizant of the fact that the taxation of real estate has reached the limit, the General Assembly of 1947 passed Act No. 481. However, it is the judgment of the Committee that this act violates the principle outlined in 1, above.

To assure adequate revenues for the political subdivisions under conditions that will safeguard and enhance the industrial position of the Commonwealth, the Committee recommends the following modifications in the prevailing fiscal relations between the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions.

I. MODIFICATION AND CLARIFICATION OF THE POWERS OF SELECTED MUNICIPALITIES TO LEVY TAXES

The Committee recommends:

- A. That all school districts be restricted, by means of general statutes, to the imposition of real estate and per capita taxes. This will entail that the General Assembly of 1949 not reenact P. L. 733 and P. L. 745, Session of 1947, which authorize the school districts of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, respectively, to levy personal property taxes at the maximum rate of four mills and mercantile license taxes at the rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ mill wholesale and 1 mill retail. It will entail also that the General Assembly of 1949 not reenact P. L. 728, Session of 1947, which authorizes the school district of Pittsburgh to levy a per capita tax at the maximum rate of \$5 for "the fiscal year beginning January first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight."
- B. That Act No. 481, Session of 1947, be amended to allow permissive taxation, restricted to residents, at only one level of local government—cities, towns, first class townships and boroughs—permissive taxes to be restricted to the following:
 1. Wage and salary taxes
 2. Per capita taxes
 3. Taxes upon the income derived from unincorporated business and professional activity, provided the General Assembly of 1949 does not elect to tax such income at the state level.
- C. The Committee suggests that the General Assembly specify the maximum rates at which the taxes enumerated under B, above, may be imposed.

II. THE FINANCING OF STATE-MANDATED LOCAL FUNCTIONS

The Committee recommends that Commonwealth-mandated increases in local governmental costs be financed by means of a broad-based, Commonwealth-imposed tax, properly allocated among the political subdivisions.

At present, Article IX of the Constitution of Pennsylvania makes it impossible for the Commonwealth to levy personal income taxes which provide for personal exemptions and graduated rates.

The Committee recommends that the General Assembly take under advisement appropriate amendment to Article IX.

The Committee recommends the imposition of a retail sales and use tax, upon tangible personal property, except food sold for off-premise consumption and commodities now subject to Commonwealth excise taxes, at a rate not to exceed 2%. It is the purpose of this proposed tax to facilitate the financing of Commonwealth-mandated local governmental costs and to compensate for the loss, actual and potential, to political subdivisions occasioned by the limitations recommended by the Committee and outlined under I, above.¹

The Committee further recommends that 75% of the proceeds of this tax be distributed among the school districts in such manner as to assure the financing of Commonwealth-mandated school costs at local tax rates not to exceed 6 mills upon the valuation of locally taxable real estate; the remaining 25% to be distributed on a population basis among all political subdivisions other than school districts and counties.

Section I

PERMISSIVE LOCAL TAXATION

Under Authority of Act No. 481 (P. L. 1145, June 25, 1947)

Since the end of World War II, the major fiscal problem confronting state and local governments throughout the country has been the inadequacy of local government revenue to meet the increasing demand for services at increased costs. Most state governments have been able to enjoy more or less automatic increases in tax revenue resulting from higher levels of economic activity. This has not been true of local governments because of their heavy dependence, in Pennsylvania and elsewhere, upon real property taxes.

There are several reasons why the real property tax in Pennsylvania has become an increasingly unsatisfactory and inadequate source of local revenue.

(1) There has been a wide variation of assessment practices resulting in inequitable assessment of many classes of property.

(2) There is considerable evidence to indicate that assessed valuations have tended to lag behind market values.

(3) There has been a gradual increase in the proportion of tax exempt real property.

Faced with the need for additional local revenues, and cognizant of the fact that the taxation of real property has reached the limit, the General Assembly of 1947 enacted legislation authorizing permissive local taxation.

Act No. 481 (P. L. 1145, June 25, 1947) authorizes certain political subdivisions of the state to levy taxes on any and all subjects not taxed by the Commonwealth. The political subdivisions included within the scope of the act are the 2nd, 2nd A and 3rd class cities, boroughs, towns, first class townships and school districts of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th class. All counties and second class townships are outside the scope of the act, as are the City of Philadelphia and the school districts of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Supplemental local taxing powers were authorized for Philadelphia under legislation passed in 1932 and for the school districts of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh by legislation in 1947.

Of the state's 5,173 political subdivisions, 3,588 were granted additional taxing authority. Act 481 prohibits the levy of taxes on gross receipts from utility service companies subject to regulation by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission and provides that the total amount of additional taxes levied cannot exceed the maximum permissible yield on real estate subject to taxation within the jurisdiction.

Table I shows the political subdivisions authorized to levy taxes under Act No. 481 and the number of such subdivisions which have adopted new levies as of December 1, 1948. In the short period since the enactment of Act No. 481, about 20 per cent of the political subdivisions authorized to impose such new taxes have done so. Third class cities have used the taxing powers most extensively; about 16 per cent of the boroughs and somewhat less than 20 per cent of the school districts have adopted such new taxes as of this date.

Table 2 shows the type of permissive taxes which have been enacted as of December 1, 1948, classified according to political subdivisions. Per capita taxes have had widespread adoption; severance taxes on coal and other natural resources and amusement or admissions taxes are being utilized extensively. Examination of the taxes so levied as reported to the Department of Internal Affairs reveals that most political subdivisions have levied one additional tax, although about one-fifth of those reporting have imposed two taxes and one school district has imposed six new taxes. A wide range of tax rates is established by the levies; no "typical" rate seems to predominate.

It is hazardous to estimate the revenue importance of the levies imposed under authorization of Act No. 481. Few of the political subdivisions have filed yield estimates with the Department of Internal Affairs, and in any event operating experience has been too limited in most instances to permit accurate determination of probable revenues. However, external evidence suggests that yields have been adequate to hold down the level of real estate taxes in many political subdivisions.

A review of the operations of Act No. 481 reveals a number of unfortunate consequences. The first of these is the problem resulting from the overlapping territorial boundaries. Act No. 481 gives tax preference to the political subdivisions of the taxpayer's residence by providing that the taxpayer can deduct from similar tax liabilities imposed elsewhere, the taxes paid to the political subdivision wherein he resides. Under a recent decision (Lackawanna County Common Pleas No. 11, September Term, 1948) coterminous municipalities and school districts may levy the same tax. These provisions have complicated employer compliance by requiring the employer to withhold and return to a number of jurisdictions the taxes due on wage and salary disbursements. Disputes between local governments over priority to the right to tax and overlapping of tax jurisdictions have met with some public disapproval. There is ample justification for the enactment of amendments which at least will limit permissive taxation to one level of government.

The variety and complexity of some of the taxes which have been enacted has provoked just criticism of Act No. 481. A few political subdivisions have imposed an employer's tax at rates ranging from $3 to $15 for each employee. Several units have imposed stamp taxes on real estate conveyances and deeds, generally at a 1 per cent rate. Another political subdivision has levied a tax of 7c per ton on the loading of ashes and cinders. Severance taxes have been levied at rates ranging from 1c to 10c per ton of coal.

The local revenue structure of Pennsylvania has been complicated by new taxes. Local political subdivisions have created many new collection mechanisms, some of doubtful efficiency. Taxpayer cost of compliance with local taxing laws has increased and taxpayers face considerable uncertainty as to the type and rate of tax which may be imposed at any time by local governments.

When evaluating the experience under Act No. 481, it should be noted that, thus far, the taxes levied pursuant to the authority of this act have been imposed under conditions of exceedingly high employment and income levels. Even now levies have been enacted which place certain business enterprises at economic disadvantage. Without restrictive amendments, the situation may be expected to become more serious. Under less favorable economic conditions, the present authority of permissive taxation may well be used to establish "protected" economic areas which restrict the free flow of goods within the Commonwealth.

Act No. 481 should be amended to eliminate the objectionable consequences of its operation, and to prohibit the levying of taxes which may impair the productive processes of the Commonwealth. The principle of permissive local taxation should be retained in Pennsylvania, but its application limited to specified taxes at specified maximum rates. Permissive taxation should be made available to only one level of government, namely cities, towns, boroughs and first class townships. The authority of these municipalities to tax non-residents employed within their jurisdiction should be removed. These amendments would eliminate the imposition of taxes on the same taxable by more than one political subdivision, simplify the tax structures, and reduce taxpayer uncertainties.

The Tax Study Committee recommends that cities, towns, boroughs and first class townships should be given authority to levy at specified maximum rates taxes on wages and salaries, per capita taxes and taxes on the net income of unincorporated business and professional activity, the latter, however, only in the event that the Commonwealth does not impose a state tax on this base. This, together with the enactment of a Commonwealth tax on investment income, as recommended in Part I, would broaden the Pennsylvania tax base to include all types of income: corporate and investment income, taxable at the state level; wages and salary income, taxable at the local level; unincorporated business and professional income, taxable at either the state or local level.

The proposed amendments to Act No. 481 should make a substantial contribution to the adequate and rational financing of local governments in Pennsylvania.

The Committee recommends that all school districts be restricted, by means of general statutes, to the imposition of real estate and per capita taxes. This may be accomplished by limiting the use of permissive taxes to cities, towns, boroughs and first class townships, and by not reenacting P. L. 733 and P. L. 745, Session of 1947, which authorize the school districts of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh to levy personal property taxes at the maximum rate of 4 mills and mercantile taxes at the rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ mill wholesale and 1 mill retail. It will also be necessary that the General Assembly not reenact P. L. 728, Session of 1947, which authorizes the school district of Pittsburgh to levy a per capita tax at the maximum rate of \$5 for "the fiscal year beginning January first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight."

Section II

FINANCING OF STATE-MANDATED LOCAL FUNCTIONS

The use of permissive taxing authority under Act No. 481 by almost 20 per cent of Pennsylvania school districts is a rough measure of the revenue needs faced by these districts. The Commonwealth can assist school districts, through grants-in-aid, with revenues derived from Commonwealth imposed taxes.

At the present time Article IX of the Constitution prohibits the levy of personal income taxes with exemptions and graduated rates. This is a limitation of the state's taxing powers, and may be removed by appropriate amendment.

The Committee recommends the imposition of a retail sales and use tax on tangible personal property, except food sold for off-premise consumption, and commodities now subject to Commonwealth excise taxes, at a rate not to exceed two per cent. The taxation of retail sales at the rate of two per cent would make available to the Commonwealth additional revenue of approximately $90 million annually, at 1948 levels of economic activity.

The additional revenue produced by a sales tax at a rate of 2 per cent would permit the Commonwealth to facilitate the financing of state-mandated local school costs, and compensate for the loss to political subdivisions, actual and potential, resulting from the proposed amendments to Act No. 481. The Committee recommends that 75 per cent of the yield from the sales tax, which, at rate of 2 per cent, would amount to an estimated $67.5 million, be distributed among school districts in such a manner as to assure the financing of Commonwealth-mandated schools costs at school district tax rates not to exceed 6 mills on the assessed valuation of locally taxable real estate. The remaining 25 per cent of the yield from the sales tax at a 2 per cent rate—estimated at $22.5 million at 1948 levels of economic activity—should be distributed on the basis of population among all political subdivisions other than school districts and counties. This will provide estimated additional revenue of $2.14 per capita for all cities, boroughs, towns and townships.

The adoption of the Tax Study Committee's recommended revisions in the pattern of state-local finance in Pennsylvania will greatly simplify tax administration for the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions.

¹ The imposition of a retail sales and use tax would establish in Pennsylvania a broad base tax which might be used to finance other contingencies, such as the soldiers' bonus.

² For present wage and salary tax rates and per capita tax rates see Tables 3 and 4.

PHILADELPHIA SURVEY HEARINGS

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Pursuant to Act No. 380, 1939, P. L. 1084, Section 2 (e), the Joint State Government Commission undertook to gather information concerning such legislative acts pertaining to the functions of the City and County of Philadelphia as it deemed might be useful to the General Assembly.

Public hearings were held in the City of Philadelphia on July 19 and December 15, 1948, to afford citizens an opportunity to present their views, facts and proposals, looking toward the improvement of the administrative machinery to the extent that the same may be dealt with by law.

At its meeting on February 1, 1949, the Joint State Government Commission took the following action:

"That this Commission transmit to the Legislature its record relating to Philadelphia, and that having transmitted the record to the Legislature, inquiries upon the part of the Commission concerning Philadelphia cease and terminate unless the Legislature requests future action."

Pursuant to the foregoing action, there is transmitted herewith said record, consisting of:

1. Transcript of hearing July 19, 1948.
2. Transcript of hearing December 15, 1948.
3. Pamphlet entitled "Philadelphia's Management," Committee of 15, 1948.
4. "A Plan to Complete the Consolidation of the City and County of Philadelphia" submitted by the Institute of Local and State Government, University of Pa.
5. Pamphlet: "How to Modernize Philadelphia's Government."
6. Letter of Mr. Thomas Evans dated December 3, 1948, enclosing pamphlet entitled "Demand for Action," September, 1948.
7. Statement submitted by Richardson Dilworth.
8. Statement submitted by Negro Citizens' Legal Committee.

9. Letter dated January 20, 1949, from Walter P. Miller, Jr., Chairman, Committee of 70, (two enclosures).
10. Letter dated January 25, 1949, from William Barclay Lex, Chairman, Subcommittee on Elections, Committee of 70.
11. Letter dated January 28, 1949, from Mr. Thomas P. McHenry, County Commissioner of Philadelphia County.
12. Joint State Government Commission "Summary of Philadelphia City-County Government Survey" dated February 1, 1949.

Respectfully submitted,

WELDON B. HEYBURN, Chairman

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION
PHILADELPHIA SURVEY

Hearing Held July 19, 1948
Hotel Warwick, Philadelphia

ATTENDANCE

Executive Committee, Joint State Government Commission.

Hon. Weldon B. Heyburn, Chairman.

Persons Appearing:

Mr. Herman Schwartz, Assistant City Solicitor of Philadelphia.

Mr. Morton Witkins, Chairman of Philadelphia County Commissioners.

Mr. Arthur Kauffman, President, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce.

Hon. H. Jerome Jaspan, Member of Pennsylvania Senate.

Mr. James Allen Montgomery, Jr., President, Bureau of Municipal Research.

Mr. Arthur Binns, Chairman, Committee of Fifteen.

Dr. Charlton F. Chute, Executive Director, Philadelphia Committee, Pennsylvania Economy League.

Mr. Robert J. Patterson, Bureau of Municipal Research.

Mr. Harry K. Butcher, Executive Director, Committee of 70.

Mr. Richardson Dilworth.

Mr. James A. Finnegan, Chairman, Philadelphia Democratic City Committee.

Mr. Joseph S. Clark, Americans for Democratic Action.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

First, I would like to introduce the members of the Executive Committee of the Joint State Government Commission. The Joint State Government Commission is a legislative fact-finding agency of the Pennsylvania legislature. We are here going to make a survey and appraisal of the acts under which the City and County of Philadelphia function. The Commission is aware that this isn't a new problem; it dates back to the Consolidation Act of 1854, was dealt with in the Constitution of 1874 and the City Charter Act of 1919, as amended.

Our present problem is to determine whether any changes are needed in the basic laws, and before scheduling the first scheduled witness, I would like to call on Mr. Herman Schwartz, Assistant City Solicitor of Philadelphia.

MR. SCHWARTZ:

Senator Heyburn, I might say that I am instructed by Frank Truscott, City Solicitor, to appear on behalf of our department. The mayor has asked us to offer to the Commission our full cooperation, and we will be very happy to do any research, to make any study or inquire with any group that this commission may desire. We would like to be helpful, and we will be very glad to do anything to help.

MR. MORTON WITKIN:

Gentlemen, on behalf of the county commissioners, and as Chairman of that body, I would request that the commissioners be furnished with a transcript of the testimony that is taken at our meetings from time to time. We also offer to you any possible cooperation that we may be able to give to this commission.

That transcript, if given to us, would prevent us from the necessity of being constantly present at these meetings. If, after your testimony is complete, we have anything to say, we will at that time request an opportunity so to do; if not, we will so inform you.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

The first scheduled witness is Mr. Arthur Kauffman.

MR. DAVIS:

Will you give your name, business address, state your organization or groups represented, and then we may proceed?

MR. KAUFFMAN:

Arthur C. Kauffman, president of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. My business address is 9th and Chestnut Streets.

Senator Heyburn, distinguished members of this commission, ladies and gentlemen:

PRESENTATION BY ARTHUR C. KAUFFMAN

President of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce before the State Government Commission at Warwick Hotel, July 19, 1948.

For the purpose of simplification and the saving of your time five outstanding civic organizations have joined hands and asked us to represent them today in presenting to you a governmental reorganization program that we unanimously believe will enable Philadelphia to operate more efficiently and more economically. These five organizations, representing a cross section of business, civic and professional people, neighborhood groups and individuals, and having a background of many years in study and research for better government, have cooperated in formulating this program. I am glad to have this opportunity to present to the Commission the heads of these organizations and their key staff members, who will be delighted to answer any questions that you may have later on in the proceedings.

These gentlemen are (and I wish they would stand as I call their names:)

Bureau of Municipal Research

James Allen Montgomery, Jr., President.

Robert J. Patterson (staff).

Chamber of Commerce of Philadelphia

Clement V. Conole, General Manager.

Leonarl A. Drake, Economist.

Sidney B. Dexter, Treasurer.

Harry K. Butcher, Executive Director (staff).

Philadelphia Committee of Pennsylvania Economy League

Alexander Biddle, Chairman.

Dr. Charles F. Chute, Executive Director (staff).

I should like to make clear to the Commission that these groups are composed of public spirited citizens who are unselfishly devoting their time, energies and money in the sole interest of making a contribution toward a better Philadelphia—they have no selfish ax to grind and, as a matter of fact, for a great many years these citizens and and business groups in Philadelphia have been working on and have been able to effect a number of improvements in the government of the city and county. During this period, thorough studies have been made of a great many additional measures which are necessary and desirable for this city, and especially for this reason we are all gratified that the Joint State Government Commission is conducting hearings on the legislation that is necessary to bring about these further solutions of Philadelphia's problems. In order that we may assist the Commission in gaining a proper perspective on the tremendous number of measures which might be proposed, we have spent some time in coordinating the relative needs for improvements. In our presentation today we are purposely concentrating on certain recommendations which we consider basic revisions that are essential to the governmental structure of our city.

We are well aware that there are a great many remedial measures which should be enacted by the State Legislature for the welfare of Philadelphia's government, and we are cognizant of the fact that at this time there is a special group, known as the Committee of Fifteen, which is making operational analyses of every city and county department.

We feel sure that as a result of these studies a great many recommendations for enactment of legislation to correct deficiencies in government will result. We are confident that the Committee of Fifteen will make a valuable contribution, and we are pleased that all of the groups for which I have the honor of speaking, are represented on, and are cooperating wholeheartedly with, the Committee of Fifteen in its work. Philadelphia is united as never before in a determined movement to remove the obstacles in the path of civic betterment—and because of this rejoices in the purpose of and ultimate assistance toward achieving these objectives that we know we shall receive from the Joint State Government Commission.

May we say at this time that there are other important measures which would aid in the development of business and commerce in this city which we would like to bring to your attention at a later date. However, because of the limitation of time, and to facilitate matters for you and for us, today we wish to focus the entire attention of your commission on these four basic recommendations which we believe to be of paramount importance:

1. CITY-COUNTY CONSOLIDATION

We feel it is illogical, inefficient and fundamentally unsound to have two governments within the same geographical limits. We, therefore, recommend abolition of the County of Philadelphia as a political unit, and the transfer of the offices and functions to the City of Philadelphia, with provision for the tightening of central appropriating authority. We recognize that this would require an amendment to the constitution, and although we know that this cannot be immediately forthcoming, we feel it is imperative that the wheels be set in motion in the next legislature and pushed vigorously to conclusion. This action will permit the city of Philadelphia to effect such merger of functions as seem necessary under a central head. We are under the impression that you gentlemen are reasonably familiar with the matter, so we will not dwell on it at this time, but we will be glad to answer your questions later.

2. HOME RULE

It has long been apparent that some revisions are necessary to our city charter, and doubtlessly others will become obvious through studies now under way. For example, there is little doubt in anyone's mind that more stringent financial control is required in Philadelphia to avoid the recurrence of questionable practices which have been disclosed in recent months. We feel definitely that Philadelphia should be permitted to draft, adopt, amend, and revise its charter, subject to those limitations of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania which must necessarily be imposed.

We understand, of course, that it would be necessary to have certain restrictions relating to: (1) registration of voters and conduct of elections, (2) public schools, (3) subjects of taxation, (4) condemnation of property, (5) filing and collection of tax claims and sale of property for delinquent taxes, (6) limitations on the incurring of debt, and (7) public health. We strongly urge that an enabling act, under the provisions of Section 1 of Article XV of the State Constitution, should be enacted in the next Legislature to provide such home rule.

3. DEBT STABILIZATION

We have observed for many years a wide fluctuation in the debt limit of the City of Philadelphia. This wide variation is due to the fact that our present debt limit for a fiscal year is based upon 10 per cent of the assessed valuation of real estate and personal property for that one year. It is our experience that the personal property assessments vary widely from year to year, and that in years when a substantial borrowing capacity is necessary to provide improvement within the city the real estate assessment is low. In the 1947 Legislature, a proposed constitutional amendment known as Joint Resolution No. 2 was passed.

This resolution provides for stabilization of the city's debt limit at 12½ per cent of the average annual assessed valuation of taxable real estate for the last 10 years. This would tend to maintain the debt limit on an even keel and provide borrowing capacity in a year when assessed valuations are low. It should be noted that under this new formula the unstable personal property assessment is eliminated as a base. We urge the second passage of this proposed constitutional amendment at the next legislature, so that it can go before the voters.

4. CONSOLIDATION OF FUNCTIONS OF REGISTRATION COMMISSION AND COUNTY BOARD OF ELECTIONS

We have a most unorthodox and antiquated procedure in Philadelphia for the administration and conduct of our elections through the existence of both a Registration Commission and a County Board of Elections. As a result, there is a lack of integration of records and considerable difficulty in the enforcement of election laws through this double administration. These two functions should be combined. This would mean a more orderly conduct of the elections and a considerable reduction in cost. As a matter of fact Philadelphia has today the highest cost per registered elector of any major city of the United States. We can submit figures on this which we are sure you will find highly informative and proof positive of our contention that these groups be merged.

SUMMARY

In conclusion, we again direct your attention to the fact that there has been no endeavor to include in these recommendations a number of worthwhile supplementary measures which have been suggested to us and which have come to our own minds during the course of our research on this subject. Again we point out to you that we have purposely eliminated them so that we could concentrate on the governmental reorganization program just outlined.

We believe these proposals to be the fundamental cornerstone of the entire modernization of governmental procedure that is so obviously necessary in Philadelphia, and that these four must be accomplished first!

We further feel that because time is of the essence in bringing about this remedial legislation and so as not to confuse the issue or to delay the accomplishment of these four fundamental measures, the five civic organizations represented here today would appreciate an invitation to appear before you again to present our thoughts on these additional subjects which, while important, are secondary to these four great objectives just outlined.

The fact that these groups have joined together in one voice is unprecedented in the annals of Philadelphia civic life and serves to emphasize to your worthy Commission both the sincerity and the importance of our program.

We have covered it briefly with the hope that some of the things we have touched on were provocative enough to warrant questions on your part which we shall endeavor to answer.

In conclusion, it appears to me that what we have been trying to do in Philadelphia is to operate a Rolls-Royce motor on a Ford chassis. What I mean is that the motor symbolizes the tremendous driving force that presently exists among the thinking people of this community in the direction of a modern, economical and efficient city government. To date, Philadelphia's archaic governmental structure has retarded this dynamic driving power and prevented us from rolling forward toward our objectives. We thank you in advance for any assistance you can give us to replace this creaking and worn-out municipal chassis with an adequate framework for America's third largest city.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Before questions on the part of the Commission, Senator Jaspán, member of the Senate from the City of Philadelphia, has asked for time to present a short statement. Senator Jaspán.

SENATOR JASPÁN:

Mr. Chairman, Gentlemen of the Senate and Gentlemen of the House, I have this much to say as to the purposes of the meeting as set by the Joint State Government Commission. Ladies and gentlemen, I am very much concerned about the present plight of the City of Philadelphia.

I am very much concerned about the present plight of the City of Philadelphia. My people are very much disturbed at the volcano that is erupting and at the situation that is now assuming earthquake proportions. It is difficult to believe that the City of Philadelphia, the cradle of liberty, the birthplace of freedom, and more recently, the meeting place for all conventions, is unable to manage itself, cannot put its own house in order, and the State has been compelled to take over prosecutions, initiate investigations, and eventually may have to direct and manage the affairs of the City.

Normally, we should view our City with pride, awe and reverence. Instead it is the laughing stock of the entire world and held up to ridicule and contempt.

It was by sheer accident that the Committee of 15, appointed to find ways and means of balancing the budget, discovered corruption and fraud in City departments. For your information they have only scratched the surface. However, the members of the Committee of 15 have done an excellent job, making all sorts of sacrifices, giving of their time efforts to accomplish the purposes for which the Committee was appointed. However incredible it may seem, members of Council, also members of the Committee have reluctantly gone along with the majority of the Commission notwithstanding political pressure.

Much before the present frauds and corruption were brought to light, charges of mismanagement, inefficiency and waste were hurled against the City fathers by various civic groups, especially by the Committee of 70. This Committee also worked feverishly and attempted to bring about much needed reforms in our City government, and on many occasions verged on success, excepting they did not reckon with the tactics of the unscrupulous political leadership that has marked our City Government. Such matters as City-County Consolidation, Revision of the City Charter, Revision of Registration and Elections Laws, Elimination of Waste in government, elimination of overlapping departments and duplication of work and the discharging of political drones were sponsored by the Committee of 70, but unfortunately their efforts were blocked by the leaders of the political dynasty. Such reforms they feared would break up their control.

Frequently, the political leaders in control would go thru the motions of adopting many needed reforms, but it only amounted to lip service. When the chips were down, every effort was made to block legislation that was conducive to the best interests of the people. I have specifically in mind the case of the City-County Consolidation. Already passed by two legislatures, was presented to the electorate for a vote. The City of Philadelphia, in order to appease the reform element voted for it, but very cleverly directed the rest of the State to vote against it, and the much needed reform was defeated. I term such conduct political chicanery and expediency, but rather distasteful to our people.

Another important bill that was deliberately pushed aside by the political bosses is the Home Rule Bill designed to implement the 1922 amendment to the State Constitution, authorizing Cities to frame their own charters and adopt their own government. Believe it or not, the legislatures since 1922 have failed to heed the mandate the will of the people. Notwithstanding, a charter Commission, headed by Mr. Evans did yeoman work in framing a new charter for Philadelphia, but again the parasite went to work and destroyed it.

I dare say that if the City-County Consolidation and the Home Rule measures as advanced and sponsored by our Civic groups were law to-day, there would be no need for our being here to-day.

Frequently, election reforms as sponsored by civic groups, notably the Committee of 70 were attempted, but they suffered a similar fate. If anything, laws were introduced and passed weakening the existing laws. You can very well blame the political leaders. I might add, that political bills by the score have been passed by the legislature, but nary a reform bill during my term in the Senate. Invariably, public welfare has been subordinated to political expediency.

We, as legislators, are responsible in a large measure for the appalling situation. Time and again, when faced with the opportunity of voting much needed reforms for Philadelphia, we chose to play politics, accepting the will of the political leaders rather than that of the people. Very often, we would go into caucus ready to favor good and beneficial legislation, but before long, the political big-wigs or their emissaries would appear on the scene, give the boys a political pep-talk, cry for political loyalty at the expense of the public, and sure enough, these matters would be voted down. Defiance of political leadership in this regard meant political suicide for the honest legislator. The public-be-damned attitude was the order of the day with few exceptions.

Are we now to sit by again, ignoring the wishes of the people, pretending to help them when in fact we are waxing political. I hope not. I hope your appearance will not border on white-washing. I am confident that you will do an honest job. I now come to you in the interest of good government, appeal to you to discard your political togas, and act solely in the interest of public welfare. Sincerity, candor, initiative, intelligence and courage is required, and you possess those qualities. I, for my part, will do all I can.

The civic groups throughout Philadelphia seek our aid in order to accomplish their purposes. It then follows how can it best be accomplished. I therefore make the following suggestions and recommendations for your consideration.

1. I strongly recommend the appointment of a sub-committee consisting of Philadelphia legislators and others not members of the legislature to thoroughly study our problems, report back to the Commission with its recommendations. These problems are peculiarly within the knowledge of all civic-minded Philadelphians, and therefore they are better qualified to study them. Your committee as now constituted has no Philadelphian. The Commission itself has very few. In addition to some Philadelphia legislators, may I suggest the appointment of Mr. Binns, Mr. Arthur Kaufman, Mr. Butcher, Mr. Earl Harrison and Dr. Robert Johnson. The gentlemen mentioned are very acquainted with our problems, are outstanding intelligent and courageous and will make decisions based on the facts without any regard for politics. The Act of 1943 authorizes the appointment of a sub-committee.

2. I strongly recommend that you summon the State and City leaders and obtain their views on such needed reforms as City-County Consolidation, Revision of City Charter, election and registration laws, and any other subject affecting Philadelphia. Men such as Harvey Taylor, Col. Phillip Matthews, William Meade and James Finnegan should be called. The public ought to know where they stand. They want no repetition of the City-County Consolidation fiasco. They are sick and tired of idle promises and lip services.

3. More important, and as a substitute for my first recommendation, in order to save time labor and to give Philadelphia much needed relief, I urge that you use your kind offices to induce the immediate calling of a special session to take up the reforms suggested. At the special session, the City-County Consolidation amendment could be passed, and can be passed the second time at the regular session in 1949, presented to the electorate at any subsequent election, and with honest efforts can become law within a year. Otherwise it will take approximately three years for it to become a reality.

(b) At the same session (special), a charter or home Rule Bill should be passed so as to immediately give the City of Philadelphia the right to frame its own charter and adopt its own government. Unfortunately, as indicated above the legislature since 1922 have ignored the will of the people in this regard.

(c) Election and registration laws can be amended to secure fair and honest elections. Elections must be held in public buildings under protection of the police and free from political interference. All county and city employees should be forced to stay away from the polls, excepting to exercise their right of franchise. The right to Vote is a precious one, and the most valuable enjoyed by our citizenry, but too often has been interfered with by unscrupulous job-holders whose very jobs depend on his success at the polls. Thus, in order to insure success for themselves, people are very often clubbed and stampeded into voting against their own judgment. This is a very dangerous practice and strikes at the very roots of our democracy, and unfortunately has too often been countenanced and practiced with impunity.

(d) At the special session, a law should be passed requiring all county and city employees to be put under Civil Service, and prohibit them from participating actively in politics. It is my thought to adopt a merit system, and promotions and appointments to public office should be made on the basis of training, experience and ability. Politics as pre-requisite to appointment and promotions should definitely be done away with.

(e) At the special session, new work standards should be set up for officials and employees with emphasis on training, ability and experience. Unfortunately, about 75 percent of the City and County employees are unfit by both training and experience for the jobs they now have. This in a large measure accounts for the inefficiency, waste and extravagance attending the city and county government.

There are other matters of equal importance to take up at the special session, but time is now too short to discuss them.

Immediate action is required. The time element is most important. We cannot go on winking our eyes at the disclosures of fraud and corruption prevalent today in our City government. We dare not permit waste, extravagance, inefficiency, and mismanagement to go on for another day. Our Mayor has done little about expecting to take pictures and act as host to visitors.

These matters do not admit of any delay. They are too important, and further when made the subject of a special session, the searchlight will be focused on these few but all important questions, and attention directed on our public officials as well. It will not be so easy to kick and buffet about these subjects as contrasted with a regular session when thousands of bills are introduced and many important ones lost either deliberately or unwittingly in the rush and bustle.

Gentlemen, need I repeat; a major operation is required in Philadelphia.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

What the Joint State Government Commission is most concerned with is getting at the facts with respect to a legislative program. We aren't here to conduct a criminal investigation or any wrong-doing in the City of Philadelphia. That is a matter of the Grand Jury. What we are here for is to get the questions and answers for a suggested legislative program.

From my experience in the Senate, many times when bills came up questions were asked and many times there haven't been answers available to members of the General Assembly. One of the questions asked on many occasions is whether city-county consolidation would save money for the taxpayers and would bring about more efficient government. I would like to call on one of Mr. Kauffman's staff of experts to give testimony regarding that. Mr. Montgomery or Mr. Walter Phillips.

MR. MONTGOMERY:

I am a resident of Philadelphia and President of the Bureau of Municipal Research. I don't know whether I qualify as an expert in one sense of the term. I am a practicing lawyer in Philadelphia, but I have been exposed to the subject for a number of years and have given it study. You can approach the subject in a number of different ways.

I have seen estimates of city-county consolidation that save up to as much as five millions of dollars. I am not going to give figures. City-county consolidation seems to do two or three things. In the first place, we have what is really a double government for Philadelphia. We have a county government and a city government in one territorial area.

SENATOR WALKER:

Do you mind if we interrupt? Would you first explain why your recommendation is to eliminate the county government and take the city when the county is made up of constitutional offices?

MR. MONTGOMERY:

We are recommending that, sir, because in one sense Philadelphia since 1854 hasn't been run by the county government in the sense that the most important functions since 1854—

SENATOR WALKER:

Is that a legislative deficiency or administrative deficiency?

MR. MONTGOMERY:

It is in part a legislative deficiency but, since 1874, largely a constitutional deficiency.

SENATOR WALKER:

Where would there be a legislative deficiency in that the county hasn't been running the county?

MR. MONTGOMERY:

Perhaps I didn't understand your question, sir. I was stating that since 1854, which was the time of our City Consolidation Act, the greatest powers of the city and county had been largely vested in our city government. For example, the powers of taxation have been placed in City Council rather than in the County Commissioners. The more important functions of the city and county—operation of our highways, the police system, public health, public welfare, etc.—have been handled by the city departments; but, at the same time, we have these county departments, many of them performing functions which, to some extent are duplicated by city departments, some of them existing in the twilight zone where the law as to who does this and who has the responsibility for what is in a state of utter confusion.

MR. ANDREWS:

Which departments are duplicated?

MR. MONTGOMERY:

I could cite examples, sir. For instance, in Philadelphia we have a detective force under the Police Bureau; we have another detective force under the District Attorney.

SENATOR WALKER:

You aren't suggesting an elimination of either one of those detective forces, are you? You have those in lots of counties where you don't have a complete coverage of the geographic location, like you have in Philadelphia. In Allegheny we have a city detective force and the D.A. has his own county detective.

MR. MONTGOMERY:

I am not sure, sir, that Pittsburgh is entirely the same, because Pittsburgh is more like the U. S.—it is a federation of municipalities, whereas Philadelphia—

I think the best way to perform it, sir, without going into detailed legislative changes at the moment, is to say that we have these two governments. They are within the same boundaries; there are overlapping functions, and instances of these can be given to you. There is some question as to the extent to which financial responsibility is lodged in either the county or city departments. City Council has the job of raising money. There is some question whether the county departments have the power to raise money for purposes for which City Council, which is the body directly elected by the people for raising tax, may have no say in the expenditure. This dual system involves questions as to whether there should be centralized purchasing. It apparently is best to have a merit system for both city and county. We have had countless cases in the courts which leave it very often in doubt as to which of these two groups, county or city, has the ultimate legal responsibility and power in certain cases.

Now, directing myself to original questions, what money can you save, if any? I say you can save money in one of two ways. You can save money if a consolidation amendment is adopted, and the legislature is free to revise the set-up—abolish certain offices you may think necessary or consolidate others, and to that extent save money because you have one system instead of two. And then we believe, sir, that you will save money in an indirect way if you have one government in the city and county of Philadelphia instead of two; it will have one boss and with it all the good things that come when you do have one boss instead of many. I don't think I have to elaborate that point; it is almost self-evident.

Now, how much money can be saved would depend largely on a more detailed survey, in which facts and figures could be given you, and would depend largely on how much the legislature would believe should be done in the way of actual revision, or if you give Philadelphia home rule, how much Philadelphia itself thinks should be done in the way of revision—consolidation, shifting of bureaus, centralization of responsibilities. But the important point is that as matters now stand you yourselves have your hands tied by the Constitution, so that you cannot take a good many steps which would permit us or you to accomplish those objectives.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Thank you very much.

SENATOR WALKER:

I would like to ask, somebody, somewhere, has made a study, referring to Mr. Kauffman's major address, with regard to the consolidation of departments, boards, bureaus and commissions in the City and County of Philadelphia so that they would save all this money. Is somebody prepared to give us a list of how much it would save if done, and what would be consolidated? How would you limit the county offices, which are constitutional offices, in favor of the city, which are not? It seems to me a lot easier the other way.

MR. MONTGOMERY:

Perhaps I didn't make my point clear. Since 1854 we have had a hodgepodge here. The city government has largely been the effective authority. I suppose the most effective matter is the question: Who has the right to levy taxes and raise money? Since 1854 that has been in the City Council. Since 1854 we have had a mayor with power over most of the functions in the city. We have had county commissioners, who, I believe, unlike some of the other counties, have no right to levy taxes, no right to raise money, but they do have certain functions. We have other departments which are called county departments because the officers are named as county officers in the Constitution, such as the sheriff, the coroner, the city comptroller, who is called the county comptroller, the register of wills, the city treasurer, called the county treasurer.

SENATOR WALKER:

What would you do with the Register of Wills? If you consolidate the two and eliminate the county entirely, would you have a Register of Wills?

MR. MONTGOMERY:

I would, sir.

SENATOR WALKER:

Would he be a City Register?

MR. MONTGOMERY:

If you are asking me personally, I would have a Register of Wills.

SENATOR WALKER:

Would you have a coroner?

MR. MONTGOMERY:

No, sir.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Mr. Montgomery, there have been two suggestions made to the legislature. One is that a consolidation amendment be drawn, setting up the offices; another is that an amendment be drawn enabling the legislature to combine the two governments at a later date. Probably that answers your question in respect to what offices you would abolish. It would involve pretty much of a detailed study.

SENATOR WALKER:

I thought they had made a detailed study and would give us a chart.

MR. SCHWARTZ:

I just wanted to say this: I think the problems raised would probably be legislative. It would depend upon the text of the consolidation amendment as to what you would call the consolidated group, but insofar as the question of necessity for the consolidation amendment is concerned, I think it is needed either way. After the first Constitution in 1789, the first charter after the adoption of the Federal Constitution which incorporated the mayor and aldermen of Philadelphia, there grew in Philadelphia a large number of municipalities which no longer exist. The Act of 1854 consolidates the districts, boroughs, townships, and City of Philadelphia. It created city offices and only city offices. It created a city comptroller, a city treasurer, and city-county commissioners. When the Constitution of 1873 was adopted, it provided that the city commissioners of Philadelphia should have the same standing in the county as commissioners in other counties. We still have city commissioners. We have city offices which are directly under the mayor. We have city offices which are not under the mayor like the receiver of taxes. We have city offices which are headed by county officials like the city-county comptroller and the city-county treasurer; but, in the Constitution of 1873, which created constitutional county offices so that you can't cut them out, it makes it almost impossible to cut the city out. The thing that comes to my mind is the provision in Article IX, Section 8 of the Constitution which fixes debt powers. Although every county has debt power, the County of Philadelphia, since 1873, has had no debt incurring power; and, therefore, if you attempt a consolidation without a constitutional amendment you might find that you have a consolidated county without the power to incur debt. The interpretation of the debt-incurring power of the City of Philadelphia, which is 10%, seems to apply purely to the city and not to the county; therefore, whichever way you act, if you do act, I think some change in the Constitution would be necessary.

SENATOR DENT:

All the recommendations that have ever come to Harrisburg have always dwelt upon the elimination of county government in Philadelphia. I believe that the only method that can be applied to do the thing that this particular group represented here today wants done is the elimination of both city and county government and starting from there with a group of administrative offices that could take all the duties that have to be performed in the city or county or in the municipality.

MR. SCHWARTZ:

Senator Dent, I have tried to avoid placing myself on record as to policy. I tried to limit my statement to historical fact. I think, in effect, that your result is the thing that would be accomplished whether you call it city-county or, as you call it, something independent, because you would create a political subdivision which would stand by itself. The result would be a peculiar kind of government that would combine in it all the functions of the State now administered by the county and that which it borrows from the first-class county and township acts. It would be different and based on the fact that Philadelphia, because of its size, would need something different. I am trying to state the problem rather than solve it.

SENATOR DENT:

The reason I made that statement is because you immediately build up for any defective act almost unsurmountable objections when you say in your legislative act that you are going to eliminate one or the other of your two major administrative bodies in the city or county. However, if the act starts on the premises that you are eliminating both city and county government and starting out on the basis of a municipal government designed for economy to govern this city, then I think you would eliminate the greater proportion of your objections.

MR. SCHWARTZ:

You could give it a joint name, city-county of Philadelphia, but a single machine.

SENATOR WALKER:

Somebody would still run for public office. We are not going to eliminate that. If we eliminate the city government of the City of Philadelphia, could that be done by an act of the legislature, or would that require a constitutional amendment?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

I think it would require a constitutional amendment. An attempted consolidation of all the powers of the city into the county would come across obstacles that now appear in the Constitution that would prevent the county from taking over without constitutional change. The thing that occurs to me is the debt incurring power which, I believe, is only granted to the city.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

What happens if you abolish the county? What happens to your representation in the General Assembly?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

It certainly seems to me, if the proposal is acted upon, your proposed amendment to the Constitution giving the right to consolidation, I don't care under what name, will have to be so broad—there will have to be power in the General Assembly to solve the problem.

REPRESENTATIVE ANDREWS:

Mr. Montgomery talked about elimination of the county government but didn't tell us why. For my information, I would like to have on file the cost of county government, what the county does at the present time that the city doesn't do—a detailed statement as to the duplication of functions, and a detailed statement as to the savings incident to consolidation. This problem has been studied for a great many years, and it is strange to me that the figures as to the savings are not immediately available and that the duplication of functions are not immediately available. I think, for my part as a member of the Commission, I would like to have them put into the record.

MR. MONTGOMERY:

I am sure, sir, that these organizations can give you a statement as to the present setup and the cost of government. Whether they can give you anything more than estimates as to savings, I don't know. The point that we want primarily to make here today is that, at the moment, you can't make changes even if you want to. You haven't got centralized authority.

REPRESENTATIVE ANDREWS:

I want to know, if we are going to make changes, why we are making them.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Does anybody in the audience have some figures with respect to what money is to be saved. I assume it is a matter of waiting to see what offices are abolished by the legislature after the enabling amendment is passed.

MR. MONTGOMERY:

There are a great many ways in which you can calculate that Senator, because I can imagine the legislature taking ten or a dozen different approaches to this, all of which would make certain differences in dollars. What would be the wise thing to do in all cases I could not say. An amendment of this sort creating a city-county government would take off the fetters and permit you or the people, if you had home rule, to do those things which would give centralized administration, financial responsibility, and purchasing power. Some of those things you can calculate in dollars and cents. Other items have dollar value. It is difficult to pick the dollars.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

You think city-county consolidation would bring about more efficient government?

MR. MONTGOMERY:

Yes.

MR. KAUFFMAN:

We purposely refrained from stating figures because we want an accurate statement, not a theoretical one, on how consolidation is effected. If anybody has specific ideas, our staff can work that out quickly. We want to put our emphasis on efficiency first and economy second.

SENATOR WALKER:

The question we were interested in was asked three or four times and Mr. Andrews summarized it. Does your group have any suggestions or recommendations specifically along the lines of what departments could be eliminated?

MR. KAUFFMAN:

Yes, we have. We can give them at a later date.

SENATOR WALKER:

One of the purposes of this hearing is to gather that data. We would be glad to receive it by mail. For example, Mr. Montgomery suggested he wouldn't have a coroner—that is one that will save "X" dollars which is an estimate. There are probably others overlapping. As Mr. Andrews suggested, we want to know where the overlapping is, what departments should be eliminated, and how these various governmental functions could be carried on under consolidation.

MR. KAUFFMAN:

I understand. We can give that information.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

I would like to introduce Mr. John Phillips, Deputy Attorney General Phillips, and Mr. Arthur Binns, Chairman of the Committee of Fifteen, who has a statement to make.

MR. BINNS:

The Committee of Fifteen is not prepared to make a definite recommendation at this time. The matter involved is difficult. I would like to report on behalf of the Committee that we have, for many months, been studying as we have gone through department after department of city and county government those things which are of a legislative nature under the basic legislative structure of the city-county of Philadelphia. I can say to you informally that I feel very sure that the Committee will, in due course, although we have not yet arrived at it and are not at this time prepared to make a statement, come forward with recommendations to your committee which will include in some form three things:

1. The consolidation of the city and county government;
2. Some sort of home rule which will enable the City Council to make changes in the city charter as new uses make desirable those changes; and
3. Some revision of the legislation with regard to the debt structure.

As to the desirability of the consolidation of city and county government, the problem is not so much one of economy. There isn't any doubt there will be economies, but you just don't get good soup with too many cooks; and, in the long run, you have got to have one boss for executive efficiency; and, finally, no matter what the system is, it is no good without good men, and almost any system works well with good men; and, at long last, you have got to pin the responsibility on one individual and bet with him. Now when we have a mayor who is actually and nominally supposed to be the head of the city government and he has great areas over which he has no responsibility at all and you have a master technique of buck passing back and forth between county and city, you immediately get into an impasse that makes it almost impossible to achieve anything like an efficient city administration. We have before us a case in point right now where we have something that comes awfully close to being a complete collapse in the Department of Receiver of Taxes. You are familiar with the long story both leading into criminal phases as well as gross inefficiency and loss—cases such as the wage tax where we have $360,000 wage tax forms with two unbilled for some years with possibly a gross collectability of something like six to eight million dollars just laying around in the office with no record at all—a complete lack of efficiency and demoralization—just the whole department shot with millions of dollars of taxes lost to the citizens of Philadelphia at a time when we are having here in Philadelphia a frightfully difficult time in balancing the budget. We can't do anything about it. The mayor has no authority. The council has no authority. We started impeachment proceedings, but there was some question as to the constitutionality of that. There is no political influence that can move here. The City of Philadelphia has no way to approach the correction of a very great and basic difficulty because of the lack of having a boss or anything that looks like a streamlined or modern machine in the management of the great corporate machine of the city and county of Philadelphia. Something will have to be done, and all of us, no matter what side of the picture we may be on, agree that there must be, before we finally achieve anything like the sort of efficiency in just the plain job of doing the business of the town, some legislative reorganization. The Committee of Fifteen has been struggling with this for a long time. We have done four things. We have the committee of the whole on legislative revision which is working diligently. We have asked the city comptroller to prepare their idea of the basic revisions necessary. We have a law committee of City Council who has formulated, under advisement, their idea of what is necessary; and, in addition to that, we have our staff, ably led by Colonel Sawyer, on leave of absence from the Bureau of Municipal Research, of some ten or fifteen paid men and that many again volunteer men working day and night in concentrated effort to get together these legislative recommendations. This is not a thing you can snap at, but we say to you we hope you will allow us to come before you again. We promise you that some time between now and not later than December 30th of this year we will lay before you a clear-cut, sharply defined, well oriented program of what we believe to be, on the basis of our studies in the last year, the practical approach to the revision of legislation. We think something is necessary along the lines indicated. We are working on it, ably staffed to that end, and we promise you, thirdly, that it will be before you in ample time to get before the 1949 legislature if you desire to do so. There might be some merit in clearing the whole thing through the Committee of Fifteen so we don't go in all directions at once. If you wish us to work with you, and of course we will, we place at your disposal all of our resources at any time. We shall be most happy to stand ready on call. That is the only statement, Senator, I wish to make at this time.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Mr. Binns, we thank you very much, and you can rest assured we want the help and cooperation of the Committee of Fifteen, and the Commission will be glad to schedule another hearing any time you would like to have it sir. I would like to ask one question. It has been suggested that the Governor be requested to call a special session of the General Assembly. I get from your statement we will have no program to suggest if we have a special session.

MR. BINNS:

It is my view that we can get a good job done to present by January 1st. We shall move as fast as we can. The special session will confuse the matter at this time. That is my personal view.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

I am inclined to agree with you.

REPRESENTATIVE ANDREWS:

In your estimation, will we country members have to crowd this program that you have in mind down Philadelphia's throat, or will you have for us some support from the Philadelphia legislative delegation?

MR. BINNS:

That is a good question.

REPRESENTATIVE ANDREWS:

I am referring to both sides of the House.

MR. BINNS:

Would you define "from Philadelphia." What do you mean "from Philadelphia?" Do you mean the present Republican political leadership of Philadelphia?

REPRESENTATIVE ANDREWS:

I mean the votes cast in the 1949 session of the General Assembly in the Senate and House from the Philadelphia area, regardless of party affiliation.

MR. BINNS:

Frankly, it is my belief that we have one of those strange circumstances that come every so often when, for whatever reason, there appears an opportunity for progress everybody gets together and there is a sort of a rebirth or renaissance. I want to say this to you because you are hitting a practical thing. The Committee of Fifteen is a creature of City Council and the Republican organization of Philadelphia. We were called into existence at their request. They have requested us to present a legislative program. So far, we have gotten support from all the members of City Council and from all the political leaders, and they have said, "We are going to stand by you and back you up to the very end." I would say, sir, there is a very good chance, a three-quarter chance, we can come before you with a recommendation that has the sponsorship and support of all the political leaders of Philadelphia and members of your legislature if we sit together and work it out as a civic matter and not as a political football.

SENATOR DENT:

You said the Committee of Fifteen was a creature of City Council. How do the county commissioners look upon the creature?

MR. BINNS:

They have been with us at all times. They have met with us frequently and offered to do anything they can and, when asked, immediately complied.

SENATOR DENT:

We up-country hicks from rural counties may be confused when we find the Committee of Fifteen sponsoring one set of laws, and another committee sponsoring another.

MR. BINNS:

Suppose we get a program sponsored by all groups.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Thank you, Mr. Binns. Frankly, no one seems to have had the answer in previous legislative sessions. If we can work out a program and have supporting material, there is a good chance of it being adopted. Are there any other questions with respect to city-county consolidation on the part of the Commission? Are there any questions on the recommendation with respect to the home rule charter? I believe Senator Dent has a question.

SENATOR DENT:

When do you want the home rule to apply—before or after the consolidation?

MR. KAUFFMAN:

We think that both are necessary, and we would like to get them both as fast as we can get them. We realize home rule may be a temporary measure that will tide us over until we can get the consolidation through, but we think they both coincide.

SENATOR DENT:

The practical administration of your government, whatever the name of the new entity may be, will be necessarily based upon changes made in the character under the so-called home rule provisions.

MR. KAUFFMAN:

That is correct.

SENATOR DENT:

If you try to make changes before consolidation wouldn't you run into the same practical difficulty we have run into in trying to change your charter for you?

MR. KAUFFMAN:

To a certain extent; but, in the meantime, we will be working towards the end of trying to simplify and modernize our present machinery of government.

SENATOR DENT:

Isn't it true—I am not for or against a special session, I am trying to get a practical answer to a practical problem—is it not true that if a change in your charter or in your home rule basis of operation in the City of Philadelphia would be recommended, wouldn't it be possible to have a special session of the legislature immediately give you charter change possibilities and between now and December 30th practical demonstration of the changes made under the home rule provision may give us more to work on in the matter of consolidation.

MR. KAUFFMAN:

I wouldn't like to commit myself without discussing it with the various organizations I represent, but it seems that what you say would be a practical solution.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Thank you very much Mr. Kauffman. One of the questions raised in the legislature is that there are adequate budget control possibilities under the city charter are there not? That is one question raised by an opponent of the city charter. Is there adequate budget control in the machinery set up in the city charter?

SENATOR DENT:

I don't think budget control is a problem myself.

MR. KAUFFMAN:

I would like to have Dr. Chute of the Economy League make a statement with regard to that.

DR. CHUTE:

In my judgment you could not have proper budget controls under present charter powers. I believe in an executive budget, and I think the authority is in favor of an executive budget. Now the county officers in the County of Philadelphia are not subject to the mayor. The Council has certain powers over county officers as to setting salary levels for instance and determining the number of employees that various county officers may have, but the mayor does not have such powers, and I don't believe you can get a sound executive budget with the present power and with the present city council dual setup that we have.

SENATOR DENT:

As I understand your setup down there, the county commissioners have no creative rights in the creation of tax revenue.

DR. CHUTE:

Yes.

SENATOR DENT:

Do they have any creative rights in connection with budget needs?

DR. CHUTE:

Request of City Council.

SENATOR DENT:

But City Council is still responsible for whatever money is given to the county commissioners.

DR. CHUTE:

They are the appropriating agency. The assessing is done by the Board of Revision of Taxes.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

The Board of Judges appoints the Board of Revision of Taxes.

SENATOR DENT:

The question goes back to the original premise—it is not only the consolidation of city and county that has to be taken into consideration but the duplication of activities on the part of county, city, and the courts.

DR. CHUTE:

That is right. One step is the elimination of the County of Philadelphia as a political entity so that later, with the home rule possibilities, you can then consolidate or reorganize the present city offices and county offices so that you have an intelligently organized setup headed by one administrator, because in both business and government we understand that is the only sound way to set up an organization.

SENATOR DENT:

I have been told many times in Harrisburg that you had sufficient budget control under the present setup, but I can easily see where you have one body that sets the budget, another that spends it, another that takes care of receiving of taxes.

DR. CHUTE:

The number of assessors and assistant assessors is set by statute at the present time.

SENATOR WALKER:

May I ask if the city council appropriates the money to the county commissioners to run the various county offices?

DR. CHUTE:

Certain county offices that fall under the county commissioners, recorder of deeds, and register of wills do not come under the county commissioners.

SENATOR WALKER:

Where does the sheriff get the money to pay the deputy—from city council?

DR. CHUTE:

Yes. The only appropriating authority we have is the city council within the city and county of Philadelphia.

SENATOR WALKER:

Is that also true with other county officers—prothonotary, clerk of the courts, register of wills?

DR. CHUTE:

That is right. There may be statutes saying you must have so many, but in general the city council determines by appropriations the number of employees in both the city offices and county offices.

SENATOR DENT:

What are the duties of your commissioners? They don't head up the budget.

DR. CHUTE:

They have certain responsibilities in connection with election machinery. They take care of aid to dependent children. There are one or two other functions they have. The Municipal Court setup is under the county commissioners. The appropriation for the operation of the Municipal Court goes through the office of the county commissioners. There are four or five units under county commissioners. There are as many more not under them as far as appropriations are concerned. I think we have profited by our experience. Although I am a Philadelphian, I have lived in a city that has had experience in home rule. I helped a smaller city write its own home rule charter. I am sure home rule is the best solution we have worked out so far.

SENATOR DENT:

What city is that?

DR. CHUTE:

St. Louis, Missouri.

REPRESENTATIVE ROYER:

In regard to the gasoline refund to the counties, how is that disposed of here?

DR. CHUTE:

I am sorry—I cannot answer that. I can get the information to you.

MR. SCHWARTZ:

It is paid into the treasury of the City of Philadelphia. That is also true of liquor money. That is true of all monies that are for the benefit of the city or county of Philadelphia. Your personal property tax which imposes a tax for State purposes and a tax for county purposes, for instance, provides, in the case of Philadelphia, that four mills shall be paid to the city. There is no county treasury. There is no county borrowing power. All functions referring to current budget and capital budget are vested in the city. Those provisions of the statutes providing that the county commissioners shall provide a quarter, judges, etc., are provided by appropriation from city council and are sometimes direct to the department and sometimes to the commissioners for the benefit of the department.

SENATOR WALKER:

When that money for the gasoline tax comes into the treasurer's office, is it allocated to the general fund?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

It is for highway purposes.

SENATOR DENT:

Do the commissioners have jurisdiction of streets and highways?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

They have no jurisdiction over highways or streets in the City of Philadelphia. They have weights and measures, dependent children, etc.

SENATOR DENT:

Doesn't your city also have a sanitary inspection bureau that has jurisdiction over weights and measures?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

No. It is purely a function of that department and made so by act of Assembly.

SENATOR DENT:

Does the city have a light department?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

No. We have a large number of inspection bureaus. The Department of Public Health has a Bureau of Housing and Sanitation and a Division of Milk and Food-stuffs.

SENATOR DENT:

Isn't that also the function of weights and measures?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

No. One relates to sanitation; the other relates to weights and measures. You have a number of inspections under city departments, but weights and measures is the function of a bureau under the county commissioners. They have jurisdiction over a number of county institutions. The appropriations to all the courts are made to the county commissioners.

SENATOR DENT:

Do they have a legal staff?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

They have counsel.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Are there any other questions relating to home rule?

SENATOR WALKER:

In St. Louis did I understand you helped to draw up the home rule charter?

DR. CHUTE:

Not St. Louis but a large suburb. University City drew up one two years ago and adopted it.

SENATOR WALKER:

Does the St. Louis home rule charter follow the pattern you used?

DR. CHUTE:

In many respects.

SENATOR WALKER:

Do they have proportional representation?

DR. CHUTE:

No. The City of St. Louis has the mayor-council form of government—an elective council and mayor. They have had a home rule charter since 1876. The present charter was drafted in 1912.

REPRESENTATIVE BRUNNER:

Are there any other cities in the United States, to your knowledge, which are in a county whose geographic limits are coextensive?

DR. CHUTE:

St. Louis is a good example. Baltimore is another. Denver has a city-county setup, and San Francisco is still another.

REPRESENTATIVE BRUNNER:

Has your Committee studied the governments of these cities?

DR. CHUTE:

I don't think it would be fair to say our organization has. A good deal has been written on them—studies have been made.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

As to the suggestion of debt stabilization, I understand there was a resolution amending the Constitution last session.

SENATOR WALKER:

Would it be necessary to pass it at the '49 session?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

It depends upon a different section of the Constitution altogether.

SENATOR WALKER:

In other words, the consolidation would not include what we had in '47—it would be a separate thing.

SENATOR DENT:

It would have to be reworded entirely to fall in with the city-county of Philadelphia.

MR. KAUFFMAN:

Mr. Patterson of the Bureau of Municipal Research made a study. I would like to present him.

MR. PATTERSON:

You asked whether the city-county consolidation amendment would have to be reworded—no, this relates only to the City of Philadelphia debt limit. As a matter of fact, it specifies that no debt shall be created by or on behalf of the county; and, within the County of Philadelphia, only the City of Philadelphia and school district shall have power to incur debt. That simply expresses the existing situation.

SENATOR DENT:

What is the purpose?

MR. PATTERSON:

Stabilization of the city debt limit. This has nothing to do with city-county. Consolidation is a city matter.

SENATOR DENT:

We then assume that when these movements are all through, we are going to have a City of Philadelphia.

MR. PATTERSON:

For the time being this city debt amendment could be adopted by the '49 legislature and approved by the voters in '49; whereas your city-county consolidation amendment probably could not get through before '51. It couldn't be enacted in time for '49—it would have to be adopted by special session in order to get advertised for the November election. Unless you met the first few days of August, would could not get this through before 1951. This amendment has as its object the stabilization of the city debt limit. It is ten percent of the assessed valuation of taxable property, both real and personal. It fluctuates considerably. What this amendment proposes is that instead of 10% of the single total assessment, it would be 12% of the ten-year average of real estate assessment. We find that under the present provision the debt limit was increased in 1933 by $33,000,000 and in 1932 by $27,000,000. There were sudden decreases. We had a big increase in 1947 of $24,000,000. In other words, you had those huge increases and decreases, and the tendency for the city while increases were taking place to authorize new debt which practically consumed the entire borrowing capacity, with the result that when a period of depression comes the borrowing capacity is wiped out and so fast that it takes fourteen or fifteen years before you restore your borrowing capacity. We had no borrowing capacity from 1931 to 1946 because we piled up so much debt there in the late twenties and then the decrease in assessments came along so heavily they not only wiped out borrowing capacity initially but put it so far overboard that increments accumulating in the sinking fund were not able to restore borrowing capacity. Under the new provision, the maximum increase in debt limit from 1932 to the present would have been $18,876,000. Under the pending amendment more than half of the increases and decreases within that eighteen-year period from 1930 to 1948 would have been under $10,000,000; and most of them would have been smaller because the decrease would have been smaller than the increment from the sinking fund operations. Our present borrowing capacity is about three and a half million dollars. The whole object is to stabilize the debt limit; prevent large fluctuations up and down. It would also keep the debt limit from going very high or very low.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Is it true that the assessed value of property declined a billion dollars from 1930 to 1945?

MR. PATTERSON:

Our low was in 1944 when it was $3,065,000,000—that was a decrease of approximately one-fourth. The big assessment was in 1932, when it was $4,496,000,000; the low assessment in 1944, when it was $3,065,000,000—a decline of $1,431,000,000. The suggestion was made that instead of ten percent of all taxable property that it be 12% on the taxable average of all real estate.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Are there any questions? With respect to consolidating the function of the County Board of Elections, I would like to know whether or not that move would save any money. Is any one prepared to testify?

MR. KAUFFMAN:

I would like to have Harry Butcher, Executive Director of the Committee of 70, answer that.

MR. BUTCHER:

A quick answer to that question is yes—roughly between three and four hundred thousand dollars annually. I am basing that on a study we have made of New York City and Detroit—those two cities in particular. Detroit has permanent registration, a similar system to Pennsylvania or Philadelphia. New York has annual registration, which, everybody agrees, is more costly than permanent registration. However, the cost to New York per registered elector, including registrations and the conduct of elections, is an average of 87c; Detroit 57c; in the City of Philadelphia $1.12. We believe consolidation of these two bureaus would not only effect economies but would also give us far better control over the election machinery. As it is now, we have a hodge-podge. The Registration Commission takes registrations throughout the City. They have the custody of the registration records. Come election time they start transferring records to the County Board of Elections who distribute them to the polling place. The polling officers deliver part to the county board of Elections and part to the Registration Commission. The Commission certifies it to the County Board of Elections before they can have an official count. Part of the duty of the county board is to investigate election frauds; part of it is also in the hands of the Registration Commission. I believe if it is consolidated and brought under one board we would effect economies between three and four hundred thousand dollars; we would have better control over election machinery; and you would get away from duplication of efforts and staff. For instance, the County Board of Elections has a permanent staff of sixty-four men. Our theory is that you can take these fifty machine watchers and use them in the Registration Commission if we had a consolidated bureau. The Registration Commission has high peaks during registration season, and during election season it is very quiet so a lot of wasted energy between the two boards is eliminated if they are brought together. I think we would have a good registration machinery here. It should be under the County Board of Election the same as every other county with the exception of Pittsburgh and Scranton, where you have permanent registration acts. Our neighbor in Delaware County does an excellent job in its Bureau of Registration under the county commissioners.

SENATOR WALKER:

What do the fellows do who watch the machines?

MR. BUTCHER:

I don't know. Every time we check we can't find them.

SENATOR WALKER:

What do they do on election day?

MR. BUTCHER:

They are out working around the polling place—not on the machines by the way.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

I think by combining the two you could effect quite a saving.

MR. BUTCHER:

I think we might. It might lead to more honest elections which we need here.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Any further questions? According to my records, Mr. Dilworth will appear at two o'clock and Mr. Finnegan, Mr. Ferleger, and Mr. Joseph S. Clark, Jr. Is there anybody else who wants to appear this afternoon?

MR. HAMILTON:

I would like to ask a question as to whether subsequent hearings following the afternoon session will be held?

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Yes, Mr. Hamilton. We will be very glad to oblige.

AFTERNOON SESSION

SENATOR HEYBURN:

The first witness this afternoon is Mr. Richardson Dilworth.

MR. DILWORTH:

Senator Heyburn, members of the committee: I certainly appreciate this opportunity to appear before you. I would like to start on the note of Mr. Andrews this morning; namely, Is the legislature going to be in the usual position with regard to Philadelphia, in having to jam legislation down Philadelphia's throat? By that I mean the political machine in Philadelphia and the political delegates to the State legislature. That, I am afraid, is probably going to be true of the Philadelphia delegation in the legislature, but I think something important to point out to you is that the City of Philadelphia—by that I think I mean the citizens from bottom almost to the top, are really unanimous for once as to what they want. Proof of that has occurred this morning. This is the first time I have been in this city that I have seen organizations such as the Chamber appear at a hearing of this kind and be willing to take this kind of position; an excellent organization, and the Bureau of Municipal Research, Committee of Seventy, League of Women Voters, Pennsylvania Economy League and the other organizations that appeared here today. There is real solidarity there, and I understand that is going to be followed up by getting together anywhere from twenty-five to forty of the really prominent men of the community. One of the faults of the condition of this city lies in the fact that so many of our families of wealth and big businessmen whose money comes from this city don't take an interest in the city itself, but I think we have learned a tremendous lesson from Allegheny County and what Allegheny County has done since 1943. They have really pitched in and worked together and are doing a job. We have learned a great deal from that example, and if you men will look at things you will see that if this city ever had a chance at free elections on any of these questions, the city is overwhelmingly in favor of the recommendations made here this morning. I think the only thing these gentlemen underestimate is the extent of the political opposition that there will be. I would like to review that.

For 22 years now that home rule amendment has been in the Constitution. Yet in spite of real pressure in this community from organizations such as these that appeared here this morning, we have never been able to get the Philadelphia political machine to advocate home rule and to do any work, take any steps, toward getting home rule for the community. As regards the necessary amendment for city-county consolidation, you gentlemen will remember that in 1937 that actually went through both houses of the legislature. In other words, the legislature has repeatedly done its duty by Philadelphia. It was killed that year in the election, and I would like to bring up the specific figures—it was passed in Philadelphia by 62,000 but defeated state-wide.

In the city charter we have had exactly the same experience in the City of Philadelphia. You know that a Charter Commission was appointed in 1938 and went into this whole problem. That Charter Commission wasn't partisan—it was made up of men such as former Attorney General Schnader, and it was endorsed by practically every prominent man in the community. Yet that charter, although it passed overwhelmingly in the Senate, never was allowed to go to the floor of the House for a vote, and the reason it wasn't was because one of our Philadelphia legislators was chairman of that committee and now sits in City Council. There is no doubt, at least in our minds, that this political organization in this city is going to do everything it can do to prevent good government coming to this city, because good government is opposed to everything the machine has been used for. They don't want home rule, because at the moment anything that goes wrong can be blamed on the legislature; no city-county consolidation, because you now have these sprawling departments and they can put men in at will and the mayor can say, "None of this is my fault." They don't want orderly city government. We have got to face it; there is going to be undercover opposition, and for that reason I would like to suggest to you gentlemen that when you have your next hearing you could call on the mayor of the city, the chairman of the Republican City Committee and on Sheriff Meehan, and find exactly where those gentlemen do stand, whether they will go along, because to date, through questions put directly to them, they refuse to make any answer of any kind.

That is the situation in Philadelphia today. Mr. Finnegan is here today if the committee wants to hear specific recommendations on new charter and city-county consolidation. We are here, ready to give you these specific recommendations, and in addition to that, actually spell them out in far greater detail.

In conclusion, the whole groundwork for a decent city government in this city has been worked out in 1938 and 1939 by a bipartisan committee whose work had endorsement of men like Senator Pepper. All the groundwork has been done, and it ought to be absolutely no serious problem for the legislature with the help of the committee gotten together with the help of organizations appearing today to get a citizens' committee in this city to work with the legislature to work out a legislative program for the necessary amendment for city-county consolidation and a new city charter that will really give this City and County of Philadelphia the kind of government system that will permit real effective government of this city, provided we have the officers who will carry it out. That is the situation as we see it in Philadelphia today. The people of this city, every civic organization, is overwhelmingly in favor of this. The only people who aren't for it are the political machine in power. We have got to frankly admit that in the leaders of business there has been apathy and disinterest. We hope to overcome it with the help of Mr. Kauffman and these organizations.

If there are any questions you gentlemen would like to ask with respect to specific recommendations. I have them here.

SENATOR WALKER:

Do you have these specific recommendations in writing to be submitted to the committee?

I have them in writing.* I could put them in more consistent order. I can give them to you tomorrow. I think everybody who has studied the situation of big-city government in a city of two million people, city and county coterminous, believes that if you are to have responsible government what you need is strong city government rather than the sprawling independent departments. We have a lot the voter didn't care anything about. I think what every organization in Philadelphia that has studied this problem wants is strong city government, with a mayor who is really responsible and has power that makes him responsible. There should be a small City Council, from 22 down to 11, and let six of the eleven be elected from their own districts and five be elected at large. The only other elective officials are the district attorney and the comptroller, who has charge of funds of the entire city. Every officer should be an appointive officer, subject to removal by the mayor. We have the problem of the Department of Purchases and Supplies, where the director was appointed by the mayor and the mayor can't remove. We have a perfectly ridiculous situation of that kind. In other words, what I think everybody in Philadelphia wants to see is the elimination of that kind of government where the mayor says when you go to them, "That isn't my fault. Go to see the Receiver of Taxes, etc."—all those other perfectly ridiculous offices we have at the present time so they can duck responsibility all up and down the line. We are also all agreed that some thirty sprawling departments in this city could be consolidated down into twelve departments once these county constitutional offices are eliminated. In our recommendations we give the twelve offices needed. You don't need officers such as coroner; those who have studied it recommend it be abolished. The sheriff's office serves no real useful purpose in this community, no useful function. Its various functions could easily be divided among other offices. There is no sense in the clerk of quarter sessions and the prothonotary—both should be under the courts where they belong.

SENATOR WALKER:

Who would appoint the clerk of courts?

MR. DILWORTH:

The courts.

SENATOR WALKER:

What public officers do your courts appoint now?

MR. DILWORTH:

That is a bad feature, too. Reformers, mistaken reformers, in order to try and get away from this vicious machine, not because it is a Republican machine, just because it has been in power so long (we aren't making any partisan complaint now), to try and get away from that machine they have given the courts all these appointive powers. The only result has been to pull the courts into politics and pull down the character of our judiciary. We don't get the high caliber men appointed to the judiciary that we got ten or twenty-five years ago. I think if you ask any member of the bar in Philadelphia they will tell you the quality of the courts generally today is 'way below twenty-five years ago, and the principal reason is that they have these appointive jobs. So what happens? Just what happened in 1947—

* Statement inserted at end of transcript, p. 5809.

the Bar Association puts up a group of good men the city machine absolutely opposes. They say, in effect, "If you appoint this group of good men we will lick them at the next election, and how silly that will make you look." As a result they have to pick a compromise candidate. Once he gets in there he has got to vote the way the city machine wants—they appoint the School Board, the Park Board, the City Trust, the Girard Trust. They have tremendously powerful appointments. I don't think the courts want them, actually.

SENATOR WALKER:

You suggest that the courts appoint the prothonotary and the clerk of courts. You are now suggesting your past experience with court appointing hasn't been good.

MR. DILWORTH:

I think any court ought to have the right to appoint its own officers. They shouldn't be asked to appoint a school board, to appoint a park commission which has nothing to do with the work of the courts—or the board of City Trust either.

SENATOR WALKER:

If they appoint the prothonotary, who will hire all the clerks in the prothonotary's office?

MR. DILWORTH:

There is bound to be some patron entitled to it if it comes directly under them.

SENATOR WALKER:

Who will appoint the register of wills?

MR. DILWORTH:

That will be by the mayor.

SENATOR WALKER:

Would the register of wills not be appointed directly by the court under whom they come? Wouldn't the Orphans' Court appoint its own?

MR. DILWORTH:

I feel the register of wills office and the recorder of deeds should be consolidated.

SENATOR WALKER:

Who would appoint?

MR. DILWORTH:

The mayor.

SENATOR WALKER:

The clerk of the Orphans' Courts?

MR. DILWORTH:

No.

SENATOR WALKER:

Who would appoint the clerk of the Orphans' Court?

MR. DILWORTH:

The court.

SENATOR WALKER:

Can you name any one of the 65 counties of the state where those two offices aren't consolidated?

MR. DILWORTH:

The clerk of the Orphans' Court and register of will are consolidated.

SENATOR WALKER:

How would you handle duties taken up by the sheriff?

MR. DILWORTH:

I think one of the principal functions he carries out is the foreclosure of mortgages, which should be transferred to the law department of the city solicitor's office.

SENATOR WALKER:

The solicitor would handle work done by the sheriff's office?

MR. DILWORTH:

All the legal work now being carried on by the sheriff's office as to the service of civil writs can be done by the sheriff.

SENATOR WALKER:

What other county do you know where that is done?

MR. DILWORTH:

New York, Cleveland, Detroit, and cities of that kind.

SENATOR WALKER:

No sheriff?

MR. DILWORTH:

New York has abolished the sheriff. What actually happens—you have your deputy sheriffs, your typical political appointees. I think Sheriff Meehan has tried to make men stop accepting money. You have service; that is difficult. It costs an individual a great deal of money to make a service.

SENATOR WALKER:

You and I are responsible.

MR. DILWORTH:

I do it myself; if you don't do it you don't get service made.

SENATOR WALKER:

All of your county row offices would be absorbed by city departments? Is that your suggestion?

MR. DILWORTH:

Yes, the majority of them would be absorbed. There are ten: The coroner would be abolished and absorbed by the Department of Health; the comptroller should remain an elective office, independent of the others.

SENATOR WALKER:

If the comptroller is an elective officer, who will control his budget?

MR. DILWORTH:

I think the whole budget ought to be under the central control of the mayor. There may be an argument for having the comptroller's budget independent so he can't be knocked on the head by the mayor. That is a very good argument on that. I feel that the register of wills should either be consolidated with the recorder of deeds or thrown right into the clerk of Orphans' Court.

SENATOR WALKER:

Appointed by the judges?

MR. DILWORTH:

By the judge of the orphans' court. I think the office of the treasurer, of the receiver of taxes and other financial offices should be consolidated into one department of finance. The department of finance should be completely responsible for the assessment and collection of all taxes in the city.

SENATOR WALKER:

Appointed by whom?

MR. DILWORTH:

The mayor.

SENATOR WALKER:

How is it handled at present?

MR. DILWORTH:

It is scattered all around. We have a treasurer and a receiver of taxes. The collection of monies due the city falls into a number of other departments. Actually you won't only abolish the treasurer and receiver of taxes; you would take the present duties away from a number of offices. These are spelled out in what we prepared.

The next office is the sheriff, which should be abolished and the duties absorbed by other departments. One of the principal duties, service of civil writs, should be abolished entirely—a great saving to citizens and litigants, etc.

SENATOR WALKER:

When I was a freshman in law school, they said the sheriff was the highest paid officer of the county.

MR. DILWORTH:

That side of his duties absolutely disappeared because city and county are one and the police department took over all of his work.

SENATOR DENT:

Mr. Dilworth, as a matter of practical administration, speaking from my own county, the sheriff is practically an obsolete officer. Even in rural counties it is no longer the powerful office it was in the days of hangings and cattle rustling, etc.

MR. DILWORTH:

The treasurer's office all should be put in a Department of Finance. The recorder of deeds—that work could be absorbed by another department. So many people suggest consolidating the recorder of deeds and the register of wills. I think Senator Walker's suggestion is even better. The clerk of the Quarter Sessions Court should be appointed by the judge of the court that it comes strictly under. The courts ought to have the right to appoint any office strictly court business. The district attorney should continue to be elected. The prothonary should be put under the court and appointed by the courts. Three county commissioners should be abolished and in their place there should be a director of elections who would handle registrations and election machinery—all that work as suggested by Mr. Kauffman this morning. If we can once get rid of these county offices, it will give us more a effective consolidated set-up and nobody can duck responsibilities. We feel the nub of any responsible government is that someone has got to take the responsibility, and it ought to be the mayor of the city. That is the person the voters vote for; 90% of the votes of this city are straight votes.

SENATOR WALKER:

How much control would the mayor have over these offices that are appointed by the courts?

MR. DILWORTH:

I don't think he would have any responsibility there.

SENATOR WALKER:

He would just be the boss over certain departments.

MR. DILWORTH:

The executive department should be boss of all executive departments; the courts over judicial departments. That is a proper separation.

SENATOR DENT:

Isn't it true that the appointive power would be in the hands of the judiciary but the appropriations would necessarily come from City Council and therefore in an indirect manner they would be in absolute control of the number and money for payment of such officers? They would be in control of personnel.

MR. DILWORTH:

While the courts have abused writ of mandamus, if all appropriations were put under the mayor, it gives the mayor and City Council power over the judiciary, and would be bad for the judiciary. I think that argument is effective and, by and large, the courts have been decent in handling budgets and appropriations.

SENATOR WALKER:

Have you ever discussed with the courts this theory of putting appointive power in their hands?

MR. DILWORTH:

Informally, intimately—their unanimous opinion is that they would like to be rid of present appointive powers. They would like to have under appointive powers offices directly connected with their work, such as prothonotary, clerk of Quarter Sessions, and if the register of wills is in with the clerk of the Orphans' Court, then they should have the right to appoint that office.

That covers all the county offices. There are ten county offices, as I said before. There are now over thirty offices, commissions and departments in this city, almost twenty of which are completely out of the control of the mayor.

SENATOR WALKER:

You are going to discuss those city offices. Do you discuss those?

MR. DILWORTH:

I do so. We suggest that the departments be consolidated into some twelve departments, as against the over thirty-odd that they have at the present time, and that each of those twelve departments be headed by a man appointed by the mayor with the consent and approval of a majority of City Council, and removal by the mayor.

We also feel very strongly that a small City Council, with six from their own districts and five at large, would work out better than the present system.

SENATOR WALKER:

What do they pay City Council?

MR. DILWORTH:

$7,500 a year.

SENATOR WALKER:

Elected by districts?

MR. DILWORTH:

All by districts; no at-large elections.

SENATOR DENT:

What is the present political make-up of City Council?

MR. DILWORTH:

Twenty-two Republicans out of twenty-two.

SENATOR DENT:

One hundred per cent.

MR. ANDREWS:

In what respect, Mr. Dilworth, do your recommendations differ, if they do differ, from the Charter recommendations favored by the group on which Mr. Schnader worked?

MR. DILWORTH:

That Charter called for a city manager; that would be one difference. I talked to the chairman of that committee, Mr. Evans, and some others. They all agreed today, with the experience of big cities—over half a million population—the experience with city managers hasn't been too fortunate, and it is better to put the whole responsibility in the top elective officer, the mayor. That would be the principal change from the 1938 recommendations. These twelve departments are pretty much the same as they recommended. There have been some changes made.

MR. ANDREWS:

Will it be necessary to do considerable spade-work yet in order that there might be more general agreement as to the details of the recommendations that will ultimately come to the legislature?

MR. DILWORTH:

I think, under the leadership of the men here this morning, that considerably in advance of the time the legislature meets next year you will be presented with a complete program as suggested by all of these organizations and by the leading citizens of the City of Philadelphia. That is my earnest hope and belief. We do feel that time is of the essence. We only get things done in times of upheaval. The citizens are tremendously interested, and now is the time to strike and ask the aid of the legislature, which has always aided but the City of Philadelphia has rejected that aid. But we think this time the people are so aroused that they are not going to dare prevent a real good set-up for the City of Philadelphia. But we would like to see a new city charter by the 1949 legislature, also an amendment for city-county consolidation, so we can vote for it in 1951.

MR. ANDREWS:

Do the pending proposals carry a referendum feature?

MR. DILWORTH:

No specific suggestions, on that. The suggestion we would make would be that the legislature enact a city charter in 1949, and the legislature has the power to submit that to the people of Philadelphia for their approval. I think if that could be done right at the 1949 elections in which we have municipal elections for four row offices

MR. ANDREWS:

It would be your idea to have referendum vote as to selection of a charter after the legislature acted?

MR. DILWORTH:

Yes, sir.

SENATOR DENT:

Your plan for election for controlling government here—your council won't be on the basis of proportional representation?

MR. DILWORTH:

The original charter of 1938 called for proportional representation, but New York has had pretty bad experience. It works in small cities better than in the large. We do think it would be better to have your Council nonpartisan.

MR. ANDREWS:

We have had a lot of nonpartisan elections with respect to judges, but they forget after election, so I am not so strong for nonpartisan elections.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

You speak of the mayor having terrific appointive powers under your plan. Do you think the people will give up the right to elect?

MR. DILWORTH:

The people resent being made to vote for a lot of offices that they have no familiarity with, no means of obtaining familiarity with. It is published in the papers that 90% of the vote is a straight vote. They resent the mayor being able to shunt off any responsibility. In other words, there has been all this criticism of the Receiver of Taxes, and they go in to the mayor and he says, "You elected him. How am I responsible?" The average person didn't know who he elected.

If you ask twenty voters what officers they elect, there are not more than two out of twenty—the mayor, district attorney and Council, every voter knows that, but in this city close to three-quarters of the voters won't know that they had elected a Receiver of Taxes. They do now, of course, but ordinarily they would not.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

The fact is that people don't have the interest. The great percentage of them can't tell who their congressman is, etc. I think what you can do is encourage them to take more interest.

SENATOR DENT:

We may have a copy of your recommendations condensed?

MR. DILWORTH:

Yes.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Why do you recommend reducing the Council to eleven? Is representation more complete as far as the public is concerned?

MR. DILWORTH:

The experience in other big cities has been the smaller your council the better the men, and the public will be more familiar with the men who are running it. You would be able to better transact city business. That is pretty much the universal thinking of people who have studied the situation.

MR. HAMILTON:

Mr. Chairman, the Prothonotary of Philadelphia County is appointed by 21 judges of Common Pleas Court at the present time, has been since the adoption of the Consolidation Act of 1854 and the subsequent Constitution of 1873. The Register of Wills is an elective officer, but he is also the ex officio clerk of the Orphans' Court. I want to keep this record straight and Mr. Dilworth straight on the two appointments.

MR. DILWORTH:

The prothonotary is not an elective office. I think you will see. . . .

SENATOR WALKER:

We can all read the law. Let's not get involved.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

What we want is facts, not policy suggestions

MR. ANDREWS:

Mr. Chairman, the disagreement is a fact.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

I mean in the line of legislative program. Any other questions?

MR. DILWORTH:

Thank you very much. I appreciate it a great deal.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Mr. James Finnegan.

MR. FINNEGAN:

I am Chairman of the Democratic City Committee in Philadelphia.

Gentlemen, I just had handed to me a report as I came in, and in view of the fact that there has been controversy about the Receiver of Taxes in Philadelphia, I wonder if I could have permission to read a few excerpts from this report. I think they are very interesting.

"Since the year 1930 the annual appropriations to the department of Receiver of Taxes have always been in the neighborhood of $700,000. In 1930 there were 367 employees on its payroll; in 1937 the Receiver of Taxes asked for $762,410, and there were listed 356 employees as of January 1, 1937. There was appropriated by Council to this department for that year $639,815.

"Your committee finds that money expended by the County of Philadelphia for the receiving of taxes is out of all proportion with the amounts expended by other cities of similar size for boards performing similar functions. In 1936, the Receiver of Taxes in Philadelphia received approximately $56 million in taxes. Of that amount $25 million was collected in the month of February, $6,800,000 in June, $4,500,000 in July, $2,100,000 in October, and $3 million in December. This breakdown discloses that more than 75% of the total annual taxes are received during five specific months of the year. Further analysis shows that 20% of the taxes were received on a single day during one of these months; that is the last day of February, on which day over $12 million was received. Analysis of daily receipts of the office of the Receiver of Taxes shows that actually the major portion of $41 million tax in Philadelphia is collected on nine single days. The committee finds, therefore, that the office of the Receiver of Taxes is exceedingly active for twelve to fifteen days of the year, during which they receive the bulk of the taxes. During the remainder of the year the office is comparatively inactive.

"The committee finds that with the addition of not more than twenty men in the Treasurer's office and not more than twelve men in the Comptroller's office, whose annual compensation will not exceed $65,000 to $75,000, the tax and water rent receiving functions of the Receiver of Taxes can be transferred to the Treasurer's department.

"Your committee finds that the installation of a modern, mechanical cash receiving and recording system will not only reduce the number of employees required but will assure proper and fraud-proof record-keeping and make possible the establishment of a system that will furnish to the administration ready information as to the state of its delinquent taxes account and its current receipts.

"Your committee finds that in other cities the amount due for previous years on every property is readily available; that the total delinquencies can be tabulated with facility and speed; that records are kept by modern and scientific methods; that installation of mechanical equipment has reduced the cost of record-keeping, improved the system, insured the accuracy of the records and minimized dishonesty among employees. The taxpayers of Philadelphia operate the tax receiving department on a political and not a business basis. The number of employees is dependent upon the whim of the ward leaders rather than upon the business necessities of the department.

"By personal visit to other cities, a subcommittee of your committee has been able to make comparisons, and your committee finds that in most modern cities, such as Detroit and Cleveland, the taxes are received by the City Treasurer, and that water meters are read by the Water Department. In the City of Detroit, where they have established the most efficient Water Department, its business is administered with the same efficiency as large private corporations. Its employees read and inspect four times a year 275,000 meters, as compared with 205,000 in Philadelphia. For that purpose it employs 33 inspectors, who make these inspections four times a year, as compared to 74 inspectors in Philadelphia, who make readings only twice a year.

"For these reasons, your committee makes the following recommendations:

"First, that the office of Receiver of Taxes be abolished; that the functions of the Receiver of Taxes, so far as they relate to the receipt of tax and water rent, be transferred to the City Treasurer; that the function of reading and inspecting water meters be transferred to the Water Department; that in both the office of City Treasurer and the office of City Comptroller there be installed such mechanical equipment as is necessary to enable the Treasurer to become the single paymaster for city employees; that there be installed in the Treasurer's office such mechanical equipment as will promote efficiency. . . ." This is the preliminary report of the legislative committee to investigate the cost of government in the City and County of Philadelphia, March 15, 1937. Most of these recommendations were made; to date very few have been carried out.

The Committee of 15 recently recommended that the activities of reading of the meters and the collection of the water rents be referred to the Receiver of Taxes, and that has been done recently.

There has been a great deal said about city-county consolidation and city charter, and I think that I can say that I agree with 98% of what has already been said along those lines, and it is not my intention to add any further comment to that matter, but I think all of it is predicated on free election in Philadelphia. Surprising as it may seem, in certain elections, elections are about as free as in Russia, Rumania and other dictator-led countries. Despite the fact that year after year civic organizations and minority parties bring to the attention of the district attorney evidence of fraud, evidence of intimidation, evidence of wholesale legal assistance, never in my knowledge has the district attorney in the succeeding year, on his own initiative, made any attempt to see that those conditions were not similar to what had occurred in the past.

We have had conditions in Philadelphia where the voter is really a spectator, comes into the voting place, signs the checklist, and the organization man records his vote on the machine. There is no freedom of choice. It is impossible for minority parties in Philadelphia in certain districts to obtain the services of a man as a watcher in those polls, because he knows that if he attempts to combat the wishes of the Republican committeemen in those polling places his life and that of his family will be made miserable in years to come. So I would like to ask and urge the very serious consideration to an amendment to the Election Code which would permit nonresidents of that district to act as watchers in those districts where now mockery has been made of free elections. I think it is probably the most important thing that can happen to Philadelphia today. It is absolutely essential that watchers be permitted to oversee an election in those districts where honest representation cannot be had by minority parties. Unless some steps are taken to insure our being able to appoint watchers in those districts, then all you have heard here on city-county consolidation, all you have heard on new city charter, can be washed right out of the window.

Year after year in the same districts we had gentlemen who decided they would like to play cash register with the voting machine, and do so very effectively. We have had evidence here in a recent election where the committeeman voted the voters alphabetically from the registration list—didn't see fit to disguise it at all. We have had, just in recent elections here in the 47th Ward, cases where they voted 16 or 18 more people than were registered. And those cases I am pointing to are not isolated cases; that happens in at least 10% of the districts of the City of Philadelphia. Through the efforts, not of the district attorney or any of the peace officers of Philadelphia, but through the efforts of the Committee of 70 and through the efforts of the Democratic City Committee, there were certain arrests made after the 1947 elections. It has been a method of the district attorney's office to delay cases until a witness appears and delay cases for a lack of prosecution. There have been twelve cases dropped for insufficient evidence in the court, and there are now four cases pending. Those cases I have just enumerated here required the affidavit of someone in that particular district. You can go into these districts (I am referring to those in the controlled river wards), you can talk to the people. They will tell you the truth about the election procedure. You better not ask them to give an affidavit; they are frightened to death against the results of testifying against committeemen in that particular district. It is impossible for any civic organization or minority party to get the necessary affidavits to give these people who insist on giving right of franchise their just desserts. Until something is done about it, all of this talk about a new city charter, city-county consolidation, is going to be wasted effort on the part of everyone who appeared here and on the part of you gentlemen on the committee.

There is a need for reapportionment in Philadelphia. I think a glance at the various districts—a number of districts—reveals that something must be done to give people of Philadelphia proper representation. I have this made up, and I will present it to the committee. For instance, in the fourth district there 8,420 registered voters are budgeted to one representative. In the sixteenth district you have 100,708 voters; they also are entitled to one representative. You have in the 6th district 11,707 registered voters, and they are entitled to one, and you have in the 17th district 108,058 voters and they are entitled to one. As you run down this list you can see the very serious need for reapportionment in the City of Philadelphia. I believe, to the best of my knowledge, there has been no reapportionment since 1920, although the Constitution demands such after every census.

Gentlemen, that is about the extent of the comments I would like to make at this time. I will be glad to answer any questions.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Any questions?

SENATOR DENT:

Is it not possible, under your system of government here, to have the courts name an overseer, independent of the political machine, for the overseeing of an election?

MR. FINNEGAN:

The courts can, but that overseer must be a resident of that district, which nullifies what we are trying to do.

SENATOR WALKER:

I gather, sir, from what you said, that you, as the chairman of the City-County Committee, are making a direct commitment of your party in favor of legislative reapportionment. That will be fine, sir, and I am assuming next time it comes up at the committee the Democratic members of the City Committee will vote in favor of it.

MR. FINNEGAN:

I hope the Republican members will, too.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Your suggestion, Mr. Finnegan, is a change in the election laws.

MR. FINNEGAN:

To permit watchers to be appointed in districts, irrespective of the fact they are nonresidents of that district. They have to have interest in the election; there is no sense of my casting my vote in one ward and have ten rung up against me in another ward.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

What would happen if they appointed somebody not a resident?

MR. FINNEGAN:

He could be appointed by the courts, if the legislature would so write a bill.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

What would the net difference be, if it is true there is police pressure? What is the difference between resident and nonresident?

MR. FINNEGAN:

There is a very decided difference. If they have to live in a certain locality for 365 days in the year, if they have to withstand all pressure brought to bear for 365 days—that is a decided difference from withstanding pressure for one day.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Isn't the police force city-wide?

MR. FINNEGAN:

You have gained the inference I am complaining about police activities on election day. We have found most of the police very fair. I am talking about the other 364 days of the year.

MR. DAVIS:

If you have some prepared material that you can leave with the stenographer for the record . . .

MR. FINNEGAN:

I can let you have the information on the districts and the registration of those districts as far as legislative reapportionment is concerned. I could compile a very full list of the districts where now we have received probably 2% of the vote, sometimes less than 2% of the vote. In the next district, where somebody has the courage to stand up for what is right, you will find the result there is maybe about five to four, and that occurs year after year. I can go through all the material and give records to show where this consistently happens in certain sections of Philadelphia year after year.

There is a certain point you might take into consideration—the denial of anyone convicted of election fraud as to the right to hold office under the city government. We have seen where one individual was convicted of an election fraud, and after serving a portion of his sentence he was released. He was later given one of the best jobs in the city administration, was given a banquet and was honored by most of the city officials. And I might say he still did an excellent job of controlling that district.

SENATOR DENT:

As an observation it is nothing familiar to Philadelphia. The only difference is that in most of the other voting sections of our state they have become more or less enlightened and don't allow that practice to take place. However, in the old days we had a little town where it got to the point where they refused to count the ballots.

MR. FINNEGAN:

I feel very strongly on the subject, Senator. The United States government is spending millions of dollars abroad and trying to prove to the people of Europe that democracy can work, and we are withholding money from countries where we feel the elections aren't free. In most of these areas that I refer to these people are of foreign birth, many of them. How are we going to teach them democracy means something when they are denied the privilege of voting and reading in the papers we are withholding money in Europe because elections aren't free?

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Isn't it true that anybody can walk into an election booth and pull the levers?

MR. FINNEGAN:

You can go into an election booth in Russia and vote against Stalin if you want to. The citizens do take a decided interest in government, but if you come in with your mind made up, going to vote for one party or candidate and have it changed by force and intimidation—that is a different picture.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Does anybody else have questions?

SENATOR DENT:

Going back to the original premise here, then do you believe, Mr. Finnegan, that a revamp of your Registration Commission under the County Commissioners . . .

MR. FINNEGAN:

You still have to see that the minority party is voting. The consolidation of the commissioners in the registration office wouldn't have that effect.

SENATOR DENT:

In elections where federal offices are at stake, can't your federal courts name overseers?

MR. FINNEGAN:

I think they can have observers in. Recently in Kansas City Attorney General Clark sent 26 of his men in there. We are hopeful of getting that this year here.

SENATOR WALKER:

What legislation would you recommend to us that would tend to eliminate this accusation of yours that there is intimidation in certain districts?

MR. FINNEGAN:

Don't make it a requirement of a watcher to be a resident of a district for which he is given a certificate. He could be made a temporary court officer if so decreed by the legislature.

SENATOR DENT:

It would be open to both political parties.

SENATOR WALKER:

This practice isn't confined to any political party.

MR. FINNEGAN:

It may be true in certain districts with the Democratic Party. I won't say it is limited solely to the Republican Party. There may be districts where Democrats do the same thing.

SENATOR WALKER:

I don't think either party has a patent on that.

MR. FINNEGAN:

Here is a safeguard both parties and any party could use.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

An further questions? If not, gentlemen, thank you very much.

MR. FINNEGAN:

Thank you for the opportunity of appearing before you.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

The next witness is Mr. Joseph S. Clark, representing the Americans for Democratic Action.

MR. CLARK:

I appreciate very much the opportunity of appearing before your committee, and I would like to set the record straight, briefly, in view of the statement which appeared in the morning papers here. In the printing of an article prepared jointly by Mr. Dilworth, Mr. Stevens and myself, it was stated I was trustee of the Bureau of Municipal Research. That is true, but I don't speak here in that capacity. I am on the Executive Board of the Committee of 70, and Director of the City Planning Board. I am here as the Philadelphia Chapter head of Americans for Democratic Action, a nonpartisan political-action group with which I think most of you gentlemen are familiar.*

The legislative reforms which are necessary to give Philadelphia a modern municipal government have been well known and understood by the citizens at large for at least fifteen years. They have failed of enactment because of the corrupt influence continually exercised by the Republican City Administration and its powerful friends in the legislative and executive branches of the State Government. The needed measures may be restated as follows:

1. An amendment to the Pennsylvania State Constitution providing for the consolidation of the City and County of Philadelphia. This amendment must be passed by two successive legislatures and approved by a vote of all the citizens of Pennsylvania. It is now too late to call a special session of the present legislature to pass such an amendment for the first time this summer. Accordingly, the constitutional amendment cannot go to the voters for approval until the municipal election in 1951, having first been passed by the 1949 and 1951 sessions of the Legislature.

The Commission will recall that such an amendment was submitted to the voters in 1937, and, while receiving a substantial majority in Philadelphia, was defeated by a corrupt deal between the Philadelphia Republican Organization and the leaders of a number of up-State Counties who advocated defeat of the amendment in return for favors on other bills from the Philadelphia Republican delegation.

The form of this constitutional amendment is very simple and copies have been supplied to the Commission.

The advantages of City-County Consolidation are three-fold:

(a) Proper integration of City Government. Authority for all executive and legislative governmental functions should be vested in the Mayor and his Cabinet and City Council, rather than in a number of independent elective officers whose activities it is difficult to coordinate.

(We have an excellent example of that in Philadelphia today. The current scandals as a result of which you gentlemen came down here center around Property and Supplies and the office of the Receiver of Taxes. The director of Property and Supplies, Mr. Grakelow, was a member of Samuels' cabinet, was fired and an attempt was made by the mayor, Mr. Binns and Mr. Meade to get the Receiver of Taxes to resign. It has failed; he is now being impeached. It may well be if he doesn't see the light of day that he will hold office for many months. He is an elective officer and one whom I believe the people had no idea that they were voting for. Give the mayor the same power to appoint his own cabinet which is given to the State Governor and the President of the United States in the state and national government fields.)

(b) A short ballot from which would be eliminated all elective offices except the Mayor, City Council and the City Controller.

(It is only here in the municipal field where we have the travesty of long ballot and a long number of officials unknown as to quality, etc.)

(c) Civil Service of the merit system for the County offices, thus eliminating plundering of the City treasury by Republican Committeemen who give their primary allegiance and their best working hours to their political organization rather than to their municipal jobs.

2. Pending adoption of the constitutional amendment providing for City-County consolidation, a simple new City Charter should be enacted by the 1949 session of the legislature. The outlines of such a Charter are contained in Senate Bill No. 204 (the Shapiro Bill) of the 1943 session of the legislature, copies of which are, of course, available to the Commission.

(I would like to make a practical suggestion to you gentlemen. May I suggest to you that in your deliberations you give careful consideration to Senate Bill No. 204 of the 1943 session. That is the Shapiro Bill, also introduced in House Bill No. 439 by Messrs. Webb and Scanlon. It is, up to 1943, a good sound City Charter for Philadelphia, capable of being enacted without City-County consolidation.)

This bill will require some revision in order to bring it up to date and to improve its draftsmanship. I am confident, however, that the experts at the Bureau of Municipal Research can complete the necessary work long before the next legislature meets.

(The legislative provisions for proportional representation in that bill ought to come out. If you call on the experts in the Bureau of Municipal Research, they could go to work on the draft of a City Charter and it could be available for the citizens of Philadelphia in the fall, with specific proposals before us. I think it is unnecessary to go to the expense of a new Charter Commission and having them do a brand-new job; the spadework has been done and those who have followed it are in agreement as to what the Charter should contain.)

Upon completion of such a draft further hearings by the Commission should be held at which public comment on the revised draft should be invited. Generally speaking, this new Charter should provide:

(a) a strong Mayor as executive.

(b) a small Council of eleven, six of whom should be elected from the Congressional Districts (one from each district), the remaining five from the City at large. The ballot on which candidates for Council's names are printed should contain no party designation, thus making it impossible to vote a straight party ticket and requiring the candidates to make themselves known as individuals to the electorate. In passing, it should be pointed out that one of the evils of the present voting machines used in Philadelphia is the tendency to prevent voting a split ticket. While the voting machines have been most effective in eliminating certain types of fraud, the evil which results from the lack of knowledge of the candidates on the part of the electorate and the consequent voting of the straight party ticket is one which should be eliminated in the next City Charter so far as the election of Councilmen is concerned.

* See memorandum submitted at end of transcript.

(My reason for that is, in ending one type of fraud in Philadelphia by getting the voting machines and eliminating the fraud possible on paper ballots, we substitute another harmful result, and that is straight party ticket voting. Until the electorate is given an opportunity to split the ballot, I don't think we have a good chance for good government in Philadelphia. I believe in party responsibility, but when you vote for straight Democratic or straight Republican ticket, you haven't got the chance of running ahead on the ticket if you have a good man for a subordinate office.)

(c) A reorganization of the Executive Department generally in accord with the provisions of the Shapiro Bill, but modified in accordance with a memorandum which we are handing to the Commission separately. One of the modifications would give greater authority to the department charged with development of the air transportation facilities and airports of the city.

(d) A rewritten Civil Service article to remedy the appalling defects in the present administration of the Philadelphia City Civil Service and to bring the Charter provisions in accord with modern merit system methods.

(e) A Home Rule provision which would enable the citizens of Philadelphia to change their Charter at any general or municipal election, either on the recommendation of City Council or by initiative of the citizens themselves.

3. This new Charter should be passed by the 1949 session of the legislature and submitted to the voters in the municipal election of 1949. Thereafter, when the City-County constitutional amendment is approved, the Charter can be amended by vote of Philadelphia citizens so as to effectuate the changes eliminating the separate County government as authorized by the amendment.

(I should like to register my strong dissent from the program which was presented to you today by Mr. Kauffman, which in essence calls for your 1949 session of the legislature to pass enabling legislation which would permit in 1949 the election of a Charter Commission which would come in with a new Charter which would go on the ballot in 1950. Take it when the present scandal is forgotten, when people begin thinking of the next governor and congressmen to be elected from Philadelphia, and the whole business of municipal reform would sink to the bottom of the barrel again, as it has done in the past. Now is the time to strike, gentlemen. Your Commission can do a great good service to Philadelphia by concentrating this issue in 1949, when there are no distracting issues before the people and we can get a decent City Charter in this town.)

4. Enactment by the 1949 session of the Legislature of a bill placing the County offices under the merit system and designating the Civil Service Commission in the City and its personnel director as the agency to administer the merit system for County offices. This badly needed reform, if properly administered, can be one of the most effective tools to break the stranglehold of the Republican organization on the government of the City and County.

(The legislature should pass a modified Civil Service bill for the County offices, and put the administration of the merit bill under the jurisdiction of the City Civil Service Commission. Until we get the merit system properly enforced for County offices, we have no hope, in my judgment, of breaking up the present administration. This isn't a partisan speech on my part; it so happens it is Republican here. Until we get a definite merit system, we, by nation-wide experience, have this problem of political vice and graft.)

5. Repeal by the 1949 session of the Legislature of the Party Raiding Bill. This bill, by preventing fusion in Philadelphia, as a practical matter has made it very difficult to throw out of office the present corrupt Republican administration. Heretofore the Democratic Party has been too weak to accomplish this much-needed result by itself. Many Philadelphia citizens, though ingrained habit, are unwilling to vote the Democratic ticket despite their real interest in a decent municipal government. A fusion movement would gain great strength from a third party ticket with the same candidates nominated by the Democrats. The Commission is familiar with the history of the Party Raiding Bill. It may now be admitted that its passage dealt a severe blow to the forces of decent government in Philadelphia.

6. It should be emphasized that the foregoing legislative program, in and of itself, will not solve Philadelphia's civic headaches. It will merely provide modern and effective tools for doing the job. Men and women of ability and integrity if elected to office under the present outmoded government structure could, nonetheless, give Philadelphia a decent, efficient and forward-looking government. It is a mistake to blame our present situation on our present form of government. The fault lies not in our City structure but in ourselves, that we have not responded to the challenge at the ballot box. In order to pose that challenge in its most provocative form, it is essential that all of the investigations now under way should be consolidated and coordinated under one able head, appointed by the Governor and supported with the full prestige and power of the State. The present investigations have merely scratched the surface. The extent of dishonesty and corruption which exists in this City should be brought to light in all of its sordid detail in order that an aroused citizenry, knowing the facts, can be mobilized in 1949 and 1951 to bring to the City as elected officials the type of leadership which this community deserves and must have if Philadelphia is to survive and grow.

I appreciate very much the opportunity to appear before this Commission. I would be glad to answer any questions you may have.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Anybody else like to be heard? If not, the hearing is adjourned. Thank you very much for coming.

SUBMITTED BY MR. RICHARDSON DILWORTH
(See footnote page 5800).

It is well recognized that Philadelphia needs consolidation of its city-county governments and a new city charter. Our local political machine has long and successfully resisted both measures.

The present city-county governmental duplication very nicely serves our political machine's purposes. The overlapping, antiquated county departments, each headed by an elective officer (except for the Prothonotary's office) can be stuffed with political workers, free from effective control.

The county departments consist of the offices of Coroner, Controller, Register of Wills, Sheriff, Treasurer, Recorder of Deeds, Clerk of the Quarter-Sessions Court, District Attorney, Prothonotary, and the three County Commissioners. The majority of these offices have outlived their usefulness, the rest should be merged into the city government. Until this is done, it is virtually impossible to create an integrated, efficient city government.

Despite the fact the county was consolidated geographically with the city in 1854, the political machine has for almost 100 years successfully resisted all efforts to abolish our county government. What is worse, the 10 county offices were written into the state constitution of 1874, and so can be abolished only by constitutional amendment. Such an amendment must be passed by two successive legislatures and then approved by the voters of the entire state. This is, of course, a cumbersome process. If the necessary amendment is introduced in the 1949 session of the legislature and is approved both by it and the 1951 legislature, it can be submitted to the voters of the state at the 1951 election—the same election at which we shall choose our next mayor.

The adoption of a new city charter is not nearly so difficult a matter. The legislature can enact a new city charter at any session. There is, therefore, no reason why the 1949 legislature should not give us a new city charter, and provide that it is submitted to the voters of Philadelphia for approval at the general election in November, 1949. The groundwork for a new city charter was effectively laid by the Charter Commission of 1938, so that the prompt preparation of a good charter bill is no serious problem.

However, it must be kept in mind that such a charter can apply only to the various departments of the city government. It cannot abolish, consolidate or otherwise affect the county departments until the adoption of the proposed constitutional amendment, giving the city jurisdiction over the county departments.

This means that a new city charter, enacted by the 1949 session of the legislature and approved by the voters of Philadelphia in that same year, will not be completely effective until after the final approval, in November, 1951, of the proposed constitutional amendment.

Suggested Form of City Charter: The preamble of the charter should state that public office is a public trust. This is particularly important in view of the low concept our public officials now have of their obligations to the people of the city which they serve. The recent public statements of high city officials, including the Mayor, make it clear they do not consider a public officer derelict in his duties unless he has committed some act which subjects him to criminal prosecution. The charter should, therefore, make clear that every public official is a trustee of his office, and as such owes the public the same degree of fidelity and skill in the performance of his duties as the law requires of every trustee.

Home Rule: The charter should specifically provide that the people of Philadelphia may amend, revise, or rewrite their own charter. There is no good reason why a city of 2,000,000 people should be required to go, hat in hand, to the state legislature for the enactment of laws necessary to provide for its own local government and affairs. This home rule provision would not in any way abridge or interfere with the necessary powers or authority of the state government.

This will almost certainly be opposed by our city administration. Twenty-six years ago the voters of Pennsylvania ratified a Home Rule Amendment to the constitution giving cities the right to local self-government. Not even the strongest pressure of our civic organizations has been able to force our city administration to take advantage of this amendment. The reason is that the present system permits the local political machine to blame the legislature for failing to provide much-needed local reforms.

Elective Offices: The objective of the charter should be a strong city government, with the responsibility therefor placed squarely upon the Mayor and a small city Council.

Our present system, whereby we elect not only a Mayor, a District Attorney, a Controller, and a Council, but also such assorted officials as the Receiver of Taxes, the Coroner, the Clerk of the Quarter-Sessions Court, the Register of Wills, the Recorder of Deeds, the Treasurer, the Sheriff and three County Commissioners, makes it extremely difficult to have effective administration of our city's affairs. The present system furnishes the Mayor and the political machine an alibi for fraud and incompetency.

The only officials who should be elected are the Mayor, the District Attorney, the Controller (to act as a watchdog over all city departments) and the members of City Council.

City Council should be reduced from the present 22 members to 11 members, six to be elected from each of the congressional districts—that is one per district and the remaining five from the city at large. The ballots on which the names of the candidates for Council appear should contain no Party designation, thus making it impossible to vote a straight Party ticket for Council, and requiring the candidates to make themselves known as individuals to the voters.

Civil Service: Civil service should be extended to every department and the Commission given the powers necessary to make its work effective and free from political control, as has been done in a number of other large cities in the past decade.

City Departments: At present the city-county government is a sprawling structure with far too many departments whose duties frequently overlap one another. In addition to the office of the Mayor, the District Attorney and the Controller, there are now over 30 departments and commissions in our city-county government, some 20 of which are independent of the authority of the Mayor. These should be consolidated into not more than a dozen separate departments, the heads of each to be appointed by the Mayor, subject to the approval of the majority of Council, and subject to removal by the Mayor. What is more, the Mayor should have the right to appoint as heads of these departments the persons best qualified. Therefore, the requirement of residence within the city should be abolished for the appointive heads of departments and their immediate assistants.

In deciding upon the consolidation of departments, several basic principles should be kept in mind. No department should have any special privileges or powers not possessed by other departments. Duties should be so apportioned among the departments that no department shall greatly overshadow in importance any other department. Based on these principles it is suggested that the city government be reorganized as follows:

Department of Finance: This department should be responsible for the assessment, administration and collection of all taxes, and the collection of all other moneys due the city. It should be the central purchasing agent for the city, and should also contain an effective Budget Bureau.

This department would take over the activities of the Receiver of Taxes, the Department of Purchases and Supplies, the administrative work of the Board of Revision of Taxes, the duties of the Mayor's Budget Clerk, the activities of the Treasurer, and the activities of the many city-county offices which are now collecting fees, fines, licenses and permits.

Department of Public Safety: The powers and functions of this department would be practically the same as those of the existing department.

Department of Public Works: This department should have jurisdiction over all public utilities owned or operated by the city, such as the subways, the gas works, the waterworks, the airport, harbor facilities, etc. The department should also be responsible for the construction, maintenance and cleaning of the city's streets, alleys and the sewer system.

Department of Public Health: The entire range of municipal health activities should be given to this department.

Department of Recreation and Parks: This department should have jurisdiction over all municipal parks and park areas, and over all municipal recreation activities and facilities.

Department of City Property: This department should have jurisdiction over all general property maintenance, including the work now being done by the Department of City Architecture.

Department of Law: This department, in addition to its present activities, should also absorb the legal departments set up by a number of county offices.

Department of Detention and Correction: This department should have control of the House of Detention for Women, the House of Correction, the City Prisons and Prison Farms. It should also conduct the probation service, as well as the supervision of persons on parole from the city's penal institutions.

Department of Registration and Elections: This department should be responsible for the entire election procedure, including registration and elections. This department should replace the present County Commissioners. There would be removed from this department the duties of the present Bureau of Weights and Measures, and the Division of Children's Agencies which were only put under the control of the Commissioners for political reasons.

Department of Planning: The powers of this department should remain relatively unchanged. It now has personnel of outstanding calibre, and has done a remarkably effective job of city planning. It is no fault of the department that only a few of its plans have been put into operation. This has been due to political hamstringing.

Register of Wills and Recorder of Deeds: There is no reason why the duties of these two departments should not be merged into a single department.

Miscellaneous Departments: It is recommended that the offices of Coroner and Sheriff, Clerk of the Quarter-Sessions Court and the Prothonotary be abolished as independent agencies. Many of the duties of the offices of Coroner and Sheriff are no longer required, and their few remaining duties could well be absorbed by the Department of Health and the Department of Law. The Clerk of the Quarter-Sessions Court and the Prothonotary should be placed under the jurisdiction of the courts.

Obstacles to be overcome: We must not for a moment be deceived by the present sanctimonious attitude of the city administration. This same group gave lip service in 1937 to a constitutional amendment to bring about city-county consolidation. The machine did not dare openly oppose this amendment in Philadelphia, with the result that the voters of Philadelphia approved it by a majority of more than 62,000. It was defeated in the state-wide vote as the result of a deal made by our Philadelphia machine with the state machine.

The city machine has also sabotaged all attempts to enact a new city charter. The most recent attempt to obtain a new city charter was in 1939. Then, a charter prepared by the City Charter Commission of 1938, which had the approval of virtually every prominent citizen of Philadelphia, passed in the Senate of 1939, but never even got out of committee in the House. This pickling of the charter was engineered by the city administration through a Philadelphia legislator who was the Chairman of the Committee on Cities of the First Class—this same gentleman is now in City Council. These tactics were so resented, that the candidates of both parties in the 1939 mayoralty election were forced to endorse a new city charter.

Immediately upon the death of Mayor Lamberton these campaign promises were forgotten. In the mayoralty campaign last Fall, David Harris, the then city chairman, went so far as to assert that, "No one but long-haired men and short-haired women care about city-county consolidation and a new city charter."

It will take the concerted effort of all of us, and all of our civic organizations, to force the city administration to work for a new city charter, and to call upon the legislature to pass the necessary constitutional amendment for city-county consolidation.

Most important of all, it must be remembered that while both of these measures are essential to effective reform of our city government, they will by themselves accomplish little unless we elect to office men and women who really believe in good government and who will conscientiously carry out the spirit and intent of these measures.

SUBMITTED BY MR. JOSEPH S. CLARK

SEPARATE MEMORANDUM OF SUGGESTED CHANGES IN SENATE BILL NO. 204 OF THE 1943 LEGISLATURE (THE SHAPIRO BILL) SUGGESTED TO THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION BY PHILADELPHIA CHAPTER OF AMERICANS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION.

1. The Bill provides for a council of 11 members elected from the City at large. It is suggested that this provision be changed so as to provide for a small council about half the members of which would be elected from the City at large and the other half from districts.

2. The Bill provides for a civil service commission to be elected by the City Council. It is suggested that this provision be changed so that the civil service commission would be appointed by the mayor.

3. The Bill provides for a Department of City Planning and a Planning Board quite different from the present setup of the City Planning Commission. As the City Planning Commission is functioning satisfactorily under the present setup, it may be unwise to change the setup at this time.

4. The Bill provides for the adoption of the master plan for the City by the City Council. It is suggested that this provision be changed so that the master plan need not be adopted by the City Council.

5. The Bill makes the administration of zoning a function and responsibility of the Planning Agency. It is suggested that this provision be changed so that the Planning Agency will not be saddled with the time consuming routine of hearing appeals on requests for changes in zoning.

6. The Bill requires a 2/3 majority vote of Council to increase any item in the capital budget submitted by the Planning Board. It is suggested that this provision be changed so as to eliminate this limitation upon the power of City Council.

7. The Bill provides for the adoption of the current budget by City Council on or before October 15th. From the standpoint of good budget making, this provision is unwise. It is suggested that it be changed so as to permit City Council to adopt the budget as late as December 15th. Corresponding changes should be made in the timetable for the preparation and consideration of the budget.

8. The Bill has an article on loans which in many ways is meritorious but in other ways is unduly and unnecessarily restrictive. It is suggested that this provision be changed in accordance with the views of Mr. Robert J. Patterson, Acting Director of the Bureau of Municipal Research, who is especially conversant with the City's financial administration.

HOTEL WARWICK, PHILADELPHIA

ATTENDANCE

Joint State Government Commission

Hon. Weldon B. Heyburn, Chairman; Hon. Hiram G. Andrews, Hon. Joseph M. Barr, Hon. Charles H. Brunner, Jr., Hon. Leroy E. Chapman, Hon. John H. Dent, Hon. Anthony J. DiSilvestro, Hon. Edwin C. Ewing, Hon. Thomas H. Lee, Hon. Baker Royer, Hon. John M. Walker. Guy W. Davis, Counsel and Director, Joint State Government Commission.

Persons Appearing

Mr. Edward Hopkinson, Chairman, City Planning Commission. Mr. Otto Tod Mallory, Philadelphia Committee on Public Affairs. Mr. William Meade, Chair, Republican City Committee. Mr. Walter P. Miller, Jr., Chairman, Committee of 70. Mrs. Donald F. Bishop, Philadelphia League of Women Voters. Mr. John J. MacDonald, President, Philadelphia Real Estate Board. Mr. H. Jerome Jaspan, former member Pennsylvania Senate. Mr. Arthur W. Binns, Chairman, Committee of 15. Mr. James A. Finnegan, Chairman, Democratic County Executive Committee. Mr. Joseph S. Clark, Americans for Democratic Action. Mr. Richardson Dilworth, Action Committee for Philadelphia Reform. Mr. Maurice S. Berison, Legislative Committee, Philadelphia Progressive Party.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

The meeting will please come to order. The first witness is Mr. Edward Hopkinson, representing the City Planning Commission.

MR. HOPKINSON:

Mr. Chairman, members of the Commission, ladies and gentlemen, I desire to speak briefly in connection with the adoption of the Smith amendment passed at the 1947 session of the legislature establishing a 12½% realty base. I am in favor of a constitutional amendment changing the basis for calculating the borrowing capacity from a combination of realty and personality to a realty base alone. The objection I have to repassage of the 1947 amendment is its effect upon the borrowing capacity of the city. Applying it to the base as established in that proposed amendment, it would have the effect of reducing the borrowing capacity by about $25,000,000 at a time when it is absolutely essential that the city should have some continuing borrowing capacity through the years 1950, 1951, 1952 for the completion of urgently needed public improvements to which the city is committed and many of which are already under construction and for which additional funds must be provided to enable them to be carried on. Therefore, to have this amendment become effective in 1950, in all probability, will have the effect of leaving no borrowing capacity at that time, and that would hamstring the program of public improvements which is being proceeded with. I think, therefore, it is essential that we have a new amendment introduced at the 1949 session of the legislature which would mean we would lose two years in changing the base, but I think those two years can well be lost rather than imperil the continuance of the public improvement program. I think also, in view of the level of present-day construction costs, either the 12½% limit in the 1947 legislation will have to be moderately increased or we will have to provide, from deducting from the debt, the amount of debt on partially self-supporting public improvements such as the city-built and owned subway in Philadelphia which is partially, not wholly, self-supporting. It will have to be worked out with the appropriate representatives of the city and the legislature. I merely throw that in for consideration at the proper time by the proper groups. The point to be emphasized is that I am in favor, in principle, of the type of amendment introduced in 1947 and which I support at that time; however, I am against its repassage for the reasons indicated. Thank you very much.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Thank you, Mr. Hopkinson.

SENATOR BARR:

What is your alternative? As it is now, 12½% on realty was the alternative.

MR. HOPKINSON:

I am in favor of either a higher percentage than 12½%—moderately higher—or keeping it at 12½% and permitting the deduction of such portion of the debt on partially self-supporting projects as the court might find self-supporting under the present exclusion laws which are limited to projects wholly self-supporting.

MR. ANDREWS:

With reference to the projected improvement program, what portion of that program is it impossible to finance?

MR. HOPKINSON:

Any of it, except to the extent to which we might be able to borrow in 1949 before the amendment takes effect.

MR. ANDREWS:

Then none of the programs are possible except on the basis of borrowing.

MR. HOPKINSON:

There are certain sums which come to us from city-state projects, particularly in the highway deal where the city supplies a relatively small portion of the cost. We do get federal and state funds for airport purposes; but, generally speaking, our transit improvements, our hospitals, and our recreation programs are absolutely almost wholly dependent on city borrowing.

SENATOR BARR:

What is your councilmanic borrowing power now?

MR. HOPKINSON:

The councilmanic borrowing power is up to 2% at any one time, but that is not in addition to the general borrowing power; it is merely a method of exercising a portion of the general borrowing power if we have that borrowing power.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Thank you Mr. Hopkinson. Our next speaker is Mr. Otto Tod Mallory.

MR. MALLORY:

I represent the Philadelphia Committee on Public Affairs and a number of other citizen organizations. I want to thank you for this opportunity. The Philadelphia Committee on Public Affairs has been in favor of an amendment for many years. Mr. Hopkinson says that he favors it in principle but not in application at this time. His statement reminds me of the family that is always in favor of dieting after a big meal but not before it. It is the purpose of the City Planning Commission and the administration to exhaust the borrowing power immediately and completely, and that is the reason they object to putting in an amendment. The whole object of this amendment is to prevent exhaustion of borrowing power in good times. We did that between 1920 and 1932 in Philadelphia—there was no borrowing power between 1932 and 1940 something. At that time the Federal Government was giving large grants to the cities for public works during a period of unemployment. We got none of it. Part of our backwardness is due to that. Mr. Hopkinson is correct, I believe, that all these public works that are now proposed are necessary and desirable and should be done, but it is also true, at every stage of the history of Philadelphia, that there are many more public works that need to be done and for which there is borrowing power. Nearly every administration has taken the same position that Mr. Hopkinson has, and it is natural that they should. You see things that are necessary immediately, but there is another consideration beside jobs and glory, and that is stability. The people of the City of Philadelphia are entitled to the assurance of public works during bad times. I have been connected with this project for a good many years, both in the Federal Government and elsewhere; and it has come very strongly to my attention that such a thing is an essential part of the stability of our way of life. As you know, one of the main arguments that the Communists use is that the American capitalistic system is so unstable that it runs into terrific crises, and that the capitalist does nothing to prevent such crises and the Communists will. That is the argument that sticks in the mind of those suffering in the 30's. However, the capitalistic system is capable of stability. The largest consideration you gentlemen have as against any other persons concerned with the amendment is the stability of our system and the assurance of employment in bad times. Uncle Joe was a very wise man in a small town, and everybody went to him for advice. They asked him why it was, and he said, "My advice is based upon experience; my experience is based upon judgment; and my judgment is based upon bad experience." Now, in Philadelphia we have had this bad experience over a long period of years when we could do no building work at a time when people were unemployed at the limit and the city government helpless to do anything. Based upon experience, gentlemen, this amendment should go through.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Thank you Mr. Mallory. Next we will hear from Mr. William Meade.

MR. MEADE:

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the Joint State Government Commission:

You are engaged in a study of a subject which is of vital concern to the City of Philadelphia and I appreciate this opportunity of expressing to you as the representatives of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania my views on the subject.

Upon being elected Chairman of the Republican City Committee last year, I pledged myself and the Party to sponsoring and supporting any legislation or movement for the best interests of the people of the City of Philadelphia, including the modernizing and streamlining of the government of the City and County of Philadelphia.

I am making some suggestions to you as the first step in carrying out that pledge. It is my purpose and that of the Party I represent to insure to the people of Philadelphia honest and efficient government.

The present City of Philadelphia is the result of a consolidation of a large number of independent boroughs and townships that formerly comprised the County of Philadelphia. It is also a merger of the territorial limits of the City with the territorial limits of the County. As a result of these consolidations, we have inherited some offices which should not be consolidated and streamlined in the interest of efficiency and good government.

First and above all, the City and County Government in Philadelphia must be consolidated with all possible speed. Such consolidation requires an amendment to the State Constitution. The Republican Party of Philadelphia will propose such an amendment to the Constitution at the coming Session of the Legislature and we request your supporting recommendation.

In the Resolution proposing such consolidation we recommend:

1. Consolidation of the offices of Recorder of Deeds and Register of Wills into a single office.
2. Consolidation of the offices of Coroner and Sheriff into a single office.
3. Consolidation of the offices of the Receiver of Taxes and City Treasurer into a single office.
4. Consolidation of the offices of the Clerk of Quarter Sessions Court, Clerk of the Municipal Court, Clerk of the Orphans' Court and Prothonotary into a single office.
5. Consolidation of the Registration Commission and the County Commissioners into a single Board.
6. The offices of Controller and District Attorney should continue to be separate.

We feel that the duties of the new offices which will thus be created, as well as those of Controller and District Attorney, are of such a nature that they should be elected by, and directly responsible to, the people. We believe that this would not provide too many offices for an intelligent exercise of their right of suffrage by the citizens of Philadelphia. On the other hand, if these officers were appointed, that would centralize too much power in the hands of one man.

In streamlining the government of Philadelphia, we must bear in mind the City is still a part of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and that its judicial procedure and the conduct of elections must be uniform with the rest of the State.

The Republican Party favors Home Rule for Philadelphia. By that we mean we want the right in this City to decide for ourselves how we shall govern ourselves. To this end we propose legislation creating a "Home Rule Charter Commission" to draft and submit to the people of Philadelphia, for their adoption, a new City Charter.

At this point I would like to make myself clear on one other matter that has already been discussed before your Commission, that of Civil Service. I do not favor further extension of Civil Service in Philadelphia. Among many other reasons, it provides a cloak under which an elected public official, only answerable to the people, may hide his inefficiency.

We reiterate our support for a constitutional amendment providing for a more stable debt limit for the City of Philadelphia based on the average annual assessed valuation of taxable real estate for preceding years.

There are other matters vital to the people of Philadelphia which require legislative attention. Among these are Senatorial and Legislative reappointment. The present lines of the districts in Philadelphia have resulted in an inequitable representation in the General Assembly and this should be corrected.

We favor a Fair Employment Practices Act, strong enough to guarantee equal rights to all citizens, regardless of race, color, or religion. This legislation is high on our list, as are the broadening and liberalizing of social legislation, such as the Workmen's Compensation Act, the Occupational Disease Act, the Unemployment Compensation Act, Old Age Pensions, Blind Assistance, and Mothers' Assistance.

We are most anxious to have legislation enacted further bettering the status of Labor, protecting the wage-earner in his right to a fair wage under decent and proper working conditions, thereby giving him a higher standard of living.

These are principles to which the Republican Party of Philadelphia pledges its continued effort. We ask that your Body recommend legislation to accomplish these aims.

We are continuing our studies, and as the General Assembly proceeds with its deliberations on these important subjects, we shall present our views whenever appropriate. It is our firm purpose to support any legislation affecting Philadelphia which, upon careful analysis, appears to be to the best interests of the people of the City.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Thank you very much Mr. Meade.

SENATOR BARR:

Mr. Meade, you spoke of putting all the power in one man. Doesn't council have power?

MR. MEADE:

Yes, council has power.

SENATOR BARR:

That is your legislative body.

MR. MEADE:

Our local legislative body, yes.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

He was suggesting the mayor—the plan suggested by the Institute of Local and State Government.

MR. MEADE:

Under their proposal, the mayor would have the right to appoint all administrative offices.

SENATOR DENT:

What position would council or the county commissioners play in your reshuffle?

MR. MEADE:

Council would continue appropriations, and the board would administer all election functions in the city.

SENATOR BARR:

Do you think there is a need for county commissioners still?

MR. MEADE:

Definitely.

SENATOR BARR:

For what purpose?

MR. MEADE:

To make it uniform with the legal procedure in the rest of the state where it has been provided that each county shall have a county board of elections.

SENATOR BARR:

This is a little bit different. You are contiguous.

MR. MEADE:

We are merging another election function with that board.

SENATOR DENT:

You are merging some of the offices, but you are not doing what people have the popular conception you are going to do, and that would be eliminate one or the other of the two bodies of government.

MR. MEADE:

It would be up to the legislature to designate whether it is to be County of Philadelphia or City of Philadelphia.

SENATOR DENT:

But, if you do designate, what is your position in the matter. We ought to wipe out one administrative body in favor of the other.

MR. MEADE:

It will not be a wiping out but a merging.

SENATOR DENT:

You can't merge the commissioners with the councilmen to get anything but chaos.

MR. MEADE:

That is the procedure throughout the rest of the state. We are being uniform with the judicial procedure of all of Pennsylvania.

SENATOR DENT:

In the rest of the state we have the coroner's office separate from the sheriff, and you recommend consolidation.

MR. MEADE:

There are no counties without a coroner or without a sheriff. However, you will find counties where one man holds dual office.

SENATOR DENT:

If you are interested in consolidation for greater economy and greater efficiency in government, why would it not be possible to have a single administrative head for your county and city government?

MR. MEADE:

Because it takes away from the people the right to select their administrator.

SENATOR DENT:

No it doesn't. You have only one governor in the state. It doesn't say you don't have the right there.

MR. MEADE:

You also have within your state government the state treasurer and the auditor general.

SENATOR DENT:

You will have row officers—they are essential in any government; they are nothing but department heads; but, administratively speaking, you have an executive branch of government. You can't have two executive branches of government in a single unit of government. You have the council; therefore you can't have the commissioners—they are both lawmaking bodies.

MR. MEADE:

Wouldn't any administrator interpret the laws of county, state, or nation?

SENATOR DENT:

I thought you wanted a single entity of government. There seems to be misunderstanding on your part. What do you have in your county?

SENATOR DENT:

We have a county and a number of cities and townships.

MR. MEADE:

Has there been any effort to consolidate them?

SENATOR DENT:

It wouldn't be possible inasmuch as we have three different types of school districts.

MR. MEADE:

Would that be keeping good faith with your position here if you suggested such for your city?

SENATOR DENT:

You are for consolidation. What are you going to consolidate outside of some row offices?

MR. MEADE:

That is all we want.

SENATOR DENT:

Consolidation of coroner with sheriff, recorder of deeds with register of wills. In other words, what you plan is not a consolidation of the executive government—you are consolidating the row offices or administrative end of it.

MR. MEADE:

That is right.

SENATOR DENT:

That is all we want to know. I want to have a copy of that manifesto.

MR. MEADE:

You may.

SENATOR DI SILVESTRO:

I understand for city-county consolidation in 1937 Senator Stiefel and I presented the bill. It went through the Senate and House and passed unanimously. Philadelphia voted in favor of it but up state they licked it. How do you intend to protect any kind of bill aiming for consolidation as to up-state elements?

MR. MEADE:

You are asking too much of me, senator. You have a perfect right to ask me that—we will campaign for it; however, it will then be in the hands of the people—it is up to the people.

SENATOR BARR:

Mr. Meade, I understand you want the registration commission under the county commissioners. Would you be for that in the rest of the state too?

MR. MEADE:

We are only interested in Philadelphia. We can't speak for the whole state.

MR. ANDREWS:

Who will control the payroll—council or the commissioners?

MR. MEADE:

The Council. They currently control the payroll of city council.

MR. ANDREWS:

Under your projected plan, I would not have appointing power as to the number of commissioners, employees, etc.

MR. MEADE:

Our enabling legislation will set up the mechanics of the creation of a board. The source of revenue will come from the city governed by city council.

MR. ANDREWS:

Your recommendation as to the number of persons serving under the commissioners, will that be determined by council or by the commissioners?

MR. MEADE:

It will be presented to council. Council will have the final say.

MR. ANDREWS:

To what extent, if any, will action regarding your charter be predetermined by your amendment resolution. If you set out too much in your resolution for the amendment, you then prescribe certain limitations upon your charter. How are you going to get around that? You are rather definite in the resolution, which would take away the power of a charter commission.

MR. MEADE:

I don't think so.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

I assume the details are a matter for the legislature.

SENATOR BARR:

Did I understand you are still for a city government and a county government—two separate governments in this City of Philadelphia?

MR. MEADE:

We merge them.

SENATOR BARR:

You are still for the county commissioners and still for the mayor and council.

MR. MEADE:

The legislature will determine whether they are to be called the city commissioners or the county commissioners.

SENATOR DENT:

We are not interested in names.

MR. MEADE:

It will be up to the legislature to say whether the City or County of Philadelphia.

SENATOR DENT:

What we are trying to drive at is whether you are going to eliminate city or county government completely by the merger of the functions of the offices. In other words, can you explain to me why you need the county commissioners if you take the city offices and merge them with the county offices and get a single function of operation?

MR. MEADE:

Who would you have handle the election affairs?

SENATOR DENT:

I would have the same as any other county or city government have—the registration commission under your administrative body who will handle your tax assessments.

MR. MEADE:

That is a matter for the charter commission to determine.

SENATOR DENT:

Then, let's put it this way—it is also a matter for the charter commission to determine whether or not we have a single entity of government or duplicate government as we now have.

SENATOR WALKER:

If we have these consolidations, which will eliminate the city treasurer?

MR. MEADE:

We would have a new department.

SENATOR WALKER:

I am something like Senator Dent—I am trying to visualize, when consolidation takes place, what is eliminated. Would we eliminate a city treasurer or a receiver of taxes?

MR. MEADE:

They both lose their identity, and the two bureaus become one.

SENATOR WALKER:

Just one receiver of taxes or city treasurer whose job would be to collect the taxes and disperse the funds.

MR. MEADE:

That is right.

SENATOR WALKER:

In these consolidations you are consolidating the recorder of deeds and the register of wills. What would we save by doing that? As near as I could figure out, it means just one top salary—you either fire the recorder of deeds or the register of wills—probably recorder of deeds.

MR. MEADE:

There would be a merging of the two bureaus, centralizing their activities. If there are now any dualities in the performance of bureaus, it would be eliminated.

SENATOR WALKER:

We wouldn't save many employees would we?

MR. MEADE:

I don't know.

SENATOR WALKER:

You were for senatorial and legislative reapportionment. You mean in 1949?

MR. MEADE:

That is right.

SENATOR WALKER:

How long has it been since they had ward reapportionment in Philadelphia?

MR. MEADE:

I don't know.

MR. LEE:

1854.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

When was the last time?

MR. SCHWARTZ:

General reapportionment—1854. Since then, you have had a number of quarter session proceedings which subdivided the wards until, at present, there are 52.

SENATOR WALKER:

Would it help to streamline this consolidated government if the wards are reapportioned in the City of Philadelphia?

MR. MEADE:

That would not have any effect.

SENATOR WALKER:

Will you eliminate city council entirely if this new consolidation goes through?

MR. MEADE:

The charter commission will have a recommendation on that.

SENATOR WALKER:

How will the charter commission be selected—appointed by somebody or elected by the people?

MR. MEADE:

The legislation creating that commission, as recommended by us, is now in the process of preparation.

SENATOR WALKER:

What do you recommend—election or appointment?

MR. MEADE:

That has not been determined. It will be in final form by the time the next legislature convenes.

MR. ANDREWS:

If you are going to go so far in setting up the structure of city government in your amendment resolution, don't you take too much away from your charter commission? It seems to me you are over definite in your amendment resolution. You don't leave the charter commission enough scope.

MR. MEADE:

We are following the legal belief we must be uniform with the other counties and, therefore, must retain these constitutional offices.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Thank you very much, Mr. Meade. The next witness is Mr. Walter P. Miller representing the Committee of 70.

MR. MILLER:

MEMO TO: JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

FROM: THE COMMITTEE OF SEVENTY 1202 Land Title Bldg., Phila. 10, Pa.

RE: LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM FOR PHILADELPHIA

PRESENTED

BY: WALTER P MILLER, JR., CHAIRMAN

Gentlemen:

Our Committee is a non-partisan, organization of long standing in Philadelphia concerned solely with better government of the City. We appreciate this opportunity to present to your Commission suggestions for a legislative program which we believe will simplify our governmental structure, make it more workable for our public officials and more responsive to the people. Even though you have or can get the best workmen, you still need good tools to do an effective job. Therefore, in order to provide these tools for those who must operate our local government, we make these proposals to your Commission.

On July 19, 1948, our Committee as one of a group of five organizations, with Mr. Arthur Kaufman as spokesman, appeared before a sub-committee of your Commission and recommended for your consideration the following four point program.

1. The consolidation of the County offices of Philadelphia with the City of Philadelphia, thus completing a task that was started in 1854.
We list this consolidation first because it is the essential part of a program to place the administrative and fiscal control of our local government directly under the Mayor and City Council.
2. The grant of Home Rule so that the future the public officials and the citizens of Philadelphia can frame, revise, amend and adopt their own charter within constitutional limits.
3. The second passage of the Smith Resolution by the 1949 session. Thus, subject to the affirmative vote of the people, Philadelphia will secure a more stable Constitutional formula for determining the debt limit and borrowing power.
4. Combining the duties of registering voters and conducting elections under one board or commission.
Several methods are proposed for combining the functions into one board; placing all duties under the Registration Commission, creating a new Election Commission and transferring all duties to the County Commissioners under the existing County Board of Elections. For simplicity and uniformity throughout the State, we suggest all matters concerning elections and registering voters be placed under the County Board of Elections.

After further study of these proposals, we believe the enactment of this legislation will pave the way for streamlining and simplifying the administration of local government in Philadelphia. Therefore, we again recommend them to your consideration as a basic part of any legislative program for the City.

Since the hearing before your Commission in July, our Committee has continued to study the matter of remedial legislation for Philadelphia and we have conferred repeatedly with the representatives of other agencies and individuals interested in the welfare of Philadelphia. As a result of these conferences and studies, we would like to supplement this four point program by including several additional recommendations.

First a new legislative charter to be considered by the '49 legislature. In 1938 Mr. Thomas Evans—a member of the Executive Board of our Committee—was Chairman of the Philadelphia Charter Commission which produced a new charter for the City. That Charter has been twice revised, the latest revision being incorporated in Mr. Evans' pamphlet entitled "Demand for Action" dated September 1948. In order to save your time, we suggest that pamphlet as the basis for the charter but with the following further suggestions for your consideration which have the approval of our Executive Board.

- (1) The Council of eleven members should be increased so that there would be one councilman for each 150,000 residents or fraction thereof, based upon the last U. S. Census. (Our present population would provide for fourteen councilmen.)
- (2) One councilman should be elected from each State Senatorial district (our present councilmanic districts), and the remainder elected at large. Thus, we would have eight elected by districts and six at large.
- (3) Candidates for Council should appear on the ballot under party designations. In voting for candidates at large, a voter be limited to a choice of two-thirds of the number to be elected. This procedure is now used in Philadelphia to provide minority representation in the election of Magistrates and County Commissioners.
- (4) The Fairmount Park Commission and the Planning Commission to remain as presently provided for in the Charter of 1919.
- (5) The Civil Service Commission to be appointed by the Mayor, with the approval of the majority of Council. Residence requirement be waived in the selection of a Personnel Director and the Chief Examiner of the Commission. Assistant Directors of departments and a Chief Clerk or a Secretary for each department head and the Mayor be removed from the classified service.
- (6) A competitive examination should be held by the Civil Service Commission to provide a list of eligible candidates for appointment by the Mayor to the Board of Assessment Appeals.
- (7) The proposal that the limitations on loans for capital projects be reduced by 2% annually should be eliminated. This should be left to the discretion of our public officials.

- (8) Provision for a City Manager be included in the charter in order to relieve the Mayor of the burden of administrative detail in the conduct of municipal affairs.

Most changes in this proposed charter have been advocated for years by many groups in Philadelphia and are largely non-controversial. The primary objective of this charter is to simplify immediately the governmental structure and consolidate like functions immediately before the benefits of city county consolidation are available. Probably the most important single feature is to coordinate all fiscal functions into a Department of Finance, an improvement which will help to prevent repetition of a current situation now under investigation in the office of the Receiver of Taxes.

There are in addition to these proposals four other tools which we believe are necessary for good governmental operation.

- (1) Legislation providing a merit system for the employees in all County offices in Philadelphia. This will afford these employees the same protection and security in their positions that is now enjoyed by the city employees covered by civil service provisions of the charter.
- (2) Legislation repealing those provisions of the Pennsylvania Election Code which prohibit candidates for public office from being candidates on more than one political party or political body. (The only exception at present is a candidate for the office of Judge of a Court of Record.) Also the provision which requires independent candidates or political bodies to file nomination papers for the general election, twenty days before a primary election.
- (3) Revision of the provisions of the Election Code to remove the restriction that watchers for a political party or a candidate must reside within the election district in which they serve.
- (4) Legislation to empower the Governor or his duly appointed representatives to investigate the official conduct of public affairs and public officials in political subdivisions of the Commonwealth, to provide funds for the investigation, and to require the attendance of witnesses. A similar law (the Moreland Act) has been in effect in New York State for over twenty years and has helped to produce better government in the municipalities.

We realize your Commission has received volumes of written material and drafts of proposed bills concerning legislation for Philadelphia and that today you will receive many other suggestions. Therefore, we have restricted our presentment of the principles involved and have not drafted the details into the form of legislative bills.

We believe under the guidance of your Commission, the State Legislative Reference Bureau is far better equipped and qualified to do this work. Therefore, after you have given due consideration to all proposals and have them welded together, we believe your Commission will present to the General Assembly a sound legislative program that will warrant the interest and support of all groups and individuals interested in promoting the welfare of Philadelphia and its people.

SENATOR DENT:

I am still probably trying to get one thing through my head. Under your recommendation you would have city and county government as one unit.

MR. MILLER:

That is right sir.

SENATOR BARR:

You don't go along with Mr. Meade that there should still be a county and city government.

MR. MILLER:

I am afraid I was confused by Mr. Meade.

SENATOR BARR:

He still had the offices of county commissioner and mayor. You are for real consolidation.

MR. MILLER:

Definitely so insofar as it can definitely be carried out without losing any functions necessary to the city; and the resulting offices, after consolidation, would be city offices.

SENATOR WALKER:

Does your plan call for the election of city council also?

MR. MILLER:

Yes. Fourteen at the present time.

SENATOR WALKER:

What would be the function of city council?

MR. MILLER:

It would have the legislative and appropriating functions—it would control the pursestrings.

SENATOR WALKER:

What would be the function of the county commissioners?

MR. MILLER:

That would remain to be determined. There would be no country commissioners as such. We recommended that the county board of elections should control elections at this point; but we did that because we know that city-county consolidation is a matter of some years hence.

SENATOR WALKER:

Would the board of elections be appointed or elected?

MR. MILLER:

I think they should be appointed.

SENATOR WALKER:

By whom?

MR. MILLER:

Possibly the board of judges. I think they should be appointed, but I am not sure who should appoint them. I am not prepared for that.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

You would leave that to the legislature?

MR. MILLER:

That should be examined by your commission.

SENATOR HEYBURN:

Recommendation number five—consolidation of the registration commission and the county commissioners into a single board—I suppose that is probably what Meade had in mind.

MR. MILLER:

That they are complimentary functions should be kept in mind.

SENATOR DENT:

He recommends that they be merged and a single board be made out of them.

SENATOR WALKER:
